No further opposition is ex-Egyptian troops and 600 non-combattants, preferring to make a hazardous attempt to march to Berber to starving at Shendy, set out from the latter place on the 16th inst. Part of the number went slowly by steamer down the river spection of vessels, while others marched along the bank. When two hours march from Shendy they were attacked by Arabs, and after a short fight all the troops, excepting a few, were massacred. The Arabs afterwords captured Shendy. The Egyptian troops there had discarded arms and uniforms in the hope of being spared. will join him against the hated Egypt-Few, however, escaped the general massacre. Two thousand men, women and children were slaughtered. Many of them were refugees from Khartoum.

CONGO UNDER FRANCE. PARIS, April 21.-La France says: M. DeBrazza, the French explorer of the Congo country, has signed a treaty with the most powerful sovereign in Africa, who has placed all his states in Congo under the protection of France. By this treaty all the right bank of the Congo from Brazzaville to the equator passes under the protection of France.

THE DUKE OF DUBLIN. LONDON, April 21 .- It is reported that Prince Victor of Wales, on attaining his majority, which occurs the beginning of next year, will be raised to the pearage, with the title of Duke of Dublin, and will thenceforth reside in Ireland. It is also stated that he will enter the royal Irish fusileers.

correspondent at Cairo says that General Gordon has sent a telegram to Sir Evelyn Baring expressing the utmost indignation at the manner in which he has been abandoned by the English governmest, and saying that henceforth he will cut himself entirely parift from those who have deserted him, in whom will rest the bloodguiltiness of all the lives hereafter lost in Soudan. It is beleived the government has determined to dispatch the utmost available force and arms of the Egyptian army to Khartoum. It is hoped the force will be ready to start in six weeks.

LONDON, April 21.—The Times published interviews with prominent Irishmen in the French capital, among them Patrick Casey of The Moniteur Universal, who is strongly in favor of the dynamite policy, and strongly upholds the Irish savincibles in the doctrines they avow, any incibles in the doctrines they avow, and the course they pursue. He de-clares it probable that the dynamite will be extended to blowing up the Atlantic passenger steamers and merchantmen, thus ruining England's commerce. ames Stephens, formerly fenian head centre, however, condemns the principles and practices of the dynamiters and advocaces an armed revolution.

The continuance of the dynamite policy, he thinks, means certain death to revolutionary agitation during the present generation, and perhaps forever. It may besides this lead to the expulsion of Irishmen from England. John O'Leary, formerly editor of The Irish People, likewise disapproves of the dynamite policy, on the ground of its inexpediency and criminal character. He favors open rebellion between England, and Russia, he thinks, would give the Irish a chance explosions do Ireland no good, but alienate from the Irish cause many honest people who would outherwise support it. MORE MINERY. Nubar Pasha, the prime minister, fears that before long the spirit of rebellion will reach Assouan. He has received a desponding telegram from Hussein Pasha, governor of Berber, who states that the attitude of the population is generally threatening. He expects Berber will shortly be surrounded and captured by the rebels, who are constantly increasing in number around the town and threatening all avenues of communication. A Ship on Fire. BERMUDA, April 21. - The French steamer Marseilles from New Orleans, bound for Bordeaux, was discovered to be on fire three days after leaving New Orleans. A territic gale was prevailing at the time. The hatch was opened and fifty bales of cotton jettisoned, but the fire was so intense that the crew and passengers, though working with the energy of men anxious to save their lives, had to abandon operations, not, however, before several cases of asphyxia occurred. The hatches were then battered down, and it was decided to sail for Bermuda, 250 miles distant. On arriving there, with the assistance of the naval authorities the fire was finally extinguished. Had Bitter Feeling-Consternation at Chicaso and Peoria.

Cincinnal, April 19.-There was a democrats in three fourths of the counties marlet to-day, as the result of yesterde's break of the pool prices by three of the leading members of the pool. A bitter feeling has been engendered. The ment is practically solid. For second ter feeling has been engendered. The choice Senator McDonald of Indiana is catting rates resulted in a reported sale of two hundred and eighteen barrels today at $1.15. There is no telling where or when it will stop. All seem to hope for the restoration of the pool. One of the men responsible for yesterday's decline defended his course by saying that the pool had been taking care of the extra production, and at the recent meeting at Chicago, the pool decided to stop doing so. This threw an extra lot of goods on the market, and cutting was resorted to, and in self defense, they sent out night dispatches on Thursday giving the rate for Friday at $1.12. The natural result followed. Secretary Stover thinks that the pool supremacy will be established as soon as President Miller gets here.

He is not expected now until Monday. Chicago, April 19 .- A full meeting o the Chicago distillers was held this afternoon, at which it was decided to maintain the prices on highwines, notwith-standing the break at Cincinnati, and what has been thought meant a dis-ruption of the pool. PEORIA, April 19.—The decline in the Circinnati whisky market caused a flutter among the Peoria distillers. No serious alarm was felt, however, and at a meeting held last night it was resolved to maintain prices. This was done on 'change to-day, the board of trade circular quoting the market firm at $1.17, the price which has prevailed here for some time. The shipments were 729 barrels. The news of a further reduction had a depressing effect and left no doubt in the minds of local distillers of the general demoralization. Another meeting was held to-night to consider the situation, but the distillers are reticent concerning the proceedings, and it is impossible to find out what was done, except that i was decided to suspend operations in all distilleries here on Monday. Several thousand head of cattle that are being fed here will be shipped away as soon as possible. Eight cars were shipped to-day. The distillers refuse to give any information or express any opinion as to the future.

CINCINNATI, April 21 .- A meeting of the Cincinnati, Chicago, Peoria, Terre Haute and four other members of the Western Export association, was held this morning. Not being a regular meet-ing, but little more than an expression of opinion could be accomplished. A committee to confer with the highwine men was appointed, and adjourned to meet this afternoon. All agree that the prospect of holding the pool together is not favorable.

At the session this afternoon, a long discussion ensued and an agreement was reached to fix the price of highwines to-morrow at $1,10. The meeting then adourned till to-morrow.
