

THE DAILY BEE.

OMAHA. Wednesday Morning, Feb. 6.

THE COMING STATE FAIR.

The Meeting of the Board of Managers at the Paxton Last Night.

All Arrangements to be Completed To-Day.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

-A party of soldiers passed through this city, westward bound, yesterday.

-There is a public night school held on Douglas street, over Tirrell & Cook's shoe store nightly.

-A cancer tumor of unusual size was removed from the body of Walter W. Jefferson on Saturday last.

-A sneak thief last night stole from a poor woman at 219 North Sixteenth street her whole washing, not even leaving the line upon which it was hanging.

-A. B. Cook was in police court this morning charged with vagrancy.

-A. R. Newton, northwestern passenger agent of the K. C., Ft. Scott & Gulf road, is in the city, arranging to take a large party of excursionists to the New Orleans Mardi Gras.

-Meyer Hellman was yesterday appointed assignee, by County Judge Chadwick, of the bankrupt stock of goods of I. Rotholz, the Tenth street clothing merchant, who failed several weeks ago.

-There is an old saying that "a thing of beauty is a joy forever." We were shown a beautiful burial case, elegantly trimmed, this morning, but as for its being a joy forever, we fail to see it.

-The wife of Mr. Johnson, whose team and wagon were lost in the Missouri a week Sunday, is around soliciting subscriptions to replace the loss.

-The funeral of Dan Hurley will be held this morning at 9 a. m. at the residence 818 South avenue.

-The ladies of the Dodge street Presbyterian church, whose names commence with L. and M., will give a sociable and oyster supper on Thursday evening, at the church.

-The Omaha and Leadville extension of the Utah Pacific railway, from Dillon to Leadville, was finished and opened for business yesterday, and will be called "The High Line."

-Suit was instituted yesterday in Justice Anderson's court by Shriver & Bell against Charles E. Brunner, one of the delivery clerks in the postoffice department to recover $62.50, commission on the sale of a lot in North Omaha, which the plaintiffs made to William Mitchell.

-A woman who lives near the gas works and who has been robbed of an overcoat last night, and approached Officer Turnbull and wanted him to look it up.

The first meeting of the board of managers of the State Agricultural society was held in rooms 23 and 24 of the Paxton hotel last evening.

There were present S. M. Baker, Silver Creek; Ed. McIntyre, Seward; L. A. Kent, Minden; W. B. White, Tekamah, and J. Jensen, Geneva; Messrs. Hartman, Dinamore and Furnas, other members of the society were also present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. A communication had been received early in the evening that the Omaha Driving Park association had refused to rent their grounds on the terms proposed.

The condition of affairs was discussed at length. Late in the evening Mr. James E. Boyd, president of the Omaha Driving Park association, came in and stated his terms, which were that the park owners must have 10 per cent of the gross receipts, the 10 per cent of the state appropriation to be excluded, and the fair to be held here for five years.

But if the board of managers would make him a proposition for one year on the same terms he would let them know in a short time whether or not they would accept it.

Mr. Boyd claimed that the state authorities had accepted his offer for one year only, and that he was not bound by the action of the state board of agriculture in January last.

Mr. Boyd stated that the association could make more money without the fair than with it. The following is a copy of the offer made by the O. D. P. A. to the State Agricultural society in January, 1883, which was accepted by the state authorities:

OMAHA, January 4, 1883. To the Honorable State Board of Agriculture of Nebraska:

The undersigned, stockholders of the Omaha Driving Park association, respectfully submit the following proposition for the use of said association grounds for state fair purposes for the years 1883 and 1884:

First, the proceeds of the quarter stretch and amphitheatre for the years 1881, 1882, 1883 and 1884; second, if deemed advisable to enlarge the amphitheatre, one-half of the expenses to be borne by the state.

Extent of enlargement to be determined by the two boards of management. GEO. CANFIELD, W. A. PAXTON, J. J. BROWN, CHARLES H. BROWN JOHN D. CREIGHTON.

