-The practice of throwing paper upon the street is a bad one at any time, and particularly so when the wind is blowing a gale as it has been the greater part of this week. Huge pieces of paper were blowing about the business streets in every direction yesterday, and it not only gives to our thoroughfares a very untidy appearance, but is a dangerous practice, as these flying banners are enough to frighten

In several places along Davenport street, between Seventeenth and Twentieth, the fire hydrants stand out near the middle of the sidewalk, and scarcely a night passes in which some one does not get hurt by falling over them. Thurrday a lady ran against the one at Seventeeeth street, fell over on her face and was severely injured. Mr. A'exanwho was passing at the time, assisted the lady home and tells us that he thinks her front teeth were broken in. In view of the frequency of these mishaps, it seems as angh something ought to be done to remedy

Sunday Work.

Circumstances justify the Christian people of our city to stand up now and declare that the Sabbath day is God's holy day. Are the Christian people to be called inveterate kickers for standing up for truth and order? True Christianity builds up a people, makes our Sabbath laws for the comfort and good of all mankind. Open violation of one of our best laws has been the curse of our city much too long. Sunday desecrators boast and tell how many yards of paving they have laid, in the very face of our churches and all Gospel light. Where are our Christian teachers? Are there no more than one like Lot in our city, with all her churches, to stand up and declare righteousness. Would it not be better for the Christian people to make an effort to enforce our Sunday law before they say nothing can be done? If our Sabbath law is a dead letter the sooner the courts so decide upon it the better for the Christian public. A. J. PECK.

STARK'S FATAL SHOT.

Further Particulars of the Murder Which He Committed at Vicksburg.

The killing of D. R. Allen, at Vicksburg, by Frank E. Stark, seems to have been an unprovoked murder. Stark, during his stay in Omaha of some weeks last spring, made many friends here, who have been slow to be lieve that he could commit a cold-blooded murder. While here he conducted him self as a gentleman, and appeared to be agent, went into the dressing-room where Allen and his wife were getting ready to go on the stage. After having some words with Allen the intruder drew a pistol, but was disarmed by Mrs. Allen. Stark was then thrust out of the dressing-room into the hall, but before getting there he secured his pistol. Allen fol-lowed Stark into the hall, where the latter fired four shots at him, two taking effect, one passing through the heart. he expressed no regret. Allen was a native of Brooklyn, 55 years old. Stark is a native of New York, 22 years old.

Arrival of 17,500 Fish for Distribution in Western States and Territories.

A car belonging to the United States fish commission arrived in Omaha from the east yesterday morning. It contains a large lot of fish which are to be distributed among several Western States and Territories. The car is in charge of J. F. Ellis, messenger, Mr. Herbert Gill is the disbursing officer. They were met here by Hon. W. L. May, of Fremont, of the State fish commission.

The number of fish carried in the car is 17,500, and are all carp, with the exception of a few gold fish, to be given away. They are to be distributed in Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and California. Over 2,000 fish will be distributed to Nebraska. Fifteen hundred of these will be given to the State fish commission and will be taken to the hatchery at South Bend. Senator Van Wyck will receive 200 of them, and the emainder of the State share will be divided among parties who have made personal application.

The car in which the finny tribe are transported is an elegant one. It is of the Pullman pattern and is equipped with all modern conveniences. There are six berths, and a corresponding number of lockers for clothing and small baggage. Also there are a bar, a dining room and a kitchen. These are fully fitted up as they should be. A handsomely furnished private office and a convenient toilet room are also included in the apart-

The fish are kept in small tin pails which are placed in tanks at each side of the car. At each end of the car is a friction pump, by which the water can be forced into the tanks while the train is in motion.
