

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Important Bills Congress Will Consider This Week.

The Progress Made With the Appropriation Bills.

Belford Rises to Propose a West Point Attachment.

The House Labor Committee on the Contract System.

A Strong Condemnation Based on Solid Facts.

THE CONGRESSIONAL WEEK.

LETTERS OF PRESENT CONSIDERATION.

WASHINGTON, February 24.—In the house of representatives...

Enclitics in memory of the late Representative Haskell will be delivered Thursday.

Representative Belford will tomorrow introduce in the house a bill authorizing the secretary of war to establish at West Point a preparatory school for training candidates for admission to the military academy.

CONTRACT LABOR CONDEMNED.

Special Dispatch to the Globe-Democrat.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 22.—As a result of the deliberations of the house labor committee with the question of the importation of Hungarian and Italian laborers to the United States...

THE REPORT.

The committee report back the bill, house resolution 2,550, with an amendment, and recommend its passage.

THE WINDOW-GLASS MANUFACTURERS.

Attention is called by the committee to the following resolution of the Window-Glass Manufacturers' association held at Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Indiana and Ohio...

Blown off the Track.

DESVIER, Feb. 23.—At 7 o'clock this morning, during a terrific wind storm, two coaches of the Denver-bound Colorado Central train were blown from the track in the vicinity of Georgetown.

THE TAYLOR MURDER.

The Confession Made by the Brute Inzals.

Funeral of the Late Victims at Avondale.

Clergymen Advocate Lynching the Murderers.

Their Sentiments Are Applauded By the People.

A Desperate Flight With Horse Thieves in Texas.

CRIME AND CRIMINALS.

BURIAL OF THE VICTIMS.

CINCINNATI, February 23.—The examination of parties charged with the murder of Beverly Taylor and wife and Eliza Jane Cramer, an adopted child, whose bodies were sold to the Ohio Medical college on the same night of the murder, was held at Avondale this morning.

After long resistance Allen Ingalls made the following confession of the killing of the Taylor family on the night of the 23rd of January, 1883.

SOUTHERN EUROPEAN PATRONS.

An agent for a firm in New York who was applied to for laborers—Italian preferred—for work in an iron manufactory, stated that during the time he had been in business...

CINCINNATI, O., February 24.—The funeral of the Taylor family (colored) who were murdered and whose bodies sold to the Ohio Medical college, occurred at Avondale this afternoon.

WASHINGTON, February 23.—Before the Keifer-Boynon investigating committee, Charles A. Garfield, of Cleveland, cousin of President Garfield, was examined...

THE WHISKY BILL.

WASHINGTON, February 23.—It is believed that no minority report will be made on the Morrison bonded spirits extension bill.

A DEMOCRAT FIGHT.

DECATUR, Tex., February 24.—A desperate fight between a band of horse thieves and a sheriff's posse occurred near Greenwood this morning.

The Flood.

CAIRO, Ill., February 24.—At ten p. m. the signal service reports, 51 feet 10 inches, 4 inches below the high water of last year.

A Fatal Fall.

JEFFERSON CITY, February 24.—Yesterday afternoon Will Reid, a clerk in Secretary of State McGrath's office, met his death in a sudden and peculiar manner.

FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

The Force of Gordon's Proclamation Fading Away.

The Movement of Armies in the Soudan Country.

A Massacre of Europeans in Suakim Feared.

The Khedive Preparing to Fly to France.

A Movement on Baouab By the Tonquin Land Forces.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

THE SOUDAN CAMPAIGN.

CAIRO, February 24.—General Graham, commander of the Tokar expedition, telegraphs General Stevenson an urgent request for reinforcements of artillery, as he is armed only with cannon.

MOVING FORWARD.

SUAKIM, February 24.—The Nubian troops about to be embarked for Trinkit refused to proceed, saying their bullets would not pierce the shield of the rebels.

AN ATTACK ON SUAKIM.

SUAKIM, February 24.—It is common talk in the barracks that Osman Digna will very soon attack this place in which event it is expected the Khedive's troops will declare for El Mahdi and massacre the Europeans.

THE KHEWIVE'S DILEMMA.

KHARTOUM, February 24.—The effect of General Gordon's proclamation is fading. It is reported that El Mahdi, who is the main body of his army, has left Ara and is marching on Khartoum.

MOVING ON BAOUAB.

PARIS, February 24.—General Millot, commander of the land forces in Tonquin, has left three battalions at Sontay and three at Haihong, and is preparing to operate against Baouab with 9,000 men.

EGYPT'S GOOD CROPS.

ALEXANDRIA, February 24.—Bids are invited for furnishing stores and provisions for the British army of occupation of 10,000 men for the year.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

THE LATEST SQUEEZE.

CHICAGO, February 23.—The markets on the board of trade were active to-day in a speculative way, but legitimate business was small, with grain weaker but provisions higher.

ST. PAUL.

ST. PAUL, February 24.—This afternoon a disastrous fire occurred here by which the large four story warehouse on the corner of Pine and Spruce streets was burned.

A Great Fire in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, February 24.—This afternoon a disastrous fire occurred here by which the large four story warehouse on the corner of Pine and Spruce streets was burned.

The Frisco Prohibitionists.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 24.—A prohibition meeting last night adopted resolutions against the passage of the bill extending the time for the payment of the tax on bonded spirits, and favoring Sumner's postal telegraph bill.

FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

The Force of Gordon's Proclamation Fading Away.

The Movement of Armies in the Soudan Country.

A Massacre of Europeans in Suakim Feared.

