CINCINNATI'S SORROW.

Summing up the situation. Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

CINCINNATI, April 1.--The relief experienced to-night by the removal of the anxiety which has rested so heavily since Friday night can hardly be described.

The citizens are unanimous in wanting no more mobs, and yet they are not convinced that the original purpose of this mob was not a righteous one.

The failure to accomplish the original purpose on Friday night practically ended the exertions of the men engaged in the attack on the jail, and the subsequent disgraceful proceedings were the natural outgrowth of a departure from the observance of law and order.

The riot way of reform. CINCINNATI, April 1.--The municipal reform association, composed of citizens of all parties, have issued a manifesto to the voters of the city.

Another murderer is in custody and may be expected in jail in a day or two. Noah Lightfoot, colored, yesterday, during a quarrel with Hugh Toomey, both employed on the Cincinnati Northern railway, struck Toomey on the head with a shovel.

TILDEN TALKS. THE LATEST INTERVIEW WITH HIM.

BALTIMORE, April 1.--During an interview with a correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, S. J. Tilden said: "I do not want the nomination and cannot take it." Then he repeated: "No, I cannot give up the peace and quiet which I enjoy here for four years of toil and strife. I am seventy years old, and I CANNOT DO IT."

The correspondent then said it had been rumored that it was his purpose to write a formal letter announcing his position with reference to the presidency. He said, yes, he had thought of that, and it was not improbable he would do it, but not yet. It was then suggested that perhaps he would follow the same course as in 1880 and intrust the letter to some friend to be laid before the convention when it assembled. He said Bigelow did not want him to write that letter at all. Bigelow spoke up and said: "That is so. There is no sufficient pretext for at present, nor should there be any misapprehension in regard to Tilden's attitude on this subject. He is not called upon to make any further declaration now." On rising to leave the correspondent said to Tilden that his friends and admirers hoped he would enjoy good health and prolonged life. His face brightened as he said: "I do enjoy good health. I have no complaint to make on that score." He then raised and let fall each arm, struck out from both shoulders, and followed this with vigorous stamping of first one foot and then the other on the carpet, and said quite jocularly:

"GOVERNOR TILDEN," adds the correspondent, "said once to convince me that he is entirely sincere in his avowed disinclination to stand for the presidency; that he prefers the luxury and elegance of his own splendid home and the charms of the small but select circle of congenial friends which centers around him, to the white house baubles. But this is NO REASON WHY, when the democratic convention meets, it should not nominate Tilden, if its members think he is the best man. A responsibility would then be fixed upon him which, however much he may imagine to the contrary, it is impossible for him to realize now."

A ROW IN PENNSYLVANIA. BLAINE AND ANTI-BLAINE. Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 1.--The Allegheny county republican conventions to-day resulted in the election of ten Blaine and four anti-Blaine delegates. On account of the bolt by the Blaine men from the fourth legislative district convention, the four delegates to which Allegheny county are entitled to are claimed by both factions and the fight will be carried to Harrisburg for settlement. The Blaine men withdrew from the convention because of alleged unfair decisions on contested seats. The complexion of the delegation from the twenty-second congressional district to the Chicago national convention depends on these four delegates and the feeling in the convention is very bitter.

WASHINGTON NOTES. POSTMASTERS NAMED.

WASHINGTON, April 1.--Henry Keerb, Mason City, Iowa; Frank E. Barber, Jr., Rock Rapids.

MAHONEY ILL. Senator Mahoney is lying dangerously ill at Arlington hotel in this city.

FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 1.--Mr. Logan (rep., Ill.), from the committee on military affairs, reported favorably a joint resolution requiring the secretary of war to furnish the governor of Ohio copies of the muster rolls in his department of Ohio regiments which fought in the war for the union. Passed.

Mr. Hale (rep., Me.), from the committee on appropriations, reported the naval appropriation bill with sundry amendments. It will be called up to-morrow or Thursday.

Mr. Hill (rep., Cal.) introduced a bill to make certificates of gold and silver deposits in the treasury of the United States legal tender for public and private debts.

The bill introduced by Mr. Edmunds, and reported favorably from the committee on naval affairs, for the relief of the Jeannette survivors, was passed.

The chair laid before the senate the education bill.

Mr. Coke (dem., Tex.) opposed the bill on the ground of both the constitutional and expediency.

