

9 TIMES OUT OF 10

Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil CURES Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

99 TIMES OUT OF 100

Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil CURES A Cold or a Hoarseness.

19 TIMES OUT OF 20

Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil CURES Asthma and Diphtheria.

49 TIMES OUT OF 50

Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil CURES Croup and Affections of the Throat.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

E. M. A. Ball.

On this Monday evening the Emmet Monument association will hold its fifth annual ball at Falchner's new hall on Douglas street, between 15th and 16th streets.

The committee of arrangements have rented the dining hall right over the ball room where refreshments will be served from 10 o'clock until 2 o'clock, so that no one will have to go out to get supper.

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS: Michael Lee, P. L. Hughes, P. J. Tighe, P. J. Barrett, Bernard McCaffrey, Edward Quinn.

FLOOR MANAGERS: J. F. Price, M. P. O'Brien, W. H. McDevitt, J. A. Hannan.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE: D. C. Shelly, P. C. Healy, John Resgan, E. F. Moriarty.

NOTICE TO FARMERS, STOCK BREEDERS, GARDENERS, DAYWORKERS, NEUTRALISMERS AND OTHERS ENGAGED IN SIMILAR PUNTS.

The Rural is a twenty page farm and family journal now in its 15th year, and should be in the hands of all who are interested as above.

AGENTS WANTED: We pay a larger cash commission to agents than any other paper published. Address H. S. Smith & Co., Publishers, 525 and 527 South 4th St., Omaha, Neb.

Glee Club Concert.

The following is the programme of the Glee Club concert, which takes place on Tuesday evening.

- 1. "Comrades in Arms" Adam Glee Club. 2. Quartet "In Armies" Buck Messrs. Brockenridge, Wilkins, Deuel and Estabrook.

THE DAILY BEE.

OMAHA. Monday Morning, April 14.

Notice to Advertisers.

H. S. Smith, who has for the past year filled the position of manager of the advertising department of THE BEE, has leased the city advertising of that department.

E. ROSEWATER, President Bee Publishing Co.

The Weather.

For the Upper Mississippi valley: Partly cloudy weather, east to south winds, becoming variable.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weighers on the railway mail service in this division, covering the U. P. and the B. & M. railway and branches, some thirty men, all told, will start out for duty to-day.

A disorderly woman was very severely beaten by her "friend" on lower Eleventh street last evening. It is thought he used a revolver over her head. He was arrested and taken to jail.

The Easter concert on the Saratoga Union Sunday school will be deferred until Sunday evening, April 20th, owing to the inclemency of the weather and the impassable state of many of the suburban roads.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of trade will be held this evening, at which the committee on market house will be present. The board of directors will meet at 3:30 p. m., Thos. Gibson, Secretary.

Jack Hanley of Colorado, well-known in Omaha, arrived here on Saturday night. It is understood his object here is to fight James Fell of Irish Hill, Mo., with bare knuckles. Fell will arrive in the city to-day. Both men will go into active training. The fight will probably come off in about three weeks.

On Saturday evening last a meeting to inquire into the fees to be paid the attorneys engaged in the case against the wholesale liquor dealers of this city in the whole sale liquor case was held by the school board.

The district court on Saturday the arguments on the Dilke injunction case were not heard as some of the counsel were not ready. The demurrer in the case of the Omaha Book company against Condon was sustained. The petition of Annie C. Meredith for an injunction to restrain the collection of the tax for grading in front of her property on Nineteenth street was not granted.

On Farnam street, over saloon number nine rooms a fellow who gets up about 8 o'clock in the morning, and proceeds to dress himself in front of the window, before which he has blinds or curtains.

Mr. D. W. Carpenter, one of the founders of The Herald, and too well known to Nebraska people to need any particular identification, is in receipt of a telegram from Colorado Springs, announcing the sudden death of his youngest son, William B. Carpenter, after a short illness. William was born in Council Bluffs twenty-six years ago, and his early days were passed in this immediate locality.

When a fellow gets up about 8 o'clock in the morning, and proceeds to dress himself in front of the window, before which he has blinds or curtains, it has become decidedly annoying to people on the opposite side of the street, who cannot but see the performance, and they desire that it be stopped.

PERSONAL.

