

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Friday Morning, Jan. 11, 1884. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier 10 cents per week By Mail $10.00 per Year OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. MINOR MENTION.

Additional local on seventh page. Cheap railroad tickets at Bushnell's. The board of trade is to elect officers next Monday evening.

The trains all got in on time yesterday morning. News, indeed. The advance in markets made some of the speculators unusually happy.

The Driving Park association has its annual meeting Saturday evening. Special services at the churches every evening during the week of prayer.

Oskaloosa is agitating the question of having a new railway line to Council Bluffs.

The board of supervisors spent most of yesterday settling with the overseer of the poor and auditing bills.

The Harrison-Saunders wedding party came over here yesterday afternoon on a special from Omaha, and left last evening in the special car "Vandalia" for the east. The car was beautifully decorated.

The supreme court has issued a procedendo in the case of Cook vs. Benson, and as soon as Judge Aylesworth enters the decree, an order will probably be issued for the abatement of the nuisance peremptorily.

A special meeting of the board of trade was held yesterday forenoon, at which the president, E. L. Shugart, was instructed to telegraph Congressman Pusey urging him to act in connection with the Chicago congressmen in supporting the pork bill introduced by Mr. Kasson.

E. C. Briggs, of Mills county, who has lived in this part of the state for thirty-five years, and kept a complete weather record, reported that a comparison with the figures taken by him during these many years, last Friday night was the coldest of all.

The Solomon saloon burglary, for which a young man named Lewis was arrested here recently, has been dropped, no prosecution appearing. It seems to have been more of a case of disorderly conduct by kicking on the saloon door than burglary.

Heriff Farrell has provided himself with a new revolver, which The Malyern Leader man says is "an army pocket, 44-calibre, six-shooter, self-cocking, terror-inspiring, death-dealing weapon." Dan is a bad man for criminals to run across when he is unarmed, but with this new gun they will not readily tackle him.

A woman giving her name as Mrs. O. Weidner, was arrested yesterday on complaint of L. Harris, who says that she came to his store and got a $5 suit of underwear, claiming it was for another woman, and thus got them charged, after which she went to a pawnshop and shovled them up for $3. Her case was continued until next Wednesday, by Judge Aylesworth.

Mrs. A. Bryan, dressmaker. Cutting a specialty, 504 S. Main st., up stairs.

PERSONAL. Miss Lucia Kimball, of Chicago, is at the Ogden house.

Thomas C. Lotzard, the advance agent of the Chicago Church Choir company, is in the city arranging for the company's opening the new opera house here.

A. B. Barnard, of St. Joe, the well known railway man, was in the city yesterday, and at the Ogden.

J. H. Addison, of Ponca, Neb., was among yesterday's Pacific house guests.

Mr. C. R. Hutchinson, of Norwalk, Ohio, arrived at the Ogden yesterday.

L. C. Baldwin has been re-elected one of the directors of the State Fair association, a position which he has heretofore filled with great satisfaction.

J. M. Palmer is a little under the weather. H. C. Chynny, agent of the South City & Pacific railroad, started on an eastern trip last evening.

Malvern Mishay's. The cold weather has evidently made the bones of Malvern people peculiarly brittle, and The Leader chronicles as this week's accidents there the following:

While riding to school on horseback on Monday morning, a sixteen-year-old son of L. B. Hixon, of Indian Creek township, met with a painful accident. The horse stumbled and threw the boy off, falling upon him in such a manner as to break the outer bone of his left leg.

James Talbot slipped and fell from his hay-loft early the other morning while feeding his horses, breaking the little finger of his left hand.

John Harton and Robert McLean could not stand on slippery places, and the result is, each carries a broken rib. A bottle of bay rum burst in the hands of Walter Larrison, seriously lacerating two fingers of his left hand.

Broken hearts, doctor bills and funeral expenses can be avoided in every case by using Dr. Joffers' (Council Bluffs, Ia.) preventative and cure for diphtheria. Cures all kinds of sore throat. Best remedy for catarrh known. Send for it. Full printed directions for use.

To-Day's Topics. At the union meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this noon, Rev. D. S. Anderson is to lead, and the topic for to-day is:

"Prayer for Nations—For legislators, that statutes may be conformed to divine law; for rulers, that they may conscientiously administer government; for peace and cordiality between nations; and for popular integrity in the duties of citizenship."

BUSY BURGLARS. They Prowl by Daylight as Well as by Dark. Several Places Visited by Them Yesterday.

