

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

A Lively Debate on the Fitz John Porter Bill.

Slocum's Earnest Appeal and Steel's Attack.

Huntington Before the Public Lands Committee.

The Mexican Treaty Rejected by the Senate.

Troublesome Questions Regarding Chinese Importations.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 18.—The house committee on commerce discussed for two hours the proposed measure of retaliation against France and Germany for the exclusion of American hog products.

Mr. Slocum (dem., N. Y.) asked unanimous consent that to-morrow he set apart for consideration of the Fitz John Porter bill, but Mr. Keed (rep., Maine) objected.

At the meeting of the house committee on public lands, C. P. Huntington appeared in behalf of the California & Oregon company.

At the meeting of the house committee on public lands, C. P. Huntington appeared in behalf of the California & Oregon company.

THE MEXICAN TREATY.

The senate in executive session rejected the Mexican treaty. A motion was made to reconsider, pending which the senate adjourned until Monday.

to the terms of the original treaty have expired.

TROUBLESOME QUESTION. The secretary of the treasury sent to the senate to-day copies of the correspondence on the operation of the Chinese restriction act.

FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, January 18.—The chair laid before the senate a message from the president, transmitting for the consideration of congress, communications from the secretaries of war and of the navy, on the subject of a relief expedition to rescue the Greeley party.

Mr. Miller (rep. Cal.) from the committee on foreign relations reported favorably a bill to supplement a commercial treaty with China, prohibiting the importation and exportation of opium.

Mr. Slocum (dem., N. Y.) asked unanimous consent that to-morrow he set apart for consideration of the Fitz John Porter bill, but Mr. Keed (rep., Maine) objected.

At the meeting of the house committee on public lands, C. P. Huntington appeared in behalf of the California & Oregon company.

THE MEXICAN TREATY.

The senate in executive session rejected the Mexican treaty. A motion was made to reconsider, pending which the senate adjourned until Monday.

THE HARVEST OF DEATH.

Wreck of the City of Columbus on Devil's Bridge.

Graphic Details of the Terrible Scene.

One Hundred and Twenty-Four Persons Perish.

Freezing to Death and Dropping Into the Sea.

The Heroism of a Revenue Cutter's Lieutenant.

STATEMENTS OF THE CAPTAIN AND OTHERS.

PERILS OF THE SEA.

THE CITY OF COLUMBIA WRECKED. BOSTON, January 18.—F. W. Nickerson & Son, agents of the Savannah steamship line, have received the following dispatch:

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Jan. 18. To F. W. Nickerson & Son: Steamer City of Columbus is ashore on Devil's Bridge, Gay Head, and fast breaking up. About one hundred lives lost. Will leave on the early train in the morning. Saved by cutter Dexter.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

IN OPEN REBELLION. CAIRO, January 18.—An official dispatch states that the rebellion around Khartoum is in open rebellion against the Egyptian government.

BOUND TO TAKE BACINSH. LONDON, January 18.—An attaché of the French legation in an interview said France is determined to take Bacinsh at all costs.

PARIS, January 18.—Placards have been posted in various parts of the city, summoning the people to make a demonstration to compel the chamber to accede to the popular demands.

THE SPANISH CABINET CRISIS. MADRID, January 18.—The king has accepted the resignation of the ministry and in view of the impossibility of effecting an agreement with the liberals has charged Canovas Del Castillo, conservative, with the formation of a new cabinet.

HONG KONG OBSTRUCTION. HONG KONG, January 18.—In consequence of the action of the British government, work of obstructing Canton river has been suspended.

MORE GUNBOATS. PARIS, January 18.—Six new gunboats have been ordered built for the French fleet in Tonquin waters.

HOMEWARD BOUND. ORENBURG, Russia, January 18.—Lieutenants Harber and Schulz with the bodies of Lieutenant-Commander De Long, Dr. Ambler, Jerome Collins and others of the Jeannette expedition, passed through here yesterday, en route for the United States.

RAILROAD RATES TO BE RESTORED. NEW YORK, January 18.—Assistant Commissioner Pierson announced to-day negotiation with the Chicago & Quincy and Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroads was terminated by the acceptance of the two companies of the terms contained in the united letter of December 10th, by which the paying of commissioners is prohibited, and they agree to meet in conference and adjust matters in dispute.

