

WASHINGTON WAIFS.

The Preparation of the Appropriation Bills Begun.

Prospects for a Difference of Opinion Among Members.

Postmasters Must Exercise Their Physical Powers.

Mr. Bland Looking After the Trade Dollar.

The Protous Voyage and General Hazen's Statement.

WASHINGTON TOPICS.

THE CHOLEERA SCORE.
WASHINGTON, January 3.—The national board of health has information, communicated by the state department, of the continuance of cholera in Alexandria, Judge Farman, of the international tribunal at Cairo, says: "There are from one to three cases each day resulting in death, and many more in which those attacked recover." He estimates the number of deaths during the summer from cholera as double that given in the official reports. The United States consul general at Cairo reports the official estimate as 48,000 to 50,000. Owing to the want of proper organization, however, the returns are not trustworthy. For example, on July 24, the sanitary bulletin fixed the deaths in Cairo at 468. From police statistics they exceeded 1,200. The consul general reports that in well-informed official circles the number of victims is estimated at 65,000 to 70,000. In many villages of the interior, he says, the majority of the laboring population died, and, in some instances, nearly entire communities disappeared, and not sufficient effective hands remain to cultivate and harvest the crops.

THE APPROPRIATION BILLS.
The committee on appropriations met to-day. Chairman Randall announced the following sub-committees to be charged with the preparation of the bills named:
Legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill—Holman, Hancock, Cannon.
Sundry civil—Randall, Forney, Ryan, Army appropriation—Forney, Townsend, Keifer.
Navy—Hutchins, Randall, Calkins.
Postoffice—Townshend, Holman, Herr.
Indian—Ellis, Holman, Ryan.
Consular and diplomatic—Burnes, Townsend, Washburn.
Pensions—Hancock, Follett and Washburn.
Military academy—Keifer, Forney and Ellis.
Fortifications—Herr, Ellis and Hancock.
District of Columbia—Follett, Hutchins and Cannon.
Efficiencies—Randall, Burnes and Hancock.

Randall says an effort will be made to report all appropriation bills to the House April 15th or the first of May. The other members of the committee are, however, of opinion that the work cannot be completed within the period proposed. Trouble is anticipated by some in consideration of the legislative, executive and judicial, and sundry civil bills. A resolution member of the committee said to-day that already he could see there would be a division of opinion. Commissioner Dudley was given a hearing before the committee to-day as to the needs of the pension bureau and asked an appropriation of $40,000 which has been estimated for that department. There will be in addition to this appropriation, if granted, $65,000,000 which has not been used, money previously appropriated.

The military academy bill prepared by Townsend was to-day turned over to the sub-committee having charge of that subject. The bill as prepared by Townsend appropriates an aggregate of $20,000,000 which is $25,000,000 less than last year and $91,000,000 less than the estimate.

THE TRADE DOLLAR.
Representative Bland had an interview to-day with Burchard, director of the mint, in regard to the number of trade dollars now in circulation. The latter expressed the opinion that between five and six millions were out and in the hands of traders and the people generally, instead of the 8,000,000 estimated by the committee. The officers of the Burlington and Dubuque branches of the Illinois Central have had in their possession since Monday last the last copy of the tripartite agreement, the terms of which were under discussion this forenoon. The statement is made in an authorized way to the Associated Press, that whatever conclusions are reached by the Burlington company, the matter will necessarily be laid before the board of directors of that company for final action. The meeting adjourned at 2 o'clock, and there is little prospect that a decision of any character will be reached to-day.

The meeting adjourned again at 3 o'clock till 10 to-morrow to await the arrival of President Hayes, of the Washington. No decision of any character has been reached.

THE BOND FUND.
St. Louis, January 3.—A dispatch from Taylorville, Ill., says home of the Bond fund, says that when the verdict of the jury became fully known there this morning the feeling and expression of people was that justice can no longer be obtained from the courts. Friends of Montgomery and the other defendants, and they have some friends, endeavor to treat with the Abyssinian chiefs, and secure a retreat from Khartoum, via Kassar. El Mahdi is gaining ground, and the revolt is spreading northward.

