

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Monday Morning, Nov. 19.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier - 20 cents per week; By Mail - $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

Notarial Seal--Best solid metal base $3.00. Novelty Works, 14th street. Oakland has another school. See Joseph Reiter's fall goods. Additional local on seventh page. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. The G. A. R. masquerade this evening. The deaf and dumb institute has a new and handsome iron fence. The Shenandoah college now has 250 students and eleven instructors. Ten coopers wanted by Joseph Ross, Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs. Saturday was a dull day in police court. Not even a case of drunk. The Round Table meets to-morrow evening at the residence of Mr. A. B. Walker. Collections were taken up in the churches yesterday for the benefit of the Bible society. St. Patrick's Benevolent society is to have a dance at St. Joseph's academy hall on the evening of the 27th. Julius Schneider, of Schneider & Beck is happy and proud. He ought to be. It is not only a boy, but a bouncer--twelve pounds. The man Hough, charged with stealing a $20 gold piece of a Broadway grocer, has been discharged by Justice Abbott. Permit to enter wedlock was yesterday given to Michael Jonas Bagley, of Omaha, and Catherine Lafferty, of Harrison county. Alex. McChargue, who did the shooting recently at Solomon's, has been held in $500 bonds for the next term of the court in Mills county. The first annual ball of the mail carriers is to be given at Bloom & Nixon's hall, Wednesday evening, November 28. The boys should have a crowd. A number of Odd Fellows from this city are planning to go to Missouri Valley next Thursday to attend the dedication of the new hall there. Remember the veterans masquerade at Bloom & Nixon's hall to-night. It is for the relief of the orphans and widows of deceased soldiers and soldiers. F. M. Phillips and J. W. Crank, the brothers-in-law who became brothers-in-law in a double sense on account of a family row, have been fined $9.00 each. At the Baptist church last evening the pastor gave a sermon on "Buddhism." A very timely discourse in view of the recent entertainments given by Sau-Ah-Brah. Mr. Buchanan, of Harrison county, has purchased an interest in the drug house of O. H. Brown & Co., and is to make his home here, the new firm to be Brown & Buchanan. The annual meeting of the Pottawattamie county Bible society is to be held this evening in the Presbyterian church. Officers will be elected and addresses delivered. Everybody invited. A. F. Wilson, who is in the employ of Smith & Crittenden, has fallen the victim of a thief, who stole his overcoat and some other clothing. He found where part of the plunder was sold and recovered it. Rev. Mr. Mackay, the rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, is to give a lecture next Thursday evening at Do-hany's hall. Subject: "An Unwritten Story." It will be illustrated by the stereopticon. The masquerade to be given this evening by the Abe Lincoln Post, G. A. R., is for the benefit of widows and orphans of deceased soldiers. Besides having a merry time, those who attend will have the pleasant consciousness of helping a most worthy cause. The Home of the Friendless realized $50 profit from the Sau-Ah-Brah entertainments. The total receipts were $150, out of which Mr. Dehany was paid $30 for the hall, he giving it at half price. Sau Ah-Brah was paid $60, and incidental expenses were about $10. The County Bible Society will hold its annual meeting at the Presbyterian Church this evening. Officers for the next year will be elected, and other business transacted. Appropriate addresses will be delivered, and it is hoped that a large congregation will be present. E. M. Parsons, of Cornell county, while returning with a hunting party from Storm Lake, met with a serious accident. The wagon ran into a "chuck hole," causing Mr. Parson's gun to go off, sending the charge through his left arm, about four inches above the wrist. The injured member had to be amputated. One of the porters at the Union Pacific hotel has been raising some hogs, which he has nicely cared for in a pen. Yesterday morning he found that some one had killed the entire lot, five in number, having shot them and also cut their throats and piled them on top of each other. He is naturally hot, and is sharp after the man who did the slaughtering. The public schools will open this morning at 9:15 by the Bloomer school building clock, now standard time, instead of 9 o'clock. The allowance of fifteen minutes is made lest there might be confusion in regard to change of time. Pupils who are in their places before the Bloomer clock shows 9:15 this morning will escape a tardy mark. All should bear this in mind. Mr. Pierce on Saturday filed a complaint against a man named Greenwalt, the driver of an express wagon, for obtaining goods under false pretenses. He claimed that Greenwalt bought a mattress and a comfortable under the pretense that he wanted them for his father's wife, who was sick, and that he would take them up and show them to her, and if it suited her, he would come back and pay for them. Mr. Pierce says he not only failed to come back, but that he had no wife to show them to and that he sold the goods to a second-hand dealer. Sharp, one of the tailors arrested for stealing some clothing belonging to some fellow tailors, has been discharged, and on Saturday hurried across the river to Omaha. Loring is to have his examination to-day. An old man, from somewhere in Nebraska, arrived here Saturday with what he thought to be some startling information, to the effect that the two men had sold some stolen clothing at his place. He wanted to get some pay, either out of the men for keeping still, or out of the authorities for turning up the property. He thought Sharp and Loring were the men, but in this he was probably mistaken, as they were here at the time he says the clothing was sold in Nebraska. Among the attractive features of the fair, which the Catholic ladies are arranging for Christmas week, will be the awarding to the most popular yardmaster of an elegant gold watch, worth $225. Mrs. M. E. Keating is securing cash contributions for the purchase of the watch, and is meeting with good success. Among the generous contributors are Mayor Bowman and Judge James. What money is realized from the voting will therefore be all clear profit to the society. The building of the new church, which is an improvement and will prove a great credit to the city, is an enterprise, which demands much money, and as the fair is one of the means toward securing some of that money, every detail should be heartily supported and encouraged. The Union Pacific does not seem in a hurry to comply with the conditions under which Union avenue was given up to it. There are no half-hour trains yet, and the policy of the company is now as before, decidedly against the interests of Council Bluffs. It keeps as many laborers as possible in Omaha, and many of its employes are forced to live on that side, although their work on this side. Workingmen can live in Omaha and have an early train to get over to the Bluffs, but if they want to live on this side they cannot get any early train to go over to Omaha. A train leaves Omaha for Council Bluffs at 6:15 a. m., while the first train from this side over is 8 o'clock. The Union Pacific having been given a $40,000 avenue should at least treat Council Bluffs fairly, but it does not seem disposed to do so. Still there are many who are in favor of giving them whatever they ask for and taking whatever they choose to give.

