Notwithstanding all the burglaries and other crimes, there has been no prisoner from this city lodged in the county jail for about two weeks past. A few drunks have been put in the city jail, but no one has been lodged in jail for violation of state laws

There is no hurry about the council accepting the water works so long as the council have not shown enough interest to count the hydrants to see if there really are 200 or not. Not one of the aldermen know that simple fact yetthat is "officially."

A woman named Fitzgerald was yes terday pleading with the chief of police to get him to make her husband give up a draft, which she claimed belonged to her individually, and not to her matrimonially. The chief couldn't see any way to settle the dispute, and so kept his hands off.

Captain Hayes denies that he was relieved from the police force because of attending the varieties. He says he plucked the star from his breast, because he wanted to get into more respectable business, and so has bought out Sweigart's salson in upper Broadway, where his old friends will find him on duty.

O. E. Green has commenced a suit against W. H. Negley, of Oakland, for about $600 damages. Green claims that he leased a warehouse to Negley, and that the latter knowing the warehouse would not hold more than 6,400 bushels of grain, stored 14,000 bushels in it, and consequently the building gave way, causing damage for which he now asks

A man named Montgomery, claiming to be the owner of some wrecked Uncle Tom's Cabin, was here yesterday, on the lookout for his property man and some of his property. He claims that the property man got the checks for the anks of him under the pretense of getting them for the owner, and instead of doing so was trying to run the property off. He did not find his man here, nor his goods either.

Mesars. Vaughan and Mynster have returned from St. Louis, where they have been arranging for a one hundred horse power engine to run the dynamos for the it is a boy. far with the electric light here is the undurability and insufficiency of the power, and when that defect is remedied it will be about perfect.
