FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, February 18.—Mr. Wilson, (rep. Ia.) presented two sets of credentials of Mr. Allison, senator-elect from Iowa.

The chair laid before the senate a joint resolution of the legislature of Ohio relative to the exclusion of American pork from France and Germany.

Mr. McMillan, (rep. Minn.) presented resolutions from the chambers of commerce of Minneapolis and St. Paul, opposing the forfeiture of the land grants of the Northern Pacific.

The committee on public lands reported adversely the bill for irrigation of the lands in the arid regions of the United States. Indefinitely postponed.

Bills were introduced and referred as follows: By Mr. Harrison, (rep. Ind.)—For admission as a state of Dakota.

By Mr. Vest, (dem. Mo.)—To provide for carrying on improvements of rivers and harbors by contract.

The bill passed removing the southern Utah Indians of Colorado to Utah.

The senate resumed consideration of the bill providing for a national bank circulation.

After an extended discussion Mr. Plumb (rep. Ka.) modified his amendment by a clause providing that if when the national bank circulation shall be surrendered it be not taken up by other national banks, within thirty days the secretary of the treasury shall issue its equivalent in treasury notes, etc., and by adding at the close of his amendment the following: "The true intent and meaning of this section being that the volume of paper money outstanding, exclusive of gold and silver certificates, shall remain as now existing."

After an executive session the senate adjourned.

The following bills and resolutions were introduced and referred appropriately: By Mr. Peel (dem. Ark.)—Granting 320 acres of the public lands to each of the survivors of the Mountain Meadow massacre.

By Mr. Balford (rep. Cal.)—A resolution calling on the secretary of state to inform the house whether Prince Bismarck has sent to his department any letter touching the resolution recently passed by this house concerning the death of Herr Lasker, and if so to transmit a copy of the same and inform the house of any advice he may have on the subject.

By Mr. Nichols (dem. Ga.)—A bill to regulate traffic on railroads aided by government bonds. It makes freight pools and discrimination in freight rates unlawful.

By Mr. Cobb (dem. Ind.)—Providing for paying the cost of surveying lands granted the Northern Pacific and subject the same to taxation.

By Mr. Dockery (dem. Mo.)—Appropriating $12,000 for the maintenance of additional signal service stations in the vicinity of tributaries of our navigable streams.

Mr. Storm (dem. Pa.)—To amend the sinking fund act. It provides that after the 1st of July next, coin paid for duties on imports to be provided for by the sinking fund act of 1878, shall be applied as follows: First, to the payment of interest on government indebtedness.

Second, to payment of 1 per cent of the public debt per annum to be set apart as a sinking fund for use under direction of the secretary of the treasury.

Third, the residue to be paid into the treasury.

By Mr. Holman (dem. Ind.)—Calling on the secretary of the treasury to show how much money in the treasury can be used toward the payment of the matured public debt without embarrassment.

Mr. Dowd (dem. N. C.) from the committee on coinage weights and measures, moved to suspend the rules and adopt resolutions making the bill for the retirement of the trade dollar a special order for the 11th of March.

Mr. Townsend (dem. Ill.) opposed the bill. Until the next three months the trade dollar has circulated side by side with the standard dollar, and no cry came up for its redemption at par. At that time the bankers repudiated it and merchants refused to receive it. It immediately depreciated to 80 cents, and went into the hands of jobbers in New York, who now wanted to have it exchanged at par.

The bill to relieve certain soldiers charged with desertion passed under a suspension of the rules. It exonerates volunteers of the late war who served faithfully until the expiration of the term of their enlistment, or till the 1st of May, 1865, or were prevented from completing their term of service by reason of wounds, but, by reason of absence from their commands at the time they were mustered out, failed to receive an honorable discharge.

The bill fixing at one cent for each four ounces the rate of postage on second-class matter mailed by persons other than the publisher or newspaper agent, passed under suspension of the rules. It is substantially Mr. Townsend's bill.