T. B. Warden, Burlington, is at the Metropolitan.

J. D. Crans, of Hastings, is at the Metropolitan.

W. C. Chambers, of Sioux City, is at the Metropolitan.

J. E. Taylor, of Kansas City, is registered at the Metropolitan.

Wm. Koenig Kranner of St. Louis, representing the Missouri Glass Company, is at the Metropolitan.

J. H. Wharton, Trenton, and A. A. Morris, Little Falls, N. Y., are stopping at the Metropolitan.

W. J. Barton, Chicago, general agent for the Voice of Masonry, is in the city stopping at the Metropolitan.

Hon. E. G. Halbert, ex-state senator, and his brother, ex-Mayor Halbert, of Binghamton, New York, are in the city and at the Paxton.

Mrs. W. F. Hallstead, wife of General Superintendent Hallstead, of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railway, and a party of friends from Scranton, Pa., are at the Paxton.

THE TIME THAT TELLS.

Miss George Shipman Wins the Second Time at the Roller Skating.

The third contest for the gold watch occurred last evening at the roller skating rink.

Misses Lizzie Canfield and George Shipman appeared upon the floor, accompanied by Messrs. John Hitchcock and C. W. Van Cott.

The U. P. band gave a grand march, and to its inspiring music the graceful skaters displayed the best skating we have had this winter.

A good deal of enthusiasm was exhibited during the contest, and at its close Messrs. Rouboudoux and Daniels collected and counted the ballots, which resulted in Miss Shipman receiving 101 and Miss Canfield 74. The next contest will occur next Thursday evening.

Police Court.

In police court Saturday morning there were three cases for disturbance of the peace.

Two of them were each fined $5 and costs. Two of them paid and the third one was sent over the hill.

Clara Mason was taxed $10 and costs for creating a disturbance Friday night.

James Wilcox, arrested for being a suspicious character, was held pending investigation.

Belle Sanford was arrested Friday for disturbing the peace. She pleaded not guilty and was held for trial.

THE RISEN REDEEMER.

How the 1851st Anniversary was Celebrated in Omaha.

The Magnificent Mozart's Twelfth Mass at St. Philomena's.

The Services, Incidents and Floral Ornamentation at Trinity Cathedral.

CATHOLIC.

AT THE CATHEDRAL.

The result of the announcement in THE BEE of Saturday of the intended and unusual grand ceremonies at St. Philomena's on Easter, had the effect yesterday at high mass of crowding the edifice in every seat, while many remained standing in the aisles and vestibule, and scores were unable to secure admittance at all.

The congregation embraced, in addition to an enlarged attendance of church members, quite a number of persons of other denominations, and from the "In nomine Patris," the "Ita missa est" of the celebrant, and the "Kyrie eleison" to the "Regina Coeli" of the choir, there was the most devout attention on the part of the members, as well as the most rapt interest on the part of visitors.

The sacredness of the sacrament of the altar was never understood by others than the faithful of the mother church, but it would be a blind observer indeed who, amid the pomp and ceremonies of yesterday's service at the cathedral, could not discover that all was but the various steps that led to the completion of the work of the carrying out of the command, "Do this in commemoration of me," the changing of the bread and wine into the body and blood, supplemented at the various stages by prayers and invocations handed down through misty ages by the fathers of the church, while the effect of all is to bring forcibly to mind the passion, the resurrection, and the ascension of the Savior.

TRANSUBSTANTIATION.

High mass is always more impressive than low mass, probably because of the accompaniment of music, and the grand pontifical high mass stands still a grade higher than the ordinary high mass. But it is safe to say no such grand high mass ever celebrated in Omaha equalled in grandeur that of yesterday. As has been announced, Rev. Bishop O'Connor was celebrant; Rev. Father Madden, deacon; Rev. Father O'Connor, sub-deacon, and Rev. Father Kelly in waiting on the Bishop.

It is only on extraordinary occasions that the Bishop officiates at high mass, and this of itself was quite an item of interest with Catholics.

THE SERMON.

was delivered by Rev. Father Madden, and was brief but excellent; of course, appropriate to the day and occasion. It consisted of a relation of the events immediately preceding and up to the resurrection of Christ, when the stone was rolled away from the mouth of the sepulchre and the Savior found to have arisen. He argued against the attempts put forth by anti-Christians to show that there was no miracle in this, but that the stone had been removed by the disciples and the body of Christ stolen and secreted. He then reverted to the life of Christ; how from the cradle of Bethlehem to the cross of Golgotha, it had been almost a constant martyrdom. He argued for the love of mankind and urged his hearers to roll the stone away from the sepulchres of vice and iniquity in which they had slept, and arise into the new life brought to them by the glorious feast of Easter.

