A motion was made and carried that each congressional district elect two delegates to the national convention.

A motion was made and carried that each county be entitled to one delegate at large to the state convention, and one for each 150 votes cast for J. M. Hiatt for regent of the university last fall. The first day of May was fixed upon as the one on which to hold the state conven-

Hon, G. M. Post remarked that on that day the republicans would pick the flowers and in November they would pick the fruit.

Lincoln was selected as the place for holding the convention, the second formal ballot resulting in 16 votes for Lincoln and 13 for Fremont.

Chairman Dorsey stated that the state convention would meet and be called to order at 7:30 p. m. on the day fixed. Mr. Dorsey stated to the meeting that he had engaged a parlor and ten rooms in the Palmer house, Chicago, for the Nebraska delegation at the national convention. A motion was made and carried that in case any congressional district shall fail to elect its two delegates at the proper time to the national convention, the delegates from such district at the state conention shall duly elect such delegates. The meeting then adjourned.
