GEN. SWAIM.

MUST STAND TRIAL ON BATEMAN'S CHARGES WASHINGTON, April 22,-On the 16th inst. A. E Bateman, of Washington, banker, wrote a letter to the secretary of war, and gave it to the press, charging Judge Advocate General Swaim, of the army, with defrauding his firm out of a considerable sum of money, of negotiating fraudulent pay vouchers and of other conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman. On the following day he withdrew the charge, stating that Swaim had settled his firm's claim. The first one was referred to General Swaim by Secretary Lincoln "for such remarks as he may desire to submit upon the allegations made in the within communication, and ness house, it asserts, was perceptibly for any application he may desire to rocked so much that the employes were make." take place to-morrow. The news that Quinn Bohanan was sentenced to be hanged August 8th, was received with satisfaction here to-day. James Cooke, whom he killed at Wayerly in this county, had a host of friends in Lincoln and his brother is now a prominent business man here. It is feared Bohanan may yet escape the gallows, as strenuous efforts will be made by his relatives who are said to be influential residents of Shelby county, Kentucky, to save his neck.

Mississippi Delegates Elected to the National Convention.

JACKSON, Miss., April 22.—The republican district convention met this morning and elected district delegates to the national convention. Thirteen delegates favor Arthur and one Blaine. Four favor Logan as second choice. The First district nominated Green C. Chandler, and the Fifth district John R. Smith for congress. The other districts will hold conventions hereafter. The state convention was called to order at noon. After much wrangling over the seating of contesting delegates, the convention was finally organized by the election of Jno. R. Lynch as permanent chairman. The delegates of the state at large are as follows: Ex Senator B. K. Bruce, James Hill, R. T. Beck, Dr. J. M. Byrum. The first two are colored and the others white. The delegates are uninstructed but favorable to Arthur. It is stated that the delegates stand as follows: Arthur 11, Blaine 1 years of age, approaches average size. The latest increase in this wonderful family occured yesterday forenoon, when the mother gave birth to a bouncing boy that kicked the beam at nine ounces, and it is eleven inches in length. It was per-iectly formed, and had a head of black nair. It also possessed a pair of good lungs, which was demonstrated to The News reporter's entire satisfaction. It was also just as red, and as cute, perhaps a rifle cuter, than the usual big baby.

Notwithstanding this it requires just as Lincoln, Neb., April 22.—The Grand juvenile humanity. One thing, however, can be said strongly in favor of this dim-inutive youngster is that it won't cost much to keep it in swaddling clothes, etc. This latter addition to the family of dwarfs appears to have a ravenous ap petite, and though but a few hours of age
