Peoria Advance Corn Planter and Check Rower.

SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES OF THE Peoria Rotary Drop Planter

1. Lightness of draft and ease of handling.
2. Combination of hand and foot levers is such that Planter can be made rigid or flexible, at will of operator.
3. Hand lever is in centre of machine, hence one runner cannot go deeper than the other—a fault common to all planters with lever on side of machine.
4. Made of A No. 1 stock and substantial in every particular.
5. Painted with the best Oriental Vermilion, elaborately striped and varnished, making it very handsome and attractive.
6. Warranted to do first class work in any soil. The check rower is very simple and warranted to do first-class work if properly handled.

Old Reliable Peter Schuttler Wagon.

The Old Reliable PETER SCHUTTLEWAGON

Needs not one word of praise from us. It is known all over the United States, and where the very best wagon is wanted, you can always see a Schuttler. A sample set up in your Warehouse will convince you that farmers will buy the Schuttler at Schuttler prices.

Fish Bro's & Co's Celebrated Wagon.

Owing to the fact that we brought the FISH WAGON!

into this trade one year ago, and sold in twelve months $100,000 worth of them, many of our competitors have been representing to the trade, because of the financial difficulties of the Fish Bros., that we would not be able to supply them, hence we wish to assure dealers that we have arranged for the sale of this celebrated wagon, and call their attention to the fact that the wagon must be nearly perfect, if that is all the fault our competitors can find with it. Favor us with an order for any number and we will convince you by a prompt shipment that we are able to supply the large and ever increasing demand.

We carry a complete line of buggies and can furnish anything from best to cheap.

Call on us at our Mammoth Warehouse, and see the finest display of vehicles on the Missouri river or write for catalogues.

The Furst & Bradley Plow is so favorably known to every farmer west of the Alleghany mountains, that it is not necessary for us to recommend it.

This is our second year with the Bradley Tongueless Cultivator, and are guaranteed to be like all implements manufactured by Furst & Bradley Manufacturing Co.—first-class in every particular.

This cultivator has been well and favorably known to farmers and dealers for years, and we are bound to maintain its enviable reputation in the trade.

The Bradley Rakes are first-class. We make them either hand or self dump, for one or two horses.

This Thresher is manufactured by C. Aultman & Co., Canton, O., and with their new power or Traction engine is all that can be desired by the best threshers.

IOWA ITEMS.

The Des Moines distillery is buying corn at 30 cents a bushel.
 A project for a $10,000 hotel is under discussion in Rock Rapids.
 C. Kittering, a wealthy farmer in La Porte, paid the widow Hudson $550 in settlement of a breach of promise of marriage.
 The residence of Hon. G. W. Cable, of Davenport, was entered by burglars one night recently, and $1,000 worth of jewelry stolen.
 George Yule, a well known young man of Anamosa, was arrested at a Presbyterian festival the other night on a charge of horse stealing.
 The people of Indianola has attained the necessary population of 2,000 or over, entitling that town to be a city of the second class.
 There will be more Catholic churches built in Iowa during 1884 than was ever built in any two years before. The growth of Catholicity in Iowa is unparalleled in the history of the state.
 Madison King, brakeman, was missed from his train on its arrival at Glenwood. His body was found beside the track with his neck broken. He was buried at Kent on Sunday. He leaves a young wife.
 The revival in the little town of Carson, Adams county, has resulted in the conversion of over one hundred and thirty penitents. The names of eighty-six were reported for membership in the several churches last Sunday.
 According to official statistics as to postal matters in Iowa, it appears that Iowa is now paying to the government a net postal income of over $100,000—not only paying all of its own postal expenses but $100,000 besides. The increase from the postal service in Iowa last year was $1,477,326.72.

