SKINHUMOR

My baby six months old broke out with some since of skin humor, and after being treated five months by my family phidelan, was given up to die. The druggist recommonded Swit's Specific, and the effect was as gratifying as it was intraculous. My child soon get well, all traces of the disease is gone, and he is as fat as a pig.

Minden, Rusk County Texas.

I have suffered for many years from ulcers on my legs, often very lar e and painful, during which time I used almost everything to effect a cure, but in vain. I took Switts specific by advice of a friend, and in a short time was cured sound and well. Edwin J. Miller, Beaumont, Texas.

I have been afflicted with Scrofula for twelve years and have had sores on me as large as a man's hand for that length of time. Last sommer I was so bad off that I could not wear clothing. I had spect hundreds of doll rain the effort to be curred, but all to no purpose and had injured myself with Marcury and Potash. Your Swift's Specific cured me promptly and permanently, and I hope every like sufferer will take it.

Lakoni, Ark.

Our treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free to are teants. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Drawer 3, Atlanta Ga.
V. Office, 159 W.23d St., between 6th and 7th Ave.

SHORT Line" in connection with the corporate name of a greatroad, conveys an idea of ust what required by the traveling public—a Short Line, Quick Time and the best of accommodations—all of which are furnilway in America.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE

And St. Paul.

It owns and operates over 4,500 miles of Northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa Dakota; and as ts main lines, branches and connections reach all the great business centres of the Northwest and Far West, it naturally answers the description of Short Line, and Best Route between Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Chicago, Milwaukee, La Crosse and Winona. Chicago, Milwaukee, La Crosse and Ellendals Chicago, Milwaukee, Bau Claire and Stillwater & Chicago, Milwaukee, Wausau and Merrill. Chicago, Milwaukee, Wausau and Merrill. Chicago, Milwaukee, Wausau and Prairie du Chien Chicago, Milwaukee, Madison and Prairie du Chien Chicago, Milwaukee, Wadison and Prairie du Chien Chicago, Milwaukee, Owatonna and Fairibault, Chicago, Elgin, Rockford and Dubuque. Chicago, Clinton, Rock Island and Cedar Rapids. Chicago, Council Biuffs and Omaha. Chicago, Sioux City, Sioux Falls and Yankton Chicago, Milwaukee, Mitchell and Chamberlain. Rock Island, Dubuque, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Pullman Sieepers and the Finest Dining Cars in Pullman Sieepers and the Finest Dining Cars in world are run on the mainlines of the CHICACO MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL RAILWAY and every attention is paid to passengers by courte ous employes of the company.

S. S. MERRDIL, Geo'l Manager.

J. Geo'l Manager.

GEO H. GEAFFORD,

266TH EDITION, PRICE $1.00 BY MAIL POSTPAID.

MANHOOD

may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience. Chronic and obstinate diseases that have bailted the skill of all other phys. HEAL clans a specialty. Such treated success. HEAL clans without an instance allure. THYSELF

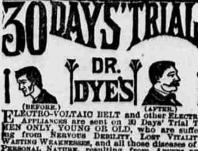

DR. WHITTIER

617 St. Charles St., St. Louis, Mo.

A REGULAR GRADUATE of two medical colleges has been engaged longer in the treatment of CHRONIC, NERVOUS, SKIN AND BLOOD Diseases than other physician in St. Louis, as city papers show and all old residents know. Consultation free invited. When it is inconvenient to visit the city treatment, medicines can be sent by mail or exprese everywhere. Curable cases guaranteed; where dou exists it is frankly stated. Call or write.

Nervous Prostration, Debility, Mental and Physi Weakness, Mercurial and other affections of Throat ing, Skip Affections, Old Sores and Ulcers Impedi nts to marriage, Rheumatism, Piles. Special at CASES receive special attention. Diseases arising from Imprudence, Excesses, Indulgences.

MARRIAGE 200 pages; the whole the whole storywell told Many reselpts; who may reselpts; who may marry, who may not why, causes, consequences and cure. Mailed for 25c; postage or stanges.

S. H. ATWOOD.

HEREFORD AND JERSEY CATTLE

perfectly restored to rebust health and igorous manhood by THE MARSTON OLUS. No stomate drugeing. This freatment Nervous Debility and Physical Decay is alfornly successful because used on perfect manners, new and direct methods and about of the performance. Health Treatment free.

ARSTON REMF 27 CO. 48 W.1416 Ct. Man Vote.

CURE FITS

MANHOOD RESTORED.

