HAND-BILL SWEESY.

Mild Protest Against Blackmailers and Blackguards,

A few weeks ago William F. Sweesy, who has become the proprietor of an afternoon sheet, the old Union, which The Old Order of Things Restored was started as a blackmailing sheet by a set of bogus working men, entered into a partnership with Thomas H. Cotter, Passenger and Freight Trains who was then running a job office in this city. ject of this partnership was to bolster up his newspaper venture through job print ing from the Union Pacific railroad, which was promised to him for the pretended influence of his paper among the working people. This was told me by Sweesy himself, but I cared very little about the matter, and made no mention of it, because it made no difference to me how many papers the Union Pacific subsidized in Omaha, or among how many stool-pigeons its job printing is divided. The Dexres Folder.—For two years we have been looking about for a good newspayer folding machine. We had investigated the working qualities of several machines, without making a selection, until the new Dexres folder, paster and trimmer was brought to our notice. After satisfactory information as to its utility, we ordered two machines, which have been attached to our double or linder Hoe press, and they are now working to our entire satisfaction. The machine is very simple in its construction, occupy very little room compared with the penderous machines formerly used takes very little power to run it, and so far as we can judge, is not liable to get out or order. It excels any folder we ever saw in the precision and beauty of its motion, and we recommend it to all newspapers. Gate City, Keokuk, Iowa, Aug II, 1883.

A "Dexter" folding machine manufactured by the Dexter Manufacturing Company, of Des Moines, Ia., has been used in the Gark City office for several months. It is built to fold, passe and trim either 4 or Spages. The points of advantage possessed are, or mpactness of the machine, case of attachment to the press, speed attained, nearness a 'd accuracy of the folding and trimming, case and quickness of adjustment, simplicity of construction and the durability of the parts. It does not clog or cause delay in any manner. In fact it is a satisfactory machine in exery particular and performs all that was clrimed for it. The beauty and accuracy of the folding, pasting and trimming can only be fully understood oppersonal inspection of the operation of the machine, and every newspaper man would appreciate these essentials. The edges are clean cut, the Pasting neat, and the fold as even as the ordinary registering of a good press.

The "DEXTER" is exceedingly simple for a machine which has the duty devolving upon it of folding a paper perfectly four times and doing its work as rapidly as the pres print; the sheets The "DEXTER" is all and more than we cape ted of it. It will fold our large ten column weekly with the same cross and speed with which the Cottroll press prints it. The "DEXTER" folder is immense and no mistake: Grans Rarios, Mioh., Oct. 1°, 1883.

Republican, Bedford, Iowa, Oct 18, 1883.

We believe in labor saving machinery and are well provided with appliances to r nder our work as easy and production as cheap as possible, but we have no machine of any kind in the Republican office that in our epinion pays a better return on the money invested in it than dose our "Pexter" Foller. It has now been in use in this office for about 18 months, during which time it has done the folding of three different papers every seek. It has never given us the slightest trouble; it folds accurately, falces no "fits" and nover costs anything for repairs; the motion of the press runs the folder without any appreciable increase of power being required, and when the priere paper runs from the tapes of the press that is the last we see of it until it comes out nicely folded. No new-paper office that runs by power should be without the Dexter Folding machine.
