New York the financial center of the one bank in Brooklyn which placed yesterday $300,000 of securieties with Grant & Ward for a loan are unable to get either the money or collateral.

GENERAL GRANT was again at the office at 9 o'clock this morning. He was informed of the difficulties of the firm early yesterday. He reached the firm's office about noon and remained in the private office until 2 o clock, when he stepped into a carriage and was driven home. He was as calm a usual, but declined to talk about the trouble. Many offers of aid were made the ex president, but he said that he did not feel at liberty to accept any of them until the true position of affairs could be ascertained. He stated very circumstantially that if the firm went under, General Grant would LOSE A QUARTER OF A MILLION.

The extent of General Grant's financial It sees is well known to his friends here and in Washington, as may be seen from and in Washington, as may be seen from the fact that in the senate this afternoon Senator Edmunds asked that a bill placing him on the retired list be considered at an early day.
