A number of good printers can find steady employment at this office.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Deluge hose company No. 4, will give a May party in honor of I. S. Hascall, at Hascall park this evening, May 8th. Invitations have been issued and if the weather is favorable a first-class time may be expected.

Dr. Lee's horse while hitched in front of his residence became frightened by a bicycle, and breaking loose ran down Farnam street. After running into a wagon the horse became loose from the buggy after making a complete wreck of it.

The second of the series of socials given by the ladies of the 3d Congregational church will be held on Thursday eve, May 8th, at the residence of C. E. Moody, corner of North 18th and Lake streets. Refreshments and entertainment for all.

Tuesday evening's Bazaar tied the hymenal knot for Mr. E. F. Moriarty and Miss Susie Lynch just one week too soon. Another week of single blessedness will be given them, but on next Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock they must be ready to join hands as no further time can be allowed them.

Tuesday night the roller rink was closed for the warm season. Skating was indulged in until ten o'clock when the floor was closed and music was furnished by the U. P. band. The evening was very pleasantly spent and the amusement is to be congratulated upon the success of the closing night.

The Paxton building, corner of Fifteenth and Farnam streets, formerly occupied by Millard & Peck, is being thoroughly remodeled. The roof will be taken off and another story added, and an entire new front will be put in. When completed it will be one of the finest looking buildings upon the street. It will be occupied by S. A. Orchard, with a stock of carpets.

The third annual party and concert of the A. O. H. band will be given at Crounse's hall on Tuesday evening, May 13. This organization is too well known to need an extended notice. The fact that the matter is under their charge is a sufficient guarantee that the entertainment will be first-class in every particular. The U. P. band and Irvine's orchestra will take part in the concert.

Pete McCoy, the middle weight champion pugilist, was in this city Tuesday. Mr. McCoy will be remembered as having visited Omaha a few months since in company with the Sullivan combination. He is now on his way to Butte, Montana, where he will fight Donald McDonald, a man whom he has never seen. He is backed by both Smith and Sullivan. The fight will be for $550 a side and will occur on the 18th of this month.

Another baseball meeting was held Tuesday eve. The committee appointed to solicit subscriptions reported that $1,500 had been pledged and that there would be no trouble in securing the necessary amount to insure the success of the enterprise. Dr. Hyde, the chairman of the meeting, appointed as a new committee for the purpose of thoroughly canvassing the city, J. Garneau, T. K. Sudborough, Al. Masterson, C. V. Gallagher, Will Krug, C. J. Canan, Tom Rogers, Millard Funkhouser, Julius Meyer, George Mills and Walter Wilkins. With anything like a proper reception this committee will make short work of the financial part of the enterprise. The first game of the season will be played Saturday. The contestants will be picked from the best players now in the city, including Bandla, Salisbury, Rockwell and Carroll. A very clever exhibition is looked for, and there should be a good crowd, as the entrance is "free to all."

The Union Pacific company have been bothered some with high water this week, but it has now subsided and no more trouble is apprehended. The overland train No. 2 came in four hours late yesterday.

The keeper of Hanson park is busily engaged in cleaning up and burning all the dry leaves and rubbish in and about the park grounds.

P. J. Nichols went west yesterday noon in his private car.

Would not be without Redding's Russia Salve, is the verdict of all who use it. Price 25 cents.

The leave of absence for seven days granted 2d Lieutenant S. E. Adair, 5th cavalry, in orders No. 69, dated Fort Robinson, Neb., April 29, 1884, is extended twenty-three days.

HIS FIRST DAY.

Judge Brewer's Address to the Bar of Nebraska Tuesday.

The United States district and circuit court was Tuesday in session. Both Judge Brewer and Dundy were on the bench. There was present a large attendance of leading lawyers from all parts of the state. Upon opening court Judge Brewer said:

GENTLEMEN:—Any one who is at all familiar with the bar of the United States knows that among the most brilliant names adorning the profession are those members of the bar of Nebraska, and I take occasion to say that I regard it as an honor and a pleasure to preside over a court where such gentlemen practice. Although coming among you a stranger to all, I yet remember that my state and yours were born by the same act of congress into territorial life; that both political generation and may therefore be called not only sisters but twins, and under such circumstances I feel that in coming among you I have come into the land of cousins. I have always remembered a remark, made by a gentleman from Nebraska who happened to sit directly in front of me in a car as I was coming west the first time. Said he, "I have lived in ten different states and I must say that the citizens of the territory of Nebraska outrank those of any other state where I have lived in point of ability." And as I look over your beautiful city stretching in her gently beauty from the summit of yonder hill to the river and from the west, I am constrained to believe the gentleman was correct. One thing I ask—your cordial sympathy and co-operation that I may well perform the arduous duties now devolving upon me.

