

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Friday Morning, April 25.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - - - - - 30 cents per week. By Mail - - - - - $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

THE Council Bluffs printers' union met last night and passed resolutions advising Council Bluffs citizens to "boycott" THE BEE. Like most advice, it will be listened to, but not necessarily acted upon.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's, spring goods. Dick Weber, for being drunk and assaulting his wife, was fined yesterday.

All railroad tickets bought of D. W. Bushnell are guaranteed, also all rebate orders given by him.

Three rags were yesterday, let out of jail on condition of leaving the city. They will do so--when they get a good ready.

John Epeneter, who took the medal as the fastest mile skater at the rink here, is now to contest in a two mile race at the Omaha rink.

The Vermillion Bros. gave another of their exhibitions at the rink last evening. They are very fine in the double acts and excite much enthusiasm.

This afternoon there is to be a competitive exercise in rapid computation between the pupils of two of the rooms in the Bloomer building.

One of the American express company's teams took a run on Madison street yesterday, and threw out the driver, W. R. Slyter, dislocating his knee.

J. T. Barke, the photographer, has just finished some of the pictures of the police force as they appeared on parade day in their new uniforms. There are seventeen figures in the group, and considering this number and the awkward attitudes of some of the men the picture is a good one.

There is a project on foot for special arrangements by which the music lovers of the city can attend the piano recitals to be given by Miss Lydia Harris, in Omaha, May 6th, 8th, and 9th, and if enough names can be secured a late dummy train will be put on, and reduced rates secured.

Officer Morse had quite a time arresting Dennis Gilmore, who was drunk, and in getting him in struck Gilmore over the head with his billy, blacking one eye and cutting his scalp. Gilmore is 55 years old, and those who know him criticize Morse several, for thus pounding the old man.

The Druids have elected as their officers: J. A. Harold, N. A.; Nunda, V. A.; Taffinger, secretary; Dr. Selbert, corresponding secretary and physician; C. Barghausen, treasurer; B. Bertram, I. G.; J. D. Nicholson. They will be installed next Wednesday evening. There have been in the last six months four new Groves started in this state, with 107 charter members.

It was almost impossible to get into Parke & Platner's store yesterday, for the crowd of ladies who were there witnessing the practical demonstration of the superiority of Prof. Horsford's Phosphate Baking Powder which has the unequalled approval of the highest medical and chemical authorities in the world. The exhibition will be continued at the Boston Tea Store to-day and to-morrow. Every housekeeper can learn something to their advantage.

The cooking school at Parke & Platner's store the last two days, was crowded with enthusiastic spectators, and all were delighted. It will be at the Boston Tea Store to-day and to-morrow. Come and bring your friends.

PERSONAL.

James McClurg, of Allegheny, Pa., arrived yesterday a. m.

J. W. Chaffin, of the Red Oak Express, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Good will leave on an eastern business trip day after to-morrow.

J. M. Palmer and his nephew, A. H. Palmer, left the city yesterday for Philadelphia via Chicago, expecting to be gone about four weeks. The friends of Mr. Palmer hope the change of climate and rest from business will prove beneficial to his health. He also expects to visit his son, who is attending school at Highland Falls, N. Y.

AN INTERESTING EXHIBITION will be given to-day and to-morrow at the Boston Tea Store to practically demonstrate that Prof. Horsford's Baking Powder is the best in the world. Come and see us. Plenty to eat and everything free.

BOTHERED BY BURGLARS.

The Gang Still Raiding the Fourth Ward.

The New Police Uniforms do Not Scare Them.

When J. W. McCabe the letter carrier awoke yesterday morning, he found that his home on Eighth avenue had been raided during the night by burglars and snaked thieves. The fellows had as on their visits to other places, helped themselves to provisions, and had also ransacked the house. Mr. McCabe's pantaloons were found in an out-house where the thieves, by the light of a night-lamp, also stolen from the house, had gone through the pockets, getting about $7. They also took some small articles of jewelry. They evidently were bent on finding something valuable in the house, as they opened a bed-lounge, and also took a spare bed all apart, opened trunks, and in fact searched everywhere for hidden treasure.

The thieves had taken the provisions outside, and there had a feast, using McCabe's pocket knife as a carver to slice up the edibles, and kindly leaving it behind them.

The residence of W. A. Upton was also entered, but the thieves got no further than the kitchen, and after helping themselves to provisions, left the property undisturbed.

The number of burglaries in the Fourth ward within a few weeks, makes it evident that there should be some police detail for the resident portion of the city. The present force looks well in uniform, but is detailed on Main and Broadway, and there is not enough of a force to spare any for the residence parts.

In view of the frequent meeting of aldermen and also officials at Pat Lacy's saloon, the place is being fixed up.

The Baptist sociable will be entertained at the residence of Mrs. Keith, No. 722, Fourth street, this evening.

"Perfectly Lovely."

Even worse than a spirited bit of slang with a grain of sense to start it is this universally-used and senseless phrase! It is applied to anything and everything. It seems to stand instead of ideas, of sentiment, of appreciation and of common sense.

Go into the rooms of the young ladies in our colleges for instance, where you expect something better, and where nothing better should be heard. But listen! The first words that salute you are, "You are perfectly lovely to come;" and, "Isn't the day just lovely?" and, "Look at these ferns and bright leaves on the wall. Aren't they perfectly lovely?"

With these young women, anything that isn't perfectly "horrid" and "awful," is "perfectly lovely," from a statue of Venus to coffee, jelly or a sausage, if it suits the appetite.

I took a young lady last spring with me from Brooklyn to Central Park. She was bright, agreeable, pretty and animated. But her exclusive use of this phrase seemed almost intolerable before we had seen half the spring-time glory of that delightful place.
