by his wife with a fine boy. -The last of the series of parties of the Ruth Bebekah degree lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., will begin this evening, February 14th,

-Oyster supper and valentine sociable at North Presbyterian church to-night. Oysters served from 6 until 10 p. m. Admission 30 cents, including supper.

-In the United States court at Lincol yesterday the jury was discharged. The remainder of the term will be devoted to th hearing of motions and equity cases.

-Thomas L. Kimball and party left for the west by special car yesterday. They will go as far as Ogden, where they will meet Sidney Dillon, who is now on his return trip from

One of the new "Buffet" coaches, "Ormus," was sent out on the Union Pacific overland train yesterday. It is undoubtedly the finest car ever used by the company, and is fit for a king to occupy.

-A very pleasant party was given by Mrs. Anna Segelke Wednesday, at her residence, corner of Eleventh and Pierce streets. Only a few intimate friends were present and innocent amusements were indulged in until quite a late hour.

-Wednesday afternoon little Miss Clara Eastman entertained a number of her friends at her house on Cass street, in honor of her sixth birthday. A very pleasant time was enjoyed, and they wished her many happy returns of the day.

-The Danver train from the west over the Union Pacific yesteday was a little "off." The Denver section arrived in this city about one hour late, but the Ogden section did not reach this city until 2 o'clock yesterday. Snow was the cause of the delay.

-The first number of The Philharmonic, the journal of the Philharmonic [society, was published yesterday. It is a neat and attractive publication of ten pages, printed on tinted paper and illustrated with portraits of Thursby and De Kontski, and filled with interesting musical notes.

-A case was commenced in the district court Wednesday by James Creighton and Thomas J. Fitzmorris, executors of the estate of M. W. Kennedy, deceased, against the heirs of said estate. Owing to differences that have arisen between them, the petitioners pray that the court shall put the proper construction on the will.

-The Turn-Verein society will give a may querade ball on Thursday evening, February 21st, at Germania hall, on Harney street. The masquerade fever has struck the city in gennine earnest. There has never before been season when so many masquerade balls were given as this season, and yet they all seem to be well patronized.

-Annie Dryer, arrived in this city yester day from Council Bluffs, in search of a friend named Mary Miller. The address given by her was No. 26 Farnam street. The police made a fruitless search for Miss Miller and gentlemanly telegraph operator in the office desire information as to her whereabouts. In the meantime they will see that Miss Dryer is properly cared for:

-Chief Clerk Stacey yasterday received an order from the postoffice department at Washington transferring Postal Clerk Frank M. Moore from the B. & M. to the U. P., to take the place of J. B. Southard, resigned, and George A. Smiley from the Missouri Pacific to the B. & M., to thke the place of Moore,

-G. W. Lewis and E. H. McCarty came up from Papillion yesterday to sign the bond of Michael Kane, now in Douglas county jail, and held as a witness in the case of the state against McCarty, now out on bail for murder. The bond was signed by these gentlement but Kane was not liberated, Judge Neville taking the matter under advisement.

-The evidence has all been adduced and the legal arguments were made yesterday before Hon. James W. Savage, special United States commissioner, in the cases of McLain & Macnider, against the Gen. Terry, Gen. Meade, and Nellie Peck, boats now lying in the Missouri river, opposite Sioux City. This case has been referred to a special commis sioner by the United Ssates circuit to which it has been appealed.

-Despite the intense cold and the strong attraction at the opera house, a very brilliant audience assembled at the roller rink Wednesday evening to witness the first contest for the gold watch and chain advertised to be awarded to the most graceful lady skatet. Miss Georgia Shipman, escorted by John Hitchcock, Miss Mabel Balcombs escorted by Harry Morford, and Miss Jennie House escorted by Charles Gratton, were contestants for the prize. Miss Georgia Shipman received 77 votes and was declared to be the successful

The soft glove fight which was billed to come off at the Theatre Comique, between O. H. Smith of Chicago, and Prof. Miller of this city, last night, was looked upon by a great many as a ruse simply to draw a crowd, but in that they were greatly mistaken. At about 11 o'clock the men appeared on the stage and a Mr. Greene, bartender for M A.

FALCONER'S BALL.

In Evening of Pleasure and Enjoyment Spent by Those Present.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the winter was the masquerade ball of last evening, held in N. B. Falconer's hall. This ball was given by the employes of Mr. Falcener, and was under the management of N. T. Anderson, A. G. Buchanan, T. P. Cartwright, C. A. Yost and A. McKenzie, of whom not too much can be said of the able and elegant manner in which it was conducted. It W. H. Taylor, of Friend, and W. The young and old present last night, were those of whom both emyloyer and employers may well feel proud. The party was one which was entirely relieved and free from those whose presence in such place is not desired. Mr. Falconer was everywhere present and seemed to be entirely rejuvenated. Irwin's orchestra furnish ed the music and a select pragramme of dances was gone thrugh with. The dancers tarried until early morning when tired of enjoyment they went to their homes. It was an evening long to be remembered, and of which the managers and participants have just cause to feel proud.

LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN

The Brotherhood Hold a Brillian First Annual Ball.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Fire nen gave their first annual ball at Masonic hall Wednesday. The attendance far exceeded the expectation of the management, and indeed the hall was so full the guests had to await their turn to

The decorations exceeded anything of the kind seen this season, and must have occasioned considerable outlay. Upon entering the hall the beautiful inscription "Welcome" was first seen. Above the door was suspended a "horse shoe," indicative of the wish that good luck would accompany the firemen in their perilous dashes across the country. Around the pillars were interwoven the national colors, and festoons of evergreen and flowers were suspended from the chandeliers to either side of the hall. Upon the Grant Jennings, Admah, J. T.
