

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Tuesday Morning, May 6.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - 20 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's, spring goods. Bushnell sells railroad tickets cheap at all points.

Plumes and tips colored, cleaned and curled at J. J. Auerda & Co's., 317 Broadway.

There were 184 empty freight cars standing on the C. & N. W. track down through Streetville.

Kirkland is preparing to move his jewelry stock into No. 3 and 4, Broadway, Lee Mitchell's old place.

The council did not get a quorum yesterday afternoon. They don't take to day sessions very well anyway.

The funeral of Miss Mary Larson, who died Sunday morning, was held yesterday afternoon, a large number of friends attending.

A new cement floor is being laid in the city jail. The old floor was of little account, and has already broken away in many places.

C. S. Clark's little babe is quite seriously ill. It is to be hoped that another such crushing blow as that of the death of his little boy may be spared him.

A. West, who has been conducting an auction sale of jewelry, etc., here, started last night for Missouri Valley, where he will now open up. He has always met with good success in his sales here.

The break in the water works main on the bottom is now repaired and all is well again. The special police whom the mayor ordered on account of this break (?) can now take a vacation.

The Globe is frightened at the way Vaughan went for it, in his card about the fire department, and gets into its hole in good shape with a sort of "Oh, pray, good Lord, good devil, don't take away the city printing."

A team got stuck with a load of brick, corner of Pearl and Broadway, yesterday. Some of these holes in the principal streets should be looked after, instead of waiting for the paving to be finished, which will not be before fall.

Constable Fox is a regular barrel of news. Besides the burglar racket he had a set-to with Monsieur Le Fleur, the fellow whose reputation is scarcely less savory than that of the madame. Fox tried to serve a writ on the fellow, to make him get out of a house. Monsieur came for him with an axe blow by throwing up his hand, getting his hand disabled but saving a cracked skull.

Constable Fox then retaliated with his big cane, knocking Le Fleur down three times before the fellow would give up. The monsieur's head was badly cut up and the cane broken into splinters. Le Fleur is now under bonds to appear at the district court charged with keeping a house of ill fame, and will now be called on to answer on a charge also of resisting an officer.

It was supposed that the city council elected Walters as chief of the fire department under the new ordinance fixing the term at two years, but when it was discovered that the new ordinance was not in force yet, the council rather than admit that Walters' election was under the old ordinance which fixed the term during good behavior. Under the position taken now by the mayor, city attorney and other legal lights, in reference to Templeton, the city council can at any meeting elect a chief to take Walters' place, so he hangs on only by his teeth. If these legal advisers shall shift their opinions as they are liable to, and try to make out that Walters is elected for two years, then they may be reminded of their utterances in regard to the old ordinance. They pronounced that part of it illegal because it bound the action of a future council. The gentlemen should remember that there will be as much of a new council next spring as there was this spring, and under their own views Walters cannot be elected for two years. The mayor now openly declares that Walters cannot be elected for only one year, and in another breath that another chief can be elected at any time.

A HEAVY SUIT.

A Partnership Claimed by Capt Henry in a Big Cattle Ranch.

Capt. H. L. Henry has commenced an action in the district court against William Evans, J. T. Evans, and Samuel Haas, in which he seeks to establish his interest in the firm of Evans, Haas & Co. The plaintiff alleges in his petition that the property is worth $800,000 consisting of ranch and cattle in North Park. He makes no personal claim against Mr. Haas, simply making him a party to the suit so as to bring the partnership into court.

The suit is one in equity. Capt. Henry claiming to be a partner and hence entitled to a share in the profits, which are said to have been very large, while it is understood that the others claim that they simply borrowed money of him, which they are ready to pay back, but are not willing to admit he is a partner.

Messrs. Wright and Baldwin, together with Judge Hubbard, appear for the plaintiff, and it is predicted that the trial of the case will bring out some interesting facts concerning the cattle business in the west and the profits made therein.

THE CONTEST ENDED.

Chief Templeton Bows to the Official Seal of the City, and Withdraws.

Walters and His Crew Have it Now - Their Own Way.

Yesterday morning Chief Templeton quietly accepted the title of ex-chief of the fire department. It appears that he has been acting under the advice of some of the best legal authorities in the city, who instructed him not to give up the office until officially notified by the city and that said official notice must be in the signature of the city clerk and the seal of the city. He has refused to acknowledge notification served on him by the chief of police, by three or four of the aldermen, by the would be chief, by the mayor, or by anyone else, but when an official and regular notice was given him yesterday afternoon, he was all he required and then turned over the property and the title.

Walters now goes in without any obstruction. He has the picking of his own men, no one to dispute his authority, and if the fire department does not show up in efficiency and harmony of working, as well as boasted before election, Mr. Walters must alone bear the blame.

The city council, at least four of them have, with the mayor of this city, openly defied the wishes of the citizens, as expressed by petitions, by every newspaper of the city, and by personal expressions of opinion. They have disgraced the fire department, temporarily, at least, imperiling property interests, and have done this not to get a chief whom they considered better than the old one, not to turn out a republican to give place to a democrat, but simply, as all acknowledge, to reward the man who has secured the nomination of this particular faction of the democratic party.

Aldermen Keating and Siedentopf have shown much good sense and clear grit in the matter, and the four others have simply shown that they have been "whipped in" by Mayor Vaughan, just as he boasted before election that he would whip them in. They have succumbed to Vaughan's energy, scheming, persistency, and may now be considered as whipped into the traces.

Now that the matter is settled it is hoped that the new chief will get about him a class of men who will do different work in suppressing fires, and that there will be no further wrangle or trouble.