A motion was then made and carried that an offer of 10 per cent of the gross proceeds be offered to the Omaha Driving Park association, the state appropriation not included, for the use of the grounds for this year's state fair.

Mr. Boyd, who was present, said he would do all in his power to obtain the consent of the association and would let the board know at 10 o'clock this morning. The board then adjourned until 10 a. m. to-day.

A Very Remarkable Recovery. Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost blind for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two bottles of Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she is now able to do her own work."

Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle at C. F. Goodman's.

A ROYAL GUEST. The Queen of the Cannibal Islands Passes Through Omaha Incognito. On Thursday last the queen of the Cannibal Islands arrived in Omaha. She took breakfast at the depot eating house, and was there seen by a Bee reporter, who recognized her at a glance.

DRESSED BEEF.

An Interview With a Texas Cattle Man.

Who Says the Business is a Great Success in His State, and That It Will be Equally so in Omaha.

A reporter of the Bee yesterday met at the Paxton hotel two well-known and prominent Texas cattle drovers, D. R. Fant and Mr. Ellison, who were here to make arrangements to drive 20,000 cattle to Nebraska this year.

"How is the dressed beef business prospering in Texas, Mr. Fant," asked the Bee man.

"It has been a complete success from the day it started in last March," said he, "and this year it will be carried out on a much larger scale. I live at Goliah, twenty miles from Victoria, where they have got a slaughtering house of a capacity of seventy-five head per day."

In August last I went into their freezing houses and saw beef, killed three weeks before, just as fresh and sweet as it was the day it was killed. The arrangements for killing and freezing are very complete. The beef last year was put into refrigerator cars and shipped to New Orleans, and sold from the cars. This year it will be stored in a freezing house in New Orleans and retailed from the house instead of the refrigerator cars.

At Victoria the people prefer this dressed beef to butcher's freshly killed beef, and the result is that butchers themselves are compelled to handle the dressed beef. This new method will do away with the butcher business to a great extent.

At Fort Worth they have just opened a slaughtering house with a capacity of 250 head a day. A Shute can handle the same way as cattle.

"Isn't this a more profitable way of disposing of cattle than driving and shipping them alive to market?"

"A great deal more profitable. It used to cost us $10 to $12 to get a live steer from Victoria to New Orleans, and now we get the same steer to New Orleans in dressed beef, and get the profit right at home. We save freight, hog, stockyard fees and men's wages. It is a big saving. All the cattle men are enthusiastic over the new method."

"Then this business will prove a success in Omaha?"

"Undoubtedly, an immense success too. You have the capital, the cattle, and the facilities. The men engaged in the Omaha enterprise know what they are about, and that they are doing a big thing for themselves, and for Omaha, and for the cattle men of the west."

"Omaha is likely to become a big cattle market, then?"

"Most certainly, and that, too, at a very early day. Even if the dressed beef enterprise were left out, it is bound to be as good a market as Kansas City. Omaha is bound to be a big city. I have not been here before in three years, and I am surprised at the large number of substantial improvements. She is growing wonderfully fast. Her improvements are such as make a great city—fine hotels, an elegant opera house, water works, big buildings and all modern conveniences."

The second day of the term was gone through with yesterday and nothing was done. Judges Neville and Wakeley had hoped that something might be done, but only one case was reached ready for trial, which was settled before it was called. The motion for a new trial in the case of Krelle against Henneke, argued at length at the last term of court, was decided by Judge Wakeley yesterday. The motion was sustained and a new trial granted. In this action, judgment was rendered at the last term of court for $3,000 for plaintiff, damages resulting to his reputation from slanderous reports alleged to have been uttered by defendant. Judge Wakeley held that these reports, which it was proved that defendant had uttered, were of judicial record, and consequently were not slanderous.

