

THE DAILY BEE.

OMAHA.

Friday Morning, April 4.

Notice to Advertisers. H. S. Smith, who has for the past year filled the position of manager of the advertising department of THE BEE, has leased the city advertising of this paper and will hereafter have complete control of that department.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Tirrell & Cook have removed from their stand on Douglas street to the store formerly occupied by M. A. Kertz, on Farnam street.

—The examination of Major Newell was concluded yesterday afternoon. He was held by the court. His bail was fixed at $1,500. The required bond was furnished.

—Timothy Foley, 821 Howard street, was greeted by a new boarder yesterday. It was a boy, and draped the beam at just fourteen pounds. Mr. Foley is happy, and the mother and boy are both getting along nicely.

—The spring term of Bellevue college opened yesterday. A fair number of students enrolled themselves for the coming term. The first year's catalogue of this institution will show an enrollment of forty or more students. The faculty and trustees become more hopeful as their prospects of success are renewed.

—Another real estate firm has been added to the list. J. E. Riley & Co. have opened a real estate and loan brokers office in Fremont's block, opposite the postoffice. They will transact a general real estate business. They have already secured the agency for the sale of some valuable city property and will be found to be pleasant and agreeable gentlemen to do business with.

—A meeting of the Douglas county central committee will be held in the city hall on next Saturday at 2 p. m. The business of the meeting will be to fix the time for holding the primary for electing delegates to the county convention. The time for holding the county convention will also be determined by the committee. The county convention will be called to elect both delegates to the congressional district convention at Nebraska City, and also the state convention at Lincoln.

—This morning work on the Farnam street storm water sewer will begin. The contractor intends to complete it within the next six days, if rains and wet weather do not prevent. Travel on this street will not be stopped if it can possibly be avoided. The street car company will lay its track in the gutter. Travel by this means at least will not be impeded. Sewer connections can be made as the pipe is laid. The filling of the sewer with dirt will be followed by the laying of the Sioux Falls granite preparatory to putting down the track of the street railway.

—The contract for constructing bridges and making approaches thereto in the Union stock yards was let to G. F. Fox & Co., yesterday. This contract contemplates the expenditure of $7,000. James H. Kynan's contract for grading will cost the company over $25,000 more. To properly grade the grounds of the company 150,000 yards of earth must be removed. This work will all be done by July 1. The slaughter houses will be built by Chicago parties. The lumber and material arrive here ready to be put up, being fitted and prepared for that purpose in Chicago.

—Russett's Russia Salve is unequalled for chilblains, chapped hands, frost bites, etc. Try it.

THE CHOICE OF THE CAUCUS.

The Republican Councilmen Resolve to Support Jewett for Clerk and Murphy for President.

Seven of the nine republican members of the city council held a caucus last night in W. J. Connell's office. Its object was to mark out a policy and agree upon a clerk and president of that body. For the first position there have been numerous candidates. Among a few republicans there has been a feeling to nominate some man of their party. Others thought the services of the present incumbent could not be dispensed with. It was finally agreed by the caucus to re-elect Mr. Jewett.

For president there were two republican aspirants, Messrs. Behm and Murphy. Mr. Murphy was declared by the caucus to be his choice.

Committee matters were talked over, but whether any definite action in that regard was taken could not be learned.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Mr. Alfred Tooser was very pleasantly reminded of his birthday by a number of friends gathering at the residents last Wednesday evening. Dancing was, as usual, the principal amusement which was kept up till a late hour. A very nice supper was partaken of about midnight. Those who attended were Misses Emma and Laura Tooser, Potter, Shannon, Tuttle, Mable and Minnie Woodard, Badger, Wherry, Thorne, Logan and Mr. and Mrs. Tooser, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Zwickel, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsen and Messrs. P. and Phil. Boydon, Pfingst, Shannon, Davis, Cosgrove, Goodwin, Rogerson, Walker, Hart, Mathews, Thorne, Tooser and Edmondson.

Coming West.

Messrs. Rice and Foster, of Bellevue, Idaho, who have been traveling through the east during the winter, organizing colonies for settlement in Idaho, have returned to this city. They will leave here Saturday with a large party of pioneers for Camas Prairie, Alturas county, and another squad of about the same size will start from Kansas City. The route will be over the Union Pacific to Granger, and thence over the Oregon Short Line to Halley. The new settlers, who number about 1,000, are from all parts of the Union, from Maine to Arkansas, with the exception of the southeastern states. Messrs. Rice and Foster report an unusual interest manifested by eastern people regarding the great west, and predict a larger influx of settlers this season than ever before.

