THE CINCINNATI RIOTS.

The Lessons to be Learned from the Mob in that City a Few Days Ago.

An Excellent Sermon by Rev. A. F. Sherrill Last Night.

Rev. A. F. Sherill preached a very learned and able sermon to a large and intelligent audience at the First Congregational church in this city last evening. His subject was the "Benefit to Come from the Riot at Cincinnati," and he chose the appropriate text found in 1 Peter, 2d chapter, 17th verse, "Honor all men, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the king."

The following are some of the salient points made by Mr. Sherrill:

THE GREAT DIOT IN CINCINNATI last week awoke a widespread and deep interest. The reign of terror throughout the city for three continued days and nights, the destruction of property, of valuable records which cannot be replaced, forty-five killed, one hundred and forty-five maimed and wounded, are the rived in Omaha yesterday moraing with a more deplorable that it originated in an endeavor, not to destroy, but to restore justice, safety to property and life, and hat so many of the deaths were of good citizens. But instead of dwelling in ness on the dark scenes, the charged remains, the sad funera's, let a look be taken, rather, at the benefits which may be hoped will come out of it. Three stern lessons it reads which SHOULD BE HERBED. First; that we need an increase of the standing army, granted other reforms to be mentioned and which it is hoped will be seen as our cities grow, as the country fills up and property accumulates. Those who know declare no other military exegency arises when there is such demand for skilled officers, disciplined soldiers and cool-headed work. The scene in Cincinnati illustrates how disastrous it vice Dr. Mercer, resigned. The chair of must always be at such a time to depend upon inexperienced militia. The regular army should be increased so that there may always be not only enough to wa ch the Indians, but also to furnish a or ingent near every large city. Second; The American tendency in both city and state is to Third-There is admonition to have reform through our country of the crimiabout a week. Mr. Nathan Rosewater is nal codes and their execution. The New York Herald taxes up a number of years the most extensive drug establishments in the there and shows an average of ONE MURDER A WEEK and one legal execution a year. The Chicago Tribune reports 1,600 murders in our country the past year, a gain of 200 on the year before, and only 95 legal executions. Une paper says at the present it will not be long before murder will be one of our regular incidents and executions one of the lost arts. Hold up these facts to the average populace and we get the riot of Cincinnati. the recent so-called "bee" in Montana to finish off thirteen desperadoes at a batch. WHAT REFORMS ARE NEEDED.

First-Tne criminal code should be so revised that all crime should be more dangerous, punished swifter and surer. Second-The worthless los who hang about every court to get on every jury they can, to be fixed "so as to hang the jury instead of the criminal, and the other class whose whole business is to fix juries-both these should be cleared out with bayonets and sent to Madagascar. That is why Tom Campbell, attorney for Berner, could openly boast he might have cleared the self-confessed murderer entirely if he had so chosen. It is a wonder the old jury system is allowed to go on at all, but especially under its present form. It has been openly CHARGED BY OUR CITY ATTORNEY that some of the last grand jury were previously bribed and it has not been

In diplometic c'reles here a new explanation is given of the causes which I 1 to Minister S. rgeat's unpiter- at mission Berlin. Hereto oce his want of succom been addibated to masters political, but it is now assected that a lack of social tack and want of regard for the forms of eliquetie and custom prevailing at the Gorman court were the prime causes of the unpleas atness. The accomplished wife of the minister has for many years been one of the leaders in the weman's suffrage ete and in the annual conventions of the precautions for avoiding accidents at the Sufferro A-sociation has advocated the ma azine that it was decided to proceed use of the ballot by women. Mr. Sar-in the matter, not for the sake of ab ainvauced ideas on many social questions, which in the family circle at Washington were discussed by the pleasant and refined companies that requently assemble at their house. The etique te of the German court is as 11 rid as that of any country in Europe, possibly excepting that of Sweden, and not only are the outward forms and observances of royalty maintained, but the conversation flows within well defined channels of thought and expression, to transgress from which, would be regarded as an unpardonable offense. It is said that topics of conversation discussed at social parties given by the American minister were inexpressibly application to the officers of the German overnment who attended them. Members of the court were not disposed to listen to expressions favoring suffrage for men, much less for women, and they accordingly ceased to socially recognize the minister's family; while, on the other hand, the Lineral members of the Reichstay, among whom was Herr Lasker, found the minister's home an exceedingly agreeable report, and his warmest friends included the principal opponents of the government. • The Chaucellor's bitter hatred of the Liberals, and his opposition to socialistic theories, led him, in time, to regard the American minister with peculiar aversion. These feelings, it is said,