POWDER AND DYNAMITE EXPLOSIONS. SCRANTON, Pa., January 18.—L. H. Emory, the only person killed by the explosion of the powder mills last night, was struck by a piece of flying machinery half a mile from the mill.

THE GLASS MONOPOLY. NEW YORK, January 18.—The national window glass manufacturers association and national bottle and vial manufacturers association resolved to advance the price of glassware generally ten per cent.

A Clerical Error. DES MOINES, January 18.—It was found to-day that the tellers at the official canvass of votes for governor and lieutenant governor made a clerical error of one thousand votes in the total for Kinne.

Oranges Overseed. SAN FRANCISCO, January 18.—The orange crop of California is "overseeded," and the country understood that three-fourths of the crop is already secured.

THE HARVEST OF DEATH.

Wreck of the City of Columbus on Devil's Bridge.

Graphic Details of the Terrible Scene.

One Hundred and Twenty-Four Persons Perish.

Freezing to Death and Dropping Into the Sea.

The Heroism of a Revenue Cutter's Lieutenant.

STATEMENTS OF THE CAPTAIN AND OTHERS.

PERILS OF THE SEA.

THE CITY OF COLUMBIA WRECKED. BOSTON, January 18.—F. W. Nickerson & Son, agents of the Savannah steamship line, have received the following dispatch:

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Jan. 18. To F. W. Nickerson & Son: Steamer City of Columbus is ashore on Devil's Bridge, Gay Head, and fast breaking up. About one hundred lives lost. Will leave on the early train in the morning. Saved by cutter Dexter.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

IN OPEN REBELLION. CAIRO, January 18.—An official dispatch states that the rebellion around Khartoum is in open rebellion against the Egyptian government.

BOUND TO TAKE BACINSH. LONDON, January 18.—An attaché of the French legation in an interview said France is determined to take Bacinsh at all costs.

PARIS, January 18.—Placards have been posted in various parts of the city, summoning the people to make a demonstration to compel the chamber to accede to the popular demands.

THE SPANISH CABINET CRISIS. MADRID, January 18.—The king has accepted the resignation of the ministry and in view of the impossibility of effecting an agreement with the liberals has charged Canovas Del Castillo, conservative, with the formation of a new cabinet.

HONG KONG OBSTRUCTION. HONG KONG, January 18.—In consequence of the action of the British government, work of obstructing Canton river has been suspended.

MORE GUNBOATS. PARIS, January 18.—Six new gunboats have been ordered built for the French fleet in Tonquin waters.

HOMEWARD BOUND. ORENBURG, Russia, January 18.—Lieutenants Harber and Schulz with the bodies of Lieutenant-Commander De Long, Dr. Ambler, Jerome Collins and others of the Jeannette expedition, passed through here yesterday, en route for the United States.

RAILROAD RATES TO BE RESTORED. NEW YORK, January 18.—Assistant Commissioner Pierson announced to-day negotiation with the Chicago & Quincy and Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroads was terminated by the acceptance of the two companies of the terms contained in the united letter of December 10th, by which the paying of commissioners is prohibited, and they agree to meet in conference and adjust matters in dispute.

POWDER AND DYNAMITE EXPLOSIONS. SCRANTON, Pa., January 18.—L. H. Emory, the only person killed by the explosion of the powder mills last night, was struck by a piece of flying machinery half a mile from the mill.

THE GLASS MONOPOLY. NEW YORK, January 18.—The national window glass manufacturers association and national bottle and vial manufacturers association resolved to advance the price of glassware generally ten per cent.

A Clerical Error. DES MOINES, January 18.—It was found to-day that the tellers at the official canvass of votes for governor and lieutenant governor made a clerical error of one thousand votes in the total for Kinne.

Oranges Overseed. SAN FRANCISCO, January 18.—The orange crop of California is "overseeded," and the country understood that three-fourths of the crop is already secured.

on the rigging and were the only persons remaining on the steamer except the captain.

Lt. Rhodes performed an heroic act which elicited hearty commendation. Two men hung in the rigging, unable to move from exhaustion, and the officer determined to save them at the peril of his life.

AN HEROIC ACT. Lt. Rhodes performed an heroic act which elicited hearty commendation. Two men hung in the rigging, unable to move from exhaustion, and the officer determined to save them at the peril of his life.

He nearly reached the wreck when he was struck by a piece of timber on the leg and arm. He was pulled aboard the boat and taken to the cutter. His leg was found to be cut, but after changing his clothing the sea was smoother and he determined to make a last attempt.