Yesterday morning County Treasurer Bennett discovered that sometime during the night burglars had ransacked his house. They did not find as much plunder as they might have done had they searched more closely, but, as it was, they got Mr. Bennett's silver watch, which was lying on a chair beside the bed in which he was sleeping. They also got a gold chain belonging to his little daughter, and about $5 in money, making in all about $50 worth. The thieves gained an entrance by a window in the lower part of the house, and raided up stairs as well as down, but were evidently in a hurry.

A BOLD RAID was made, about 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon, on the residence of John Schoentgen, on south Sixth street. The thieves walked into the house while the family were in the house, and got away with a heavy gold chain, a pair of bracelets, and a pair of earrings, taking them evidently in haste as they overlooked a diamond ring lying in the same box. Mrs. Gilbert, who lives near, saw some young fellows in the forenoon trying to get into the barn, but they did not succeed, and soon left and went into Mr. Mergen's barn. They soon came out with a hammock and went off. Whether these boys were the ones who sneaked into Schoentgen's house is a query not yet answered satisfactorily.

Another successful raid was made ON THE ST. JOE HOUSE.

Yesterday morning, between two and four o'clock, a burglar entered the St. Joe house, on Main street, from the rear, and going up stairs, entered room No. 11 and relieved Mr. Louis Olson of $20, which was in his pantaloons pocket. From there this unknown visitor began to work room No. 10, across the hall. He procured a chair and pole, reached through the transom, and fished out the vest of Mr. George Kuhr, which contained a watch and chain, but he left the watch and vest on the floor by the door.

Mr. Olson retired at 11:30 p. m., and his room-mate, Bob White, came in at 1 a. m., when everything was all right. They entered into conversation, and no one could have entered before 2 a. m., and perhaps not then, had they not forgotten to lock their door.

Suspicion seems to point to a man named Joseph Uhl, who was a bed-fellow of Kuhr's for two nights, both of which he was awake or up the largest part of the time. He was ejected about 10 p. m., for not paying his hotel bill and was seen hanging around the neighborhood before, but can't be found since the robbery. It is supposed he is in Omaha.

MEERILY MATED. HAAS--ANSPACHER.

Yesterday afternoon there was a happy gathering of friends and relations at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eiseaman to witness the giving in marriage of their niece, Miss Ida L. Anspacher, of Cleveland, to Mr. Andrew Haas, a gentleman well known here and in the west, where he is largely interested in stock. The company consisted only of relatives and intimate friends, among those present being the bride's mother, Mrs. C. F. Anspacher, of Cleveland, and grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Lehman, Mrs. B. Cohen, of Sioux City, an aunt of the bride, Mr. Chas. Haas, of Chicago, a brother of the groom, Mrs. Rose Griffin, of Sioux City, Rev. Mr. Saff, E. Rosewater and wife, Mr. and Mrs. B. Newman and daughter, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Mosler, Mr. and Mrs. Friedman, of Council Bluffs; Mrs. H. Leon, Miss Alice Booth, Miss Emma Kircht, of this city; Mrs. and Miss Hirschstein, Mr. Freyhan, Mrs. Strauser, of Omaha; Mr. H. Beirdorf, S. Mann, M. Kohn, Henry Eiseaman, L. Harris, Simon Eiseaman, of Council Bluffs; Mr. N. P. Feil, Mr. F. Rosewater, Miss Brandis, of Omaha.

There was a bountiful feast, and a large number of beautiful and valuable presents. Besides the many hearty congratulations and well-wishes of those present, like expressions came in over the wires by telegraph from friends in all parts of the country, until Manager Brown, of the Council Bluffs office, in sending with one of the messengers his congratulations expressed the wish that their shadows might never grow less, but also the fear that the operators' shadows might, if friends from abroad kept up such a lively use of the wires.

The newly wedded ones left last evening for an eastern trip over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

SHENANDOAH SUNDRIES. Served Up by the Bee Man on the Spot.

SHENANDOAH, Ia., January 9.—Holidays are over. The trade has been good as to put all the merchants in a good humor.

The blacksmith shop of Lewis Wilford has passed into the hands of S. Caldwell & son, to whom we wish much success. J. H. Redfield, our esteemed barber has gone to Salt Lake for a vacation and to secure rest.

Two new enterprises are worthy of note: E. F. Trueblood, of Salem, Iowa, has commenced the manufacture of a new washing machine, the Duplex. August Messelt and Joseph Heck, from Bedford, Iowa, have established a cigar factory here.

