THE DAILY BEE --- OMAHA SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1884.

THE OMAHA BEE.

Omaha Office, No. 916 Farnam St. Council Blaffs Office, No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. New York Office, Room 65 Tribune Building,

Pablished every trorning, except Sunday"

BAMS BY MAIL.

THE WARKLY BAR, PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAT. TRUMS CONTRAID.

Amaridaa News Company, Sole Agents, Newsdeal-ers in the United States,

CORRESPONDENCE. A Communications relating to News and Editorial matters should be addressed to the EDITOR OF THE BURINESS LETTARS. All Business Letters and Remittances should be addressed to Tum Ban Promannes Cosrast, GMANA-Drafts, Chesks and Postoffice orders to be made pay able to the order of the company. THE BEE PUBLISHING CO., PROPS.

S. ROBEWATER, Editor. A. H. Fitch, Manager Dally Circulation, P. O. Bor Omaha, Nob.

WHEN General Howard returns from for a new lecture.

all winter fighting for this object. PERHAPS some of the Nebraska politicians can induce Senator Manderson to place has been promised to another man.

THE seed-corn department of the Republican is a sort of political weather bureau in charge of a lightning rod candidate for the United States senate, who expects in this way to rope in the seedy granger.

GOVERNOR CRITTENDEN, of Missouri, has added to his fame by snatching a kiss from Patti, and giving her a gubernatorial hug. Nicolini, her alleged husband, of the car at the time.

According to the congressional directory James Laird, congressman from the Third Nebraska district, was a presidential elector from Michigan m 1880. People of Michigan will probably be surprised to learn that Mr. Laird cast their vote for president.

WITH the beginning of spring the gentie Apache of Arizona, who has lived all ers and caring for the stock for ten years. winter on goverment rations, takes to the The treaty as left by Governor Edmunds warpath and amuses himself by killing only certified land to the Indians. As the settlers and stealing cattle and horses. amended by Senator Dawes, titles in fee General Crook, no doubt, will have his will be granted. hands full during the coming sasson. It

THE ANNUAL ASSESSMENT. is evident that he has not yet solved the Indian problem in Arizona. The annual work of the assessors will soon begin, and the question again pre-WE have been asked to suggest the sents itself whether our people will conname of some man who would accepta- tinue to submit to the repatition to the bly serve the people of the first ward in outrageous and discriminating manner in the city council. The BEE has no advice which the assessments of property are to give on that point, but we know of no made. It is a subject worthy to the man at present who would fill the posi- most serious consideration, and our people should awaken to the importance of

All obstacles to the opening of the ings where passengers have to change time. The czar has a soided to conven Sioux Indian reservation have been re- from one road to another. Such a bill moved, and the bill will probably be was defeated by the Nebraska senate last The council will be composed of reprepassed sometime during the present ses- year through the railroad lobby. sion of congress. The report of the

Dawes' Indian committee, having this OTHER LANDS THAN OURS. matter in charge, has been prepared, and has been approved by Mr. Holman, who been before parliament since Gladstone's be seen. has charge of the Indian appropriations accession to the premiership is the bill in the house. This is indeed gratifying for the extension of the franchise, which to a large number of people from other house of commons with a powerful states who are anxious to secure home- speech. This bill proposes to extend the steads in the Sioux reservation. That right of suffrage to over two milions of portion which is to be thrown open to men in the United Kingdom who have settlement is said to be for the most part never before enjoyed political privileges.

valuable agricultural lands, which, under The bill is warmly supported not only by the provisions of the bill, will be disposed the liberals and radicals, but by the of only to actual settlers. The settling Scotch members and the Parnellite facup of the Sioux reservation will prove a tion. Its passage through the house of great benefit to western Dakota and Ne- commons by an overwhelming majority is brasks. It is to be hoped that congress insured, but it remains to be seen will pass the bill at an early day, so that whether the lords can be induced settlers can secure the land this spring. to still further increase the political pow-

