THE BEE PUBLISHING CO., PROPRIETORS. E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

Things have come to a pretty pass in Omaha when two great railroads charge each other with bribery.

From the amount of water which is being wrung out of stocks in New York at present the metropolis seems to be threatened with a flood.

BEN BUTLER is the first of the presidential candidates now. The scriptural adage about the first being last will be exemplified again when the November returns come in.

MR. TILDEN'S chances for the presidential nomination grow every day. It is now discovered that he is the only democratic candidate who has been wise enough to hold no opinion whatever about the tariff.

DANA, of the New York Sun, being asked about the prospects for democratic success said, "the probabilities are very slight; likewise the possibilities."

The story of the New Hampshire lawyer who recently starved to death ought to be hung up in every law school in the country.

SENATOR SABIN was one of the most extensive users of convict labor in the country. In spite of the usual cheapness and profitableness of such labor, however, he failed.

POLITICAL PASTIMES

THE OMAHA BEE is altogether too previous in its craze for Arthur, to be regarded as sagacious, honest or decent in its partisanship.

The man who wrote the above is either a knave or a crank. The BEE never expects to please all its contemporaries in Nebraska, but it has a right to expect fair, decent and courteous treatment at their hands.

THE BEE has a right to expect fair, decent and courteous treatment at their hands. When the BEE takes a position on any question it is always able and ready to defend and maintain it against all adverse criticism.
