

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Monday Morning, October 29.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier... OFFICE: o. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's fall goods. Additional locals on seventh page. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Boshnell's.

The new Government building seems very slow in getting started. The Spiritualists held another of their happy sessions Saturday night.

The Oakland Acorn comes out in an enlarged form, and fuller of local news than ever. Young Kasson, charged with stealing a railway ticket, is not to have a hearing for a day or two yet.

The weather has been horrible for street improvements, and the street improvements have been horrible for the weather. The case of Smith, charged with stealing a watch from Mr. Davis, has been continued until the latter part of the week.

All who attended the Royal Arcanum social last Friday night, and of the series, are enthusiastic in their expressions of the delightful time had. Two plain drunks, one named Stringer and the other Dawby, were disposed of by Judge Aylesworth Saturday by the usual fine.

A concert and hall is to be given at Dohany's hall Saturday, November 3d, for the benefit of the German Lutheran church. A hotel waiter named Rainey, for getting mad and slapping the mouth of a fellow waiter, was on Saturday called on to pay $7.50.

Charles Barghausen is the latest winner of the prize medal at St. Joseph's academy for attending his books during the past two weeks. If more street lamps or electric light towers are not put on lower Broadway, any number of drownings, swappings and breaking of legs may be looked for.

The new front in Mauer & Craig's building is about completed, and is certainly one of the most handsome if not the most handsome front in the city. Judge Gregory at Afton, Iowa, has granted an injunction against the tax recently voted by Creston in favor of the projected diagonal railway.

The funeral of Mrs. Fred Dingle's mother took place yesterday afternoon at Mr. Dingle's home, on Third avenue between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets. Those of the railroad friends of Joe Devore who desire to attend the funeral, at Glenwood, this afternoon, will be furnished free transportation over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy.

Among the political muttering and gossiping is that the residents of the Second ward are already planning to elect an alderman next spring from the lower part of the ward. Dr. Deethen has purchased of California parties the lot on the southeast corner of Broadway and Eighth street, and proposes to put up a brick building thereon.

Rev. and Mrs. P. F. Breesee seem to be appreciated in their new home in Los Angeles, California. Their new friends have presented them with a horse, harness and carriage. It is now said that John Martin, the plumber who skipped out of Council Bluffs so unceremoniously at work in Chicago. His wife remained here when he left, and finally disappeared, it is supposed to join him.

Metcalf Bros., whose enterprise is always reaching out for improvement and enlargement, have added to their clothing establishment a cash system and placed J. B. Rhodes in the position of cashier. The body of Joseph Devore, who was killed while coupling cars at the Union Pacific transfer, has been taken to Glenwood by his brother, and the funeral services will be held at that place this afternoon.

ought not the contract with that paper to be annulled? Mrs. Lawrence, living on Bluff street, had a narrow escape from choking to death Saturday, a small piece of bone from a mutton chop being the cause of the trouble. Dr. Cook was summoned just in time to relieve her.

The Presbyterian church of Red Oak, having called Rev. George Ainslie to its pastorage, arrangements have been made for installing him to-morrow night. Rev. S. L. McAfee to preside and deliver the charge to the congregation, Rev. R. A. McKinly to deliver the charge to the pastor, and Rev. D. W. Cassat to preach the sermon.

Robert Sturman an Omaha bricklayer, who was arrested on suspicion of being concerned with J. C. Smith in the robbing of a cowboy at the Broadway hotel, was discharged Saturday, there being no evidence against him, and so he was the officials with his innocence, the certificate stating the fact was given him.

The street car company is to make numerous changes. Among them is the doing away with conductors, and the putting in of boxes in which the passengers will deposit the fare themselves. Several new cars are to be put on, and it is expected there will be some changes made in the track. Some of the changes will probably be made before the middle of next month.

The Democratic uncertainty is improving in the quality of its reading matter, due largely to the fact that it is doing more clipping and less writing, but when it steals an article bodily from an Omaha paper and inserts it as Council Bluffs local, it should be careful in changing the locality of the "ungrateful tramp." In striking out "Chicago street" Omaha and making it read "Sixteenth avenue street," Council Bluffs, it makes a naughty sort of break.