DENTISTS' DOINGS.

The State Board of Examiners in Session Yesterday.

The State Society Meets To-Day.

The Programme Arranged.

The State board of dental examiners met yesterday at the Ogden house in annual session, it being a sort of auxiliary meeting to that of the Iowa State Dental Society which meets to-day.

The board of examiners consists of: J. Hardman, president, Muscatine; W. P. Dickinson, Dubuque; J. T. Abbott, Manchester; J. F. Sanborn, Tabor; E. E. Hughes, secretary, Des Moines.

These are appointed by the governor, under the law passed two years ago, which makes it unlawful for any person, who was not at the time of the passage of the act, engaged in the practice of dentistry in the state, to commence said practice unless having a license from the board of examiners, or a diploma from some reputable college. All dentists practicing in the state are to register with this board, giving name, residence, place of business, etc. The penalty for violation of the law is a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50 for each offense. Every dentist is required to record with the clerk of the county where he practices, his license, and a faithful record to register for six months causes a forfeiture of the license, and it cannot be re-issued except upon payment of $25 to the board.

It is under this law that the board of examiners met. There were present yesterday afternoon ten applicants. The examinations are conducted in writing and embrace the following subjects: Anatomy, physiology, histology, pathology, surgery, therapeutics, materia medica, chemistry, operative dentistry, prosthetic dentistry and irregularities.

The whole number of dentists in the state as shown by the books of the board is 383. The first regular meeting of the board was held in Iowa City in April 1883. There were eighteen candidates examined then, of whom thirteen passed and five failed.

The state dental society is an older organization. This is its twenty-second annual meeting. The officers and committees for the year are:

President - E. E. Hughes, Des Moines; vice-president - F. M. Shreve, Glenwood; secretary - J. B. Montford, Fairfield; treasurer - J. S. Kulp, Muscatine.

Executive committee - W. P. Dickinson, Dubuque; George W. Fuller, Des Moines; H. A. Woodbury, Council Bluffs.

Committee on membership - S. A. Garter, Tipton; L. E. Rogers, Ottumwa; A. H. Bugum, Cedar Falls.

Publication committee - T. A. Hallett, Des Moines; W. H. Baird, Burlington; J. B. Montford, Fairfield.

The society numbers 68 members, which will be increased somewhat at this meeting.

The programme as arranged provides for clinics Wednesday and Thursday forenoon, the following being the operators:

Dr. Ingersoll, of Keokuk, will demonstrate his method of filling the pulp-canal of molar teeth.

Dr. Darby, of St. Joseph, Mo., will demonstrate his mode of attaching artificial crowns to anterior roots.

Dr. Both, of Creston, will exhibit a practical case of substitution for cleft palate.

Dr. E. J. Low of Chicago, will demonstrate the Buttner Crown, which is considered the most perfect yet brought before the profession.

Dr. E. I. Woodbury, of this city, will illustrate a method of making dies direct from impression and process of swaging plate.

Dr. McGraw, of Mankato, Minn., will put up a case illustrating bridge work.

Dr. W. O. Kulp, of Davenport, will describe and demonstrate the Herbat method of filling teeth.

Dr. James, of Fairfield, will give a clinic on preparing and mounting objects for the microscope.

The annual address of the president, Dr. Hughes, will be delivered this afternoon, as will also a paper by Dr. J. F. Sanborn, of Tabor, which promises to be very interesting, the topics being, "How an esthetic produces an anesthetic." Among the other topics assigned for papers, to be read and discussed during the session, are the following:

Loose inferior incisors and their treatment... J. Hardman, Muscatine.

Dental therapeutics... L. C. Ingersoll, Keokuk.

Bridge-work... P. E. McGraw, Mankato, Minn.

Dental Caries the result of imperfect nutrition... B. Price, Iowa City.

"As teeth used as amalgam or gold, which... S. A. Garter, Tipton.

Artificial crowns... J. E. Low, Chicago.

The value of the mallet in plugging teeth... G. W. Miller, Winterset.

Dental literature... T. A. Hallett, Des Moines.

Gold fillings... W. O. Kulp, Davenport.

The rooms in Probst's new brick block on Broadway has been secured for the session of the society which is to be continued four days, closing Friday.

Another Conundrum. To the editor of THE BEE. I see in this morning's BEE quite a tax payer's conundrum, but wouldn't it be another to ask our good city mayor why there has been no investigation brought against a certain alderman, who is charged with having one hundred dollars of the people's money in his pocket, although it was appropriated to him under the previous city administration. We, as one, do love the present mayor, but while he has promised, before election, to have this matter investigated, and received a large number of honest votes well for the chivalric little Virginian not to imitate "the public be damned," as generally done by office holders after election.

ANOTHER TAX-PAYER. City Council. At the meeting of the council last night a protest of property owners was presented against the material to be used in paving Main street, claiming it was not according to contract.

Alderman Myster of the paving committee reported there was about one-fifth of the block which was not of the size required. After some discussion the matter was referred to the paving committee with instructions to have the stone inspected at the cars. The contractors expressed a willingness to throw out all stones which are not entirely satisfactory.

A petition of property owners was presented asking the appointment of Harry Birkinbine, engineer of constructions of the city, his salary to be $2,000 per annum. Thirty-four saloon licenses were granted notwithstanding the prohibitory law.

The city clerk reported the receipts of his office for April were $800. The city treasurer reported cash balance on hand $14,800. It was decided not to order sewers on Oakland avenue, but go right ahead with the pavement.

Sewers were ordered on Broadway from 12th streets, and on Main streets from 6th to 16th avenue, in accordance with the plans on file.
