

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Monday Morning, Jan. 7, 1884. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier 25 cents per week; By Mail $10.00 per year. OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. MINOR MENTION.

Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. The board of supervisors meet to-day. The board of trade is to hold its annual meeting this evening. The stockholders of the driving park meet to-morrow to elect officers. The funeral of Allen Forbes was held yesterday, the colored Masons attending in a body. The Knights of Pythias are to have their grand masquerade at Bloom & Nixon's hall next Wednesday evening. No arrests yesterday by the police. Plain harmless lodgers are numerous throughout, averaging at the station about four a night. Dr. Macrae has received the sad news of the death of his mother, which occurred at her home near Edinburgh, Scotland. She was 69 years of age. The terrible cold has led Capt. O. M. Brown to discover that when the monks recently visited his house they took his fur cap, in addition to the articles already missed. The last of the prisoners sentenced to Fort Madison have been taken over the road, and the jailer feels somewhat relieved, as there are less chances for attempted jail breaks. J. M. Matthews, who this week steps into the position of county superintendent of schools, has taken rooms for himself and family over Mallis' store, on Broadway, and will have his office there. Rev. Mr. Mackay gave to his congregation at St. Paul's church yesterday morning some fresh thoughts about the New Year, dealing with facts plainly, and giving frank expressions of his convictions, as he always does. The week of prayer will be observed by a series of noon-day prayer meetings, led by the different pastors and held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, No. 12, North Main street, each day from 11:45 to 12:15. Since the new combination of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul will run its trains a little differently. It will take its turn with the Chicago & Rock Island and Northwestern on Saturday night and Sunday morning train. W. G. Oliver and George Schindler went to Neola to attend the installation of the new officers of the Odd Fellows, Saturday night. The occasion is reported as an enjoyable one, and a fine banquet was spread at the Union hotel. This is the week of prayer, and the church folks will turn out en masse, as it will take a large amount of prayer to offset a city government which licenses gambling places, houses of prostitution, variety shows, etc., without attempting to regulate their wrong ways. The "Pocket Railway Guide," for January, published by Nelson & Beninger, of Cedar Rapids, has been received. There is more than 25 cents' worth of necessary information for almost anybody, while for those doing any traveling in Iowa it is almost indispensable. A colored man named Brown McIlvain has been arrested for stealing cloth from from John Peters' tailoring establishment on Broadway. McIlvain claims that some other darkey sold the cloth to him, and will be given a chance to show up his case in court to-day. Yesterday the unusual sound of sleigh bells was heard on the streets, and everything on runners found a ready demand. Still the livermen seemed not disposed to take advantage of the occasion, and single rigs were let at $2 for the first hour and $1 for every hour after the first. Mr. Van Sciever, on whose farm Turk Hansen was killed while digging a well, has paid all the expenses attending the burial of Hansen in the cemetery adjoining the German church in the Plumer settlement. Hansen leaves a widow and five children, who are living on Mr. Van Sciever's farm, and who are comfortably provided for. James Summers, who, while crossing the Wabash track at Poney Creek, was run into by the "Cannon Ball" train, is recovering rapidly from his injuries, but purposes suing the company. It is claimed that the crossing is so situated that a train is visible for only a rod or two to teams approaching the track. The emigration to Fort Madison has outdone the number of boarders at the jail to fourteen. Among those who went over the road were those who had done the most of the singing for the services held in jail every Sunday, so that yesterday the choir was about broken up. Those who remain did their best to combine on a tune, but made bad work of it. It will take several weeks to break in a new set of vocalists. The new city jail is not to be used until the water is turned on in the building, and that will not be done until the city orders, the council having given instructions to the employees of the city not to use any of the new supply until notified to do so. Just what the city council will do in regard to the contract with the waterworks is not known. The company has for various reasons been delayed in getting the works completed, but the supply is now finished and it is not clear whether the council will make a break or not. Fifteen men constitute the police force of Cedar Rapids. Two of the men are paid by the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern Railroad company. The force made 1,861 arrests in 1883. Total amount of fines and costs assessed, $10,985.77; total collected, $2,384.06.