DEFET JOHN of the General tive Organs of the Strange of the City And Method. Adopted in all the 2007 Tath OF FILENCE, From the strain of VIOR bridge organ, 24to 56, forere observed to the Tampine From VIOR State of the Strange of t

COUNCIL BLUFFS

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

ANOTHER INJUNCTION.

udge Lootbourow Holds Court in Railway Car Between Glenwood and Red Oak,

The securing of an injunction by the Avoca attorneys has caused some talk, but appears to have little or no practical effect. The injunction restrains the county board and auditor from issuing bonds for the erection of a new court house and jail, but no one had any idea that the board or auditor would attempt any such move under the circumstances. The petition filed is a lengthy one, and when robbed of legal technicalities it amounts to simply a statement of the vote cast, the injunction served restraining the canvass of the votes of certain townships, that this inthat the board had declared that with the rude men of the mining camp up these townships thrown out there was a above. majority in favor of the new court house and jail; that the county board was standing in with those who got out the injunction, and unless restrained the bonds would be issued. It appears from the petition that Judge Loofbourow was to have heard the case at Glenwood Thursday afternoon the entry being as follows:

"The foregoing petition being presented to me it is ordered that the same be set down for a hearing at Glenwood on Francisco and go to school there for a sin-the 13th inst., at 1 o'clock p. m., and on gle year! Ah, if I only had five hundred the 13th inst., at 1 o'clock p. m., and on two days notice in writing to defendants accompanied by a copy of said petition.'
C. F. Loofbourow, Judge. March 11, 1884.

The county attorney had just returned rom a trip to Des Moines, and being unable to get down to Glenwood was to send his partner, Mr. Adams, but it appears that even if he had been at Glenwood at 1 o'clock, it would have done no good. It is claimed that Judge Loofcourow adjourned court in the morning and started on the train for home, and while on the train between Glenwood and Red Oak, the Avoca attorneys presented their case, and the judge with a lead pencil wrote down as best a man could while whirling over the rails, an order for a temporary injunction. The county attorney is quite hot about the injunction being thus granted, not because it makes any practical difference, but because of its being issued, as he un-

Exhausted Vigility, Nervous and Physical Doblity Promature Decline in Man, E-cross of Youth, an is unfold miseries resulting from indiscretions or excossess. A book for every man, young, middle-aged and old. It contains 125 prescriptions for all sout and chronic diseases each one of which is invaluable So found by the Author, whose experience for year is such asprobably never before fell to the lot for been finer worz. In every sone, small, and in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post this country for $2.50, or the money will be refunded in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post model awarded the author by the National Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post
model awarded the author by the National Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post
model awarded the author by the National Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post
model awarded the author by the National Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post
model awarded the author by the National Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post
model awarded the author by the National Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post model awarded the author by the National Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post model awarded the author by the National
Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post model awarded the author by the National
Medica
Authority for $2.50, or the money will be refunded
in every instances. Price only 31.00 by mall, post model awarded the author by the National
Medica
All price and the policy instances of its ted freatise," wish statements by the cures mailed free. D. B. Dewey & Co., 182 Fulton street, N. Y. tues-thur&sat-m&e-3m

PERSONAL.

Jo. Matlock, of Crescent, was in the city resterday.

A. J. Mandel and H. Friedman will leave to-morrow evening over the "Q" on a purchas ing trip.

H. G. Myers, of the Harrison County Cou rier, Logan, was in the city yesterday. He is one of the liveliest newspaper men on the ousiness yesterday.

N. C. Blanchard, of Hardin township, was n town yesterday. C. W. Stock, of Princeton, Ill., is in the city, making further arrangements for the starting of a large sash, door and blind factory here.

Henry Altshuler, a well known Missouri Valley merchant, was at Bechtele's yesterresterday. A. Richards and daughters, of Lenark, Iowa, were in the city yesterday, and at the Ogden.

Nick Wack, who is connected with Bens & Co., has a new bey at his house. F. A. Alexander, of St. Louis, is at the Ogden. F. C. Robertson, of Miles City, M. T., arrived at the Ogden yesterday.

Thos. W. Jones, who was formerly Linder & Kiel, and who is now with a St. Louis house, has been looking after the trade in Omaha and this city for a day or two.

N. Richards, of LeMars, proprietor of the hotel there which bears his name, was in the city yesterday, and making his headquarters at Bechtele's. His daughter has been attending St. Francis' academy here.