The city hall is finished and occupied. The popular Park hotel has become a co-partnership concern. Col. Frank Park having taken his son, Henry Park, into partnership. They make a strong team and keep an excellent hotel.

John Norton has been sick but is around again. Sickness in the form of pneumonia is somewhat prevalent.

We saw a most excellent subscription paper on the street the other day, and it was numerously subscribed to. Its purpose was to secure a remittal of taxes for the farmers in Page county, whose crops were ruined by last year's hail storm. Let Fremont county go and do likewise. Outside of the hail district, crops are not good, there being a great deal of soft corn. A failure of crops this season would cause great distress in Page and Fremont counties. Might not railway pools consider once in a while the losses of the farmers, such as we suffered last year by hail.

E. S. Ferris has returned from Princeton, and we hear rumors of his promotion to the office of cashier of the Shenandoah national bank. He will fill it, should he enter it, and not rattle around in it.

The Shenandoah college has affected a combination with the Bloomfield normal school, thereby adding two new professors to its faculty and many new students. This is a sort of pooling to which there can be no objection. If the common opinion concerning many of our colleges be correct, viz: that they are too numerous for efficiency, several more educational pools might be started to advantage.

Bennett hall, one of the college buildings, narrowly escaped destruction by fire during the cold snap last week. A defective fuse was the origin of the fire. It was happily detected in time although the hour was 3 a. m., and successfully extinguished. The students abating, the cold gladly turned in again.

Now for a vote. A Special Election Called on the New Court House Question.

Shall the County Build a New Jail, Court House, and Jail?

At the meeting of the county supervisors yesterday the question of a new court house and jail was brought up. Col. Sapp, N. M. Pusey and E. L. Shugart appeared as representatives of the board of trade, and urged the board to submit the question to a vote of the people.

They had drafted a series of resolutions, closing with a resolution to this effect, and desired the board to pass the same. The board favored the project, but thought best not to adopt the document as presented, on the ground that there were too many "whereases," and that a simple resolution was all that was required, as the needs of a jail and court house were already conceded. The resolutions set up by the board of trade are, however, worthy of consideration, if official endorsement might be of questionable taste, and THE BEE consequently gives them:

WHEREAS, It is a matter of vital interest and importance to the individual citizens of this county, and to the county as a municipality, that the public records should be safely preserved and so guarded and protected from accidents by fire or from theft, so that the citizens may feel secure and free from anxiety on this subject; and

WHEREAS, The present court house of county, where said public records are kept, and the vaults in which the same are placed, are deemed by this board not to be fire-proof and as secure as they should be, and it is the mature judgment of this board, after a thorough investigation into the security of said vaults, that in case of fire said records are in a very unsafe condition, and in great and imminent peril of total destruction; and

WHEREAS, The present court house is insufficient and inadequate for the needed demands of a large and rapidly growing county, both with respect to the arrangement, plan and accommodations of the court and jury rooms, and also the various county offices necessarily contained therein; now, therefore, be it resolved, etc.

In view of these and other facts which are more or less familiar to all, the county board passed a resolution calling for a special election to be held on the 29th of February, for the purpose of submitting to the voters of the county the questions as to whether or not the county should issue $100,000 of bonds for the purpose of procuring grounds and building a new court house, and whether or not the county should also issue $40,000 for the construction of a new jail. It is proposed to make these bonds mature in twenty years, and bear 6 per cent. interest, the county to have the option, however, to pay them at any time after ten years.

The board has already some ground unoccupied, but between the present court house and the unoccupied lots of the county lies the Episcopal church property, and it is suggested that this be purchased by the county, so as to get plenty of room and have the ground all together, and possibly some other plan may be found to be more feasible.

So that the question of the purchasing ground enters into consideration. It is thought that the county board might have done better as regards the issuing of bonds, and get a better premium for the 20 year bonds, without option, and bearing 5 per cent. interest. Atlantic recently issued $50,000 of such bonds, and their premium amounted to $1,700.

Now that the question is to be submitted to the people, there will be a lively amount of talk and work on both sides. The east end of the county has heretofore opposed such a building, but it is now understood that by arranging to have terms of court at Avoca—to accommodate those in that vicinity—there will not be the same opposition, and Pottawattamie county will now stand a better chance of getting, as a substitute for its present old rat-trap, buildings which will be in some little keeping with the size and the prosperity of the county, and the enterprise of its citizens.
