Is your Life Worth a Dollar?

Perhaps that seems a high price for it, considering how poor your blood is, and how your whole system is prostrated, debilitated, and enfeebled. People have been heard to say, under such circumstances, that they would not give the toss of a copper for the choice between life and death. But when it comes to actually drawing near the grave, a man naturally draws back, and says he does not want to die. Life is very precious, and even to a broken-down man it is worth

One dollar will buy a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. That one dollar may start you on the road from misery to recovery. A man must take a very mean view of himself who is not willing to invest that much in making one serious effort to rescue himself from deadly debility, and to step into the enjoyment of solid health. Brown's Iron Bitters vitalizes the blood, tones the nerves, and rebuilds the system. Its work is well known. Invest that dollar in a

Admiration WORLD. Mrs.S.A.Allen's Hair Restorer

> Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald," This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"Gns Bottle did 12." That is the chartesion of many who have had that gray hair restored to as natural color, and their hald spot corted with hair, after many one bottle of Mas, S. A. Atten's World's Hair Restores. It is supported by the color of the color of

The hens upon the seedy floor,
Are scratching for the scattered grain;
While chanticleer a challenge heurs,
And answers back in deafening strain.

Old Charley in the stall below Keeps grinding at the clover hay, And tries with many an angry stamp To drive the saucy flies away.

A gush of laughter greets my ears, As up the ladder, lithe and gay, They come to seek for hidden eggs, And frolic on the fragrant hay.

If you can pick up one that has fallen from her head, that's a deal better. Some fellows have followed a girl for squares, just because a hair pin looked as though it meant to drop soon. What do they do with them? Put them into an album. They get scrap books, and push the pins through like needles. Then the girl's name, style of beauty and estimated age are written below.

And right here lies the cardinal difference between the two parts of the country: Here you are well paid for your work, and no one thinks less of you for earning your own bread. In the South, the knowledge that a woman works for her own living, puts her to some extent in a circle side."—[New York Times.
