WINNING OVER A MULE.

Wonderful Mesmeric Powers Displayed by a Negro.

A man and a mule stood on the corner of Park Row and Beekman street. The man was excited. The mule was not. A crowd of idlers formed a ring and gazed stolidly at the efforts of the man to start the mule. The mule stood still.

There was about the mule an air of gentle exuberance, mingled with a reserve, that protected her from the pointed remarks of coarse men. Her eyes—large and soulful—looked downward, and her ample ears sloped coyly toward a drooping tail. Her legs were spread out like the legs of a four-legged stool, and she seemed quite restful and at times even drowsy.

IOWA ITEMS.

The Fort Dodge public schools run on standard time.

The Rock Rapids flax mill has about 300 tons of straw on hand.

C. C. Matter has been re-elected principal of the Woodbine public schools.

The barbed-wire factory at Boone will have a capacity of 200 carloads per year.

About 300,000 bushels of potatoes have been shipped this season from Davenport.

The Methodist pastor at Estherville weighs 280 pounds, and is said to be a growing man.

Four deliveries of mail a day are now made in Cedar Rapids, instead of two as heretofore.

Storm Lake sidewalks are so worn that the Tribune fears that they may prove too expensive.

The vulgar writings on the fences and sidewalks of Corning has attracted the attention of the pulpit.

The Des Moines city hospital is in debt $607, and has grown to be a burden, and will be closed.

Miss Mattie Snodgrass, of Booneboro, a consumptive, while walking over the floor, sank down and expired.

Charley Buck, of Creston, has skipped out with a $100 of his employer's money, entrusted to him to buy cattle.

Jesse Wallace has lived on a farm three miles south of Ottumwa for forty years. He is now seriously ill.

The 2-year-old boy of Mrs. Ed. Wood died in Boone from the effects of crocote, a bottle of which the little one got hold of.

C. Bechtam, a Swede, was crushed to death in a Des Moines coal mine on the 23d. He had a wife and three children.

The Cedar Rapids packing house had cut 59,408 hogs up to Saturday night, against 26,219 for the same time last year.

John James, aged 22 years and a resident of Iowa City for twenty-seven years, suicided at Des Moines on the 24th inst. by poison.

The total valuation of property in Wapello county is $6,614,690, and the total amount of taxes to be raised is $224,768.

Miss Jennie Sower left Marshalltown on the 19th for southern California in the hope of benefit to her health. She died at Denning, N. M., on the 24th.

The trial of Phoebe Bentley, for the deadly assault on William Kennedy and the incidental killing of Frank Young in Clinton last September, has resulted in a verdict of "not guilty."

Rev. J. Bowman, has been forty-three years in the active ministry, and is the oldest in active service in the upper Iowa conference. He has preached between 7,000 and 8,000 sermons, and attended 300 funerals.

CONVINCING.

The proof of the pudding is not in chewing the string, but in having an opportunity to test the article direct. Schroter & Becht, the druggists, have a free trial bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup for each and every one who is afflicted with Cough, Colds, Asthma, Consumption or any Lung Affection. Trade supplied by C. F. Goodman.

Wanted a Will.

A colored man about sixty years of age, blind in one eye and walking with a cane, hobbled up stairs into the office of a Griswold street lawyer yesterday and announced that he desired to make his will.

"Get much property to leave?" asked the lawyer.

"Well, sah, Ize possessed of a dog, a cook-stove, a wheelbarrow, an' two flat-irons dat my fust wife left me."

"And who are you going to leave them to?"

"My darter, ober on Indiana street. Ize married agin, you know, an' I want to put dat property whar my present wife can't git it. She don't git nuttin' belongin' to me if I can help it."

"I will cost you $5 to have a will drawn."

"Shoo! Can't cost dat."

"Yes, it will."

"Den I reckon I'll administrate on my stuff afore I die. Would dat work?"

"Certainly."

"Den I'll run de dog off, lead de wheelbarrow, pocket de flatirons, an' stan' by de cook-stove outer de house de fust time de ole woman goes to de grocery. Kin I get a warrant leas?"

"What for?"

"Fur assault an' battery. When de ole woman finds what Ize done she'll walk all ober me, an' I might as well save time by gittin' out de warrant now."

He was directed to the proper place and he went away saying that it would perhaps be still better to have her arrested and sent up for ninety days in advance.

CAUSE OF FAILURE.

Want of confidence accounts for half of the business failures of today. Schroter & Becht, the druggists, are not liable to fail for the want of confidence in Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup, for they give away a bottle free to all who are suffering with Cough, Colds, Asthma, Consumption and all affections of the Throat and Lungs. Trade supplied by C. F. Goodman.

Official Vote of Pennsylvania.

The following is the official vote of Pennsylvania, compared with the vote of last year:

1882	1883
Beaver Stewart, R., 522,252	Livsey, R., 521,060
Fatterson, D., 345,791	Fowell, D., 350,569
Armstrong, G., 23,465	Marsh, G., 44,411
Haltz, F., 1,190	Howard, F., 6,527

The total vote cast in the state was 872,800 for president in 1880, and the vote cast for governor last year was 743,803. The vote this year was 239,633 less than the vote of three years ago and certainly 275,000 less than the legal vote of the state. There was manifest sluggishness on both sides, and even the democratic victory in Ohio that should have inspired the democrats and aroused the republicans, did not make the party voters respond to the call of their leaders. The notable feature of the returns this year is the diminished greenback vote. It rose to over 90,000 in 1878 for Chief Justice Agnew, and held up to 23,484 last year for governor, but now it is down to 4,452, while the prohibition vote is the largest since 1875, although it foots up only 6,527.

Trotters With Running Mates.

Trotters with running mates are becoming quite popular. One of the most exciting races of this kind was when Dan Mace drove Ethan Allen and running mate against Dexter in 2:15. Mace remarked after the race that he could have driven him in 2:08 if necessary, which time, within a half second, has lately been made by Frank. Years ago Mace predicted that two horses would trot faster together than one horse could if they were gaited alike, and that with a running mate, hitching the runner close, so as to pull the most weight, the trotter will go fastest. Among the most noted trotters with running mates are:

Dan Mace's Ethan Allen and mate, 2:15.

John Murphy's Yellow Duck and mate, 2:11.

Billy D. and mate, 2:14.

John Murphy's Steve Maxwell and mate, 2:10.

James Golden's H. B. Winship and mate, 2:10.

John Murphy's Frank and mate, 2:08.

The best records of the above horses to harness are: Ethan Allen, 2:25; Yellow Duck, 2:20; Billy D., 2:20; Steve Maxwell, 2:—; H. B. Winship, 2:20; Frank, 2:23.
