

THE DAILY BEE.
Wednesday Morning, Jan. 30.
COUNCIL BLUFFS.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier 20 cents per week
By Mail 10.00 per Year

OFFICE:
No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

Additional local on seventh page.
Cheap railroad tickets at Bushnell's.
This is the last day of examination at St. Francis academy.

Lower Broadway was almost impassable for the mud yesterday, especially for pedestrians.

The return leap year party at the Ogden house last evening was a very enjoyable occasion.

W. W. Williams and A. S. Bonham have each contributed $5 to the Home of the Friendless.

The Museum of Anatomy, whose advertisement appears in another column, is drawing crowds daily.

A number of Council Bluffs roller skaters went over the river last night to attend the masquerade at the Omaha rink.

The "Silver King" showed up again last night to a full house. "Siberia" is to be presented at the new opera house Thursday evening.

W. R. Vaughan now has five boys and two girls. The youngest arrived home yesterday, and congratulations were being poured upon him yesterday.

Council Bluffs is soon to have a manager of the board of underwriters, so that there will be more uniformity of rates and write-ups among insurance men.

Mary White was the name given by a woman arrested Monday night for being drunk. She was released yesterday on condition of going her way and sinning no more.

A new prisoner was added yesterday to those in the county jail, his name being Pollock, he being brought here from Carroll county to await a trial on the charge of horse-stealing.

Mrs. Ella Maher complains that a fellow named Metcalf obtained food and lodging of her under false pretenses. The accused gave $200 bonds, and will stand trial before Justice Vaughan.

E. F. Philbrook has sued the Council Bluffs Insurance company for $1,000, that being 5 per cent of the premium income, which he claims he was to receive in addition to his salary as assistant secretary.

It is too bad that Mayor Bowman, last summer, scared all the vagrants out of town by his proclamation. The street crossings are flooded with mud and there are no prisoners to shovel them off.

Some time ago John Watson obtained a judgment against the Wabash railway for $7,000 for the loss of a foot. Yesterday an execution was issued, the company not having settled.

Some fellow on a lark painted main street red, without disturbing any of the slumbering policemen. One window is reported as broken in, one sewing machine sign smashed, and a photograph sign lugged off.

Justice Schurz, who seems just now to be monopolizing the marrying business, yesterday tied stoutly the noose between Samuel E. Porter and Ada White. The bridegroom is a resident of Carson and the bride of Neola.

The revival meetings at Broadway Methodist church are increasing in interest and are largely attended, not only by the Presbyterians and Methodists, but by those of other churches and many of no church at all.

The oil painting, on which Mr. Peter C. Miller was working yesterday at his place of business, 13 Pearl street, attracted the attention and admiration of passers by. He is exceedingly handy with the brush.

The Council Bluffs Chatauque circle is arranging to accept the invitation of the Omaha circle to meet in the latter city with some evening next month. The joint session will doubtless be an interesting one.

J. R. Milligan now wants to be released from the matrimonial ties which bind him to Lervina E. Milligan. The petition states they were married in Charleston, Iowa, in 1877, and that she deserted him in 1881, and has now returned to his bosom.

Spiritual Society will hold a free circle this evening at 7 o'clock in the rooms in Devols & Wright block, North Main street, up stairs. All are invited, and those wishing to communicate with spirits especially so. Mrs. E. EGGLESTON, Medium.

The Rescué Hose company give their fifth annual masquerade and ball at Dokany's hall this evening. Every arrangement is complete for a merry time, and there is great expectation of its being the best of all the annuals. The boys should have a rousing benefit.

It is with a sigh of relief that decent people see the variety show people moving out of town. The place has been a disgrace to Council Bluffs, and yet the authorities have not had grit and decency enough to close it out. It took a financial pinch to make them squeal.

A small fox scare is reported on Madison street, it having arisen from the fact of a physician visiting a house where a red dog hung out. The red dog proved to be a flannel shirt which had been washed and hung out to dry, and the physician's visit was for the purpose of treating one of the members of the family for some simple trouble.