Here the chair announced that General Grant with a friend was at the capital; that the general had the right of admission to the floor of the senate, and if there was no objection, the courtesy of admission to the floor would be extended to his friend also. No objection. The friend was General Beal.

Mr. Coke continued, and pictured the condition of affairs south in the event that the republican party forced mixed schools on the south. He believes in that event the worst phases of the race question would follow. He thought it would be much better to let the states go on doing what all observers had testified they were doing.

Mr. Logan (rep., Ill.) submitted some amendments which he would at the proper time move to the bill.

Mr. Beck (dem., Ky.) said he had been thinking whether he could not perfect a bill having a 2 per cent on all incomes over $5,000 a year to meet the expenses of this bill. He inquired of Mr. Blair how much it would help intelligent suffrage if the sixteenth amendment (the woman suffrage amendment) recently reported to the senate from Mr. Blair's committee should be adopted. How it would help intelligent suffrage of all the negro women of the south were given the ballot.

Mr. Blair (rep., N. H.) replied that he would not discuss the subject with the senator in this debate. Negro women, he said, were superior to negro men, and he did not know there was any question of the superiority of women among all races. Adjourned.

HOUSE. Bills were reported to the committee on judiciary, to amend the naturalization laws. Referred to the house calendar. It provides that a child or grandchild of any alien who enlisted in the army or navy of the United States, and died in the service, or was honorably discharged, shall be admitted to be a citizen of the United States on proof that he was under 21 years of age at the time of the death of his ancestor, and resided in the United States one year previous to his application.

By Mr. Reagan (dem., Tex.), from the committee on commerce (as a substitute for a number of bills), to provide for the inspection of live stock, hog products and dressed meats. Referred to the committee of the whole. Also (adversely), to establish a system of international commerce. Referred to the house calendar.

By Mr. James (rep., N. Y.), from the committee on labor, to prohibit any officer, servant or agent of the government to hire or contract out the labor of prisoners incarcerated for violating the laws of the United States. Calendar.

By Mr. Lovings (dem., Mass.), from the same committee, to pay the empires of the government wages heretofore withheld in violation of the eight-hour law. Committee of the whole.

By Mr. Hill (dem., O.), from the committee on the alcoholic liquor traffic (adversely), to provide for a commission on the subject of the alcoholic liquor traffic. Committee of the whole.

By Mr. Belford (rep., Col.) regarding the fourth section as a covert fraud on the people in the interest of the Rothschilds, who controlled Germany, and the question of the demonetization of gold or silver. He favored free coinage. The riot in Cincinnati was because the people of the country were beginning to realize and feel that no man, by honest and legitimate industry, could earn twenty millions in one year. Unless the house saw to it that the currency was not diminished while the people were increasing, it would be a not in every great city in the country.

Mr. Hewitt (dem., N. Y.) thought the house should not sanction the increase of the coinage of standard silver dollars. Silver could be bought for $1 and 1 cent per ounce. The government proposed to pay one-sixteenth and a half. Of course all the world would come with its silver.

Mr. Bland (dem., Mo.) moved to strike out the fourth section, which provides that trade dollars, received into standard dollars shall be deducted from the amount of bullion required to be coined by the remonetization act. Agreed to--131 to 118.

The special committee in the Keifer-Boynton matter reported, exonerating Boynton. Laid over.

A MOCKERY OF MARRIAGE. Serious Charge Against a Denver Man--How He Imposed on a Green Girl.

DENVER, April 1.--The arrest of John F. C. Baralow, a prominent citizen of Denver, on a warrant sworn out by "Mrs." Baralow, and subsequent developments, have caused somewhat of a sensation here. Baralow came to Denver three years ago from Kansas City. He met a young girl, named Pearl Schultz. She could speak but little English. It is charged that with the aid of some accomplices Baralow led her to believe that he was her guardian; that he professed that he loved her and she reciprocated his affections; that Baralow had a friend to fill the role of a minister; that a mock marriage ceremony was gone through. The girl was ignorant of any deception having been practiced by Baralow, and since that time until a few days ago she has lived with him as his wife. She bore him two children, both of which died. The story of the alleged mock marriage leaked out through a woman who, it is alleged, aided him in his scheme to obtain possession of the girl. Baralow is also charged with having deceived a young girl in Kansas City in a similar manner, and it is said, used more forcible means to compel his victim to marry him. He left that city and came here, where he met the young girl who caused his arrest.

