LOCAL BREVITIES.

-Two of Europe's most noted divines, Per-Hyacinthe and Mgr. Capel, will visit Omaha this winter. -About noon each day the sidewalk at point between Harney and Howard streets, on Fourteenth street, is filled with horses. The feed stable located at that place has its watering trough located upon the walks, and it is impossible for any one to pass unless they step out in the street. It is a nuisance, and some move should be made toward its abatement.

-The work of grading on Jackson street, between Sixteenth and Eighteenth streets. was prosecuted with great effect yesterday.

-Trinity Cathedral was filled to overflow ing yesterday meraing. While a large revenue is derived from the renting of pews in this church, yet this feature is not without its drawbacks, and one of the most serious ones is the fact that strangers attending the services are compelled to stand until the pew renters have all been seated, when they are given seats, provided there are any left.

-The paving force worked yesterday and made considerable progress.

-The board of public works held a shor meeting Saturday evening. The principal business transacted was the consideration of plans and specifications for cleaning the paved streets with hose and machinery. Bids for the ninth to the city limits will be advertised for The remainder of the evening was occupied -The afternoon U. P. train from the west due at 3:20, was an hour late yesterday. The delay was caused by waiting for a train at North Platte.

-The U.S. fish commission car, which ar with the noon train yesterday. During Satby many people. The car was greatly admired, and the great fish exhibit was a surhorn and Platte rivers.

-W. H. Kent, coroner elect, was sworn in Saturday to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. O'Rourke. The doctor resigns after holding the office a month as the ficer.

-The proprietors of the Union were arrested Saturday afternoon upon a charge of criminal libel, at the instance of Dr. Gros.man, of As has been said, Mr. Detwiler's death inal libel, at the instance of Dr. Grosaman, of this city. The libel charged is in the publication of a sensational story concerning the doctor's domestic affairs. The men arrested went to the police court and gave ball in the sum of $500 for their appearance before the Grand Jury.

market house, and the matter enforcing the law to prevent stook from running at large. Other matters, of both local and national importance, will also come before the meeting. A large attendance of the board is desired.

-Two persons were arrested and locked up for drunkenness, at an early hour last evening. One of them is an old man, whose face and clothing was covered with blood-the effect of having fallen on the pavement,

-Work has been commenced upon the tower of the new English Lutheran church, corner of Harney and Sixteenth streets.

-The appearance of the large white foo prints on several business streets Saturday morning is conclusive proof that Matt Clair must have leaped into a whitewash pond Friday and then started out on his usual rounds. At any rate if it wasn't Matt it must have been a very near relation.

-The Union Pacific base ball park, on St. Mary's avenue, is being converted into a skating rink. The ground is being covered with cement, and if the weather is propitious the gates will be thrown open to the public about Thanksgiving.

A stranger who has been on a four days' spree was run in Saturday morning. When he started in he was the possessor of $125 in gold, but when he cashed up in the city jail this morning he had ten cents in cash and seven Waterbury watches of the cheapest make,

The Home Circle Club gave their second monthly ball at Masonic hall Friday evening. The club is composed of about seventy of Omaha's first-class young men, and very enjoyable parties are given. The programme last evening consisted of eighteen of the late dances. The music was furnished by Irvine's orchestra, with O. Mathers as prompter, and as usual, was first class,

One of those dispicable characters known as tramps was run into jail Saturday morning. He has been here several times, and it seems impossible to get rid of him. A more dirty and filthy specimen of humanity could not well be imagined than is this one. The vermin are crawling over him in myriad forces, and yet he lives and breathes as natural as anybody.

-Another party of soldiers passed through here Saturday from Columbus, Ohio, for distribution among the western posts. They company B, Columbus.

There are to be continuous meetings held in the Baptist church, afternoon and evening, by Rev. W. H. Brown, of Chicago, Ill., who has also a teacher with him to take charge of the singing.

-Among the numerous physicians lately coming to Omaha is Dr. Armstrong, oculist was induced by the enterprise of our city to hack driver, who hauled him around the here to practice his specialty. We are glad to state that the doctor is doing exceedingly well for the few months he has been here and has already won an enviable reputation. We call attention to his card in another column.

A GOOD MAN GONE.

Death of John B. Detwiler, an Old Resident and Business Man.

Omaha Loses One of Its Best Citizer -His Career and Identity with the City's Interests.