THE STEWARD'S STORY. A. F. Pitman, chief steward of the steamer said: "I was in my berth when the vessel struck and not awakened by the shock."

HEARTRENDING SCENES. John L. Cook, one of the passengers saved, related a heartrending scene. John Roach, a coal passer, dangled from the main mast for two hours with his hands and legs wrapped about the main stay.

THE LOST AND SAVED. The total number of persons saved is 230. Five dead bodies were recovered, and 119 souls are unaccounted for.

A Temple Dedicated. MEMPHIS, January 18.—The first Jewish temple ever erected in this city was dedicated this afternoon in an impressive manner.

A Leadville Bank Closed. DENVER, Col., January 18.—Representatives of the Leadville City Bank, of Leadville, have made an assignment for the benefit of the creditors.

Des Moines' Cold. DEN MOINES, January 18.—William Redmond, member of parliament, advertised to speak here Monday evening next before the National Land League.

Groome Defeated. ANNAPOLIS, Md., January 18.—Judge E. W. Wilson was elected United States senator on the 6th ballot, to succeed Groome, on March 4th, 1885.

THE NUTT TRIAL. PITTSBURG, January 18.—When the Nutt trial opened this morning, medical expert testimony as to the prisoner's mental condition was continued.

THE FORGED CHECK GAME. SIOUX CITY, Ia., January 18.—Charles Henderson was arrested to-day and held in $1,500 bail for forgery. He pleaded his own case with ability and eloquence.

MURDER OF THE MAYBEES.

John Tappan Confesses and Gives the Horrible Details.

Mother and Daughter Coolly Choked to Death.

By His Fiendish Brother While He Looks on.

The Brutal Assault on the Infant Father.

The Nutt Trial and the Forged Check Swindle.

CRIME AND CRIMINALS.

CONFESSOR OF A MURDER.

HUNTERS POINT, L. I., January 18.—Edward Tappan, arrested in connection with the Townsend outrage, confessed that his brother John and himself were in the murder of Mrs. Maybee and daughter at Brookville. Following is the confession: "I know who took the lives of Lydia and Annie Maybee on the evening of November 11th. It was John B. Tappan, my brother. He was in the barn when Mrs. Maybee came in. I was not in the barn. I saw John go into the barn. He was in the double doors. I was at the front side of my house. He went in, feeding my pigs. When John choked the old lady to death, I was at the front of the barn. I saw him. He choked her to death on the barn floor. He caught her by the wrist with one hand and took her by the throat with the other. I saw him do it. It was light enough for me to see in the stable. When John and I were there, she was on the ground. When she came in for leaves John was standing in the stable, where the leaves were. It took from ten to fifteen minutes to choke her to death. After she was dead, John picked her up and laid her in the back stable. I saw him throw some leaves over her. I was standing on the barn door very near the opening in the door that goes down in the stable. I saw the whole thing myself. After she was dead, John said: 'I am going to wait for Annie. I am going to choke her to. If I choke her too, no one will know about it. Then I can go to the house and get the money.' When Annie came she opened the barn door about two feet wide. When she stepped in the door, John grabbed her by the right arm and threw her down on the floor, held her by the right wrist, put his knee upon her left arm, and with his right took her by the throat. She tried to get away from him. When he grabbed her by the arm she grabbed at his face. She reached his nose and mouth. She said, 'Let me go. That is all she said. Then he held her up by the throat until she was dead. She died in about 10 or 15 minutes. He carried her in the stable near her mother and covered her all up with leaves and said, 'Now I am going to the house.' We both went and went in the kitchen door. Old Mr. Maybee said, 'Who is there?' John said, 'It's me.' Then I went up-stairs to Mrs. Maybee's room where Mrs. Maybee was knocked on the floor. I stood by the door, I saw him do it. Then John came down stairs and went in front of Maybee, very close to the hall, ran his hand up and down Mr. Maybee's breast and said: 'I want that gold which you hid two years ago.' Maybee said 'I ain't got it.' I know that. I said John, 'John, if you don't must kill you then.' Then he snatched a can of Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never given Mrs. Maybee's hand, and struck him with it twice on the head. John went up stairs again and came back. I said, 'I have all I want.' We came out. He went to Cedars in a spring wagon and I went home. I suppose he gave me $10 in bills, which I still have. I have not seen my brother John since alone to this day and I have never