Y OPERA HOUSE. The Date of Its Opening at Last Decided Upon. A Citizens' Meeting to Hurry Up Ticket Sales. The query as to when and how the new opera house is to be opened is at last answered. Thursday, January 17, has been settled upon as the date, and the Chicago Church Choir company is to give the first entertainment. This will be glad news to the many citizens who have been abstaining from indulging in public entertainments because of the city affording no suitable place for a first-class company to appear. The new opera house will bear favorable comparison with that in any western city, and there seems no reason why Council Bluffs, in the future, should not have the best entertainments and well patronized. Saturday night, in response to a call for a citizens' meeting in Dohany's hall, a number gathered there. The purpose was to talk over ways and means for disposing of the remainder of the tickets for the opening night. At the starting of the opera house project the citizens, to help the enterprise along, contributed for the purchase of the ground, and it was understood that 1,000 tickets at $5 each would be taken for the opening night. Less than four hundred have so far been taken, although the committee appointed for that purpose has worked zealously. At the meeting Saturday night Judge J. P. Casady was called to the chair and J. C. DeHaven secretary. Mr. E. L. Shugart made some very complimentary remarks concerning the enterprise shown by Mr. Dohany, and urged the citizens to keep their pledge of support in carrying it to a successful completion. Mr. Hendric remarked that he thought the canvass of the city had not been thorough enough, and after some further suggestions it was decided to urge the present committee to continue its work, and that Wells Cook, John E. Ahles and W. R. Vaughan be added to the committee, and if this was not enough the committee could add others. On motion of Mr. Ahles it was decided that the name of purchasers of tickets and contributors should be published from time to time.

PERSONAL. Mr. N. W. Williams and his sister, Mrs. W. McFadden, have gone on a visit to the city, aged 96 years, living in Warren, Jo Davis county, Ind. Frank Cook, the real estate man, has been spending the holidays in Chicago. W. S. Bolton, of New York, is at the Ogdan. S. M. Child, of Dunlap, Sun dayed at the Ogdan. E. L. Squires, of Logan, spent Sunday in this city. Mr. Peter Denny, one of De Vol & Wright's clerks, has been called to Lafayette, Ind., by the illness and death of his mother. Dr. Bellinger gives the encouragement that J. S. Rand, who has been ill a long time, and whose life has been despaired of, is now gaining, and has a fair chance for recovery. Mr. Boyner, of Sioux Falls, has been spending a portion of the week in the city, seeing about the prospect of getting Sioux Falls granite for paving here. Frank Shinn, the well-known attorney, of Carson, Iowa, expects soon to open an office in this city, where he will be heartily welcomed both by the bar and by the citizens at large. Sheriff Dan Farrell, of Glenwood, was in the city yesterday, and meeting friends at the Pacific. Joseph A. Osterlind, of Creston, was at the Pacific yesterday. C. B. Russell, of Malvern, took his Sunday dinner at the Pacific. GONE TO THE BAY. Guy Warren, a young man aged about twenty, has been arrested for breaking into the depot at Vail and robbing the drawer of about $15, and afterwards stealing a horse from Mr. Thomas Clement by which to make his escape. Young Warren has been captured at Denison and the horse recovered. Warren is a nephew of the station agent, and is otherwise well connected. His downfall is said to be due to the habit of drink, which he is said to have acquired while working for a rich farmer in Wisconsin, who used to go on occasional sprees and take the boy with him. His father was killed in the army, and his mother died about seven years ago. He is now lying in jail awaiting the next term of the district court. REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. The following deeds were filed for record in the recorder's office, January 5, reported for the Baz by P. J. McMahon, real estate agent: Edward Saunders to George Feunhaker, lot 6, block 17, Baylis & Palmer's add., $400. J. C. Peterson to Peter Larson, lot 8, block 3, Stutsman's 2nd add.; $125. J. C. Roberts to M. C. Richardson, lot 10, block 11, Stutsman's 2nd add., $200. Albert M. Potter to George Bolton, 2 1/2 of sec 1, 15, 74, 39; $2,500. John Graham to O. O. Hotchkiss, 2 1/2 of sec. 2, 75, 38; $1,500. H. G. Russell, et al trustees to Henry Ropp, 2 1/2 of sec. 9, 76, 40; $1,600. William Goddard, et al. to William Goodie, sec. 4, 46, 40; $2,880. W. W. Forman to Charles T. Officer, 2 1/2 of sec. 9, 77, 44; $400. Mary P. Rice to Thomas Officer, lot 11, block 10, Baylis 1st add.; $1,700. John A. Frosant to Albert A. Dorn, lots 12 and 14, block 19, Neola; $500. Total sales, $11,855.