The following have been drawn as jurors for the next term of the superior court: W. P. Moore, W. P. Weightman, G. A. Jacobs, J. J. White, Wm. Noble, of this city; James Crow, Minden; W. H. Linfer, Walnut; H. Gettens, Boomer township; Robert Adams, Crescent township.

F. W. Spelman yesterday had a young man, giving his name as W. C. Sims, arrested for obtaining one dollar's worth of butter at his store under false pretenses. The prisoner pleaded guilty and was fined $10. Not being able to pay, Justice Vaughan sent him to jail for three days.

The grove of Druids at Creston are preparing for a big masquerade on the 14th of February, and the Druids of Burlington are to have a still greater social event on the 4th. To both of these the Council Bluffs grove has been cordially invited, and some from this city will doubtless accept in person.

Harry Curtis, the new general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., is here on the ground, and is already looking over the field to see what can be done, and how. A reception is to be given him Thursday evening at the Ogden house from 8 o'clock till 10 o'clock. It is to be hoped that the reception will prove to him that he is heartily welcomed to this city by all who are anxious for the best interests and moral healthfulness of the city.

Mr. Chapman is making elaborate preparations for the opening of the new roller skating rink Friday evening. With him as manager the public may be assured that there will be none of the objectionable features which have characterized some such enterprises in the past. The best classes of people will find the rink an excellent place for recreation. It is one of the largest and best arranged rinks in the west, and will doubtless secure a large patronage.

As the mud deepens the indignation increases among pedestrians, who have to go around the sidewalk, or rather the place where there ought to be a sidewalk, in front of the old Herdic barn on Broadway. All this inconvenience because Marshal Key has enjoined the city from filling in front of his property. It seems as if, even though the fill had been made, he could have got his redress afterwards instead of having the public inconvenienced during a long litigation.

To-day in Justice Abbott's court a hot fight is expected, as the case of Henry Wagner vs. Bowen & Morrison is to be called up. Wagner, as many know, keeps a saloon, and the rear part of the building has been occupied, it is claimed, by Bowen & Morrison as a gambling place. There was a falling out and the rear part is closed up while the litigation goes on. G. A. Holmes appears for Wagner, and C. R. Soot as attorney for the defendants, and by the first round, which took place on a motion for a change of venue yesterday, some sharp work is expected.

George N. Jones, who was arrested Monday night on suspicion of having stolen a lady's muff which he had in his possession, and was trying to sell, was yesterday discharged. He was thought to be a little wrong too, because he had a number of mileage tickets bearing different names. The young man explained that he was travelling for an Illinois house, and that as there were others travelling for the same house, the tickets were made out sometimes to one and sometimes to another of the men. He claimed to have found the muff in the depot at Omaha. As he had apparently been on a few days' spree and seemed to be straight instead of crooked, he was let go again after being sobered up.

Mrs. A. Bryan, dressmaker. Cutting a specialty, 604 S. Main st., up stairs.

PERSONAL.

Simon Ward now wants Charley Hartman arrested for stealing a cultivator and plow, and has got Justice Abbott to issue a warrant.

Mr. E. Newman, of Omaha, was a visitor in the Bluffs yesterday.

Henry Eisman, the well-known merchant, starts to-day for the East to get more goods.

P. L. Rockinger, of Denver, was at the Ogden yesterday.

E. D. Kohn, of Rock Island, registered at the Ogden yesterday.

Charles Trille, of St. Louis, yesterday put his name on the Ogden's new book.

C. E. Laughlin, of Manning, was at the Pacific yesterday.

C. Hendrie, of Denver, was a Pacific house guest yesterday.

Judge Brandes' handsome figure was seen on this side of the river yesterday. He returned to Omaha late to take a late dinner with his family, whom he reports well.

M. G. Griffin left last evening for Atlantic, Iowa, to see about the organization of an Edison electric light company there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rowley, of Omaha, were on this side of the river yesterday to dine with friends.

Private lessons on china given by S. D. Rohse, Studio No. 12 N. Main street.

HANDLING A HANDLE.

An Irate Husband Quickly Settles With a Man For Throwing a Kiss to His Wife.