If the reservation is opened in the spring | er of the masses of Great Britain. That the result will in a great measure be due there will be strong opposition to the bill Europe he will have plenty of material to the efforts of the deputations of ty the tories, both in the commons and is neither more nor less than the con-Dakotains who have been in Washington house of lords, is a foregone conclusion, scription. It was thus that this was and it is safe to anticipate the most informed under a treaty made in 1868. reform that has been waged within the take the Russian mission, if McCrary's With a view of opening a large portion last fifty years. The extension of the employe, to join the volunteer moveof it to the public, in response to an ur- franchise is, of all the measures, regardgent demand, a commission, with Gov- ed as the surest means for pacifying Ireernor Newlon Edmunds as chairman, was land and solving the Irish problem. appointed to make a new treaty with the Indians. A majority of the tribes con- Ireland has been more free from agrarian surer sign that the authorities were, to sented, but it was afterwards found that and political crime than for a long time of every Anglo-Indian in a "blue funk." under the treaty of 1868, the con- before. Whether owing to the benefits And this "blue funk" must now be pretsent of two-thirds of the male adult extended to the tenants by the Land Act ty general throughout the far away com-

Indiana had to be obtained, of 1881, or to the terror inspired by the This was accordingly done, and last sum- Prevention of Crimes Act of 1882, or to mer the special senate committee on In- the reaction which naturally followed have the chance to cross their swords dians, consisting of Senators Dawes, Lo- upon the violent agitation which pre- upon the bank of the Oxus, for the presgan, and Cameron of Wisconsin, visited vailed from the establishment of the Land must have been out on the rear platform the tribes and heard their complaints, league until the passing of the latter and desires for an amendment of the measure, or to all these causes taken to- will care, under the present conditions, proposed treaty. The revised treaty gives to each Indian murders or other outrages, and also, 320 acres of land, and each of his minor through the three most frequently dissons 80 acres: all damages resulting from turbed provinces, singularly few conflicts a rearrangement of reservation boundabetween the police and any kind of peories, which shall leave an Indian's house ple, or between different factions. or other improvements on public land,

Nevertheless the Irish problem has not will be indemnified; and 25,000 cowsand become less menacing. 1,000 bulls are to be the tribal property The massacre of Hicks Pasha and his of the Sioux, the government hiring herdbrave band has been followed by what seems to be an endless succession of disasters. The fall of Tokar has given El Mahdi and the rebellious Arabs and Egyptians control of almost the entire Soudan. The latest advices from Khartoum indicate that General Gordon, convinced of the danger of attempting to hold that important city, has determined to evacuate the place at once, owing to the rebellious spirit displayed by the rebellious sheikhs who so warmly received him on his entrance into Khartoum. He has destroyed all the military stores and on

OPENING THE SIOUX RESERVATION. depot accommodations at railway cross- terror is liable to break out most any the superior council on the 10th of March for consideration of socia list questions, > sentatives of the ruling classes. Whether this superior council will devise some upon a basis of justice of the state's rescheme to amelioriate the condition of the people and respond to the domand The most important measure that has for constitutional concession renusion to Russia has taken advantage of E'ain the house. This is indeed gratifying for the extension of the franchise, which land's weakness in the present Egypticar that the people of Nebraska have foolish-to a large number of people from other house of commons with a powerful Central Asia. She has boldly pushed her boundaries in the people of so long a time. The quesforward and seized upon Merv, so that tion arises, "Are we to remain blind, now her frontier outposts almost touch when absolute danger stalks right before upon Herat. Merv is described by travelers as an oasis. The region round about is well watered and fertile and capable of sustaining a large force, in truth a position remain duan, when a thousand duties which Russia has long coveted as an ex- impe' us to raise the cry of alarm? Is it cellent base of supplies. It can be thus not much more honorable to catch the seen that with an act we enemy upon the immediate borders of a sullen and venge ful foe, the position of the British in In- or purpose of encroachment on the public dia is not enviable. The teeming population of that country will hail with illconcealed delight the news of Russian aggression in that debatable land, and, owing to this, the Indian government was forced to a step which, under the pleasanter name of "volunteer forces.