Female Gamblers in Paris. LONDON, April 1.--A sensation has been caused in Paris by the discovery of a private gambling house located almost under the shadow of the bourse, and patronized entirely by ladies, or at least that sort of "ladies" who swarm toward the close of business hours in the network of narrow streets that surrounds the bourse. The place was denounced to the police by some of its fair but fast victims, and when the descent was made twenty-six women were found playing baccarat. There was great consternation among them at the sudden appearance of the police, but only the proprietor was arrested, the customers being left off with the fright they had received as their only punishment.

A Side Issue of Logan and Anti-Logan--Other Elections.

IN NEBRASKA. PROHIBITION SUCCESS AT LINCOLN. Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 1.--The election passed off more quietly than expected, and the unusually disagreeable day was the cause of a very light vote being cast. The prohibitionists made the most determined fight they ever made in Lincoln, and with the aid of the democrats, defeated the republicans and soldier element, they elected General Montgomery as police judge over Cobb, republican, by 49 majority. They also elected Wenger alderman in the Fourth ward, the republicans carrying the other three.

REPUBLICANS CARRY KEARNEY. Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

KEARNEY, Neb., April 1.--Comparatively little interest was manifested in the city election to-day, which resulted in the election of Joseph B. Leek as mayor, Walter W. Barney as clerk, and W. D. Ball as treasurer--all republicans. The opposition was composed of both democrats and republicans and was supported by the saloon element.

ELSEWHERE. AT MINNEAPOLIS.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 1.--Although the campaign closed to-day has been the most exciting ever known, the election was unprecedentedly quiet. Offers of large rewards for the conviction of fraudulent voters frightened them all away. A very heavy vote was polled; not all can vote in some precincts. The Journal's Pillsbury, republican for mayor, leading, with a probability of being elected by at least 5,000 over Ames, the present incumbent. There were probably 300 women voting for the school board, and some ladies working at the polls.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 1.--At the election for mayor to-day, probably the heaviest vote ever known in the city has been polled. The estimates for the precincts have not yet been reported, but returns from sixteen out of twenty-six give Pillsbury, republican, a plurality of 5,000 over Ames, democrat, and the present mayor--a republican gain of 7,000 over the election of two years ago. The republicans also elect all the aldermen, and the entire ticket. There is great rejoicing to-night over the result.

MILWAUKEE MIXED. MILWAUKEE, April 1.--At the city election to-day, Emil Wehber, republican, was elected mayor. The balance of the ticket is democratic--Fred Kaehn, comptroller; Wm. Maywurm, city treasurer; P. J. Somers, city attorney; council democratic.

AT CHICAGO. CHICAGO, April 1.--The election for eighteen members of the city council and tax officers of the three towns into which the city is divided, was held here to-day. It rained most of the day, and the vote was light. At this hour the returns are not all in. The indications are the election of twelve democrats, five republicans and one independent to the council, a republican gain of one; and that the democratic town tickets were elected, except the assessor of South town. In two wards there were trials of strength between the Logan and anti-Logan republicans. The Logan men won in the Fourth and anti-Logan men in the Fourteenth.

SALOONKEEPERS BEAT AT SPRINGFIELD, ILL. SPRINGFIELD, April 1.--At the city election to-day the issue was made upon the high license question, all the democratic candidates except one being saloonkeepers. The republicans elected four, and possibly five aldermen, out of seven. Ordinarily the democrats carry five of the seven wards.

AT ROCK ISLAND. ROCK ISLAND, April 1.--In the city and township election to-day, the republicans elected three aldermen, the collector and one supervisor; the democrats, three aldermen, four supervisors and the assessor, and the nationalists one alderman.

PARNELL AND DAVITT. The Wideening Division Between the Two Great Irish Leaders.

LONDON, April 1.--The Irish party are considerably exercised at the growing differences between the two leaders, Mr. Parnell and Mr. Michael Davitt. They are especially at variance in their ideas regarding the manner of conducting the coming election campaign. Just at present Mr. Davitt and Mr. Timothy Harrington, M. P., are indulging in a bitter controversy concerning the organization of the campaign. Mr. Davitt urges freedom in the selection of the candidates by the constituencies, while Mr. Harrington insists that it is necessary for the parliamentary party to have a voice in their selection.