THE PAPAL BLESSING.

At the conclusion of the service, the Bishop announced that he had been empowered to administer the papal benediction to all his people, and likewise a plenary indulgence to all who had, or who would, within the Easter octave, make confession and receive communion. While he would do this, he asked all to pray for the Holy Father, that he might be delivered from the anti-Christian and anti-social elements that were now compassing Italy, which the papacy had redeemed and made the center of civilization. Rev. Father Kelly then read, in Latin and in English, the letter from the Pope, bestowing on Bishop O'Connor, the vicar-apostolic of Nebraska, the power to grant the blessing, and all the faithful received it kneeling. It was a most impressive scene.

THE CHOIR.

A chronicle of the services would be but half complete without reference to the choir. For the occasion, Mr. G. F. Mayer presided at the organ, and all were under the direction of Prof. S. Hofmann, who supplemented the usual choir with his orchestra. The novelty of stringed and wind instruments was a pleasing innovation, and for Easter, and the joyous character of the music, it seemed most appropriate. The programme, as published in THE BEE of Saturday, was carried out without change, and in a manner very flattering to the various participants, who had, under the excellent charge of Miss Arnold, been doing faithful drill for some weeks past. The entire programme deserves mention in detail, but there can here be only referred to, Mr. J. G. Bell's good work in the bass solo in "Kyrie," Miss McNamara's sweet soprano in the Gloria, the duet "Oye Tollis," by Messrs. Blair and Murphy, Mr. Murphy's too brief solo "Veni Creator," Mr. Blair's "Et incarnatus" and "Crucifixus," the "Benedictus" giving Mrs. O. McCaffrey and Mrs. Dr. Coffin's fine duets; and the modest and unostentatious solo in "Gloria Nobilis," by Miss M. P. Morgan, and the "Sancta Maria" interpolated at the offertory. It came at the most impressive portion of the service. The right reverend celebrant was engaged in offering the Host; on either side were deacon and sub-deacon; the acolytes stood around; the incense rose in clouds reflecting the rays from the stained glass windows behind the altar; there was an impressive silence, and the first words were sung. In this, excellent opportunity was given for the deep control of Mrs. Hiram Robinson and the full round soprano of Miss Arnold, and the singing caused an unusual turning of heads among the less devout attendants. This was Mrs. Robinson's first public singing in Omaha, and made her many admirers. At the conclusion of the mass, and as the congregation dispersed, the choir—and here it may be said the chorus did excellent work—re-dered magnificently the "Regina Coeli" "Joy to thee, O Queen of heaven, For the Lord hath risen indeed."

EPISCOPALIAN.

At the Trinity, the great festival of Easter was celebrated with becoming dignity. To accommodate all communicants with a sermon, holy communion was celebrated twice yesterday, at 8 a. m. and 11 a. m.

The cathedral had been very beautifully and tastefully decorated on Saturday by the members of the Trinity Guild. The drapery over the bishop's throne was looped back with immortelles, with a single on a cross of palm leaves against the black. The litany desk had on the fall-stood a cross of ivy, with a wreath of roses surrounded by a crown of hyacinth, amilax and scarlet geraniums on the desk portion. The sentence, "He is Risen," in ecclesiastical characters, appeared on the front of the pulpit desk. There were also two memorial crosses on the altar.

RESURRECTION LILY.

On the re-table were vases filled with lilies and ferns. A memorial of white flowers was on the altar cross. The chancel was ornamented by a single bunch of geraniums and ferns. The font was filled with amilax and out flowers and surrounded by a plant of palm. At 1:30 o'clock p. m.

THE REGULAR RELIGIOUS SERVICE of the day took place. An able and learned sermon was delivered by Rev. Frank Millspaugh, dean of the Cathedral.

His text was the 4th verse of the 3d chapter of St. Paul's epistle to the Colossians: "When Christ who is our life shall appear then shall ye also appear with Him in glory."