T. S. Rogers of Philadelphia, arrived at the Pacific yesterday. E. L. Maxwell and J.A. Dumont, of Rock-ord, are at the Pacific. Chauncey F. Bowen, of New York, the president of the Pilcher electric light company, is at the Pacific accompanied by his wife. W. J. Anderson, of Hilladale, Iowa, was at the Pacific yesterday.

ARE YOU GOING TO EUROPE?

In another column will be found the anouncement of Messrs. THOS. COOK & SON, ourist Agents, 261 Broadway, New York, relative to the very complete arrangements they have made for tours in Europs the coming Spring and Summer. "Cook's Excursionist," containing maps and full particulars, will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents.

Mrs. John Waldhorff, wife of a Burlington butcher, found $600 on the floor of her husband's meat market a few days sgo and advertised for the loser.

A Happy Family.

Pulled from the breast, squeezed from the bottle, stemachs will sour all wilk will curdle; Baby halled sha and that nig 1. Household bumping heads in awful fright. Do 't deny, 'twas thus with Vic oria. Nig 1 was 'ideous without Ca toria; When cold lef; for peac ful slumber, All said their prayes and sle, tilke thunder.

SACRAMENTO.

It was an odd name for a girl-Sacra-

So the girl herself thought as she stooped down beside a spring at the foot of a cotton-wood tree and lazily dropped her pail into the water. if it was a fit name to give anybody," she said quite aloud, "But I'm more boy than girl, anyway." This fact was added rather bitterly, as she looked at her brown, rough hands and Dennis.' here her bare ankles, and thought of the "boy's work" she had to do.

And it was hard to believe that this was the best kind of a life for a young girl like Sacramento. Here she lived alone, for her father was down at the mouth of the canon all day. The garden work she was obliged to do, and the care of the cattle fell upon her. It was not often that she saw any person but her father, although now and then, in junction was based on false claims, and spite of herself, she came in contact with > Yet Sacramento had her dream, one that she "scarcely dared to own," but it came to her often as she went about her work.

She knew that down at Santa Barbara and in the towns along the coast, and far, far away across wide stretches of continent to the great east there were girls who lived very different from her life, and she dreamed of such a life for Suddenly there was a step—not of a man, but a horse—on the bank behind her, and then some one spoke. She knew the voice without looking up. It was Pete Larrabee, a fellow who lived down on Hahnemann's plantation, two miles along the trail. He sometimes rode by. He had not heard her last words at all; yet strangely enough his own were a repetition of them.

"Five hundred dollars, Sac," said he.
"Five hundred dollars in gold! D'ye want ter earn it? Ther's yer chance," and he threw down to her a bit of paper crumpled into a ball.

She picked it up, and, slowly unfolding it, ran her eye over its contents:

$500 REWARD.

The above amount will be paid for information leading to the arrest dead or alive, of Walter Somers, who has worked for some time past on Maxwell's ranch. Said Somers is about 18 years old and 54 feet high, rather good-looking, with light, curly hair, blue eyes and a light must-When last seen he had on a man rode on, and on, and presently Sacramento took up her pail, and with the sheriff's bill still in her hand, went slowly up the bank and across the trail toward the house, thinking very seriously about the $500 all the while.

It was some hours after this, and the afternoon sun was going down behind the tops of the mountains, that Sacramento, having finished her housework, was preparing to ait down on the porch to do her sewing, when she was met in the doorway by a young man she had never seen be-And yet he was no stranger. The one of the liveliest newspaper men on the road.

J. H. Carse, who represents an extensive coal firm, of Perry, Iowa, was in the city on out of the boot-legs so as to no longer allow the red tops of the boots with the maker's name to be seen. It was the horse thief.

She did not, however, express any surprise as she saw him. She was accustomed to the sight of rough, evil men; and at the first glance she had felt that this one could not be either very wicked or very dangerous. He was not much more than a lad, and had an air of gentleness and good breeding about him that E. A. Babcock, of Avoca, was in the city six months of western life, and the miserable plight he was in at the moment, had by no means cestroyed. He seemed to be short for breath too, and was trembling as if he had been run-

Instinctively he raised his hand toward his hat and then, bethinking himself, dropped it again.