affected. Upon the outbreak of the Afghan war The present Sioux reservation was tense and bitter contest over this great the local authorities invited every European and Eurasian, not a government ment; the services of those in its employ were ordered, not asked for. In plain words, the government desired a local white army as a garrison force in order

During the last six or eight months to overawe the native population; no munity, and it may not be exaggeration to say that ere the lapse of another five years English and Russian officers will ent Russian occupation has long been declared by English writers as naught but a declaration of war. Whether England gether, there have been singularly few to accept the gage, remains to be proven: murders or other outrages, and also, but there is no doubt that the Russians have more plainly than ever shown their intentions of making a movement toward the conquest of British Russia, The condition of Peru, either politically or commercially speaking, does not im-prove. The ministers of General Iglesias have found it necessary to hold conferences with the Chilean plenipotentiary, Senor Novoa, at Chorillos, to demonstrate the impossibility on the part of clean jobs, that hope to now and then, Peru of paying the 300,000 silver dollars like a thief in the dark do wrong right monthly to the Chilean army of occupa- in our very midst. Then they have all tion, it having become disagreeably evident that the limited resources at the their guilt, and essay they are the command of General Iglesias were not ones that mould the political sentiment sufficient to carry on even his own gov-ernment organization on half pay. From republicans, to go to them for counsel Valparaiso large amounts of money have republicans, to go to them for counsel been sent up from time to time since the ϵ vacuation of Lima to provide the commissaries of the Chilean troops with the means of contained by many of the contained by the co means of covering the pay rolls, and Senor Novos, in view of the state of the Peruvian exchequer, consented to sign an agreement by which, for the present, demands would be made the conquered republic for the republican party in Nebraska. We spiked all the guns which would be liable the stipulated sum, but at the same must remember under our present systime constituting a Chilean lien on the tem of primaries, conventions and the encumber a retreat from the town, so Mollendo, the as to prevent them from falling into the port of Arequipa, from which heavy rehands of the Mahdi. The report that El ceipts have been obtained by the Chilean authorities still occupying that port. It is an alleged fact that from the 23d of October last, when Lima was handed over to the Iglesias government, only Mahdi was marching toward Khartoum is confirmed. He liberated twelve menaing El Obeid, receiving a ransom of £2, 73,000 have been paid to the Chileans on 800 through the Austrian consul at Kharaccount of the 300,000 stipulated as a toum. El Mahdi's inaction after his monthly maintenance. The movement along the Peruvian victory at El Obeid is explained by the fact that, finding that the sheikhs of the principal tribes wished to go home with coast, where the national flag is restored, their spoils in order to attend to the haris, financially speaking, far below the expectations entertained. The new du-ties ordered by the Iglesias government vest, he proclaimed a holy truce during the months of Moharrem and Safar, ending on the date of the anniversary of the on the exportation of silver ore, sugar birth of the prophet. That time having and wool are considered ruinous by the and wool are considered ruinous by the expired, the campaign has been resumed. producers. Even in the great centres, such as Lima, Callao and Trujillo, ordinary business is at a standstill. Buyers from the interior, upon whom the wholesale merchants depend, are either afraid to trust their persons or money on the coast or are fearful that the era of tranquility has not yet arrived.

An Important Crisis. BELDEVUE, February, 1884. To the Editor of THE BRE:

The period has arrived for much needed radical reforms, for the establishment lations with the railroads, as affecting the rights of our citizens. The corning legislators will be astonished at the vast amount of woak to be done, and the discovery of such a large mass of inighty, our very eyes? Are we to be deaf, though sornda of perils till the air! Are we to lowest whisper which breathes intention rights, and give our voice breath and utter ance at the constant appearance of wrong? Is it not our duty to eagerly traverse the for sale by whole horizon with the clear and cat like m&e vision of an unhooded hawk, detecting, through all disguises, every enemy ad-vancing in any form toward the citadel of our liberties. Now it is acknowledged in all circles there is a great conflict coming on. It will be a conflict to determine who shall remain supreme-the railrords on the one hand or the majority of the people on the other. It is a crisis of vast importance and consequence to every freeman of Nebraska, and no man who has the welfare of his state at heart will abandon principle for the mere ac-

STEELE, JOHNSCN& CO.,

Grocers

v. Man-

Wholesale

tion with greater fidelity than Mr. Thrane, whose term expires in April. He is honest, straightforward and reliable so far as we have been able to observe.