The rules were suspended and a resolution adopted setting aside March 12 for the consideration of bills amending the Thurman sinking fund act.

A motion to adjourn was voted down by the democrats who desired to set aside a day for the consideration of the bills to pension survivors of the Mexican war.

Mr. Hewitt (dem. Ala.) moved to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution making the Mexican pension bill a special order for the 21st inst.

The republicans refrained from voting, leaving the house without a quorum. A call of the house was ordered and the sergeant-at-arms was ordered to bring absentees before the bar of the house.

The opposition on the republican side to the resolution was reported by Mr. Hewitt. He noticed one member who considered the broad provision of the bill. It provides for placing on the pension roll the names of those who served thirty days in the Creek war or disturbance of 1835 and 1836, or in the Seminole or Black Hawk, as well as those who served sixty days in the war with Mexico.

Mr. Hiseock (rep. N. Y.) suggested to Mr. Hewitt if he would agree that the bill be so amended that it would merely apply to survivors of the Mexican war, there would be no objection to the resolution on the republican side. This proposition Mr. Hewitt declined to accede to, and the monotony of the call continued.

At 12:15 the house was still in session, with little prospect of an adjournment before laybreak.

An exciting and angry debate ensued upon excusing Mr. Barnum, who admitted that he left the house after the contest had begun. The democrats voted against excusing him. On a motion that he be fined Mr. Brown (rep. Ind.) severely arraigned the conduct of the house in cases of calls, declaring it disproportionate and calculated to bring upon the members the deserved contempt of the country.

FROM WASHINGTON. THE DANVILLE INVESTIGATION. WASHINGTON, February 17.—The Danville investigation was resumed this morning. Herze Lawson, a colored man, whose fight with Noel preceded the riot, and Davis Lewellen, colored, told the story of the preliminary quarrel substantially as related by the colored witnesses last week.

John F. Carl, superintendent of the national cemetery at Danville, described the riot. He noticed a number of white men in the crowd holding pistols. They fired about 150 shots; saw no arms in the hands of colored men and saw no returning shots.

Sophia Powell, colored, saw Mr. Blunt stand on the corner and shoot several times. Mrs. Violet Keeling, colored, saw Blunt fire.

J. G. Miller, white, testified that the whites were in danger of being mobbed by the blacks when they fired. Adjourning.

FLOUGHING DEEP. The committee on expenditures in the department of justice to-day determined to begin on March 3 the examination in the manner in which the star route prosecutions have been and are being conducted. All participants in the transaction on the part of the government or individuals will be called to give testimony in the investigation, commencing with the appointment of MacVeagh as attorney general and James as postmaster general, and it is believed will continue two months.

IMMEDIATELY NEEDED. The secretary of war reports that immediate appropriations are needed for the improvement of the following rivers and harbors: Saint Paul, Mississippi river, $6,000; water gauges on Mississippi river, $2,500; Mississippi river, between the Illinois and Ohio rivers, $250,000; Missouri river, $270,000; Upper Mississippi, $400,000; Wabash river, $25,000; Chicago harbor, $20,000; Illinois river, $36,000.

A telegram from Mrs. Hunt, wife of the Russian minister at St. Petersburg, announces the probable fatal illness of that official.

NOTES. The ways and means committee to-day heard a number of manufacturers of cotton goods opposed to the Morrison tariff bill.

Commander W. S. Schley has been selected to command the Greeley relief expedition.

The treasury has suspended the issue of one dollar notes pending an appropriation enabling the printing of more.

Seth F. Craig was confirmed postmaster of Wynome, Nebraska, to-day.

PHILADELPHIA Election Tricks. Thousands of circulars purporting to come from the democratic city committee have been received by voters, warning those furnished with tax receipts by democratic committees not to vote on such receipts to-morrow, as through mistake the committee had neglected to pay the tax receiver for them, and all who attempt to vote on the receipts will be arrested.