MONTREAL FLOODED.
MONTREAL, January 3.—The St. Lawrence rose three feet to-day and now is causing great inconvenience in lower parts of the city. All manufactures and floods have stopped work, the shops being flooded. Six hundred mechanics are out of employment until the water subsides. The press rooms of the Post are filled with water and the farms will have to go elsewhere.

FRENCH RAILWAYS.
PARIS, January 3.—It is said the government propose to sell the state rail-

SULLIVAN'S STORY.

Susan Gallagher's Love for O'Donnell and Truth

Preferred to Let Her Lover Die Rather Than Tell a Lie.

Twenty-six Killed in the Toronto Calamity.

The St. Lawrence Giving Montreal a Cold Bath.

Various Matters of Interest and Note From Abroad.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

THE IRISH QUESTION.
DUBLIN, January 3.—The Weekly News publishes a letter from A. M. Sullivan, one of Patrick O'Donnell's counsel, entitled "Susan Gallagher, the Irish Jeanie Deans; an Episode of the O'Donnell Trial." Sullivan describes the connection of Susan Gallagher with the killing of Carey, and argues that the facts redound to the credit of the Irish peasantry. In this case, he says, a simple Donegal girl outlived the Middle Eastern heroine in her anguish, sacrifice, devotion and truth. Mr. Russell's masterly and irresistible argument proceeded a hundred circumstances and considerations in favor of Carey having handed a pistol during the tragedy. Years ago O'Donnell separated from his wife in America. While revisiting Donegal O'Donnell met Susan who consented under the appearance of his sister to accompany him to the Cape, where they intended to marry. When, after their return to England, she was interviewed by Pryor and Sullivan, Susan stated that after leaving Cape Town she sat listless, searied and dazed in the steamer's saloon on a bench, and when Sullivan approached the critical point concerning Carey's pistol, Susan, realizing the tremendous importance of the question, suffered intense mental anguish and trembled like a leaf. Sobbingly she replied, "My back was turned toward him. Oh, sir, I had only turned round before. Oh, sir, I was not looking the right way. I heard some noise on the floor. It might have been the shifting of feet or of furniture. Sullivan said, "Who could contradict her if she testified she beheld Carey with a pistol in his hand, or what could be easier than for her to declare she heard the pistol fall." In conclusion he says: "The people of Tyrone will claim with pride the humble heroine, unwavering in her religion and truth, Susan Gallagher, the Irish Jeanie Deans."

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

THE TORONTO CALAMITY.
TORONTO, January 3.—Patrick Norton, aged 17, a twenty-sixth victim of yesterday's disaster, died at midnight. Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from his engine before the collision, but this he denies, and says he remembered nothing till he found himself lying in the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. He states that not having been over the road before, he asked for a pilot, and got Barber, who is under arrest. All went well until Hamilton was reached. There he was informed that No. 4 express would be the first train met, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of it. A special meeting of the city council decided to appropriate $2,000 to aid the bereaved families, and also decided to give decent burial to the dead. A public meeting will be held in the council chamber to-morrow to discuss further steps for the relief of the widows and orphans. A meeting of employees of the road works was held to-night to make arrangements for the funeral of the dead. There probably will be a public funeral Saturday afternoon.

WROUGHT WICKEDLY.

The Defendants in the Emma Bond Case Waxed

That an Indignant Public is Tired of Them.

A Gay and Festive Exchange Clerk's Career.

A Body Snatcher and a Doctor Own Up.

The Bank Failed; He Speculated; Execut Cashier; Assignment; Curtain.

CRIME AND CRIMINALS.

NO PLACE FOR THEM.
St. Louis, January 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro says: Matters are very quiet here so far to-day. There is some bitter talk against the jurors, but no violent feeling is manifested. Leo Pettus left for the west this morning, and Clement started for Irving, a small town six miles away, where his friends. A dispatch from there says when it became known that he was in the place he was given five minutes to leave, and he went at once. Montgomery's whereabouts or plans are not definitely known at this writing.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3.—A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Associated Press says: There is a great excitement here. To-night a meeting with Mr. Green, a prominent miller, as leader, was held, and a resolution was adopted that if any of the defendants are in town to-morrow morning a public meeting will be called and they notified to leave immediately. A movement was made to hang the jury in effigy in front of the court house to-night, but the idea was finally abandoned. The sheriff is very nervous in regard to the situation.

ST. LOUIS, J. 3