[Main Street Resolution, Feb. 6, 1884.]
Resolved, That the Mayor, city solicator and city engineer enter into a contract with Regan Bros. & McGorick, of Der Moiner, for the construction of a pavement on Main street from Broadway street south to 16th avenue, of zing and guttering of streets and alleys, and all amendments thereto.

The above resolution would indicate beyond a doubt that Regan Bros, and McGorrisk, had bid their bond as required and should have the contract for the paving, with Sioux Falls granite, of Broadway and Main Street and as provided by the Clerk's advertisement and ordered by the Council, the contract was for the entire street and not for a portion of it. If the Council now violate a portion of the city's contract, in my opinion we would get into litigation that, through wisdom on your part, can now be avoid-I therefore recommend that you care-