The Khedive Preparing to Fly to France.

A Movement on Baouab By the Tonquin Land Forces.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

THE SOUDAN CAMPAIGN.

CAIRO, February 24.—General Graham, commander of the Tokar expedition, telegraphs General Stevenson an urgent request for reinforcements of artillery, as he is armed only with cannon.

MOVING FORWARD.

SUAKIM, February 24.—The Nubian troops about to be embarked for Trinkit refused to proceed, saying their bullets would not pierce the shield of the rebels.

AN ATTACK ON SUAKIM.

SUAKIM, February 24.—It is common talk in the barracks that Osman Digna will very soon attack this place in which event it is expected the Khedive's troops will declare for El Mahdi and massacre the Europeans.

THE KHEWIVE'S DILEMMA.

KHARTOUM, February 24.—The effect of General Gordon's proclamation is fading. It is reported that El Mahdi, who is the main body of his army, has left Ara and is marching on Khartoum.

MOVING ON BAOUAB.

PARIS, February 24.—General Millot, commander of the land forces in Tonquin, has left three battalions at Sontay and three at Haihong, and is preparing to operate against Baouab with 9,000 men.

EGYPT'S GOOD CROPS.

ALEXANDRIA, February 24.—Bids are invited for furnishing stores and provisions for the British army of occupation of 10,000 men for the year.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

THE LATEST SQUEEZE.

CHICAGO, February 23.—The markets on the board of trade were active to-day in a speculative way, but legitimate business was small, with grain weaker but provisions higher.

ST. PAUL.

ST. PAUL, February 24.—This afternoon a disastrous fire occurred here by which the large four story warehouse on the corner of Pine and Spruce streets was burned.

A Great Fire in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, February 24.—This afternoon a disastrous fire occurred here by which the large four story warehouse on the corner of Pine and Spruce streets was burned.

The Frisco Prohibitionists.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 24.—A prohibition meeting last night adopted resolutions against the passage of the bill extending the time for the payment of the tax on bonded spirits, and favoring Sumner's postal telegraph bill.

LIVES LOST.

A Great Fire in Michigan Claims Several Human Victims.

A Terrible and Fatal Leap From a Third Story.

Property Losses to the Amount of $175,000.

The Accident on the Hannibal & St. Joe Road.

Five Persons Killed Outright and Others Seriously Injured.

TWO DISASTERS.

FIRE IN JACKSON, MICHIGAN.

JACKSON, Mich., February 24.—A large and disastrous fire broke out this morning at 6 o'clock in a wooden building occupied by J. J. Barnes as a cigar store, and destroying the Union hotel, Union hall theater, Waldron & Curtis' drug store, Jackson savings bank, H. H. Case and C. K. Elliott, groceries, N. H. Eckler's saloon, a block owned by D. B. Hibbard and costing $125,000, together with five frame buildings occupied by Wm. Aultman, boots and shoes, John Roth, jeweler, Charles Amb, barber shop and residence, J. J. Barnes, cigar store, Rutson Bros., confectioners, Barrett & Daily, tinmiths, and Moses Weiger, saloon.

THE HANNIBAL AND ST. JOE DISASTER.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., February 23.—A train which arrived from the scene of the wreck on the Hannibal & St. Joe, brings the following particulars. The train which was wrecked was running thirty miles an hour preparatory to mounting a steep grade, and when on the bridge, the mail car struck a broken rail. The engine and baggage car passed safely, the mail and smoking car were precipitated into the water, carrying down the bridge which had been broken by the crash.

THE STATUS OF THE "BACKBONE" GRANT IN COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, February 23.—The forfeiture of the land grant to the "Backbone" railroad, which is now claimed by the New Orleans Pacific railway, as assignee, was considered by the house committee on public lands to-day. A vote on the forfeiture stood 5 to 5. Mr. Belford moved that Delegate Brents, of Washington territory, cast the deciding vote. Chairman Cobb replied that he had no vote in the committee, being a delegate. Brents had previously voted on the forfeiture under consideration. In referring to this fact Belford said to the chairman: "I've always noticed that he was allowed to vote when his views were the same as mine."

A Big Burglar.

THOY, N. Y., February 24.—Burglars broke into the jewelry store of Marks & Son and carried off property valued at $50,000.

The Mexican Consul Generalship.

ST. LOUIS, February 24.—Late advice from the City of Mexico as to the effect that the Mexican government contemplates the establishment of the consular generalship in the Mississippi valley, with headquarters in St. Louis or Chicago, and that the name of John F. Cahill, present Mexican consul in this city, is favorably mentioned in connection with that position.

A $500,000 Loss.

CHICAGO, February 24.—Fire to-night destroyed the home, engine rooms and minor buildings connected with the works of the Calumet and Eastern Steel company at Calumet station, twenty miles southeast of the city. The loss is roughly estimated at $500,000; fully insured.

The Nellig Land Office.

WASHINGTON, February 24.—Secretary Teller has agreed to the reappointment of Captain E. S. Butler and Wm. B. Lamborn to the Nellig land office.

Special Dispatch to the Bee.

WASHINGTON, February 24.—Secretary Teller has agreed to the reappointment of Captain E. S. Butler and Wm. B. Lamborn to the Nellig land office.

CLAYTON CHASE.

CLAYTON CHASE, February 24.—Fire to-night destroyed the home, engine rooms and minor buildings connected with the works of the Calumet and Eastern Steel company at Calumet station, twenty miles southeast of the city. The loss is roughly estimated at $500,000; fully insured.