"TROUBLE on the dump" is the caption of a local in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

MR. P. O. HAWES says he does not want to be a delegate to the republican national convention.

THE 153 electoral votes of the Solid South are being counted, as might be expected.

THERE is now a strong probability that the present congress will decide to establish a system of postal telegraph either by construction of lines or purchase of existing lines.

Now that the new appraisers of the Farnam street grade have completed their work, the old moss-backs and obstructionists will brace up again.

GEN. AQUERO'S filibustering expedition that sailed from Key West to Cuba the other day is liable to stir up a lively little row.

THE woman suffrage movement is liable to receive a black eye from the house of representatives.

THE liquor men of Ohio are making a vigorous fight against the Scott law.

THE supreme court of Pennsylvania has decided that the minority of stockholders in a corporation have legal and definite rights against the majority.

IT doesn't look well that right at the outset of the Jeanette investigation, the counsel for Melville and Mrs. De Long should try to stop the inquiry.

A GREAT many mean things have been said about Susan B. Anthony, but she says the meanest thing was the story of a wild western editor about her attending a woman suffrage convention.

IT is exactly as far from Omaha to Council Bluffs, as it is from Council Bluffs to Omaha.

"FIFTY citizens" of Avoca, Iowa, have paralyzed the house of representatives and attracted the attention of the nation.

THE REMEDY.

The outbreak of popular indignation against the miscarriage of justice in Cincinnati was only the violent expression of a feeling that exists almost everywhere.

A MODEST CLAIMANT.

The Herald boasts that it is par excellence the greatest newspaper in this part of the west.

CITY WALKS AND TALKS.

"How did Capitol hill get its name," asked a new-comer of an old-timer.

THE UNSEEMLY QUARREL BETWEEN EX-SPEAKER KEIFER AND GEN. BOYNTON.

The unseemly quarrel between Ex-speaker Keifer and Gen. Boynton, is left, by the reports of the house investigating committee, about where it was before.

THEY ARE NOT AS DRY DOWN IN MASSACHUSETTS AS SOME PEOPLE THINK.

They are not as dry down in Massachusetts as some people think. Jokes appropriate to April first were the order of the day in the legislature of that state last Tuesday.

ACCORDING TO THE NEW YORK JOURNAL THE WORK OF BUILDING THE PEDESTAL FOR BARTHOLDI'S GREAT STATUE OF LIBERTY HAS BEEN PUSHED ALONG SO RAPIDLY DURING THE PLEASANT WEATHER OF THE PAST FEW DAYS THAT THE PUBLIC DOES NOT SEEM ABLE TO KEEP PACE WITH IT.

BUSINESS FAILURES DURING THE QUARTER ENDED APRIL 1ST, EXCEEDED ANY NUMBER FOR A LIKE PERIOD FOR MANY YEARS.

The republican central committee of this county has called the primaries to select delegates to the county convention.

to claim seats. The outcome may be not only double-headed, but triple and even quadruple-headed. It strikes us that the central committee must either be recalled at once, or the chairman must assume the authority to designate in a published call where the primaries are to be held.

There is a great deal less of a Blaine boom in Maine than there is in Pennsylvania or New Jersey.

The election in Minneapolis resulted in a clean sweep in favor of the republicans, who made a strong fight against the old administration.