Still further divergence is disclosed in an article by Mr. Davitt, which appears in the April number of The Socialist Magazine. The editor of the magazine describes the article as a "declaration of an acknowledged champion of the Irish people that the quiescence of the Parnellite party in parliament will not prevent the immediate reopening of agrarian agitation." Mr. Davitt proceeds to contend that the land act has done nothing to satisfy the real movers in the land league agitation. He declares that he and his followers will have nothing to do with any extension of the purchase clauses of the act. He will not consent to the creation of a peasant proprietary obtained by government advances for the purpose of buying out the landlords' interest. Mr. Davitt's plan is to abolish landlordism, root and branch, by having the tenants continue the processes which have already made the landlords' property nearly unsalable.

BISHOPS AND BANKERS. A Verdict Against Archbishop Williams, of Boston, Arising Out of the Failure of the Fathers.

BOSTON, Mass., April 1.--The first of thirteen suits against Archbishop Williams, of Boston, arising out of the failure of the Augustinian Fathers of Lawrence, was decided last week in favor of plaintiff. The decision will be of great interest to every communicant of the Roman Catholic church in the country, inasmuch as upon it largely rests the title of all the Catholic church property in New England. It will also affect the title of the property held for ecclesiastical purposes by some of the bishops of other denominations. The plaintiff is a factory girl, who as long ago as 1866 deposited $1,230 with her parish priest for investment. The money was used for church purposes, with disastrous results. Her bank-book was put in as evidence, and printed on it are the words, "Church of the Immaculate Conception, Lawrence." In it are recorded the entries of the deposit of money, and then follow the conditions. It is signed "Wm. Orr, Pastor." It seems that by a practice which the archbishop himself condemns the priests of the church have opened books of this sort in the same shape and form substantially as are used by depositors in the savings banks, and have asked the people of the church to advance sums of money to the church, but there is a provision in the book by which they might give any part of their deposit as a donation. It was, however, money loaned to the church to be repaid with interest. The plaintiff claims that the priest was the agent of the archbishop, and took the money for him; that, as a matter of fact, the archbishop borrowed the money through his agent, the priest, and thus became liable for it in the same way that he became liable for a mortgage upon any property of the church for which he gave his note, as it afterward appeared he did. The jury in less than an hour returned with a verdict for plaintiff for $1,240, with interest from the date of the writ, which will make the total amount of the claim about $1,800.

AN ISOLATED CYCLONE. FT. WAYNE, April 1.--The village of Oakville, between Muncie and Newcastle, was swept away at 5 p. m. by a cyclone. Several lives were lost. No particulars.

PORT WAYNE, Ind., April 1.--Oakville, a station on the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville railroad, in Delaware county, of about 200 inhabitants, was almost entirely destroyed by a cyclone which struck there at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Five persons are reported killed and many wounded. Only three dwellings escaped total destruction. The storm formed in the neighborhood of Muncie and swept southeast, leveling everything. Telegraphic communication is cut off. Further particulars cannot be learned.

RECEIPTS MAKING ABOUT 1,000 LESS FOR THE WEEK SO FAR THAN FOR THE CORRESPONDING PERIOD LAST WEEK. There was little or no change to note. As compared with yesterday the general market demand for shipping cattle to-day, as is usual on Tuesday, was limited, but dressed beef buyers wanted about all the fat cattle on sale. Butchers stock was quoted firmer. Stockers and feeders in light supply and in light demand; 1,350 to 1,500 pounds, export grades, $6.15 to $6.57; good to choice shipping, 1,200 to 1,350 pounds, $5.60 to $5.10; common to medium, 1,000 to 1,200 pounds, $5.00 to $5.60.

SHEEP. There were 238 Nebraska, averaging 106, at $5.75, and 150 Nebraska yearlings, averaging 115, at $5.90.

CHICAGO'S MARKETS. WHEAT OPENS WITH A HUSH. Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

CHICAGO, April 1.--The markets opened with a rush this morning, and for the first half hour the trading was marked by very heavy dealings, and generally stronger prices. Wheat sold up 1/8 to 1/4 at the opening, and advanced 1/4 additional, May being quoted at 87 1/2. About 11 o'clock, there was a sudden drop of 1/4 to 1/8, May touching 86 1/2, but rose again. Toward the close May advanced to 87 1/2, and was quoted strong. The stock in store in the Chicago elevators showed a decrease of about 500,000 bushels, and the visible supply, as computed by the secretary of the Chicago board of trade, shows a decrease of 900,000 bushels. On call board 1,000,000 bushels sold, May declining 1/4, and July declining 1/4.