There was a decidedly ludicrous and rather exciting incident on upper Broadway yesterday afternoon. A merchant, whose family have rooms over the store, was informed by his wife that a man across the street had thrown a kiss at her. The husband naturally had a hot box, and as he dashed down stairs and through the store, he grabbed an ax and ran out into the street he wanted brandishing his weapon of offense and defense. He tackled the alleged kiss bearer and was about to brain him, but as the crowd gathered about, the accused insisted so strenuously that he was not guilty, and that he was simply wiping off his moustache, that he didn't see the woman, didn't know her, and—Oh Lord, Oh Lord!—that the irate husband let up, and, accepting explanations, concluded not to massacre the fellow, and the crowd who had gathered to see gore slopped all around scattered in disgust and disappointment.

NEWSY NEOLA.

An Elopement, a skeleton in the Lecture Hall and Other Items Cleaned by the Bee.

NEOLA, Ia., January 28.—It is rumored that Mrs. Devore has eloped with a single man of this town. They left here some days ago together and have not yet returned.

The citizens are indignant that the county board of supervisors do not intend to meet on February 6, and set for three days to get a sentiment of what the people want in the way of a new court house and jail, from committees to be sent before them, appointed by the people at general meetings of the township that would have been held before that time. In Neola township the proposition, as it stands at present, will be voted against.

J. A. Hamilton, proprietor of the Union hotel here, arrived home from Chicago Sunday morning, looking as jovial as ever, and more so, on account of his new salary.

The bill introduced in the state senate by Senator Marshall is creating quite an excitement. A petition is already being circulated for forward to Hon. Geo. Carson, our senator from this county, to use every honorable means in assisting the bill to pass. The people here think that a uniformity in text books in the public schools is a long felt want.

John F. Ogan, our worthy mayor, is absent on account of the late illness of his sister in the state of New York, and consequently police items are scarce.

Dr. F. Robins, a rising young physician here, has consented to give a lecture on anatomy. Fote's hall has been secured for the night of February 4! The skeleton formerly owned by Harley & McKim, of your city, but now owned and exhibited by G. S. Robbins, the pioneer druggist of this place, will play a conspicuous part in the lecture.

FROM THE RAPIDS.

Failure of Roller Skates and Prospect for Roller Mills.

COOK RAPIDS, Ia., January 28.—The Rev. Mr. Hall has begun a series of ten sermons on the parable of the tares, which have so far been of great and increasing interest. Mr. Hall is a stranger among us, but has succeeded in drawing and holding the interest of the unregenerate by his scholarly thought and really polished eloquence.

Cook Rapids is agitated over the proposed erection here of a large steam roller process grit mill. It is to cost $25,000.

The Nonpareil Dramatic company played here to a large audience on Saturday evening. Their rendition of "At Odds With the Enemy" was very satisfactory.

Our roller skating rink has given up the ghost. There is a chance for some energetic man to make a good thing by opening a rink here and running it in a business shape.

Attorney Spahr has been suffering for some days with a very bad cold.

Leap year parties seem to be all the rage in our usually quiet town, but we fear that they will not survive the ice cream season.

Mrs. Cooney has removed her millinery establishment into the east room of the new brick bank block on Main street.

H. S. Esty is now mine host of the Reynolds house.

Thompson & Harris are now engaged in the business of buying horses and shipping them to Dakota.

Diagnose (diseased condition described) without questioning. There are hundreds of witnesses to the fact that the blood is restored, the deaf made to hear, also paralysis and rheumatism of months and years standing frequently cured in 30 minutes' time through psychic suggestion, spirit or soul force. "These things were not done in a corner." The only reliable preventative and cure for diphtheria known (keep it on hand). The best return remedy in use. Small pox preventative—superior to vaccination. Every case of indigestion (dyspepsia) cured—time required one to six weeks. Old sores, commonly called cancers removed without the use of the knife. In fact all acute and chronic diseases successfully treated. The records of mortality show that Dr. Jeffers is the most successful practitioner of medicine in the western country. His greatest success has been in cases that has baffled the skill of other doctors, as well as causing despair and financial ruin in many cases.
