COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Wednesday Morning, March. 5.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

Additional local on seventh page. New spring goods just received at J Reiter's, the tailor, 310 Broadway.

J. Jensen and Carrie Severson, both as justice of the peace also.

"The World" company entertained the audience at Dohany's last night.

Most of those arrested for being drunk on election day were released by order of the mayor.

M. Drelish, for threatening to kill B. Cohn is to have a hearing before Justice Abbott next Saturday.

A boy named Steffler while sliding down hill by the mill school house yesterday fell and broke his arm. Marshal Jackson says its hard for a good man toget there when the church folks and the gang join in downing him. Justice Schurz has tied the matrimonial knot between E. Julius Fahrmann and Priscilla Grossman, both of Omaha

E. L. McKenney, of Crescent township, was before Justice Schurz yesterday on a charge of larceny of timber from William Strand.

Permit to wed was yesterday given Dennis Hyde and Mary Jane McIntosh both of this city. He is 55 years and she is only 70 years of age.

to move out. It is rumored that ex-Alderman Churchill is to be the new chief of police, and the whole force changed.

There seems a growing sentiment here in favor of a division of the county, as it is evident that the east end will continue to be uneasy, and will fight all improvements in the way of county buildings.

"The Carter Harrison of the Missouri

free from Joseph Reblinger, to whom she was married in Streeter, Ill., in February, 1882. She sets up in her petition that they moved to Jones township, after the wedding, Jacob deserted her.

Henry Howe, the well-known citizen. celebrated his 62d birthday anniversary in a very happy manner, a number of his friends gathering about the festive board. He was the recipient of a nummore than a score of years, and is respected by all.

Hon. Alex. Sullivan, of Chicago, president of the National Irish League, will lecture at the new opera house Thursday evening. Subject: "Ireland of to-day." Rev. Mr. Mackay, of this city; M. V. Gannon, of Davenport, and Rev. F. Nugent, of Des Moines, will also speak. General admission 25 cents; reserved seats 50 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats. Vocal and instrumental music between speeches.

Miss Nellie Fuller and Bertie Bliss will both appear at the roller skating rink next Friday evening. They are wonderful little artists on the rellers. The crowds which have watched the boy wonder with such delight, will find double delight in seeing the young Miss Let the contributions come in at once, skate with him, for she is a champion as well as he. At Des Momes recently she can this large family be provided for. It is for all. Let all join together and degold medal.

The committee on invitation of Hawkeye Lodge, I. O. O. F. No. 184, wish to announce that through some unavoidable accident a number of invitations for their ball to be held at Bleom & Nixon's hall on March 6th have not reached their destination. Those desiring an invitation will receive the same upon application to any member of the committee, or to H. Friedman, 321 Broadway. Odd Fellows and their families are respectfully invited without further invitation.

It is expected that Council Bluffs will send over to Omaha to-night one of the largest delegations of roller skaters which ever one city sent to a sister city. The names of over fifty couples have already been sent in, and the company will gather at Chapman & Martin's rink so as to leave at 6:30 o'clock for the dummy depot. The Bavarian hand will accompany the excursionists who will take | the 7:04 train, and returning will leave Omaha at 10:10, Omaha time. There were a number of Neolites here yesterday, and they report considerable stir about the action in enjoining the count of the vote on the court house proposition. It is also reported that Avoca at first thought the telephonic ge a mere scare, but on being assured that the injunction was a matter of fact, they slept not a wink all night. Some predict with confidence that the court will sustain the action taken here and that the vote will be finally declared in favor of the court house. There certainly ought to be some way of correcting abuses of the polls, and if it is proved that the Avoca people did really keep open the polls till after midnight and voted everybody and everything, it ought not to count.

Order flowers for weddings and funer als from W. H. Foster, Harrison street.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

The Complete Result of the City's Election.