MAKING READY. The Promise of Electric Light for Council Bluffs Next Week. There has been so much talk about electric light in Council Bluffs, and so many propositions and promises from various companies, that many begun to lose all faith in any at all. But it seems now that something is really to be done, and that soon. Mr. Vaughan, who has the management of the Pitcher light, is home again, and one of the dynamo machines, weighing 6,000 pounds, is here ready to be put in place, and others will follow as the need of them arises. A place has been secured, and the expert electrician is expected to arrive to-day, when the work will commence in earnest, with the expectation that by next Monday Council Bluffs will have the electric light in active operation. Council Bluffs needs electric lighting, and the quicker it is started the better.

MAURER & CRAIG'S. Holiday Opening. Monday afternoon and evening, November 19th. A call respectfully solicited. Six per cent city and farm loans. S. W. Ferguson & Co., 39 Pearl St. AT THE TRACK. The Races Yesterday Afternoon and the Result. There was a fair sized crowd to witness the promised races at the driving park on Saturday afternoon. The first event was the trot between Dr. Carey's "Dave" and Black Frank, owned by Mr. Gilmore. Dave won the first heat in 2:52, but Frank took the two next and the race in 2:47 and 2:46. The pacing contest was between Mr. Weathersby's Bay Billy and Gary Owen. Bay Billy won the first heat in 2:42, Gary Owen winning the other three and the race in 2:37, 2:36 and 2:41. Cut rates to all points at McAllister's ticket office, 505 Broadway, Council Bluffs. Out On Bail. Holly Lewis, who got in serious trouble at Des Moines by killing Fagan, in a dispute over the occupancy of a bed, arrived at his home here Saturday. The grand jury has brought in an indictment for murder in the second degree, the vote being just the number necessary to bring the indictment in. The judge fixed the bail at $7,000, cutting it down from what the Justice fixed it at, and then let young Lewis come back here to fix up a new bond, giving him a note to the effect that he should not be molested until he had time to arrange his bond. It seems rather a strange proceeding to let a man charged with murder, go two hundred miles or so to get his own bail without any officer accompanying him, but it is very certain in this case that Lewis is the last one who would ever betray such confidence, and he is as anxious to have the case tried as the prosecution can be. Lewis is at present employed in G. J. Beckman's harness shop on Main street, and will return to Des Moines with his bail this week, and as soon as possible will settle down as his regular work again.

MAKING TIME.

How the Change of Time has Affected Council Bluffs--Somewhat Mixed Yet.

Yesterday, as the clock on the Bloomer school building struck the hour of 12, those who were watching the dial noticed that the hands were soon moved forward to 21 minutes past twelve, thus announcing to the public that the change from local time to the new standard or central time was at least endorsed by the school board.

A large number of citizens yesterday changed their time pieces to conform, and others will also do so speedily. There seems to be a general disposition in this city to make the new time that is in common use local, as few cities have been more perplexed by a multiplicity of time than Council Bluffs. The Ogden house manager yesterday declined to change his clock, giving as a reason, that only two of the railways, the Chicago & Rock Island and the C. B. & Q., had yet made the change, and that when the others changed that clock would be changed, and not before, lest by setting the clock back nine minutes some of the guests who wanted to catch trains running on Chicago time might get left.

The clock in the city building was also changed, and the mayor has ordered city employers to regulate themselves accordingly. It will take several days at the best before the change can be made to work satisfactorily. The Union Pacific is to run on Mountain time, but whether its dummy trains will also run on that, or on central time seems to be a matter not yet decided. During the period of change there will naturally be much confusion, so that all the present effect of the new time is to add one more application to the problem of determining the question, "What time is it?" There is now, in addition to Chicago time, local time and St. Louis time, the new or standard time. These, with the uncertainty of the correctness of the time piece one is guided by, puts Council Bluffs in a worse fix than ever; but if the other railways all adopt the standard, and the local time is made the same, these difficulties will soon be over. In the meantime there will be more questions and more uncertain answers than all over, and more patience needed all around.

Save fuel and keep out dust by using "Perfection" weather strip, the latest and best thing of the kind. Call and see it at Beard's wall paper store.

Something of a Scramble.

The political situation in Iowa has received considerable airing through the newspapers lately, and the scramble for the offices at the distribution of the legislature and governor has become something of a contagion. Hon. B. F. Clayton, of our neighboring town of Macedonia, is the foremost candidate for speaker of the house. We hope Mr. Clayton will be fortunate enough to secure the plum, for he is deserving and able. For the position of State binder there are numerous applicants. The claims of Mr. S. T. Walker, of the Council Bluffs Daily Herald, are, we think, entitled to first consideration. Mr. E. H. Odell, also of the Bluffs, will be a candidate for the appointment of assistant secretary of state. With the numerous candidates which this county has in the field for district and circuit judge, it looks as if we will likely get our share of the crumbs which fall from Uncle Sam's table if we are not ignored altogether, which is not likely in the banner county of the State.