CHARLES A. DANA will now have to rise and explain how it happened that a copy of the Sun, containing his dynamite editorials on "Turn the rascals out" was found in a value containing a dynamite machine that was to blow up Charing Cross station in the heart of London. It isn't the first time that a a piece of paper has furnished a clue to a terrible plot.

THE name of Hon. James M. Tyner is being mentioned in connection with the governorship of Dakota, after Governor Ordway's term expires. If we remember right the Hon. James M. Tyner retired from office just about the time of the star-route investigations. He retired because Postmaster James thought he was too familiar with Dorsey. Possibly, his idea of being transplant ed in Dakota is to go to the United States senste from Dakots when it becomes a state.

THE Californians have been made happy at last by the house committee on foreign affairs. The committee has agreed to report favorably the bill prepared by the Pacific coast delegation for the prevention of Chinese immigration. The bill as originally prepared required Chinese will raise the state taxes is based on a students to have certificates and return to wrong impression. The laws expressly Chins within ninety days after graduation, and also that the United States shall pay all expenses of the return of any tion. For instance, if property in Douhinaman to whom permission to land from any vessel was refused under the other counties at one-fouth or one-sixth law. These two clauses were stricken of its value, the state taxes will be pro-

In answer to many inquiries it gives us much pleasure to say, as it will give his multitude of friends in this part of the multitude of friends in this part of the west much pleasure to hear, that the health of Hon. S. J. Tilden has been much improved in the last two or three weeks. We received information yester-day, which is entirely reliable, that Mr. Tilden rides out and takes long drives as a daily habit which means that he as a mere bagatelle. Baform in assance a daily habit, which means that he is as a mere bagatelle. Reform in assessagain in his usual comfortable condition. ment and taxation is what the people de-Omaha Herald.

This official announcement from the manager of Tilden's western literary bureau must afford the admirers of the cipher alley patriot an immense amount of comfort. Tilden is taking his long rides. The 'possum policy which he has of Alaska. It is very liberal to homebeen pursuing for the last two or three steaders. Heads of families are to be alyears has been abandoned, and the bar'l" will soon be tapped to rally under the Tilden banner the rag-tag and bobtail who have votes to sell at primary however, that there will be any great elections. Tilden has recovered just in the nick of time. He couldn't have re-sovered much sconer to be welcome, nor much later to be of any use. Now let the "fraud" cry be revived and the cipher book revised. Hendricks as well. Let the watchword be, "The old ticket and an appropriation." The lows senate has passed a bill that and an appropriation." The lows related as passed a bill that elections. Tilden has recovered just in rush of homesteaders to Alaska.

putting an end to unfair assessments. They should no longer allow the work to go by default owing to their neglect in not taking a personal interest in the bers of the Catholic mission before leavmatter. The assessors have, year, after year, been in the habit of exempting the property of the rich, and discriminating against the poor. They have assessed city lots, owned by the wealthy, at ridiculously low figures, and millions of property leased by the railroads for elevators, warehouses, shops, etc , have been exempted under the pretense that the property is held by the railroads as right of