SWEET SONGSTERS.

Mapleson's Her Majesty's Opera Company in Omaha for a Night and Day.

Adelina Patti and Mme. Gerster in the Party—A Pleasant Visit With Patti in Her Private Car.

The special train having on board Col. Mapleson's "Her Majesty's Opera Company" arrived in Omaha from San Francisco last evening at 7:20 o'clock. The train consisted of three baggage cars, three coaches, and four sleepers. The sleepers were "La Traviata," "La Sonnambula," both being Mann bouidoir cars, the "Lycoming" of the Hannibal & St. Joe railway, and the Mann bouidoir car "Adelina Patti." These bouidoir cars are fitted up in the most elegant style in finish and equipment, excelling the ordinary sleeping car as much as the sleeping car excels the first-class day coach. The bouidoir cars are supplied with all the appliances for sleeping, cooking, eating, and the toilet, and are occupied by the high-priced members of the troupe. The "Lycoming," a very elegant car, was occupied by Col. Mapleson, Mme. Gerster and Mme. Dotti. The "Adelina Patti" was occupied by the renowned songstress, Patti, and her husband, Signor Nicolini, and Mr. M. H. DeYoung, proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle, accompanied by his wife, on a pleasure trip to Europe.

As the train rolled into the depot a curious crowd gathered around it, all having in view the same purpose, to catch a glimpse of the leading stars, Adelina Patti and Madame Gerster. The train was graded according to the position occupied by the various singers. In the day coaches were the chorus singers, both male and female; in the first sleepers were the leading chorus singers; in the next car was Madame Gerster, Mme. Dotti, Col. Mapleson and others, the whole train being fitted up by Mme. Patti's private car, occupied by herself, her husband and Mr. De Young and wife.

As soon as the train halted there was a general scramble, and such another Italian clatter was never heard in Omaha. It was all push and pull to get to the ground. Upon the platform they stood around in groups, their hands full of baggage and all seemed to be decidedly out of humor and much jawing and wrangling occurred. Signor Angelo, manager of the baggage department, engaged in a very stormy interview with another member of the party over the arrangement of a lady's baggage. If there is any one class of people who are more inclined to find fault than others, it is the musicians, and especially Italian musicians. At the hotel Angelo engaged in a dispute with the clerk, but was finally convinced that he was in the wrong and withdrew.

A reporter approached one of the colored porters upon the train and inquired where the manager could be found, and he replied, "Why, dey's all managers; you neber see sich crowd in all the born days ob your life. Everybody bosses."

The most attractive part of the show at the depot was Madame Patti's private car, in which the party were seated at dinner. The curtains and blinds were drawn in such a manner as to permit the gathered crowd to fully inspect the interior of the palace on wheels, and every mouthful that the great singer ate was watched with the most intense interest; and such remarks as "See, that's her," or "How nicely she eats, or 'Isn't she a terrible eater?" were heard upon all sides. One fellow sat especially tall and watched the eating act for at least three-quarters of an hour, when he remarked, "She eats an awful while, don't she?" A man who was standing near remarked, "You would eat a great deal longer than that if you could only get such a square meal once." When the dinner was over, a gang of small boys got down between the cars and created such a disturbance that the porter of the car was obliged to call the depot policeman to rout them from the place.

The leading people of the company, with the exception of Patti and her party, left the cars and sought rest in the hotels. The chorus girls of the party asked permission to sleep in the day coaches, and it was granted them, and they curled up in the seats and prepared to pass the night.

Madame Gerster and her husband, Doctor Gardino, Signor Angelo and several other members of the party are quartered at the Paxton. The Milan is entertaining a number of them, while the smaller hotels came in for a share of their patronage. Gerster and her husband partook of a private supper in their rooms, immediately after which the madame retired, being considerably fatigued with the long journey.