"Could you give me something to eat and drink?" he asked, in a heaitating voice. "Anything will do. I am very hungry. I—I have had nothing to eat since last night." "Come m," said Sacramento, gravely. In her voice there was neither kindness or unkindness, she trying to realize the situation she was in. "Come in and sit situation she was in. down!

and began taking down from the shelves milk and bread and meat, as she slowly did so turning over the matter in her mind. Here was this man who had been stealing horses and for whose capture $500 was offered in her own kitchen. Five hundred dollars! Exactly the sum she had been wishing for—the sum that would take her down to San Francisco to school and help her make a lady of herself. And this sum may be hers if she could in some way secure this stranger, or some-how keep him in the house until help arrived Help? Why, she hardly needed help. He was weak and exhausted, and help. He was weak and exhausted, and in the drawer of the kitchen table there

In spite of his caution, he had taken off his hat while he was eating. She could batter see what he was like. It was an almost boyish face, worn, but not wicked, with the curling hair lying in damp clusters upon his pale brow. In the hands, small and well shapen, and in all his motions and manner, she felt that she could read something of his story. She had heard before this how young lads in the east, filled with romantic notions about western life and edvanture some, from the room by that? The reight of the window. Could he have escaped about western life and adventure, some from the room by that? The window was times left their luxurious homes and so small she could scarcely believe that found their way out to the ranches of the Pacific. Perhaps he was one of these. he must have done so. Pacific. Perhaps he was one of these.

As she looked at him, fancying all this, and realizing the terrible strait he was in, and the probable dark, fate that was before him, her heart yearned with true halted a moment under a live-oak tree womanly sympathy; and her feeling found just at the edge of the garden. The expression before she was able to restrain evening was very calm and still, and the on-wood tree and lazily dropped her pail "Oh, how could you do it?" How Was it the ru could you do it?" she suddenly ex-boughs overh "It ought to have been given to a boy, claimed, her voice quite full of what she She listened.

He looked up at her in wender; but as his eyes met hers he understood her. "I did not do it. Upon my honor I did not!" he said. "It was that man Sacramento breathed a great sigh of reand she was by no means free from the am going into the house a minute. Get popular estimate of its grave nature. "But"-she hesitated, and then went on will find there. Its at the foot of a big doubtfully. "But, then, how was it? cottonw Why did they say it was you? And why I come."

did you run away?"
"It was Dennis' doings, their laying it to me. He did that to clear himself, table, and Sacremento felt rather than And after that, you know as well as I do there would have been no use in trying offered for your capture?"

"I know that the Regulators are after me," answered the young fellow, sullehtoo, this noon. I just escaped them and came down the canyon by the mountain trail. I have had a hard run for it,

"I know it. But threw them off the track this noon, and I do not think they are within five mile of me. Now I have pull the logs away. If you can do that, had something to eat. I will take to the woods again. I hope I may get clear away. If I don't,"—his voice trembled and tears came to his eyes. "If I don't I moon square on your right—the moon shall get a hanging, I suppose. Oh, what a fool I was not to prefer home to this sort of a thing! And yet, I wouldn't care so much either, if it wasn't for my father and mother." And the poor fellow fairly broke down. low fairly broke down.

"Hark!" Sacramento exclaimed. had been crying, too; she could not help

They both listened. In a moment they heard plainly the sound of horses coming down the trail. The girl turned and then for your life." with instant self-possession. "Go in there! Quick! Quick! There is not a moment to loose! Here, take next moment he was gone. your hat!" And handing his hat to him, she half father the story and coaxed him into for-ly finishing the task as the horsemen fugitive was safe.

halted at the door. Six weeks later a lawyer from Santa her father. Sacramento knew the other ter Somers. He was with his friends in two men by sight. They were rough, but New York. He begged Sacramento to of the better sort of those who made up accept, as a gift of gratitude, at least the the dwellers in Kelly Gulch. The faces amount of the reward that had been of-

They dismounted together. San Fr.
"Sac," began her father, as he entered ter all.

it were possible, to answer it without a name of a new railroad projected from A young chap, about eighteen years of age and five feet and a half high, rather good-looking, and with red-top boots on?"

replied she.
"Yes! yes! That's him!" cried one of the men eagerly. "Have you seen him? Has he been here?"

"I was only quoting from this handbill," said Sacramento, taking the paper from the shelf where she had laid it. "Then you hain't seen him at all?"

asked her father. "I have been right here all day, and nobody has gone by except Pete Larabee. It was he who gave me the bill. Are you sure that he came this way, the—the horse-thief?"

"No; but we didn't know but he mighter. The chances is thet he is sloped off to the mountains, meanin' to go through Stovepipe pass. They'll git him, though, afore sundown."