An information was filed yesterday by D. J. Selden, upon which a writ of quo warranto was issued against Lewis Berle, requiring him to appear before the court and show by what authority he held the office of justice of the peace for the Second ward in this city. Selden sets up in his petition that he was duly elected justice for that ward last fall. Mr. Berle being his opponent, but that he was counted out by the judges of election.

J. T. Bell was reapportioned official stenographer for the court by Judge Neville, and Charles A. Potter was made deputy.

The grand jury were busy all day investigating the Sinclair case. After it is disposed of District Attorney Godwin will take up the shooting affray at the road house.

In the afternoon Judge Neville called 100 cases more on the docket, and adjourned court at 5 o'clock.

The following is the assignment for to-day: Before Judge Wakeley—Spaulding vs. O'Brien. Edwards vs. Board of County Commissioners. Housel vs. Cromer. Krohish vs. Svacina.

Before Judge Neville—Ledemer vs. Nye. Hilleke vs. Huss. Same vs. Same. Gallagher vs. Dew. North vs. Fosbury. Rous vs. Wright et al.

A BAND OF BAD MEN IN OMAHA.

Their Presence in the City an Indubitable Fact. That this city at the present time is infested by a band of thieves and robbers is an undoubted fact. The crimes committed within the last two weeks, which have come to the knowledge of the public, demonstrate clearly the fact that Omaha has in her midst a class of men of whom it has just cause to fear.

From the constitution of the police and detective force generally there must necessarily

GRUNEBAUM BROS.

Great Silk Bargain.

Without unnecessary commendations, in fervent, plainest, simplest words, we invite your notice to the following goods and prices:

It is to your advantage to walk through our store (on first and second floors) every day, and see the last new things that are put upon the counters.

There are very few days in the week that there is not something new displayed, more particularly now, when there are great bargains to be had, and new goods daily arriving.

We offered a special bargain last week, and said—they'll be gone before the close of the day they were offered, they were gone in less time!

And those were not regular customers who came late, and didn't believe we had them—or, they'd be here yet. We're glad most of our customers do know us better—and to all others we say—when we advertise a bargain instead of discussing the points and making time an excuse, do—wouldn't it be better to test the matter?—By reading our advertisements carefully and taking the paper in your hand, come early and see if what we say is reliable—and tell results to everybody.

Moral.—To you who read (and rightly) believe our advertisements in the papers, and who have said so often, but to whom that read and never believe what they see in the papers—they had better be quick about believing this time—and they will never disbelieve another column of store news written by Grunebaum's.

This week we make an extraordinary offering in Black Silks, as per local notice in Saturday evening papers, and Sunday morning papers.

We have gone through our Black Silk stock and have picked out amounting in to all 2800 yards of Black Silk of all grades, running in price and worth from $1.60 to $2.00 a yard, and will offer them at $1.25 PER YARD.

This is done to reduce our stock and to make room for our spring importation, which will arrive in a short time. We cannot say here what a great bargain this is—for we haven't the room to explain this grand silk offering; it would take at least three columns to tell you all about it, so we ask you to come and see if this isn't the best bargain in black silks ever offered at $1.25.

To accommodate the crowds and to make it convenient for those who will take advantage of this great bargain, we have placed a table beside our silk counter, and by doing this we will divide the crowds and also give everybody a chance.

We will not limit the amount to be sold, but will sell as many yards as any customer may want, because we know after the silks will be seen and spoken of, other ladies that can't make it convenient for them to call will have others to buy for her.

This great bargain will be taken advantage of by all who know what a good bargain is, so profit by this and don't delay your coming to see in a short time. We shall continue to offer our 48c corset which is worth 75c. This corset is silk embroidered in colors grey and white, and is a grand bargain.

With the above we shall offer another lot of 350 corsets at 95c. This is a regular $1.50 corset.

20 doz. 3 button kid gloves at 75c a pair, worth and regular selling price, $1.50.

25 doz. 4 button kid gloves at $1.25, selling all over for $2.00.

18 doz. six button length kid Mousquetaire gloves, all shades, original price, $2.75, now $1.90.