After quiet had settled down upon the scene Madame Patti was visited in her car, and the reporter was shown through the magnificent place. The car was built last summer especially for Patti and cost $65,000. It is without doubt the most superb and tasteful coach on wheels anywhere in the world. The curtains were of heavy damask silk. The walls and ceilings were covered with gilded leather tapestry. The lamps were of rolled gold. Patti's bouidoir, in point of elegance, surpasses anything ever constructed for traveling purposes. The furniture throughout is lined with silk and is all of the most costly and elegant materials. A grand piano is not among the least attractive articles. The casing is of costly wood and is beautifully carved, and cost alone $2,500. The instrument is constructed with flip springs so as to remain constantly balanced and does not need tuning. There are two panel oil paintings in the drawing room which cost $2,000 each. They are the works of famous Italian artists and are extremely fine.

In conversation with Mme. Patti she spoke in unbounded terms of praise of her trip to California, and the manner in which she had been received in the city of San Francisco, where she was the president of a grand ovation. She was presented with jewelry, valuable vases and presents of various kinds. Each time the song the stage was heaped up with beautiful bouquets and floral decorations of every description. Upon her last appearance she was presented with one floral offering ten feet in length and six feet in width. At this performance the people were unable to get into the house and between two and three hundred passed through the rear and secreted themselves under the stage. In a moment of ecstasy they cheered and were discovered. She said that she disliked very much to leave San Francisco. From San Francisco the party went to Salt Lake, where Patti sang in the tabernacle to over 12,000 persons. At this place both Mormons and others vied with each other to do her homage.

One of the constant companions of the diva is that famous and world renowned parrot. It has mastered several words and sentences in French. Patti says the parrot has grossly misrepresented the parrot, as it does not say "Cash," as has been stated. She says she has plenty of cash and can get plenty more. She whistled a peculiar whistle and almost instantly the parrot answered. It is a very knowing bird and affords much amusement.

About 10 o'clock last evening Madame Patti and her party took a walk from their car to the Paxton hotel. They strolled along leisurely and looked at all the sights in the show windows, and several little amusing incidents took place. On their way to the party stopped in front of Turner hall, on South street, and the great singer stood for ten minutes and listened to a party of Germans who were singing within. Upon reaching their car a general conversation of a very pleasant character took place. Count Zscharoff has invited Mme. Patti to dine with him to-day at the Paxton and she has accepted.

Mr. DeYoung and his wife leave this evening for Chicago, where Mr. DeYoung has business to attend to, after which they will leave for Europe. Patti has invited them to spend a few weeks with her at her castle in Wales, and they have accepted the invitation.

Last Saturday afternoon the company closed a most brilliant engagement in San Francisco, at which time Patti repeated her charming role of "Anetta" in "Crispino." It was a brilliant engagement in every respect. The receipts for the three weeks engagement reached $200,000, from which Col. Mapleson realized a profit of $83,000. Mme. Gerster was received with great favor in San Francisco and proved even more profitable than the great Patti.

The San Francisco Call says: "That was a quiet stab the gentle Gerster gave the diva, when she subscribed $1,000 for the benefit of Lombard's widow, as against Adelina's $150. But it is understood to be the rule of the Patti family that money must not be lightly parted with, and the little prima donna no exception. A relative, were he in need of relief, would be more slenderly assisted than a stranger. And speaking of the proposed benefit to the basso widow—a which never came off—reminds us of a splendid example of Mapleson's gall and cheek. He calmly sent a request reading like a demand, to Bert of the California, that he put his theatre at his (M's) disposal for the purpose, and his reward would be the public should know it was 'by the kind permission,' etc. Bert very promptly replied that the 'colonel' might go to a place unmentionable. If he really desired to give the widow a benefit, he could use the Grand opera house for that purpose, but a better and more graceful way would be for the members of the company themselves to make up a purse for Signora L., as afterwards she would be public should be further thanked for a count of a death in the family. It appears his advice was acted on. Whether the widow will ever receive the promised benefit, on arrival in New York, remains to be seen."

The great singer Adelina Maria Clara Patti, was born at Madrid, April 9, 1843. She was educated at New York, where, on November 24, 1859, she made her debut as a singer in Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor." On May 14, 1861, she made her first appearance in London in "La Sonnambula," and the next year she appeared in Paris in the same role. She afterwards sang alternately in London, Paris at St. Petersburg with great success.

To-night Omaha will be favored with the first Italian opera ever given in this city. At the opera house to-night will be given "Lucia di Lammermoor," which was the first opera in which Adelina Patti ever appeared. The cast will consist of over 100 voices and it will be, without doubt, the grandest entertainment ever witnessed by the citizens of Omaha.