"Its sundown now," observed Sacramento. "Then they've got him now," was the sententious response. "And we should be too late for the hangin', ef we sh'd go back. Leastways"—this was added to his companions—"you'd better come in and have a bite afore you go."

So presently the three men sat down to the supper that the young girl quickly prepared for them And while they were eating, she herself, at her father's bidding, went out to take the saddle off Bueno, his horse, and give him feed. As she approached the door once more, a few inutes later, she heard words which caused her to stop and listen.

"I don't like ter say anything against thet kid o' yourn, neighbor," one of the men was saying, "but it hez kinder seemed ter me all ther whiles' though she sorter hed some'at on her mind like. Ye don't spose she knows anything bout thet young feller arter all?" Sacremento's father laughed at this as though it was too absurd to be consid-

The other, however, was not too be laughed out of his suspicions.
"Fur all we know," persisted he, "she may hev hid him somewhere on the prem-

"Its easy enough to see," returned the

As he said this, Sacramento, who was now near enough to see into the kitchen, saw her father rise from his chair and step to the door of the room where she had concealed the fugitvie. Her heart almost stopped beating as she saw him push open the door and enter the room, followed by his companion.

"We'll make a clus search of it while we're about it," she heard him say

And then she stood there [in terrible suspense upon the poarch, expecting every instant to hear the shout that would follow the discovery of the fugi-

But no such shout was heard; and in-

She went hurridly to the back of the twilight shadows were deepening fast. Was it the rustling of the wind in the boughs overhead that caught her ear?

"Hist! I am here-in the tree. The words came in a distinct whisper from directly above her. She stood and thought a single moment before replying. Then she said, "You must get away from here at once," in an eager whisper. "One of the men suslief. Horse stealing was held in that pects something, and they may at any section to be a crime worse than murder; moment make a search of the place. I down at once and go through the garden NO STAIRS TO CLIMB. "Oh, I am glad of that!" cried she. and across the trail to a spring that you cottonwood tree. Stay right there until Then she went hurriedly to the house. The three men were still sitting at the saw that one of them still regarded her suspiciously as she came in. She did not to prove myself innocent. They always speak to them at all, but went directly hang a horse thief first and then consider his guilt afterwards. I had to run to save my life."

speak to them at all, but went directly through the kitchen to her own room, and in a moment more came out, went about her work in the kitchen, and took up a my life."

"Do you know that there is a reward pail apparently to go to the spring for water.

Ten minutes later, standing in the shadow of the cottonwood, young Somers "They came pretty near catching heard a step, and then Sacramento, lead-Bueno all saddled and bridled, appeared. He started foward.

"Hush!" she said; "they may come out life, and she dreamed of such a life for herself.

"Oh, if I could onlygo away from here!" she cried out, almost as one cries out for help. "If I could only go down to San Francisco and go to school there for a single year! Ah, if I only had five hundred dollars!"

Suddenly there was a step—not of a Suddenly there was a step—not of a safe here."

tain trail. I have had a hard run for it, and what with no sleep or food for twenny ty four hours, I am about used up. I feel as though I could not go another step when I saw your house. You—you have been very good to me. I shall never for get—"

"But what are you going to do now?" interrupted Sacramento. "You are not interrupted Sacramento. "You are not the swamp. This end of the cordurory that any moment. Listen to what I say. Your life depends on it, You must ride as though I could not go another step when I saw your house. You—you have been very good to me. I shall never for get—"

"But what a step—not of a straight down the trail for a quarter of a when I say. You life depends on it, You must ride straight down the trail for a quarter of a when I say. You—you have been very good to me. I shall never for get—"

"But what a step—not of a straight down the trail for a quarter of a when I say. You life depends on it, You must ride straight down the trail for a quarter of a when I say your house. You—you have been very good to me. I shall never for just like this, you will strike a path to left. Bueno will know it, once you get him in it. It will bring you out, half a must like this you will strike a path to left. Bueno will know it, once you get him in it. It will bring you out, half a must like this you will strike a path to left. Bueno will know it, once you get him in it. It will bring you out, half a must like this you will strike a path to left. Bueno will know it, once you get him the swamp. This end of the corduroy hand. "Can you remember?" she j demanded.

"I can; but I can never forget-"Never mind that. Here, take this

The young man still had hold of her hand. The tears came into his eyes. The The next morning Sacramento told her pushed him across the room and into her giving her. And the next afternoon a own little room that led off from it. Then she hurridly cleared the table again, bare-road town; and then she knew that the There were three of them. One was Barbara appeared with a letter from Walfered. And so it was that she went down to San Francisco to school that winter, af

IOWA NEWS.