On account of the large number of communicants the sermon was not delivered until afternoon. Despite the bad weather the church was filled. The singing service for the Nebraska mission work was then held. The offering amounted to $501. At 3:30 the CATHEDRAL AND MISSION SUNDAY SCHOOLS held their carol service. The church was filled with children. Easter eggs were distributed among them. Their good singing was due wholly to the zealous efforts of Professor Butler, the cathedral organist. An offering of $35 was made by the children.

IN THE EVENING

the musical service was held. The church was filled to its seating capacity. The singing was excellent, and many praises were bestowed upon the choir. This musical service in the future will be repeated once every month, the anthem taking the place of the sermon. There seems to be an increasing proficiency in the excellency of the singers.

The programme as prepared by the dean was very punctiliously carried out. The offering sermon alone added $386 to the treasury of the Nebraska mission fund.

C. F. Goodman is always alive in his business and never so pains to secure the best of every article in his line. He has secured the agency for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The only certain cure known for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, or any affection of throat and lungs. Sold on a positive guarantee. Trial bottles free. Regular size $1.

A DISTINGUISHED DIVINE.

Rev. Dr. McCosh in the City to Form an Alumni Association.

On Saturday last Rev. Dr. James McCosh, president of the college of New Jersey at Princeton, arrived in this city.

Dr. McCosh comes to Omaha to visit the alumni of his colleges in Iowa and Nebraska, and form them into an association. He came direct here from Chicago, where he formed a like association of the members of his institution, numbering twenty-seven. It is expected that the one to be formed here will be nearly as large as the one in Chicago. In Council Bluffs and Omaha alone there are six graduates of Princeton college, being Rev. W. J. Harrah, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church; C. M. Des Isles, professor of English language and literature in Bellevue college; Rev. Thomas C. Hall, pastor of the South-west Presbyterian church; Rev. Francis Blayney, pastor of the North Presbyterian church; Lee P. Funkhouser, clerk in the Pacific Express company's office; W. H. Scott, clerk in the U. P. headquarters, and Rev. A. K. Bates of Council Bluffs.

"ROUGH ON RATS."

Cleats out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bedbugs, akunks, chipmunks, moths, lice, Druggists.

TELEPHONE CHANGES.

A Number of Changes Necessary at the Central Office on Account of New Buildings.

The wires from the west part of the city to the central telephone office now run directly over the ground upon which stood the wooden building of Peter Goos.

Mr. Goos has torn down the wooden building and purposes to erect a three-story brick upon the site and will also place another story upon the Goos hotel. This necessitates the removal of the telephone wires. A sixty foot pole will be erected in front of Hassall's building, and the wires, one hundred and twenty in number, will be transferred to this pole.

The two large poles upon Fifteenth street, upon which are strung one hundred and forty wires each, will have to be moved out about eight feet on a line with the curbing. This will be quite a job as the poles are very large and heavy and are set about ten feet in the ground. This work will require the building of several new standards upon the roof of the central station and a carpenter is now at work thereon. The work will be so arranged as to interfere very little, if any, with the subscribers.

Board of Trade Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board will be held on Monday evening, April 15. The Board of Directors will meet at 3 p. m. Thos. Gibson, Sec.

A Lively Time.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday a row occurred in front of the Emmet house between a man and his wife, in regard to their child. The police were called by

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

A High-Banded Outrage Perpetrated in the Third Ward.

John Sahler at His Old Tricks Again.

Being Overwhelmingly Defeated He Knocks Over the Table, Scatters the Ballots and Counts Himself In.

At the primaries on Saturday evening last considerable activity and earnestness was shown. At several voting places during the two hours the polls were open, the judges and clerks were kept constantly busy.

In the first ward, although two tickets were in the field, only a skirrah took place. In the second only one ticket was out. Not much interest was manifested here.

In the third there were two tickets in the field. One was headed by L. W. Hill, the other by John H. Sahler. Lee Healey and John H. Sahler were chosen judges and one Clark as clerk. Promptly at 7 o'clock the polls were closed. As soon as this was done, Walter Bennett, of the second ward, by magical means, obtained admittance to the rooms where the polls were being held. The list as kept by the clerk containing the names of the voters was handed to him. Objection being made to his presence in the room, he disappeared, and the poll list with him. The ballot box was then opened and the votes counted. The judges and clerk then proceeded to separate the ballots. The straight ticket headed by Sahler was placed in one pile, that headed by Hill in another and those scratched in a third.

