

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Saturday Morning, March 8.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier 30 cents per week; By Mail $10.00 per Year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

Additional local on seventh page. Justice Abbott took in Omaha yesterday. The council meets next Monday evening. No cases in police court yesterday morning. J. C. Medlor is the father of a new daughter.

Will the new city administration do anything with Indian creek? New spring goods just received at J. Keiter's, the tailor, 310 Broadway. The McClurg Cracker company are making extensive improvements in their office.

Among those talked of as trustees for the school board are Dr. Macrae and Mr. Barrett. The Presbyterians had a social last evening, at the residence of B. S. Terwilliger.

The city clerk yesterday issued the certificates of election to the new city officials. During the past year the city has received from licenses $30,800, and from city criminal cases $5,018.

At the contest of the Young Men's shooting club yesterday D. F. Stubbs again won the gold medal. It is F. Faul instead of C. Faul, who is entitled to whatever credit is due in securing a pardon for Tim Nagle. J. L. Dugot, receiver of the Mutual Iowa Live Stock Insurance company, has changed his quarters to 201, South Main street.

Will the council make the Union Pacific live up to its agreement in regard to Union avenue, or take away its right to occupy the avenue? George W. Drake, not George B., as the type got it yesterday, is said to be the coming chief of police, under the Vaughan administration. The two men accused of a conspiracy to murder the family of D. H. Solomon have been turned loose, the grand jury finding no bill against them.

Mr. Fuller, who in accompanying his daughter Miss Nellie has seen most of the rinks in the state, pronounces the one here one of the best he has seen in any city. George W. Day, sheriff of Greene county, passed through here yesterday with a prisoner, J. H. Bates, whom he arrested in Indian territory on a charge of horse stealing.

This afternoon and evening Miss Nellie Fuller, the child wonder on roller skates, is to give exhibitions at the rink, and will vary her programme, introducing new movements at each appearance. There was a still alarm of fire yesterday caused by some hot ashes thrown out back of Miss Kate Riley's catching some old rags on fire in the coal house. The incipient blaze was speedily suppressed and no damage done.

To-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the Y. M. C. A. service will be held at the Presbyterian church. The usual "welcome all" is extended. Bring gospel hymn books with you. The meeting will close promptly at 5 p. m. "They are about our path and bed and spy out all our ways." Spiritual circle to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon and evening, at 2 and 7:30 o'clock in Spiritual hall. Entrance on Main and Pearl streets, two doors south of the postoffice.

Donations to the Home recently are as follows: Mr. C. Gregory $1, Peter Morris 60 cents, Mr. C. H. $1, Mr. H. C. Raymond two barrels of apples, two bushels of onions, three bushels of parsnips and carrots and two bushels of beets. Colonel Kentley went to Glenwood yesterday to see if he could get another new trial for Jasper Clouser, convicted of murder. The ground on which a new trial is asked is, as before, that the evidence does not warrant a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Sunday evening at the Baptist church Rev. J. G. Lemen is to give an address to young men which promises to be of interest and of value. The Y. M. C. A. is expected to attend in full force, and many other young men will also be present. The remains of George Maurer were taken east last evening over the Wabash accompanied by his wife and his father, and also by Wm. Maloney. Frank Gault, of the Wabash, did the generous act of furnishing the transportation of the parties at half rates.

Last Tuesday evening the residence of Theodore Priestler, three miles north of Avoca, was destroyed by fire. The house was valued at $1,500 and the contents for as much more, and the insurance amounted to $1,200. The cause of the fire is unknown, the family being away when the blaze started.

As a farmer named Reddingfield, of Silver Creek, was passing the city with a load of corn Thursday afternoon, on the road leading to the institution for the deaf and dumb, the horses became frightened at a Rock Island train, and, while Reddingfield was walking along in the road by the wagon, the horses broke and ran, dashing right into the moving train. The horses got the worst of it, one being killed outright. The wagon was overturned and the corn scattered about in all directions.

Next Monday is the election of the school board. Two members are to be elected to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Mr. Brewer, who has moved to Minneapolis, and Mr. Clauson, whose term expires. It is to be hoped that good men will be chosen, so that the interests of education may be advanced rather than retarded. Above all it is to be hoped that no petty scheming or planning for mere personal ends will be countenanced for a moment. There has of late been a drift in that direction, and it is time that the people were aroused to the fact that if they do not watch their interests the school board will become as much of a political checker-board as the city council, and the public schools will become the mere football for politicians and selfish schemers. No feature of the city government is more important than the schools, and there should be as lively an interest as in the election of city officers.

Mueller on Main street sells not only the lowest, but gives a present with each purchase of one dollar. Go and see him first.

CLOSING THE COURT.

The O'Brien Will Allowed to Stand--Motion for a New Trial in the Railway Case.

Yesterday in the circuit court there was little to create any interest, the business of the term drawing to a close. The jury in the O'Brien will case came to a verdict about 4 o'clock yesterday morning. They decided against the contestants, holding in substance that O'Brien was of sound mind when he made the will, and the jury was discharged for the term, and the rest of the afternoon was spent in hearing the argument of D. H. Solomon for a new trial in the case of N. J. Bond against the Wabash railway, in which case the jury the day before rendered a verdict of $5,200 for Bond, as damages for discrimination by the company, who refused or rejected to furnish him cars in which to ship his corn. The grounds on which the next trial is asked are mainly on the instructions given the jury by Judge Lyman.