The counting of the votes was so tedious because of the large member of scratched tickets, and because of there country. As a test for the strength of being too inexperienced and slow men the bridge, wagons loaded with dirt were on the boards, that at the time of THE hauled upon it, the horses detached, and of this city, yesterday got leave to wed. BEE going to press yesterday morning Mayor Vaughan will probably continue only the result could be given. The count in detail is as follows:

Vaughan surprised all by his fleet-footed race. While the democrhts cut him some, republicans cut Flickinger The police are getting their traps ready still worse. In the Third ward there were over 100 republicans who slaughtered the man they had chosen in convention as the head of their ticket, and placed Vaughan's name in his stead. Charles Harle surprised even his friends by his run, although he did not get there, he showed much strength. Siedentopf is re-elected to the council by a small majority, but it is enough so long as Pettibone is defeated, for of the two Siedentopf is far preferable. He and Conover "The Carter Harrison of the Missouri Are the only republicans elected, valley"—is he in the room? He evidently is by just about 528 majority. The democrats are in a queer Now, how about his promises, will he keep them? Due time will be given before judgment is passed.

Sort of a box, too, though victorious.

The work of the Home of the Friendless is growing into one of more and more importance to our city and state. A few days since Mrs. Miller, the wife the penalty at imprisonment for life. this county, and that in three months of "Sport" Miller died, leaving four worse than orphaned children. Homes were found for two of them and two have been taken to the Home of the Friendles. But yesterday Mr. Fred Fird found a Danish boy, who was left by a heartless man who had brought him ber of gifts. Mr. Howe has resided here to this country, promising to care for him. The boy was sleeping in sheds and getting a bite to eat wherever he could. The finger of one hand was badly frozen, his eyes swollen and all together he presented a pitiable appearance. Mr. Fird took the lad, who is about 13 years of age, to the manager of the home who received him and the boy will now be cared for and sent to school, until such time as a good home can be security for him. There are now twenty-four at the home-all children, save three women. One of these is very sick, the one the Episcopal ladies took to the home and for whom they are caring, in true Christian charity.

It takes a vast amount to clothe and feed such a family. The funds of the institution are getting low, and all who desire to aid in this Christian work, sre requested to send to the home, clothing, light in the work.

MAIN STREET BRIDGE.

In Yesterday's Test It Bears Up Thirty Tons Without Feeling It.

The New Structure Open for Travel.

Yesterday forenoon the new iron bridge across Main street was duly tested in the presence of Mayor Bowman, the county poard of supervisors, and several citizens. The city officials, with the exception of the mayor, were conspicuous by their absence, but, like most of the citizens, they felt that there was little need of testing any bridge built by Raymond & Campbell, whose reputation as contractors is firmly established throughout the teen of them were in place. Each of the wagons thus loaded weighed 4,300 pounds, so that the total weight was nearly thirty tons, including the horses, the men and the heavy body known as the county board. The deflection of the bridge was less than a quarter of an inch. This new bridge is the handsomest bridge in the city. It is an iron structure 100 feet in length, with an eighteen foot roadway and two six foot sidewalks. It cost $4,500, and its estimated strength is one ton to the foot, or in all about 100 tons. It seems high enough to allow even flood waters to pass through, but it appears that the old toot-bridges and other obstructions should be cleared out at once, lest they be swept away and lodged so as to do damage. The city is to be congratulated on having such a bridge at Main street, built by its home men.

WELCOMED BACK.

A Constable With a Warrant Greets Bryan, the Fleet-Footed Athlete.

Yesterday there arrived in the city W. C. Bryan, an athlete, who as a runner and a base ballist gained plenty of friends and admirers here a season or so ago. Yesterday he arrived in the city, and while being greeted by his friends Officer Rosecrans stepped up to him and gave him a cordial invitation to appear before Justice Abbott, where he found a charge lodged against him of defrauding the Pacific hotel out of a bill of about $100. It appears that Bryan, as manager for some base ball clubs, had them stop at the Pacific, and it is claimed that

The trial of Jasper Clouser has been taking up the attention of Judge Loofborrow at Glenwood for several days past. It will be remembered that he was last year arrested in Colorado for the murder of two contractors near Pacific Junction in 1878. He was tried last fall and convicted, but Colonel Keatley, his attorney, got him a new trial, which came to a close yesterday morning by the jury finding him again guilty, and fixing