Mrs. A. Bryan, dressmaker. Cutting a specialty, 504 S. Main st., up stairs. It is whispered in political circles by certain knowing ones that John Chapman, of the Nonpareil, has aspirations leaning toward the United States congress from this district. John's aspirations may be all right but he has precluded the possibility of being a candidate by firing off a premature editorial in which he says that wire pullers and caucus manipulators should be summarily set down upon, or words to that effect. Brother Chapman's evident self-sacrifice is a great boon to his country. men.—(Oakland Acorn). TAKING DRUGS. The Flames Lap Up a Goodly Amount of Them in Empire's Store. The drug store of I. N. Empire on Upper Broadway was badly damaged by fire Saturday morning. The flames were discovered about 5 o'clock, the fire originating in the corner of the store room where were kept whiskey, oil, gasoline, etc. It spread rapidly, and had already got through into the second floor before it was discovered by the sleepers up stairs. The attempt to turn in fire alarms showed the recklessness of the city government in depending upon such a faulty and unreliable system. Two boxes were tried, and as they failed, a messenger went to the engine house and thus an alarm was given. Despite the delay the boys got at work in good shape and succeeded in smothering the hot blaze. The loss on the stock will reach about $3,500, on which Mr. Empire has an insurance of $2,500 in companies represented by Marshall Key. The origin of the fire is a great mystery. There was no fire in the store, and the store was some distance from where the fire started. The night before some young men passing the store noticed a smell of burning oil, and accused Mr. Empire, who always upstairs. Mr. Empire made a careful examination and could discover nothing, and so went back to bed. It was cold work for the fire lads and ears, fingers and noses were nipped, but when the work was over, Mrs. Eph Huntington and Taylor Woolsey served up to the boys hot coffee and other good things to warm them up, making them feel that there are those who appreciate to some extent what it is to work at a fire.

DES MOINES, January 6.—The body of a man was found in the depot building of the Northwestern railroad at Taylor station, six miles north of here, about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. He was a Swede, and had an order to go to the poor house, which was not over sixty rods away. The body was brought here for an inquest. The stove pipe in the depot had fallen down, and he was suffocated. The depot has no agent, it being a mere stopping place, and neighbors keep on the poor farm. The man, over-acted of the poor farm, saw the man at night, but did not know he was looking for the poor farm. The inquest found that the deceased came to his death by suffocation from coal gas. His name was Larzel.

On December 27th John Harshberger, and old employe of the Farmers' Loan and Trust company, at Sioux Rapids, suddenly left for parts unknown, leaving the company in the lurch about $1,000. Mr. H. has not occupied his position at the bank for some months and his shortage was known, but he was endeavoring to settle, and had not been arrested as he ought. The stealing was done in the course of a month, between settlements, and his scheme was to make false entries and the books, which could only be detected at the end of the month. This young man was only about 25 years of age, and leaves a wife behind.

WEDDED ON THE CHESAPEAKE. A Young Couple United Despite the Protest of an Angry Father. BALTIMORE, Dec. 31.—The gang-plank had been drawn in, the lines cast off and all the necessary preparations had been made for the departure of the steamer Tangier from her wharf at Onancock, Va., on last Wednesday morning, on her up-trip, when a young man, closely followed by a lady, was seen making for the landing with hasty strides. The gang-plank was a gain put out and the couple, gasping for breath, boarded the steamer. The vessel had moved off about a hundred yards when an elderly man came rushing down to the wharf, gesticulating wildly and shaking his fist menacingly at the receding boat. The couple who had made such a lucky escape and who now laughed in the face of the irate father were Mr. George S. White and Miss Annie T. Hopkins of Accomac county, to whose nuptials the father of the expectant groom had objec-

ed. Their ages were respectively 18 and 20. The father had discovered the unexpected departure of the pair and had chased them without success. Before the arrival of the steamer at Snow Hill, where the marriage ceremony was to be performed between the runaway couple, the services of Rev. George Bradford, one of the passengers and an itinerant Baptist preacher, were secured, and the knot was tied in the saloon in the presence of the officers and passengers.