W. H. Foster, the florist, Harrison street, has the largest and best supply of plants in the west.

PERSONAL.

H. C. Robeson, of Davenport, is at the Pacific.

L. C. Reed, of Chicago, arrived at the Pacific yesterday.

M. F. Merry, of Silver City, was merry at the Pacific yesterday.

Edward Thurman, the general agent of the Mountain Pink company, was in the city yesterday.

A. H. Stutz, of New York, is stopping at the Ogden.

D. W. Bulton, of Philadelphia, is an Ogden house guest.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Elwell have gone on a brief visit to friends in Eastern Iowa.

W. G. Boulton, of the Knowles pump works, left for New York this evening.

J. McClintock, of the Rock Island, has gone east.

J. C. Roagan, of Des Moines, one of the paving contractors is in the city looking after his interests.

B. Sillaway, proprietor of the Ogden, and also the Northwestern hotel at Cedar Rapids, is here.

A Fairy on Wheels.

Last evening a delightful entertainment was given at the roller skating rink by Miss Nellie Fuller, the young miss, only 11 years of age, who has won so much praise elsewhere by her wonderful exhibitions of grace and skill in the use of the roller skates. Those who had gathered at the rink had high expectations, but she met and even exceeded these. She is certainly entitled to the name of champion for age. It was a disappointment to those present that Bertie Bliss, the boy wonder, was not able to be present. The little fellow was suffering from a severe attack of neuralgia, which prevented his appearance. This disappointment was largely atoned for by the delight afforded the crowd in seeing the wonderful movements of the little miss, who moved about as gracefully as a little fairy. She is small for her age, even, a blonde, and in a pretty skating suit, her hair hanging to her waist, she presented a charming appearance. The movements made by her were fully as wonderful as those of Daniels, under whose instruction she has been. Miss Nellie was first on skates at Ft. Dodge last July, and her first public appearance as an exhibitor of fancy skating, was at Sioux City last November. Since then she has created enthusiasm wherever she has appeared, and has been in constant demand, she having now a month's engagement ahead of her.

Mrs. G. Durree, No. 828 Avenue A, corner Ninth street, bought last week one dollar's worth of sheet music at Mueller's and received a present of a seventy-five dollar organ.

A Generous Giver.

The home of the friendless has few warmer friends than Mr. H. C. Raymond, a man of Christian zeal and broad philanthropy. Often does he visit the home and always brings joy and gladness. His donations of fruits and vegetables this winter have been frequent and of a most liberal character, amounting to from $10 to $15 at a time, in all to over $50. Fifty dollars being the amount required, and in view of the fact that the articles sent in were as good as cash, the association has made Mr. Raymond a life member. The home needs and should have many such friends who, as Mr.

Raymond, without solicitation, will thus remember its needs. The load the Home has to carry is a heavy one, but if all do a little it will not be hard to carry, and we will feel the better for having tried to help the little motherless ones there so tenderly cared for.

AVOCA'S HOWL.

The Indignation Caused by the Vote on the Court House Being Thrown Out.

A. P. Cramer, of The Avoca Herald, was here on the day on which the injunction was served on the county board restraining them from counting the vote of Knox and Layton townships on the new court house and jail propositions and the protest against the court of Macedonia. Mr. Cramer then simply laughed at the affair. He said it wouldn't amount to anything, and as he knew that the polls in Avoca were not open after 6 o'clock, as when returning for supper at 7:30 o'clock the vote was being counted. Another prominent citizen of Avoca a few days later was in the city, and he was equally positive that the polls were not kept open after 9 o'clock, but closed promptly at that hour. The Avocans stand together and agree as to what time the polls did really close. Since Cramer's return home, however, he has got over his considering the injunction a mere joke, and is howling mad about it. He abuses Council Bluffs and all its people, and also gives the following bit of information as to what the Avocans purpose doing about it: "On Tuesday afternoon, at a meeting of the citizens of this place, a thorough organization was formed and an executive committee of seven and other committees appointed for the defense of the injunction suit brought by Council Bluffs, and all parties interested have been invited by correspondence to assist in defending the rights of the citizens of the county against the grasping schemers of that overestimated city. A healthy response is coming in from all sections, and abundant means will be at the hands of the committee to defray expenses, which will enable them to make a strong and effective defense. This last move upon the part of those would-be rulers of the county will undoubtedly sever the last tie which has kept the county together, and every voter of principle will sit down with a will upon a set of scheming rhystrs who are at the bottom of all moves to secure for Council Bluffs that to which she has no just title or claim."

Yesterday's Shoot.

The second match of the Young Men's Shooting club took place yesterday. The day was very cool, a bon fire had to be built for the comfort of the shooters, and altogether circumstances were very adverse for such field sport. In the first shoot, 21 yard rise, 10 birds, D. F. Stubbs and G. W. Thompson tied on 7 each. The first shoot off of the tie was at 26 yards, 5 birds each and Stubbs and Thompson again tied on 3. The second tie and match was won by Stubbs, who brought down 3 out of a possible 5. This is the second time Stubbs has won, and the gold medal, with one more successful contest, will become permanently his. It is probable that further contests will be put off until more favorable weather.
