The city democratic central committee will meet at the office of J. J. O'Connor at 7:30 this evening. All parties who have any of the music belonging to the Philharmonic society are requested to leave it at Max Meyer & Bro's store to-day, as the society has need of it. The young people of the Dodge street Presbyterian church will give a free social and musical entertainment in the parlors of the church this (Thursday) evening. All friends are invited. A social hop was held at Turner hall last night, which was participated in by a goodly number and a very pleasant time is reported. Irvine's orchestra furnished the music, which is a guarantee that it was good. A meeting of ladies will be held at Max Meyer & Bro's music hall to-morrow afternoon to organize a ladies' musical society. Misses Poppleton, Rustin, Officer and Dill-rance are the committee. The city council committee appointed at the request of Chairman Creighton, of the board of public works, to investigate the charges made against him by an evening paper, met yesterday, and adjourned until 11 o'clock on Saturday. The curtain was attached at Holland's play on Tuesday night in behalf of a discharged actor who had a disputed claim against the manager for about $50. The claim was paid under protest and the performance went on. A prominent manufacturer of German table linen closed out to S. P. Morse & Co., $5,000 in their choicest bleached table linens at just 60 cents on the dollar. This enables Morse's to sell $1.50 linens for 80c, $2.00 linens for $1.00, $3.00 linens $1.25. They are selling silks at lower prices than any one firm in America. On the way to Prospect Hill cemetery yesterday the harness containing the remains got stuck three different times. The last time it was necessary to obtain shovels and dig the mud away from the wheels before the vehicle could be extricated. The Knights and Ladies of Honor, of Primrose lodge, will hold their third ball and social Friday evening, March 28th, at Masonic Hall. All their friends are cordially invited. If Omaha had 60,000 inhabitants yesterday morning, she now has 60,001. This is due to Mr. G. A. Frace, of No. 1411 Pierce street, who reports the arrival of a ten pound boy at his residence last evening. The mother and child are doing well and as it is the first Mr. Frace is setting up the cigars with a smiling face. The Lion Roars for Moore's Harness and Saddlery--the best in the world. m22-2f. A young lady recently divorced, who ought to have had experience sufficient to be able to protect herself, again loved "not wisely, but too well" a young man in this city. Yesterday she filed a complaint against him, charging him with bastardy. He was arrested. After mature deliberation he concluded to marry the complainant. The ceremony was performed by Judge Anderson, after which he was released. The rush at Morse's this morning exceeded their expectations by a long way, the sales footing up nearly two thousand dollars up to 2 o'clock; this enterprising firm have secured bargains for their customers that no other firm in Omaha can obtain, simply because they buy direct from importers and manufacturers for cash; S. P. Morse & Co. are making an enviable reputation for themselves. A mistake was made in the report that Mrs. Fuller cared for the lady, Mrs. Whitney, who died in this city Tuesday afternoon. The ladies of the Christian Aid association cared for her, and she died in the association rooms, and the matron was by her side when she breathed her last. She was buried yesterday afternoon at the poor farm. Arrived. Miss Agnes McAnisland, who has been for the past two weeks visiting the east on a military mission in the interest of Messrs. Wig & Westberg, has just returned, and yesterday morning began the arrival of this line of goods in which Omaha ladies are peculiarly interested. Having examined the novelties as far as they have been opened, we can assure those who appreciate the word "taste" in this department of female decoration, that a more perfect selection has never been exhibited in Omaha, and the prices are surprisingly low. The goods will all be open and on exhibition to-morrow and Saturday, and the ladies especially should not fail to examine this department at the Boston Shoe, 614 and 616 10th St.

ROLLING IN WEALTH. The Seller of a Silver Mine in Omaha On His Way Home. The "Minnie Moore" Mine Sold for $300,000 to a Party of Englishmen. To-day at the depot a BEB reporter met Mr. H. E. Miller, the recent owner of the "Minnie Moore" silver mine at Bellevue, Idaho. Mr. Miller was just returning from the east, where he had disposed of the silver mine above mentioned to an English firm by the name of Dent, Palmer & Co., for the magnificent sum of $500,000 cash. The company made the first payment of $125,000, and the balance, $375,000, will be paid in Salt Lake City on Saturday next. Mr. Miller has had associated with him in the mine two other gentlemen, but he has owned the controlling interest. He has been located at Bellevue and has been instrumental in developing the mine which has just been sold for so handsome a figure. It is one of the best paying mines in the Wood River country. About thirty tons of the ore is daily received at the Smelting and Refining works in this city. The ore runs out about 110 ounces of silver and 65 per cent lead, giving to the owners a net profit of $100 per ton or $3,000 per day. The new owners are already making preparations for the increasing of the hoisting and reduction works, so as to be able to take one hundred tons per day from the mine, instead of thirty which is now. Mr. Miller, in speaking of his recent sale, said that it was a case where the mine owners have dealt directly with the purchasers, with no third party between, and hence there is no brokerage to pay. Furthermore the gentleman said it is the only way for a mine owner to profitably dispose of his property. In speaking of the ore in the Wood River country, Mr. Miller said it is a very high grade of lead ore. "The natural outlet for all Wood River mines," said Mr. Miller, "is Omaha or Denver, but about 80 per cent of all shipments come directly to the Smelting works in this city, and the quantity is to be largely increased with the increased facilities, which will be added during the present season." This is, of itself, is another evidence of the future prosperity and growth of Omaha, the Gate City, which is now being watched so closely by the capitalists, both east and west, and it is a natural outlet for all mine products from the Wood River country, just so it must be the natural market center for all stock and produce of the great northwest, which is being populated this season as never before. The "Star Five" of the Paxton hotel gave a very pleasant