I'm not come here as an iconoclast or a reformer, and do not propose to distinguish myself by doing anything novel or strange, but shall endeavor to preserve the settled practice of this court as established by my predecessors, Judges Dillon and McCrary.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

L. J. Parmlee, a brakeman, thrown from a Moving Passenger Train.

Tuesday night L. J. Parmlee came very near meeting death at the hands of a gang of tramps near Millard. Mr. Parmlee is a brakeman and left this city on the overland train No. 1, Tuesday eve. When the train reached Millard Mr. Parmlee went into the depot and left a package. As he was returning the engineer informed him that a gang of tramps were on the forward end of the express car, next to the engine. As the train started out Mr. Parmlee jumped upon the forward end of the car and ordered the fellows to get off. They refused to do so and a war of words ensued. By this time the train was running fifteen miles an hour, as it is down grade at that point. All at once the tramps grabbed Parmlee, one by each arm and the other around the neck from behind. As the three fellows grabbed him the remainder of the party began to kick and strike him, badly bruising his face and injuring his back. After they had pounded him to their hearts content they threw him bodily from the now flying train.

At the next station a telegram was sent back to the station agent at Millard, stating what had happened, one being sent ahead to Fremont also. The station agent at Millard started out and found Parmlee lying along side the train in an insensible condition. He soon revived and was brought to this city.

The telegram sent to Fremont brought out the sheriff and he arrested three of the gang and they are now in jail at that place. Although badly bruised and very sore Mr. Parmlee was able to hobble about yesterday and took the noon train to Fremont to see if he could identify the men now in custody at that place.

It was a narrow escape for Mr. Parmlee and it will be many a long day before he will hanker after another such experience.

Police Court.

In police court yesterday morning one disturber of the peace was fined $5 and costs, one was fined $10 and costs and two plain Slocombs were assessed $10 each and costs.

Georgiana Clark (colored) for using foul and obscene language upon the streets, was fined $10 and costs.

A vagrant was given ten days on bread and water.

One case which is annoying the judge considerably is that against a vagrant, Anton Simon. He is an old offender, first he was sentenced to ten days on bread and water. This was followed by twenty days on the same diet, then came thirty days, after which he was shipped across into Iowa. He would not stay away and being caught in this city again he was sentenced to sixty days on bread and water. This sentence was completed on Monday and Tuesday noon Simon knocked at the door of Judge Benke's house, and upon the appearance of the judge, he asked for something to eat. An officer was called and Simon was again arrested. The judge thinks he must be insane, and he has been referred to the board of insanity.

PIANO RECITAL.

Miss Lydia S. Harris at Meyer's Music Hall Tuesday Night.

A fine audience gathered in Meyer's music hall Tuesday evening to listen to the piano recital of Miss Lydia S. Harris, of Chicago. Miss Harris was cordially received upon a former visit to this city, but that reception was very cool compared to the one tendered her Tuesday evening. Miss Harris has improved wonderfully since her last visit here. The programme was entirely classical. Liez's "Tarentella," as executed by Miss Harris was very fine and was loudly applauded. Schumann's beautiful concerto was accorded the place of honor and was the gem of the evening. Miss Minnie Maul was loudly encored at the close of her solo "Non Torno," and responded with a pleasing little Scotch ballad. The quartette, comprised of Miss Minnie Maul, Miss Lizzie Pennell and Messrs. Breckenridge and Pennell sang their selections in a manner which showed careful training and they were all well received. The quartette, with their excellent accompaniment, added no small share to the evening's enjoyment. Two more recitals have been prepared for this week, Thursday and Friday nights, and the programmes will be equally as fine as that of Tuesday night.

Decorations Day.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF NEBRASKA, GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, DAVID CITY, May 1st, 1884.

The rules and regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic have designated May 30, annually, as Memorial Day. It will be our grateful task upon that day to adorn with flowers the places where comrades sleep; by act and word to testify that only death can sever the tie which common aims and dangers knit among us, and to protest against any who make question as to whether they who fell were on the side of right.

The regulation uniform will be worn. Comrades who are not provided with uniforms are requested to supply themselves, but let no member of the Grand Army stay out of line that day for lack of one. Put on the badge and stand in the ranks once more. Comrades, that day is ours, not because of our own civic association, but because we mustered under the national authority with those who are to be well assembled to commemorate. It seems, therefore, fitting that all honorable discharged soldiers and sailors who stood with us and them in the hour of peril (though not members of the GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC) should have special invitation to attend the labor of love we shall assemble to perform. Such invitation is cordially extended. The Posts and individual comrades of the GRAND ARMY are requested to make this invitation known. We invite as well, and shall gratefully acknowledge the co-operation of patriotically disposed citizens and societies.

It is requested that the ministry be invited to deliver appropriate discourses on the Sabbath preceding the Memorial Day, and Posts meet at their halls and march in a body to the churches selected. Reports of all services, sermons, orations, and other memorial observances in honor of the day to be forwarded to Rev. J. C. Lewis, Department Chaplain, Fremont, Neb., on or before June 10th, 1884.

By command of H. E. PALMER, BRAD P. COOK, Dpt. Com. Assistant Adjutant General.

The Last Honors to Samuel F. Donnelly.