The people of this city will be shocked o learn of the death of Mr. John B Detwiler, which occurred at his residence, 2116 California street, at half past five 'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Detwiler's death was not entirely unexpected, since the recent change for the worse in his condition. His illness was a long one. About five weeks ago he began to suffer from an attack which developed nto malignant sore throat. With this he was for a time in a critical condition and then became better. He was rapidy recovering from the affection of the throat, but last Wednesday ag attack of his death has been almost hourly expected. Yesterday morning at half past five he expired. Of Mr. Detwiler's health it may be said that he has been failing since last August. During the summer he made a trip to the Omaha reservation. On this trip he suffered great exposure, and it is thought that at that time he contracted a fever-the beginning of a long

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.

A Look Into the Matter of Electric Light In Omaha.

What is Being Done in That Direction, and Its Future Prospects.

The subject of electricity is one of great importance to the people of this land, and rapid strides are being made in the way of its subjection daily. Men of had been no trouble. great minds are constantly experimenting and trying newschemes by which to bring this mighty force to do their bidding, and the success which crowns their efforts is a matter of world-wide comment.

The electric light, although it has been in use for several years, has constantly been improved until it seems that the climax of success in that direction must have been reached, and yet, in all probability, it is but in its infancy.

Speaking of electric light, Omaha has it, and not a better system of lights is operated in any city in the country than that in use here. Friday, in company with ex-Governor Furnace and J. T. Clarke, general manager of the Northwestern Electric Light company in this city, a BEE reporter was permitted to fathom, to some extent, the electric light business in this city. The first place visited was the "plant" at the corner of Farnam and Tenth streets, where the finest and latest improved machinery is in position under the supervision of competent men. It is a sight of an evening of itself, but we were permitted to go farther. Mr. Clarke had in waiting a carrisge, and in company with himself ex-Governor Furnace and a Republican reporter, we were driven to the Willow Springs distillery, where the incandescent system of light is used, and were shown through the establishment. The incandescent ight is designed principally for counting rooms, private residences, etc. It is a more steady light, and far more pleasant and less severe upon the eyes. There are in the distillery buildings seventeen lights, and the machine which generates the electricity is placed in the engine room and is propelled by the same engine which turns the other machinery, and the cost of lighting the works is so small that it is not counted. The Northwestern company have made bank people, and in the course of a few weeks that building will all be lighted with the incandescent light. The Nebraska National bank is also considering the question of lighting their build-ing with the same light, and, in all prob-ability, when the incandescent light is put in use in the Omaha National bank, where it can easily be seen, many who now know little or nothing of its work-ings, will become enamored of it and at once follow suit and have their places of business lighted with the same. Another point in favor of the incandescent light is its cheapness, costing, as it does, from one to three dollars less per light per month than does the arc light. However, the rates of the arc light in this city are from 29 to 25 per cent. less than in Kan-sas City, Salt Lake and other western cities, and equally as low as in eastern cities.

The establishing of electric light in Omaha has been a losing investment from the start, until quite recently, when it reached a paying basis. We are pleased to note that it is daily growing more and more popular, and the com pany are constantly extending their nines, and the strenuous efforts made to please are being appreciated. However, the gentlemen composing the company, among which Mr. H. T. Clarke and Mr. make it a success in point of good light. whether financially or not.

The Paxton hotel has recently place certainly does add much to the effect. The patrons of the company are, without working of the light and with the liberal management in general of the company and new lamps are constantly being placed in position.

The services of one of the best elec the business, and any little irregularity The Northwestern company have made contracts with parties in several adjoining cities to put in a system of lights, It is to be hoped that at no distant day the city council may see fit to place elec oughfares of the city. After talking over the electire light business for two hours Mr. Clarke, with the two scribes, were driven to Higgins restaurant, where an elegant lunch was disposed of, after which we lighted a couple of Mr. Clarke's cigars with a couple of our matches and took our departure, mentally resolving that Mr. J. T. Clarke is a prince of good fellows and a royal entertainer while the electric The other lucky escape differs light is one of Omaha's greatest improve-

It is one of the oldest face powders in the American market, and is used in the families of some of our most prominent medical men.

The St. Paul folks have been dissatisfied with their percentage of the earnings and have been constantly "kicking" for more, and have at last resorted to this method to gain their ends.

Under the agreement made by all roads entering the pool, thirty days' no-tice must be given prior to withdrawal from the pool, and consequently matters will remain quiet for thirty days. At the expiration of that time the percentage of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road will be settled in a satisfactory manner to them or the ball will open in right good shape. The probabilities are that the differences will be settled satisfactorily to all parties concerned, and things will move right along as if there

A BEE reporter visited several of ticket offices in this city to ascertain how the representatives of the various roads felt in regard to the movement of the St. Paul folks, and they al with one accord declared it a bid from that road for a higher percentage of the pool earnings, and were each equally as confident that the matter would be fixed up before the expiration of the thirty days, and do not anticipate any railroad war between the Iowa trunk lines.
