

OMAHA DAILY BEE--TUESDAY APRIL 8, 1884.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK. April 7.
Money—Easy at 14½ per cent; closed yesterday at 15 per cent.

Prins Marcellus Paper—4½ per cent.
Exchange Bills—Firm at 4½; demand, 4½.

Governments—Strong.
Railway Bonds—Strong and higher.

Stocks—Opened lower and in the first fifteen minutes business declined 1 to 2 per cent, the Lake Shore and Western Union being the greatest sufferers. At the first call there was an improved feeling on the report that several of the most prominent railroad capitalists had held a conference and resolved to support prices at or about Saturday's figures. Following this was a sharp demand for Union Pacific, which rose from 70½ to 71½, the transactions on the way up being enormous, amounting in the aggregate to 91,000 shares. The rise in Union Pacific led to purchases in the general list and there was a general advance.

In the afternoon, under sales to realize profits, prices receded 1 to 2 per cent, but in closing dealings there was a rally of 1 to 2 per cent. The rise in Chicago, Burlington & Quincy to 12½ Saturday, is explained by the report that the company intends to increase their stock 10 per cent and offer the same to subscribers of record April 19, at the rate of ten shares at par for each 100 shares of stock held. Compared with Saturday's closing prices are 4½ per cent higher for St. Paul preferred, Northern Pacific preferred, and Omaha, and 1½ per cent lower for Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Central Pacific, Northwestern, St. Paul, Wabash preferred, and Western Union.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

CHICAGO PRODUCE.
Chicago, April 7.—Matters on "Change" were badly unsettled at the opening this morning, prices generally breaking sharply at the start but recovering slightly after the first quarter hour. May wheat opened at 80¢, rose to $1½, fell off to $1½, recovered to $1½, and is now $1½. May corn opened at 40¢, sold down to 40¢, rose to 50¢, and is now 40¢. Oats are quoted at 30¢ for May. May pork opened at $16 20, sold off to $16 00 and is now 16 05. Lard opened at $8 40 for May, and is now quoted at 8 37.

11 a. m.—The markets continue willy-nilly except and fluctuations are quick and rapid under the influence of the foreign market.

May wheat finally touched 80¢ at 10 o'clock, rebounded 40¢, fell back again to 80¢ and then rallied sharply to 81¢, fell to 80¢ and is now about 81¢. The fluctuations, however, are of such a changing nature that to give an accurate view of the market is impossible. The foreign market is quoted at 16½c within five minutes of trading. May pork fall to $15 60 and has now rallied to $15 85. May lard is $8 40. May corn is 50¢.

NOON.—The air of uncertainty on "Change" continues very great. Values of wheat, corn, and pork are rapidly moving in rapid succession, but without possibly a change more than in the day. May wheat is now 81¢ and is now about 81¢. The fluctuations, however, are of such a changing nature that to give an accurate view of the market is impossible. The foreign market is quoted at 16½c within five minutes of trading. May pork fall to $15 60 and has now rallied to $15 85. May lard is $8 40. May corn is 50¢.

1 p. m.—The closing sales generally were a shade under the best prices of to-day, but as a rule higher than yesterday, and moderately strong.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Flour—Dull and prices about nominal; Southern Illinois and Missouri winters, 5 15@5 15; Michigan winters, 4 75@5 50; low grade winters, 3 50@3 50; cash for fancy spring flours, 3 25@4 00; Minnesota bakers, 4 25@4 50; flour for May, 5 00@5 25.

Wheat—Regular wheat greatly exceeded, and feeling very nervous. The lowest prices this year was reached May, selling down to 70¢, up to 80¢, and is now 81¢.

THE BRITISH GRAIN MARKET.

LONDON, April 7.—The Mark Lane En-

gross, in its weekly review of the British grain market, says: "The outlook for the wheat crop is very good. The trade in wheat of the strand is depressed. Flour is lower. Malt is easier, especially for new mixed American. Barley is dull and in favor of buyers. Oats advanced 2d. Trade in carous off the coast is slow. Four cargoes have arrived. One was sold and three were withdrawn. Quotations of cargoes on passage, or shipment, declined 6d. Sales of English wheat for the week, 48,101 quarters, at 37s 7d per quarter, against 57,733 quarters at 42s, for the corresponding week last year."
