CRIME AND CRIMINALS. BOTH LYNCHED. DENVER, January 28.—The Republican's Roanoke county special says: Frank Williams and John Gray, who killed Orion Kurz in a saloon row yesterday, were taken from jail this morning by a masked mob and lynched. Gray died, but Williams pleaded for mercy, claiming the deed was done in self-defense.

ELEVEN OUT. DENVER, January 28.—Eleven prisoners escaped from Buena Vista jail yesterday and are still at large.

TRIAL OF SYKES. NEW ORLEANS, January 28.—On information that Trayville Sykes, executor of the estate of Kate Townsend, had made a pretended sale of all immovable property of the estate without an order of court, not being the universal legatee, the court ordered the sheriff to take possession of the estate, but a stay of proceedings was granted later. Sykes' trial for the murder of Kate Townsend begins to-morrow.

TRIVIAL BUT FATAL. CHATTANOOGA, January 28.—In a row about a trivial matter in Jackson county, Ala., a man named Webb killed two brothers, and fatally wounded a third.

A CONFIDENCE GANG. YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, January 28.—P. Rasenberg, Wm. Ayres and Jacob Zinnert, have been arrested for extensive confidence operations during the past few years in Pennsylvania and Ohio. The plan was to take orders, and advance payments for counterfeit money and illicit whisky which was never delivered. The victims from the nature of the transactions being afraid to prosecute them. Zinnert confessed.

TWICE USED VOUCHERS. ELKHORN, Ill., January 28.—Ex-Treasurer Cowin, of Hardin county, has been arrested at Freeport, Ill. Ex-Deputy Treasurer Race was also arrested at Cedar Rapids on a charge of defalcation of over $8,000. Race is believed to be innocent. Cowin is supposed to have used last spring's vouchers a second time by altering the dates.

THE BOEDCKER MURDER. ST. LOUIS, Mo., January 28.—A. H. Latham, a peddler, arrested at Chambers station, 100 miles west, on suspicion of being the murderer of Louis Boedcker and wife near Fenton, Tuesday night. A satchel containing a peddler's outfit was found buried a short distance from Boedcker's. Another country peddler named John Smith was arrested to-night at Kinawick, Jefferson county, and still another, name unknown, is reported to have been arrested at Hinkleville, a western suburb of this city.

Gould in the Market. NEW YORK, January 28.—Jay Gould is demonstrating with a vengeance to the Exchange place grizzlies the danger of tampering with the feelings of a man whom they reported as bankrupt. The Sage is so identifying his confidence in the situation by selling sixty days privileges on the Northern Pacific preferred at 40c/60 at 1 1/2 per cent. His first trading in the stock set the whole market after 10:30 on the jump. Oregon railway & Navigation company opened at 78c. The next sales were at 94c, next at $1.05, next $1.08 and $1.18 cash. In other terms cost $1000 a day to borrow 100 shares of stock. The highest cash price was $1.10. Subsequently the stock sold at par in the regular way. There is no question about the scarcity of the stock. The capital is $18,000,000; of this, $3,000,000 is held as part of $8,000,000 loan advanced by the Farmers' Loan & Trust Co.; $2,300,000 held by the Northern Pacific company. Three million more belong to Gould and Sage for advancing $1,500,000 for the Decker-Howell loan taken up Saturday, leaving the outstanding stock, including investors and holders, $3,700,000. The stock is virtually cornered.

The Burlington and the U. P. CHICAGO, January 28.—It has been ascertained from the best official source that the Burlington has agreed on its part to maintain rates, and it is understood further negotiations are pending between it and the Union Pacific with a view to settling some points which would make it still possible to form a pool on trans-Missouri business. No settlement of any character has yet been reached between the western lines, but official declaration is made that negotiations may be taken up at any time and matters in dispute settled.

A Rebuke to the Barb Wire Kings. CHICAGO, January 28.—In September, 1882, Judge Gardner in the superior court decided the case of the Chicago Galvanized Wire Fence company against the Washburn & Moen company. The complaint under a license from the Washburn & Moen Co., one covenant of the license providing that in case any other licensee should be required to pay less license than did the complainant, then the latter and all other licensees be allowed a rebate to that extent. It was shown on the hearing of Washburn & Moen Co., in order to reach a settlement with Jacob Haisb, inventor of a valuable patent, they made a secret stipulation to allow him to make four thousand tons of barb wire

WASHINGTON WAITS. WASHINGTON, January 28.—The new code of senate rules creates two new standing committees and enlarges several old ones. The committee of the senate republican caucus is engaged in making selections for the republican membership of the new committee and filling new places in old ones. It is understood that Senator Lapham is selected for chairman of that on fisheries and Wilson for that on expenditures of public moneys. Senators Harrison, Plumb and Platt have been selected as the republican members of this committee. Senator Wilson is now chairman of the committee on mines and mining and Senator Lapham on woman suffrage. Their acceptance of the new chairmanships leaves the present positions vacant. Senator Bowen has been selected for chairman of the committee on mines and mining. No selection is yet made for chairman of the woman suffrage committee.

The case of Colonel Emilio Munez, a tobacco importer from Philadelphia, is being investigated by the department of state. It is alleged that Munez was taken from an American vessel in a Cuban port by an armed crew from a Spanish man-of-war. It is not claimed that Munez is a citizen of the United States.

The bill of Representative Culbertson, to limit the jurisdiction of federal courts and to restrict the removal of cases from state to federal courts, was considered today by a sub-committee of the house committee on the judiciary. The impression is that the bill will be approved.

The senate conferees receded from the senate amendment to the Greeley relief bill, and it will be reported to the senate to-morrow.