Voters are requested to return the tax receipts to the city committee at once. Upon information received by lawyers engaged by the democrats, they directed warrants issued for the arrest of Real Estate Assessor Nabri, William B. Ahern, secretary of the republican city executive committee, and Charles E. Voorhes, an employee of the United States senate who is a resident here.

Why They Failed. NEW YORK, February 18.—The Tribune says the immediate cause of the failure of the McGowan, Brose & Peering was a peremptory demand by the Oregon & Transcontinental company for payment of $75,000 which the firm owed it. The liabilities are mainly to customers of the firm. The amount could not be approximated even this evening. There are obligations to the Transcontinental company of $40,000, covered by collaterals, and something over $20,000 due George M. Pullman on account.

GETTING OUT OF THE WET.

CINCINNATI, O., February 18.—The river is falling an average of an inch and a half an hour. It reached 63 feet 9 inches at ten a. m. Cloudy and foggy. Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton trains began arriving at their depot to-day. The New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio enters the same depot. The road bed is not injured. The Pan Handle depot and tracks are out of water. All passenger schedules were resumed this morning. Freight will be resumed this evening or to-morrow. The Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, and Indianapolis road has given up canal connections and comes to the stock yards. The Cincinnati, Washington & Baltimore will enter the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton depot to-day.

The Ohio & Mississippi canals make direct landings at Storrs from the Aurora boat. The Louisville & Nashville can enter its depot. A decided improvement in business is already apparent.

Passenger travel has been resumed on the main line on the Cincinnati and Eastern railway. But little damage suffered. Freight traffic will be resumed in a day or two. High water still prevents the operation of the Ohio river branch.

PITTSBURG, February 18.—There will be almost a general resumption of work this week in the iron mills, glass factories and river coal mines. Many mills flooded out started up last week, and the remainder will be running in a few days.

All glass factories will be in operation by to-morrow, after some months suspension on account of the strike, and river coal mines, which have been closed nearly all winter owing to depression of trade resumed to-day where no attempt was made to-day to reduce wages. In the third and fourth pools a number of pits are still closed because the men refuse to return to work until the government will district price of three and a half for the third or three cents for the fourth pool. The resumption will give employment to many thousands. The railroad miners at Scott Haven struck against a reduction Saturday night and the mines were shut down.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., February 18.—The river is falling one inch per hour, it is now 44.6. Cloudy and damp and threatening rain. The City of Louisville with supplies, the government of Indiana, and mayor of Indianapolis and council passed down.

A TERRIBLE PICTURE. EVANSVILLE, February 18.—The government relief boat Mattie Hays arrived to-day. The officers describe the separation at nearly all points as most deplorable. On the trip 6,000 needy ones were discovered and 39,000 rations distributed. The condition at Bridgeport, a few miles below New Albany, is pitiable. The entire town is submerged and the people have all fled, government of Indiana, and water and deserted. There is much destitution at West Point. Six thousand rations were left. Rock Haven has been almost entirely swept away. Twenty-five hundred rations were left at Mauckport, which is completely submerged, and much distress was discovered. More than one-half of Anderson is under water. Leavenworth is completely submerged, many houses have floated away, 500 persons are in distress, and 2,500 rations were left. At Rome the swell from the boats swept three houses from their foundations. There is much suffering there, and three thousand rations were left. One hundred families at Stephenson were distressed. Tubing port opposite the river is a total wreck, and the people all gone. Three-fourths of Havesville is under water; 500 persons are in distress and need supplies. There are about the same number of sufferers at Tell City. Maxville is entirely swept away, and most of the people are now at Tell City. The situation at Grandview is serious. The damage here reported in the interior. Eight thousand rations were left there and at Rockport for use in the country. Enterprise is entirely submerged and nearly all the inhabitants gone to places of safety. Rations for 90 were left at Grison's Landing.

TO-NIGHT the river is 2 1/2 inches higher than last year, and still rising at the rate of 3 inches in 24 hours.

