Only One of the Late I. M. Singer's Families Yet Unpaid.

The Young Children by the Late Mrs. Singer

Living on Allowances and Only One Nearly of Age—The Inventor's Strange History.

Mr. David Hawley, a tall, slender, white-haired man, brought to Mr. W. M. Skinner, clerk of the Surrogate's court of Westchester, in White Plains, yesterday, a bundle of what looked like legal papers.

Mr. Singer's estate was inventoried at about $8,000,000, but it proved to amount to about twice that sum. Mr. Singer was a poor man when he first intrusted his confidential business to Mr. Hawley.

Mr. Singer was born in Schaghticoke in this state, and in early manhood lived from hand to mouth as a wood turner and general mechanic. In 1830 he was married by a country squire to Miss Catharine N. Haley.

This was Mary Ann Sponaler, wife or companion number two. Singer hurried to New York to get wife number one and her family out of the way, and he and she quarreled and separated.

Mr. Singer was a man of great energy and ambition. He began to have money in consequence. In 1850 he had completed the inventions that make up the Singer sewing machine.

Mr. Singer led a fast life in those days, and was very frequently seen on the avenue in company with women whom Miss Sponaler's friends were not acquainted with.

for which he had not given a deed to her. She went to live with Foster.

Number five next appeared. She was a French woman whom he had met abroad. On June 13, 1865, seven weeks after number two had renounced her claims upon him.

For the first time in the history of the supreme court of this state, reports the Des Moines Register, the work is all finished up to date, with the exception of three or four cases on which a disagreement was had.

Monmouth county has 99 school houses, valued at $65,030. The total number of teachers is 301. 48 of them men, and they were paid during the year $29,931.85.

These last are the only ones not paid. They will get their money as fast as they come of age. Their mother married a baron in Paris, and he has since become the Duke de Composelle.

Mr. Singer's will was contested by Mrs. Sponaler, who proved a marriage with Singer from the time he was divorced from Mrs. Haley Singer until she married Foster—a period of less than one year.