Considerable time before their work was completed Sahler began to make insinuations that he would not sign the credentials for two candidates whose names were on the Hill ticket in case that ticket should receive a majority of the votes cast. When the tickets were nearly separated Sahler expressed his apprehensions that the "big ticket," meaning the Hill ticket, was elected. After the work of separation had been completed the piles showed that the Hill ticket had been elected by a vote of considerably more than two to one. It was then proposed to go to counting them, Sahler objected. He repeated several times that he would not count them. Healey then said he would count them himself. Sahler again objected. After some bickering Healey began to count the votes. He had not proceeded very far with the work when Sahler reached across the table, snatched the ballots, and scattered them on the floor, saying "G—d—n you, I will show you, you can't count them. At the same time he kicked the table, nearly overturning it. This dastardly trick was apparently countenanced by several candidates on the Sahler ticket, and in the room at the time. When this had been done, Healey and the candidates on the Hill ticket, in the room at the time, left the polling place. Sahler and his confederates then held a convulsive determination of the course to be pursued. It is reported that Sahler and Clark have since issued credentials to all candidates upon the Sahler ticket.

In the fourth ward three tickets were in the field. A large vote was polled, and a lively fight ensued. In the fifth ward a fight was made on one candidate, who was defeated. In the sixth ward two tickets were out. Several candidates followed in the result in town precincts, and the country ones so far as heard from:

First Ward—E. M. Stenberg, A. J. Hobson, John Christopherson, Josiah Kent, Thomas Pionnett, John Rosický, G. A. Haarmann.

Second Ward—W. J. Connell, M. C. Manney, John E. Becker, S. J. Larson, I. S. Hancock, L. Beck, O. Spear.

Third Ward—L. W. Hill, J. Brown, J. J. Points, C. S. Higgins, Simeon Bloom, Fred Wirth, John Frank.

Fourth Ward—N. Miller, G. M. Hitchcock, T. K. Sudborough, N. A. Kuhn, A. C. Trapp, W. J. Broastch, E. D. Pratt.

Fifth Ward—Joseph Redman, John McDonald, J. Thomas Cummings, Henry Boll, George King, James Young, John Clark.

Sixth Ward—M. Ittner, A. N. Keen, E. W. Lane, H. Campbell.

West Omaha—William F. Heins, Charles J. Ryan, and N. Pierce, Douglas—Frank C. Crawford, Joel A. Griffin and Waterloo—W. F. Clark, George Johnson and Clark.

"ROUGH ON RATS."

Cleats out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bedbugs, akunks, chipmunks, moths, lice, Druggists.

TELEPHONE CHANGES.

A Number of Changes Necessary at the Central Office on Account of New Buildings.

The wires from the west part of the city to the central telephone office now run directly over the ground upon which stood the wooden building of Peter Goos.

Mr. Goos has torn down the wooden building and purposes to erect a three-story brick upon the site and will also place another story upon the Goos hotel. This necessitates the removal of the telephone wires. A sixty foot pole will be erected in front of Hassall's building, and the wires, one hundred and twenty in number, will be transferred to this pole.

The two large poles upon Fifteenth street, upon which are strung one hundred and forty wires each, will have to be moved out about eight feet on a line with the curbing. This will be quite a job as the poles are very large and heavy and are set about ten feet in the ground. This work will require the building of several new standards upon the roof of the central station and a carpenter is now at work thereon. The work will be so arranged as to interfere very little, if any, with the subscribers.

Board of Trade Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board will be held on Monday evening, April 15. The Board of Directors will meet at 3 p. m. Thos. Gibson, Sec.

A Lively Time.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday a row occurred in front of the Emmet house between a man and his wife, in regard to their child. The police were called by

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

A High-Banded Outrage Perpetrated in the Third Ward.

John Sahler at His Old Tricks Again.

Being Overwhelmingly Defeated He Knocks Over the Table, Scatters the Ballots and Counts Himself In.

At the primaries on Saturday evening last considerable activity and earnestness was shown. At several voting places during the two hours the polls were open, the judges and clerks were kept constantly busy.

In the first ward, although two tickets were in the field, only a skirrah took place. In the second only one ticket was out. Not much interest was manifested here.