RAPIDLY RECEDED AT LOUISVILLE. LOUISVILLE, February 18.—To-night the river is 44 feet 1 inch, having fallen 2 feet 7 inches from the highest point of Friday night. The water is going down at the rate of an inch an hour. It is too early to discover the amount of damage done. Business is beginning to pick up. The steamer City of Frankfort has arrived from Madison with a lot of provisions, which will be taken down as far as Shawneetown for the sufferers. Governor Porter is in charge of the boat.

COMFORTS FOR THE NEEDY. AUBURN, Ind., February 18.—The relief steamer left ten days' rations for 600 people at Coal City, North Bend, and the place opposite the Big Miami. At Lawrenceburg 30,000 rations were issued to 3,000 people, besides mattresses, comforts and a large quantity of women's clothing. By Wednesday the water will be off the greater part of the town. Relief is coming liberally. The damage here cannot be less than $200,000. At Aurora rations have been issued for eight days to a thousand people, besides a lot of clothing.

BEING AT CAIRO. CAIRO, February 18.—At 6 to-night the river was 50 feet 10 inches and rising about a quarter of an inch an hour. It now lacks one foot and four inches of last year's gauge. A watch patrols the levee night and day. Everything is quiet here. The river at Paducah covers two-thirds of the city and is still rising. Bulk heads have been erected at Mound City, the river being at the top of the levee.

THE VISITING WORK. CINCINNATI, February 18.—A correspondent aboard the relief steamer Granite State says the receding water reveals greater damage than was thought possible. Aberdeen, Ohio, has suffered terribly, a strong current sweeping through the town and washing away many houses.

MORE BUILDINGS FALL. CINCINNATI, February 18.—After midnight two four-story brick buildings, on the northwest corner of Second street and Central avenue, fell from the effect of the water at their foundations. They were unoccupied.

LITTLE HELPERS. ERIE, Pa., February 18.—A musical entertainment arranged and rendered by six children under twelve years, at Waterford, this county, for the benefit of the flood sufferers, netted over $50.

SIoux CITY'S CONTRIBUTION. SIOUX CITY, February 18.—A check for $780 will be sent from here to-morrow for the Ohio river flood sufferers.

COPIAH COUNTY.

The Bulldozers' Work.

NEW ORLEANS, February 18.—The sub-committee of the United States senate investigating the Mississippi outrages resumed the hearing of testimony to-day. David Bell, colored, testified that he was chairman of the republican executive committee of Copiah county; saw armed men riding about the night before the election; his house was visited by a party of 25 men. They took the election tickets he had taken for distribution to the voters, and destroyed them. They were mixed tickets, republican and independent, and had the name of Miller, democratic candidate, on them. Witness was now assistant sergeant-at-arms of the Mississippi senate. He was given the position, he thought, through the influence of Miller, whose name was on his tickets. Witness declined to give the names of the men who took the tickets from him. He supposed them to be a lot of drinking fellows, and denied having offered to testify for the democrats. Witness voted the independent republican ticket on election day, as did most colored men who were not intimidated.

Mrs. Wallace, colored, widow of Thom' as Wallace, testified that Friday night before the election armed men came to the house, pushed open the door and attempted to throw a rope over her husband's neck, when he threw up his hands, asking what they wanted to do. A man then shot him in the neck. Several shots were fired, one shot striking her arm and passing into her husband's neck, killing him. The men went away. She didn't know who they were. After her husband was killed she went to the woods and remained there until after the election.

Handy Fortner, colored, said two weeks before the election at ten o'clock at night, a crowd came to his house and cursed him; said they had come for him. "They made me cross my hands and follow them. Some of them were masked and some painted. They took me out into the woods. They made Poward and West, two colored men who were at my house follow, and when they got to where the large crowd was, they pulled down my breeches and stretched me out on the ground. They made Poward sit on my head and West on my feet, and commenced lashing me with whips. They took me out into the woods.