MEL

ROLLE

to promptly. Address

The Washington, Iowa & Dakota is the Burlington.

The new city directory shows there are 11,856 families in Des Moines—or nearly two-thirds as many as the Omaha directory shows.

Albion Johnson, who has been an em ploye of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway for the past twenty-two or three years as clerk in the freight house died a few days since at Burlington. Alexander Harrison, first cousin to President Harrison, died in Dubuque s few days ago. He had been a resident of that city for fifty years. His illness was occasioned by a fall some weeks ago, which culminated in blood poisoning. His age was about sixty years. The passage of a bill in the senate to impose a tax on all schoels other than public schools in the state, has excited the Catholics to the greatest degree. They feel that it is a blow at their schools, and they are preparing to protest in the most earnest manner against the adoption of the bill by the house. A meeting was held at the residence of Bishop Hennesy, at Dubuque a few evenings since, which was largely attended by Catholics. meeting was addressed by Bishop Hennesy, who stated that the Catholics of that city alone pay $2,800 yearly in support of public schools, and as much to tions protesting against its passage will be circulated. The bill affects other denominations as well as the Catholics.

A special to the Chicago Tribune, from Scranton, Pa., says: "A sensation was produced here to-day by the suicide of Andrew J. Weaver, aged 43, of Greenville, a small village five miles from this city. The deceased, who was a brother of ex-Congressman Weaver, of Iowa, was awakened by his daughter at 7 o'clock. At the breakfast table he manifested sull lenness and ata little, and then he are lenness and ate little, and then he as-sailed his daughter. Eventually he pro-duced a revolver and threatened to shoot her. She eluded him and he began to demolish the furniture. His son, who at work in the vicinity, went to the house and pacified him. The father then laid upon the lounge for about half an hour, proprietor of the said "premmysis," test-ily. "Where d'ye think she's hid him? In her bedroom?"

He was dead when his children entered the room. The ball his children entered the room. The bal took effect in his right temple, passed through his head and came out in his left cheek. For the last two weeks Weaver has shown symptoms of insanity."

A. F. GROSS & UU.,

COUNTERS, BARS, ICE BOXES, LIBRARIES, and all kinds of office work a specialty dress 1301 Jackson St. Owner 1301

DR. M. EMILY PAGELSEN. Office---- No. 210 N. Sixteenth Street HOURS, 9 TO 12 A. M.

Residence-Cor. Centre and 17th

MAHA, NEB.

1313

THE CHEAPEST PLACE INDOMARA TO BUY

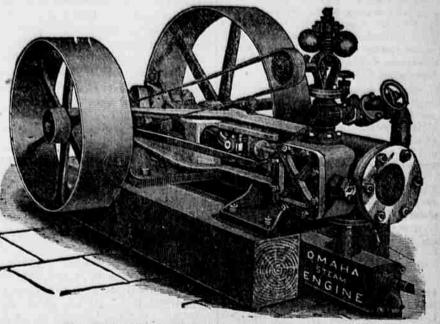

One of the Best and largest Stocks in the United States to select from.

ELEGANT PASSENGER ELEVATOR.

RICHARDS & CLARKE,

W. A. CLARKE, Superintendne

Proprietors. Omaha Iron Works

MANUFACTURERS OF AND DEALERS IN WATER WHEELS, ROLLER MILLS,

Mill and Grain Elevator Machinery MILL FURNISHINGS OF ALL KINDS, INCLUDING THE Celebrated Anchor Brand Dufour Bolting

STEAM PUMPS, STEAM' WATER ANDIGAS PIPE. BRASS GOODS AND PIPE FITTINGS,

ROLLER

We are prepared to furnish plans and estimates, and will contract for the erection of Flouring Mills and Grain Elevators, or for changing Flouring Mills, fremStone to the Roller System. Especial attention given to furnishing Power Plants for any purpose, and estimates made for same. General machin repairs attended

RICHARDS & CLARKE, On 's, Nob.

The Executr x

OF THE ESTATE OF

port of public schools, and as much to carry on their own schools besides. A mass meeting was called for to take steps to defeat the bill in the house, and petitions protesting against its passage will

IS SELLING

and Mattings, Mats

AT PRICES TO MAKE THEM

CURTAINS.

UPHOLSTERY GOODS!

TO CLOSE UP THE BUSINESS.

WINDOW SHADES FARNAM STREET.

1313

Carpets!