Mrs. J. E. Sheeler, of Union township, was fatally burned on the 31st ult. by her dress catching fire from the stove. In order to obtain assistance she was compelled to put on other clothing and go to the house of a neighbor a fourth of a mile away, thus aggravating her injuries by exertion and exposure.
 The Iowa City Republican reports a sad casualty from North Liberty, Johnson county. Mr. and Mrs. George Alt, a young couple, started from their home near that place to visit Mr. Alt's parents in the vicinity of Tiffin. Their baby, a girl three months old, they had with them, closely bundled up, for the weather was cold. On reaching their destination the child was found to be dead, having been smothered.

Fred Roth, on the night of May 5, 1883, fell into an excavation for a new building at Des Moines and seriously injured himself. He brought suit for damages in a large amount against the city. The jury gave him a verdict for $2,000. This verdict was set aside on account of the bad conduct of a juror, and a new trial ordered. It was observed during the second trial that Roth was looking very pale and weak. The trial closed last Saturday afternoon by the jury finding for the defendant. Thirty-six hours later Fred Roth was dead.

Mrs. Dan Inslow, living in Aurora, Ill., kept her money in her sewing machine drawer. Dan struck the drawer for $100, and lit out for Cedar Rapids. There he rented a house, bought furniture, and proceeded to go into the business of keeping boarders. But he was arrested and jailed. Mrs. Dan came on and wanted to know what he was going to do about it. She took some money and some furniture in settlement and returned to Illinois, and Dan was discharged, quite broken down in fortune, and expecting to remain for the present in Cedar Rapids.

Jack Sweeney sat in a seat behind Will Davis in the Ottumwa Methodist church last Tuesday evening. Sweeney talked with girls sitting in the seat ahead of Davis. This attracted attention, and Davis said he did not want to be gayed for what Sweeney was doing, and wanted Sweeney to dry up. Sweeney replied disrespectfully to Davis, and Davis said he would see him after church. The young men met after church, and the result was, after some words and blows, that Davis cut Sweeney with a pocket-knife, twice on the head and once on the arm, making bad wounds. Davis was arrested and placed under bonds of $300 to answer.

About 11 o'clock last Sunday night as John Thurner, of Dubuque, was lighting the gas in his saloon there was an awful crash, the Clay street door of the saloon was burst in, and a madman ran upon the floor. All was darkness inside, and the noise created consternation and aroused the people of the neighborhood. Thurner and his friend managed to get out, and bystanders hesitated about going into the dark and noisy place to view the situation. Finally a light was procured, about twenty men "made a sneak" on the horse and held him down until he was pulled out, a good deal demoralized.

A Woman's Way.

Chicago Inter-Ocean.
 "Let me have five two-cent stamps, please," said a lady to the retail stamp clerk in the post office yesterday.
 "Yes, ma'am," he said, handing them out.
 "Can't you let me have them in one piece?" she added.
 "Certainly, ma'am," said the clerk.
 "Can I send them home for you?"
 "Oh, no; I don't live far—only on the North Side—and I am going right home. I wouldn't want to put you to the trouble."
 "No trouble at all," said the clerk. "I haven't very much to do to-day, and I could very easily spare an hour."
 "Very much obliged," said the lady, smiling sweetly. "Dear me," she said, putting on a stamp, "what a horrid bother it is to stamp letters! Why can't we send letters and let the post office send in their bill once a month?"
 "They might just as well," said the clerk, sympathizingly. "I'll mention the fact in my next message to congress."
 "Will you? How nice! But you mustn't mention my name. Say the idea was suggested by a North Side society lady."

Afterwards.

After a patient has been dosed with curative sulfonamide until his teeth are loose, his mouth sore, his hair all gone his limbs all drawn with rheumatism, he is put on Iodine of Folsch, one of the strongest mineral preparations in the whole list. This soon takes away the little appetite left him by the mercury—disorders his stomach, causes pain in the bowels, nausea, dries up the gastric juices, and food is rejected, wastes him away to a skeleton, and he is soon a subject for the undertaker. To all such Swift's Specific is a boon—worth more than its weight in diamonds. It builds up the waste, roots out those mineral poisons, and brings help and happiness. Send for a copy of Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases.