In the third there were two tickets in the field. One was headed by L. W. Hill, the other by John H. Sahler. Lee Healey and John H. Sahler were chosen judges and one Clark as clerk. Promptly at 7 o'clock the polls were closed. As soon as this was done, Walter Bennett, of the second ward, by magical means, obtained admittance to the rooms where the polls were being held. The list as kept by the clerk containing the names of the voters was handed to him. Objection being made to his presence in the room, he disappeared, and the poll list with him. The ballot box was then opened and the votes counted. The judges and clerk then proceeded to separate the ballots. The straight ticket headed by Sahler was placed in one pile, that headed by Hill in another and those scratched in a third.

Considerable time before their work was completed Sahler began to make insinuations that he would not sign the credentials for two candidates whose names were on the Hill ticket in case that ticket should receive a majority of the votes cast. When the tickets were nearly separated Sahler expressed his apprehensions that the "big ticket," meaning the Hill ticket, was elected. After the work of separation had been completed the piles showed that the Hill ticket had been elected by a vote of considerably more than two to one. It was then proposed to go to counting them, Sahler objected. He repeated several times that he would not count them. Healey then said he would count them himself. Sahler again objected. After some bickering Healey began to count the votes. He had not proceeded very far with the work when Sahler reached across the table, snatched the ballots, and scattered them on the floor, saying "G—d—n you, I will show you, you can't count them. At the same time he kicked the table, nearly overturning it. This dastardly trick was apparently countenanced by several candidates on the Sahler ticket, and in the room at the time. When this had been done, Healey and the candidates on the Hill ticket, in the room at the time, left the polling place. Sahler and his confederates then held a convulsive determination of the course to be pursued. It is reported that Sahler and Clark have since issued credentials to all candidates upon the Sahler ticket.

In the fourth ward three tickets were in the field. A large vote was polled, and a lively fight ensued. In the fifth ward a fight was made on one candidate, who was defeated. In the sixth ward two tickets were out. Several candidates followed in the result in town precincts, and the country ones so far as heard from:

First Ward—E. M. Stenberg, A. J. Hobson, John Christopherson, Josiah Kent, Thomas Pionnett, John Rosický, G. A. Haarmann.

Second Ward—W. J. Connell, M. C. Manney, John E. Becker, S. J. Larson, I. S. Hancock, L. Beck, O. Spear.

Third Ward—L. W. Hill, J. Brown, J. J. Points, C. S. Higgins, Simeon Bloom, Fred Wirth, John Frank.

Fourth Ward—N. Miller, G. M. Hitchcock, T. K. Sudborough, N. A. Kuhn, A. C. Trapp, W. J. Broastch, E. D. Pratt.

Fifth Ward—Joseph Redman, John McDonald, J. Thomas Cummings, Henry Boll, George King, James Young, John Clark.

Sixth Ward—M. Ittner, A. N. Keen, E. W. Lane, H. Campbell.

West Omaha—William F. Heins, Charles J. Ryan, and N. Pierce, Douglas—Frank C. Crawford, Joel A. Griffin and Waterloo—W. F. Clark, George Johnson and Clark.

"ROUGH ON RATS."

Cleats out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bedbugs, akunks, chipmunks, moths, lice, Druggists.

TELEPHONE CHANGES.

A Number of Changes Necessary at the Central Office on Account of New Buildings.

The wires from the west part of the city to the central telephone office now run directly over the ground upon which stood the wooden building of Peter Goos.

Mr. Goos has torn down the wooden building and purposes to erect a three-story brick upon the site and will also place another story upon the Goos hotel. This necessitates the removal of the telephone wires. A sixty foot pole will be erected in front of Hassall's building, and the wires, one hundred and twenty in number, will be transferred to this pole.

The two large poles upon Fifteenth street, upon which are strung one hundred and forty wires each, will have to be moved out about eight feet on a line with the curbing. This will be quite a job as the poles are very large and heavy and are set about ten feet in the ground. This work will require the building of several new standards upon the roof of the central station and a carpenter is now at work thereon. The work will be so arranged as to interfere very little, if any, with the subscribers.

Board of Trade Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board will be held on Monday evening, April 15. The Board of Directors will meet at 3 p. m. Thos. Gibson, Sec.

A Lively Time.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday a row occurred in front of the Emmet house between