party at Mathew's hall last evening. A goodly number were in attendance, and all enjoyed themselves hugely. Good music was present, and the third trip of the light fantastic to their heart's content. VALUABLE PROPERTY. Property Which is Attracting the Attention of Real Estate Men. The attention of the real estate dealers of this city is now being attracted to the beautiful property which lies west of Twenty-sixth street, between Dodge and Cass streets, and extending to the city limits. It is undoubtedly the most valuable and available land upon the market to-day and there is none which will be so rapidly improved as will this. The city council have ordered the grading of Dodge street and the county commissioners have made arrangements, whereby Davenport street will be graded and several bridges put in. The work will be done through Hawthorne addition and adjacent property this season. There are many attractions, among which are the residence of S. D. Mercer, the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and many more which might be mentioned. It will, in time, become the most thickly settled portion of the city. Especially will this be the case should car lines be extended out Farnam and Cumpright streets, as is now the intention. With the many advantages, such as central location, etc., it is not strange that real estate men should be taking a deep interest in this property. MERGELL & ROSENZWEIG. Beautiful and Costly Decorations Made by This Enterprising Firm in Their New Quarters. Merpell & Rosenzweig, the enterprising paper hangers, painters and art decorators, have recently removed from their old stand on Douglas street, one block west on the same street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets. They are now located at No. 1515 Douglas street, where they have one of the most palatial and finely arranged stores in this city or the west. A BEB reporter visited their establishment this morning and was surprised to see the magnificence and grandeur of the place. Upon entering the store one cannot refrain from a hasty glance around until his eyes are raised to the ceiling, when they are at once riveted to the same and remain so until the back of the neck becomes so weary as to cause him to desert. The ceiling of their store room is without doubt the finest piece of decorative work in the city of Omaha, if not west of Chicago. To add more to its beauty, it is a perfectly new design, and was introduced here by this enterprising firm. A partial description of it might be of interest. It is laid off into three panels, the first of which is very elaborate. It is 17x24 feet. The predominant colors are light terra cotta and blue. Upon the corners and centers are decorations of solid plush, with hand painted designs inside. From these plush mountings is a heavy strip of upholstered silk, a beautiful shade of blue, extending clear around the panel. From each corner, extending out toward the center of the panel, is a beautiful hand-painted design. The panels are laid off with elegant mouldings in gilt, lizard green and carmine colors. It is a most beautiful thing, entirely new, and must be seen in order to form a correct idea of its grandeur, and it is well worth a close inspection. The second panel is also very attractive. The corners are of maroon velvet and embossed shades of terra cotta, olive and blue, with bands of various colored moulding. The third panel is a large square and represents a canopy ceiling, surrounded by beautiful and elaborate fresco work. The entire ceiling is greatly admired by all who visit the store, and is one which a person wants to see the second and third time, as something new presents itself each time it is scrutinized. On either side of the store, which is 22 feet wide, 16 feet high and 132 feet deep, are long rows of shelves and racks laden with papers and decorations in all the latest styles and shades. This firm are prepared this season as never before to do fine work. They have employed six first-class decorative paper hangers, and consequently are enabled to fill all orders promptly. Among the novelties in their selection they beg to mention paper paintings, by noted European artists, suitable for ceiling or sidewalk decorations; also iridescent or jewel-like effects of great brilliancy. They carry a full and complete line of corner sets, Walton, the only solid relief wall decoration which is unequalled for beauty and durability. Leather Papers, Raised Velvet Papers, Figured Velvet Papers, Iridescent Papers, Church and Wall Decorations. With pardonable pride the firm call attention to the work done by them in the Paxton hotel dining room, the Metropolitan dining room, the Millard hotel barber shop and the Unity church, which has just been completed. These are among the finest pieces of work done in the city. They carry a well selected line from every manufacturer. All their best designs in their most popular colorings; their novelties in machine and hand-made goods. None of the undesirable or unpopular patterns. Everything new and desirable in papers for ceiling and other decorative work. New designs as fast as brought out by the factories are at once added to their line. They feel safe in the assertion that their line, in extent and beauty, cannot be surpassed. They have given especial attention to the selection of attractive ceiling decorations. Their designs are the work of leading artists at home and abroad, representing the English, French, German, Oriental and Japanese styles of decoration. In their painting department they are prepared to do all kinds of house and sign painting in the very finest style known to the art. Merpell & Rosenzweig most cordially invite the public to call upon them at their store and see for themselves the beauties of art. FOR SALE--Two portable steam boilers, 10-horse power. Apply at D. Four cases were disposed of by Judge Beneke. Two disturbers of the peace; one case of intoxication; one case of obstructing and resisting an officer. The disturbers of the peace were each fined $5 and costs. One paid and the other was sent to the county jail. The case for intoxication was against Maggie Lindley, the prostitute arrested last night. When called, she stepped forward with a boldness and brazen-facedness which would put to shame the most hardened woman in shame, although she is scarcely more than seventeen years of age. She pleaded guilty and was fined $10 in costs. Although she had no money and was compelled to go to jail, she laughed and seemed to consider it a right good joke. Charles E. Townsend was charged with interfering with an officer while he was in the discharge of his duty, and upon pleading guilty was fined $10 costs. He will keep the woman company in jail.