A Very Remarkable Recovery. Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "I was afflicted with rheumatism for five years, so helpless that I could not turn over in bed alone. I used two bottles of Electric Bitters, and so much improved, that I am now able to do her own work. Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle at C. F. Goodman's."

COMBINATION BY CARPENTERS.

A Meeting of That Craft Held Last Night and a Union Formed.

In accordance with the call about one hundred carpenters were present at the meeting last night to perfect a trades union of this craft. Owing to the fact that the council was in session the meeting was held in the police court room. It was called to order by W. P. Marrow, vice president of the Plasterers' union. John Coatsworth was chosen chairman of the meeting and James Stoneman secretary.

The object of the meeting was explained and the benefits derived by a union were shown by Mr. Walsh. Several other tradesmen present presented their views. It was finally determined to effect an organization. John Henry was elected president; H. Parker, first vice president; and Charles Sicut, second vice; J. S. Kough, financial secretary; James Stoneman, recording secretary; John Coatsworth, corresponding secretary; and Andrew L. Wiggins, treasurer. A committee of five was appointed to solicit names for membership.

The meeting then adjourned to next Thursday evening. It will be held in the city hall building.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The greatest medical wonder of the world. Warranted to speedily cure Burns, Cuts, Ulcers, Itch, Eruptions, Swellings, Bruises, Chilblains, Corns, Tetter, Chapped hands, and all skin eruptions, guaranteed to cure every instance, or money refunded. 25 cents a box.

Dr. Hyde Cared. Dr. Hyde has been for two years past medical adviser for the Union Pacific base ball team and will still continue to act in that capacity. Wednesday the boys of the club thinking it proper to remain him of their appreciation of his services, called upon him at his residence and presented him with a beautiful gold watch. Mr. Salisbury made the presentation in a very pleasant manner. To say that the doctor appreciates it would be feebly expressing his feelings. The inscription upon it was as follows: "Dr. H. W. Hyde, from F. W. Bandle, J. S. McKelvey, C. R. Briggs, W. B. Fisher, C. F. Whitney, H. H. Salisbury, J. L. Sneed, O. W. Lord, W. E. Rockwell."

ITS LAST SESSION.

The Old City Council Transacts Its Last Business.

The Belt Railway is Paid Another Tribute.

An adjourned regular meet of the city council was held last evening. Roll called. Members present, Anderson, Behm, Dunham, Kaufman, Murphy, Redfield, Thorne, Woodworth and Baker.

From A. Black: Tending his resignation as policeman. Accepted. From James Creighton, chairman of the board of public works: Certifying that J. P. Manning had served as inspector for twenty-three days during the month of December. Referred.

A number of bills were referred without reading. RESOLUTIONS. Three sidewalk resolutions were read and referred to the board of public works.

By Redfield: Amending rule 40 and providing for the appointment of eleven committees of three members each. The following to be named: 1. the committee: 1, judiciary; 2, finance and claims; 3, streets and grades; 4, police; 5, public property and improvements; 6, fire and water works; 7, gas and electric lights; 8, sidewalks and bridges; 9, rules, forms and printing; 10, sewerage; 11, paving, curbing and gutting. Adopted. This amendment abolishes the old committee on street railways, railroad crossings and signals. It further consolidates the two former committees on finance and claims. It also divides the old committee on water works and sewerage, and makes a new one of the old committee on fire and water works. To the old committee on gas, electric light is added. A committee on sewerage only will be appointed. A new one on paving, curbing and gutting was created.

An ordinance, by Leader, repealing chapter 3 of Chase's compiled ordinances entitled "Animals running at large," repealing ordinance No. 472, entitled an ordinance to prohibit the running at large of certain animals, and to provide for the appointment of a pound master. Read twice and referred.

An ordinance, ordering the construction of a sewer in sewer district No. 18. Passed. An ordinance, granting to the Belt railway the right of way through portions of the alley running east and west between Izard and Nicholas streets, from Fifteenth to Seventeenth, and from said alley across Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, to connect with the Woodman Line. Oil works on block 1974. Passed.

By consent of the council, a resolution ordering the street commissioner to put a 15-inch tap in sewer on Twentieth and Nicholas, so as to draw the water from the creek bed, was read. Referred to the board of public works. The council then adjourned.

