

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Wednesday Morning, April 30. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier 30 cents per week. By Mail 1.00 per year.

MINOR MENTION. See J. Reiter's, spring goods. Additional local on seventh page. Seed corn, J. Hanthorn, 700 D'way.

Much fun is promised at the polo game at the skating rink to-night. Madison street bridge is now ready for business except the approaches. The matrimonial market is not very lively. No license for a week past.

There has been 208 cases in the police court since the first of January. Mrs. J. E. Metcalf is preparing to move her establishment to 218 Broadway. Why pay forcing prices for household goods when Mandel is offering such bargains.

Anyone having a cornet left in their possession will please inform A. A. Coval. Attend the auction sale of lots at Persia to-day. Trains leave Milwaukee depot at 9:40.

All railroad tickets bought of D. W. Bushnell are guaranteed, also all rebate orders given by him. Over $10,000 has already been pledged toward the building of the new Presbyterian church. Now let the other $30,000 come to the front.

Some one on upper Broadway seems to be scattering poison pretty freely. Mr. Grots has lost a dog by this sort of a death, and Mr. Petrich two pigs. Toddy White for getting drunk and lying down in Justice Abbott's hallway, was yesterday assessed $3 and costs. A hotel had would have been cheaper.

To-morrow evening there is to be a May-day carnival at the skating rink. This will be a novelty and will draw a crowd of white dresses and fancy costumes. Mulrow and Thorpe, the two men so badly injured by the Wabash smash up Saturday night, and still at Mr. Smith's on Eighth street, and are both in a very low condition. What the final result of the inquiries will be cannot easily be determined.

Oscar Sprink, a boy who no sooner gets out of one scrape than into another, is now hanging on the ragged edge for having unmercifully pounded another boy named Bowles. It is time Oscar was brought to a realization of the error of his ways. There is talk of there being a protest entered against the Vaughan hose team entering the races at the Des Moines tournament. There is a little timidity felt lest the team shall take the biggest pump, and hence the desire to bar them out.

The sidewalk in front of the Masonic temple is to be widened thirteen feet. As Bancroft street is getting to be a good deal of a business street some want the entire sidewalk from Broadway to First avenue widened, but others object, claiming the street is too narrow to allow the change. All saloon licenses expire to-day, and the saloonists must now file new bonds and applications. It has long since been conceded that without any regard to the state prohibitory law the city government will license saloons as usual, though perhaps taking a little pains to dodge the direct violation of state law by some technical evasions.

The Y. M. C. A. had another enjoyable social and literary entertainment last evening. When Regan Bros. get fairly started on in paving, they will employ about 300 men and finish up about a block a week. Fairmount park is having many visitors. Council Bluffs shall feel proud of its parks, and expend more money in beautifying them.

Bayless Park begins to put on beauty again, and the benches, thirteen in number, have been put on the turf for the accommodation of visitors. John Nelson, a tailor, denied that 'he was drunk, but only sleeping because he overlooked out of his boarding house the night before, and had to wander about the streets. It cost him $7.00 all the same.

There seems to be no question about the liability of the city for damages of some sort where the grade has been changed after a man has built up to the grade. It is to be hoped that a settlement will be reached so as not to cause any interruption in the work. In the practice polo games at the rink Monday night, George Brown lost a skate, fell on his chin, breaking it. Bert Evans got one thumb badly sprained, and Stedman got hit on the wrist. If these polo trainers keep up, a dispensary shall be established in one of the side issues.

The aldermen and city engineer were yesterday in consultation with Mr. B. Williams, of Chicago, who has been at work devising some system of sewerage for this city, and a meeting was held last evening to still further consider the matter, and gain from him what suggestions were possible. The sewerage of Glen avenue has always proved unsatisfactory as when it reaches Broadway it makes a short turn and has to run along that street to Bryant, turn again and steer for the creek. With the widening of Glen avenue at Broadway comes the suggestion that the street be opened direct to the creek. It is also proposed to open Oakland avenue to the creek. It is thought by some that the expense of opening up would be less than any other system of getting an outlet for the water.

The city weighmaster besides having the scales at the city building proposes maintaining another scale on the lot on which the Biggs house used to stand. The work of putting in the scales will begin to-day, and the lot will be devoted to the standing room of teams and loads. The scale at the juncture of Main and Pearl streets is owned by private parties, and whether it will be maintained under a license remains to be seen. As the city weighmaster cannot take control of these, and as there is much business for a weighmaster in that part of the city he has as available a location as possible.

Mrs. Davy, the old lady living on lower Broadway, who a month ago fell, breaking her thigh, died Sunday night. She had reached the age of 83 years, and had lived here many years. She led a quiet industrious life, and had many womanly qualities which led her to be highly esteemed by her friends. Her brother Mr. Wegg, and her niece Mrs. Kendall, of Illinois, arrived yesterday to attend to the funeral and necessary arrangements. The funeral will be held this afternoon at the St. Pauls Episcopal church.

Mr. E. L. Sluagart, Mr. Cadwell and others are proposing to curb and park in front of their property on First avenue, and it is expected that the move will extend so that all of the avenue between Pearl street and Union avenue will be ordered parked and curbed. The next move will be the paving of the avenue, and some predict that it will be ordered paved within sixty days. The parking will cut down the cost of paving, by narrowing the street and will at the same time beautify the avenue. The curbing they put in costs only about fifty cents a foot when set in place.

Intensely Interesting. This is of intense interest to everybody. read it. Dr. Samuel Jackson, late professor of the institutet of medicine in the University of Pennsylvania, whose opinion as a physician and physiologist is held in such high esteem in this and other countries, said: "Prof. Horsford's preparation for raising bread is a decided improvement. The acid of cream tartar is not a constituent of the grains from which flour is made, it is not a nutritive principle, and often disagrees with the alimentary organs. Your preparation, while it makes a light, sweet and palatable bread, restores to it the phosphate of lime which had been separated from the flour, and thus adapts it as an aliment for the maintenance of a healthy state of the organization." Call at James & Haverstock's and see a practical demonstration.

PERSONAL. Johnnie Dehony, after a little rest at home, now returns to his studies at Atchison, Kan. Rev. J. Flak left Council Bluffs yesterday, to take charge of a church, by request of the presiding elder. S. Stevens, of the Rock Island, is back from Chicago, accompanied by his wife and his daughter, Miss Neally Stevens. Mrs. Wheeler, wife of A. Wheeler, business manager of the Herald, left yesterday with her children for an eastern trip, expecting to be absent several months. Dr. Hart left yesterday for the east expecting to be absent several weeks. During his absence he will attend the national medical association in Washington. Mr. M. A. Weir who a short time ago, entered upon the duties of manager of the board of underwriters of this city, has now been joined by his family, and they have taken up a residence on avenue E., near Oakland avenue.