New York Sun, May 2. The funeral of Samuel F. Donnelly, the reporter for The Sun who was killed by the falling of a ladder at the Thomas street fire on Tuesday night last, took place at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his residence at 447 Willoughby avenue, and at 2 o'clock from the Bedford avenue Baptist church. At the residence many newspaper men were present, besides neighbors. None of Mr. Donnelly's immediate relatives were able to be present. Beside Mr. Donnelly the coffin were floral designs—a cross of immortelles and white roses from the city staff of The World; a broken column of white roses trined with smilax, from The Sun editorial and reporters' rooms; a large stand of white roses from the immediate friends of Mr. Donnelly, and a wreath from the Lotus club.

Rev. Hiram Hutchings conducted the services. The interment is to be in East Franklin, Delaware county.

Wanted to Explain.

William Daly, a victim sentenced by the Indians to be burned at the stake on the plains several years ago, occupied a cell in the city jail last night. Daly several months ago was brought before Judge Benke for drunkenness and to avoid being sent to jail agreed to leave town and not return until state fair time. Last night he came into the city and indulged too freely in the flowing bowl. His conscience troubling him for breaking his word with the judge he determined to stay in the city until morning and make an explanation for violating his word. Of his own accord he went to the city jail telling Gorman he wanted to report to the officer of the day. The jailer noted his report and gave him a cell.

W. C. T. U. Notice.

To drink or not to drink, that is the question, and now while the air is rife with the question of high license, low license, no license and prohibition, will the women of Omaha meet with the W. C. T. U. to help devise an answer? Meeting in the parlor of the First M. E. Church, Davenport street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth, on Thursday, May 8th, at 2:30 p. m.

L. G. CHALTON, Secretary.

A SMALL EXPLOSION.

The Accumulated Gas in a Vault in the U. P. Headquarters Explodes.

Many of the clerks on the first floor of the U. P. headquarters building were startled yesterday about 9 o'clock by an explosion. Investigation proved that an explosion had really occurred and without leaving any dire result.

It appears that Joseph Withrow the express messenger had occasion to go into the vault in the rear of Mr. Haven's office. The vault was filled with escaped gas from the jet which must have been burning the night before. Mr. Withrow, from striking a match to light the gas caused the explosion. It is the custom to keep this jet lighted only so long as anyone is in the vault. But by carelessness or negligence it was allowed to burn for some time, and the vault being air tight the escaping gas filled the room. Mr. Withrow was thrown to the floor, but escaped with slight injury being burnt about the head and face. The shock was sufficient, however, to wrench three or four doors from their hinges and to break a number of pairs of glass on the same floor in that part of the building.

The United States Court.

In the United States court yesterday the petit jury was sworn and empaneled. Before Judge Dundy the case of Reed against the City of Plattsmouth was taken to a jury. This case involves the interest of some bonds issued by the city of Plattsmouth. Judge Brewer in the judge's chamber continued the calling of the equity docket. The investigation before the grand jury was conducted by Assistant United States Attorney Bartlett.

Indictments were found against Sieverts for using the mails with intent to defraud of Covington. More economical than the ordinary kind, and unequalled in competition with the multitude of low cost, short weight and shoddy powders sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powder Co.

Will not Go by Boat.

Jack Nugent, Al Masterson and Harry Mulchy returned last evening from Sioux City. The object of the visit of these gentlemen to this place was to secure one of the four boats, lying in the river in front of Covington, to take their attendants to the Fall-Hanley mill. They were unable to secure a boat as their owners have fears that in case they should be taken from their moorings legal proceedings would be entered against them.

Base Ball for Omaha.

The assurance that Omaha will have a base ball team for the coming summer is now full and complete. The committee appointed at Tuesday night's meeting divided itself into three parts yesterday and canvassed the town thoroughly. The exact amount raised so far is not known but it is between $2,000 and $2,500. This amount is amply sufficient to warrant the management to go ahead and secure the players and arrange for games.

A Superintendent for Three Years.

On Tuesday last the president and secretary of the board of education, under the instructions given at the last meeting, entered into a contract with Superintendent James by which his services have been secured for three years to the public schools of the city. Under the contract Mr. James is to receive $3,000 per year.

The "Bee" Strike.

One of the strangest things in nature is the readiness of man to turn his back upon his benefactor, and the bitterness of his abuse when his back is once fairly turned. Everyone has felt this more or less, and none more than the men who have done most for such fellows. If you pick up a man in politics and make a special effort in his behalf, boosting him from place to place, and helping him with might and main, nine times out of ten, when an opportunity is offered him to show his appreciation of your efforts, you find his friendship was all for himself. He is willing to receive all the favors you can bestow, but has none to return. It is the same in business affairs. The more you do for a man the more he expects of you, and in the least he turns upon you at once, and is your most bitter enemy. This is not true of all men, but with a large majority it is the case. The workmen of Omaha have never had an advocate so faithful to their interests, so vigilant in protecting them, and so fearless in championing their cause, as the Omaha Bee. We know the Bee has enemies, but even these cannot deny this fact. It could not have been a selfish motive which impelled the Bee to do this, for as a class, working men contributed cents, where business men bestow dollars to maintain a newspaper like the Bee. In many cases the Bee has offended his best patrons by taking up the hatchet for the laborers, and yet we find that these same laboring men are everlastingly trying to injure the Bee. Like the dog that bites the hand that feeds it, or like the man who poisons the well from which he drinks.