WHOLESALE CONFECTIONERY.

Fax & Co., formerly of Minneapolis, Minn., have opened a wholesale confectionery, cigar and fruit business, at 1211 Farnam street. a2 m

A Visit to London with Prof. Cromwell.

A very fair sized audience witnessed Prof. Cromwell's cosmopolitan views of London at the Boyd last night. These entertainments are gradually becoming appreciated as they become better known among the thinking class. We have not the slightest doubt that were Prof. Cromwell to extend his stay another week—and by the way his stock of illustrations would warrant his doing so without having to repeat any portion of them or exhausting half of his collection—he would draw full house. Prof. Cromwell's descriptive lectures are not the least interesting feature of these entertainments. The gentleman is a fluent talker and very witty. His descriptions stamp him as a man of the keenest perception and a close observer of persons and things.

An Editor's Tribute.

Theron P. Keator, Editor of Ft. Wayne Ind., "Gazette," writes: "For the past five years have always used Dr. King's New Discovery, for coughs of most severe character, as well as for those of a milder type. It never fails to effect a speedy cure. My friends to whom I have recommended it, speak of it as a life-saver. Having been cured by it every cough I have had for five years, I consider it the only reliable and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, and Hoarseness. At C. F. Goodman's Drug Store and get a Free Trial Bottle. Large Size $1.00.

Losers of Silk.

Grunebaum Bros. missed a piece of silk Wednesday and as yet have not been able to determine where it has gone to and are strongly of the opinion that it must have been stolen. If it was stolen it was done in a very slick manner, so to speak, and it is pretty good evidence that there is a professional shop-lifter in this city. During the day the clerks were all very busy but a close watch was kept upon the fine goods, and whoever carried off the fabric was a good one. "ROUGH ON RATS." Clean out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bedbugs, skunks, chipmunks, possums, etc. Dr. Dorr's.

SHORT OF FUNDS. Baking Powder Figures That DON'T LIE

No Money to Pay the Teachers of the Deaf Mute Institute for the Coming Year.

The Deficiency is Due to a Mistake in the Appropriation Bill.

An unpleasant discovery was recently made by Professor Gillespie, principal of the Nebraska deaf-mute asylum, in looking over the appropriation bill passed by the last legislature. He found that owing to a mistake in the engrossing of the bill the appropriation for teachers of the asylum had been limited to one year, instead of covering a period of two years, as it should have done. The amount appropriated for teachers' salaries was $6,500, which pays for only one year. The appropriation was intended to be for two years, the amount for which would have been $13,000. The school year of the deaf-mute ended on March 31st, and the institution is now being run on the hope that the state board of public lands and buildings, to whom the matter has been referred, will devise some means for providing for the payment of the teachers' salaries for the coming year. Unless this is done the institute will have to close until the next legislature meets, when it will not be until next winter. An effort will probably be made to induce parties in Omaha to advance the necessary funds, and wait for repayment until the legislature meets. The trouble is that the present members of the board of public works do not feel warranted in assuming any personal responsibility in the matter, owing to the fact that their term expires at the end of the present year, and they may not be re-elected.

Easter Festival. The Concordia society will give an Easter festival on Easter Monday evening at Germania hall. There will be a grand ball and concert, and it will doubtless be a grand affair. The committee of arrangements is composed of the following gentlemen: G. H. Haarmann, H. G. J. Lehmann, L. Heimrod, J. P. Lund, G. E. Stratmann and Julius Meyer.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Government Chemist Collier's Analysis as to the Leavening Qualities. ANDREWS' PEARL.

No wonder the Royal Co. omitted Andrew's Pearl from their "Comparative List," as Government Chemist Collier's analysis shows conclusively two things: 1st That Andrew's Pearl contains MORE CREAM TARTAR than the Royal, as shown by the cuts above; 2d, That the LEAVENING POWER of Andrew's Pearl is GREATER than the Royal, as shown by the two black lines above.

CHALLENGE.

We will give the Royal Co., or any one else $1,000 or $5,000 if they can prove by any fair and just test that Andrew's Pearl Baking Powder does, or ever did, contain alum or any injurious substance, and this challenge is open forever. Andrew's Pearl Baking Powder is sustained by a testimonial as to its Purity and Strength by the only genuine commissioned Government Chemist, such as the Royal Co. never have published. THY IT. C. E.