The Council Bluffs BEE office, by adding a job office for the doing of fine commercial printing, has succeeded in satisfying many of the business men of the city. The fact that no work can be had in any office in the country than that had here. With all material new and of the latest styles, and in the hands of artists in their line, The BEE job office is furnishing its patrons work which pleases in every instance, and as a consequence orders are coming in so that the job department is kept crowded with work.

Mayor Bowman has issued a notice for all vagrants and idlers to get out of the city by Monday night, or else—what? Probably another proclamation will be issued at them. If the order is carried out and the offenders men and crooks run in as fast as they show their faces, it would be a blessing to Council Bluffs. The proclamations in the past have amounted to little. If proclamations had been of any account the board of health would have had the city cleaned up last summer. Unlicensed dogs would have been killed; sidewalk obstructions would have been removed; cattle would have been impounded and many other things done. "The way to resume is to resume," and the way to execute law and enforce ordinances, is to enforce them with as little waste of time in issuing proclamations as possible.

Casady & Orcutt, big stock of Carpets. CHANGING LANDLORDS. County Superintendent Coy Goes In to the Hotel Business. The Coy house, at the corner of Broadway and Seventh street has changed hands, the new landlord being none other than J. K. Cooper, county superintendent of schools. He will not only make an excellent landlord, but he has such a large acquaintance in the city and country that a liberal patronage is assured from the start. In making the change J. F. Farrar, the landlord who now retires, was on Saturday evening the victim of a happy surprise. A number of the boarders surrounding and capturing him, while Mr. Cooper in their behalf presented to him an elegant gold-headed cane as an expression of their good will and esteem. Mr. Farrar responded as well as a man could under such circumstances, and the event was, all in all, a joyous one.

Cornices and poles are the cheapest at E. Stockert & Co.'s, 309 Broadway. THE CAMP-FIRE. The Veterans Gladly Gather About It and Warm Up. On Saturday evening the members of the Abe Lincoln post, G. A. R., gathered with their families at their hall and had as joyous a campfire as has occurred for a long time. There were about 100 old soldiers, with their wives and children, who joined in the happy occasion. Story telling, addresses, reminiscences, etc., filled up the early part of the evening, with an "infantry drill," by the little folks. There was an abundance of edibles, served well and a merry dance closed the evening's entertainment, which was in all respects a success.

THE UNION PACIFIC. How About Giving It Durant Street for Another Sidetrack?

The desire felt to have Durant street given up to the Union Pacific railway company for sidetrack has been embodied in an ordinance which has been presented to the council and passed on second reading. The agricultural dealers, whose large warehouses are located on lower Main street, are the ones most to be accommodated by this line of track, and their wishes in the matter should be most carefully considered, as they are doing an extensive business, and have large property interests. They should be given all the chances possible and the greatest encouragement to stay here, as they are doing more for Council Bluffs than any other single line of business. As for the Union Pacific, its wishes in the matter are not entitled to any special consideration at present. Before any further grants are given that company it should be compelled to make good its part of the contract already made with the city in regard to Union avenue. It has not yet put on its double track, its trains do not run every half hour as promised, its first dummy in the morning does not leave Council Bluffs until 8 o'clock, so that it gives no chance for men to live on this side and work in Omaha, but the train does leave Omaha early enough to permit of a person living in Omaha and working in Council Bluffs.

Its ferry cars do not come up to Broadway, so that freight teams and persons desiring to go to Omaha in carriages, have to go clear to the transfer as before, and through most horrible mud, as the Union Pacific by its track has taken up Union avenue, the only direct way of getting there by teams. As a result, for instance, the brick which was constantly being sent to Omaha, has to stay in the yards here, and other branches of business are likewise affected. Before any more streets are given to the Union Pacific, or any more rights granted them, it would be well to insist on the fulfillment of promises already made, and the carrying out of contracts already entered into.