Determined to retrieve the disasters way. Last year, after months of agitawhich have overtaken the British arms tion, we finally succeeded in having the General Graham and the fleet under Admiral Hewitt have been ordered upon assessment raised about $1,500,000, but an advance up the Nile toward Tokar, it is a matter of fact that the improveand a desperate engagement between these forces and Osman Digna is expected ments of the previous year more than covered this increased assessment. every hour. General Graham has his forces well in hand, and is not likely to be We know that real estate in Omaha has surprised or overpowered. All the soldiers who were returning to gone up from 15 to 50 per cent , and in some instances more than 200 per cent., Eogland on the troopship Jumna have but the assessors still keep on volunteered their services ashore, both those whose time had already expired valuing it at the old valuation of 1880 and the others. They have been acceptand previous years. For some unaced as a most welcome addition to Gen-eral Graham's forces. As they are vetcountable reason they do not seem to realize that property is constantly in- erans, they will give steadiness and increase of confidence to the younger solcreasing in value, and that the assessdiers. ment figures of one year will not answer It is positively asserted in Constanti-nople that the Mahdi and King John of for the following year. The assessment should be increased every Abyssinia have signed a convention to the effect that King John shall remain year in proportion to the inneutral, and in return shall receive a port on the Red Sea and a large accescreased value of property. The pretext that the raising of our taxes aion of territory. The assembling of the German reichgive us the right to have our state taxes adjusted according to the ratio of taxa- of interest in Germany. glas county is assessed at one third and in portioned accordingly.

History can scarcely furnish an exam-What we want and must have is uni ample of a country completely losing lib-erty after even so short a taste of it as form taxation. The property of the rich must be taxed just the same as the prop-Germany enjoyed thirty-five years ago; yet practically Prince Biamarck is now a man's bed, cook stove, and cow, but the despotic autocrat who can cruah whomso man of wealth has his money loaned out ever he will. He hounded poor Arnia on mortgages which are untaxed, and his to his grave; he has kicked cardinals and to his grave; he has kicked cardinals and prelates of their episcopal throues As for the press, an editor who ventures on a comment unalatable to the automatic press and a second secon for the press, an editor who ventures on a comment unpalatable to the autocrat of Varain is soon behind the walls of a jail. The editor of The Volkszeitung, for ex-ample, has just been consigned to one for nine months "for offenses against Prince into Italian rentes. All the religious orders at Rome have been convoked to prepare a statement which shall show the mand, and the assessors should this year inaugurate an honest system of assessmont.

nine months "for offenses against Prince Bismarck." Lasker died heartbroken, Bismarck." Laster died heartbroken, his friends say, at seeing the country he loved under despotiam and his efforts all unavailng, and Bennigsen has withdrawn from polititics in despair. SENATOR PENDLETON has introduced a bill for the settlement and development of representatives.

Another meeting of the German em-peror and the Russian czar has been agreed upon for next spring. The expla-nations made by the Russian ambassador lowed 640 acres of land, and unmarried males or females, over 21 years of age, can take up 320 acres. We do not apprehend, regarding the concentration of troops on the frontier provinces are pronounced satisfactory, and Bismarck has counter-

There is absolutely nothing new from the Franco-Chinese war. The belligerents seem to have gone to sleep in the vicinity of Baeninh, and nobody knows when they will awake.

M. Tricou, formerly French minister to China, has arrived at Paris, and exhibits the gold cup from which the late king of A nam drank poison by order of the present regent. This is a delightful little trinket for the amusement of the populace who are outraged at Tricou's statement that the black flags put Chinese in front of them in battle and massacred them if they refused to fight. But the regent who gave the king a cup of poison and put on the throne a stripling ship of France, is a great favorite in Paris.

stag within a few days is look-ed forward to with a great deal A Port au Prince dispatch says that President Saloman in passing through Jeremie court-martialed several high officials and had a majority of them Much speculation is indulged in over the course which the liberals and socialists will purshot. It will be remembered that last summer when Jeremie and many of the sue in formulating their censure of Bia-marck for returning to the United States the Lasker resolution passed by the house government troops joined the rebels, and the province of Jacmel declared for Gen. Bazelias, the rule of Salomon was thought at about an end. His recent successes have evidently embittered his aged heart, and indeed he has always had the reputation of being a very severe man. The last revolt was occasioned by his cruelties to the mulattoes.

quor, and the laying of the Italian exche-quor, and the laying of a heavy tax equal to one-third the interest upon the pro-ceeds. The pope apoeals against the pro-ceeding as robbery of the church, and that is exactly what it looks like. The property of the Propaganda has not been derived from the state, as we understand it, but by valuetars, contributions from BRLIEVES HEADACHE.

NOTICE.

