Major Newell Held.

The examination of Major Newell for embezzling funds of the Consolidated Tank Line company was finished before Judge Beneke Thursday. The defense based their argument on the ground that the grand jury had investigated the case and had discharged the defendant, and consequently the lower court had no right to hold him. The book-keeper of the company testified that he had found a shortage of $1,650 in Major Newell's account which he did not know of at the time the grand jury was in session. The judge held the defendant in $1,500 bail and gave him until 4 o'clock yesterday to furnish the same. The arguments of the attorneys, especially those of Gen. Cowin and District Attorney Godwin took the form of personal abuse against each other rather than upon the case in hand and were very amusing to the listeners. With Durkee's Salad Dressing there is
