another contest to-day for the badge. Permit to marry was yesterday given to August Lueth and Therese Wiese, both of Mindon.

The stone pile is about deserted. few are convicted.

Alderman McMahon doesn't seem to be recognized as an alderman at large by the Omaha officers.

The shooting match this afternoon will commence at 1 o'clock-that is, if it does not rain. If it rains it will not commence at all.

The grand jury has returned an indictcity, for maintaining a nuisance, by which the jury mean a saloon.

his hotel, and proposes tearing it down, with a view of having a new and better building put upon its site.

All railroads will give reduced rates to those who attend the spring running meeting at the driving park here, which opens May 27. One and one-third fare will be charged for round trips.

The hall and rooms, to be occupied by the commercial college, are fast being put in shape for the opening, and will, when finished, be the most commodious and convenient for that purpose of any in the west.

Henry Houck, a farmer of Washington township, has had considerable trouble with a tenant, Cassel, and on Wednesday in a altereation Houck put a load of bird shot into Cassel, but the wound is on, the architect, The Bee man yesternot considered dangerous.

A sidewalk is needed badly on Ninth street, between Broadway and First avenue, leading south from the dummy depot. erent stores on the principal streets of the city, still seem to be hovering about and the police do not seem to be able to "hook on." Most of the places visited have been on Broadway, right along the very beats of the policemen, and still none of the follows have been caught.

It is said that the names of some who have been stealing flowers from graves in Fairview cemetery are known. If they are thus known, they ought to be brought to the front without any delay, a wordy proclamation or appointment of special policemen. The way to punish them is policemen. The way to punish them is to punish them. Hints and threats don't affect that kind cattle.

F. Kropf, one car hogs, 68 head, to Chicago, via R. I.

T. Anderson, one car hogs, 63 head, affect that kind cattle.

Mayor Vaughan has written a letter to Mayor Chase calling the latter's special attention to yesterday's BEE which contained an account of the arrest of Alderman McMahon by Omaha policemen on a case of mistaken identity, and the outrageous way in which the Alderman was used. A demand is made for the removal of the offending officer.

Property holders are in danger of being fined unless they trim up the shade trees eight feet from the sidewalk. So says the marshal. In places where sidewalks and streets have been filled up a trimming off the branches eight feet above the new grade will in some cases leave the trees with but a little tuft on top, the trees being pretty well buried The Northwestern Manufacturing now.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Shoemaker, widow of Dr. A. Shoemaker, was held yesterday aftornson at the residence of her son, Hiram Shoemaker, on Harristreet. She was an old resident of this city, having come here in 1854. She had reached the age of 77 years, and passed away peacefully and quietly, as one wearied with the burdens of many years and falling asleep.

concert in Bayliss park next Tuesday vening in behalf of the celebrated Hardman pianos, of which he is the general agent. Let other business ouses prepare to follow suit, and the public will thereby secure a series of open air, summer evening concerts, which will not only prove enjoyable but also a help to the city.

There was considerable trouble with the water on Main street yesterday. The heavy rain caused the water to run along the gutters where the paving is being done, and following the water pipes leading into some of the buildings, washand under mining the brick sidewalks, besides flooding the cellars. Max Mahon had about three feet of water in the cellar of the Creston house besides a sidewalk badly broken in pieces. A similar trouble was experienced at Kiel's hotel.

The city warrants are being sold as low as ninety cents. It seems that there is no need of this sort of a shave. There is much money going out for improvements but it is mainly done by special assess-There are tramps enough arrested but ments, and the council is expected now to commence transferring money from the police fund to the general fund and take up outstanding warrants, and bring the others up nearer to par. The chairman of the finance commistee will recommend its course he says.

A letter has been received from the Chicago Times saying its $250 puff of Council Bluffs will soon appear, so that citizens here who contributed will pament against David Dunkle, of Crescent tiently wait a little longer. In the meantime THE BEE and other home papers will continue to advertise Council Jacob Neumayer has bought of Mrs. Bluffs without charging the city anything Platner the old frame building next to and advertise it, too, where it will do the most good.

A MURDER AT GLENWOOD.

A Practical Joke Ends in a Tragedy.

John Clingersmith is Shot by W. A. Wallace, Who Claims He Acted in Self Defense.

The town of Glenwood, Iows, was thrown into great excitement yesterday by a fatal shooting. The victim was John Clingersmith, who was shot and killed by W. C. Wallace. The relationed through into the cellars, carrying dirt ship between the two men has been anything but friendly for the past year.

Wallace, who is a man of 35 years of age, a year ago married Mrs. Nichols, mother-in-law of Clingersmith. The latter was very angry about the marriage, and since then has several times abused and assaulted Wallace, who is a man weighing only 130 pounds, and has the reputation of being rather peaceable, while Clingersmith was almost a giant in build, a splendid specimen of physical manhood, six feet tall and weighing 225

Yesterday forenoon Clingersmith was at the court house, and Sheriff Dan Farrell, in a joking way, showed him a bogus pedigree of a stallion which Clingersmith owned. It is not now known who prepared this pedigree, which was a very obscene and vulgar document, not only making fun of the horse, but casting reflections upon Clingersmith. It was intended, doubtless, as a mere practical joke, and some bystander intimated to Clingersmith that it looked as if it was in the handwriting of Wallace. Clingersmith, who had been drinking, became very angry, and started at ence for Wallace's house.

Wallace is a painter, and Mrs. Wallace is running a photograph gallery. The residence rooms are in the rear of the gallery. Clingersmith entered at a side door, and from that room was about W. S. Strawn and C. E. Richards, both at to enter the kitchen, when he met Mr. torneys of Red Oak, were in the city yester- and Mrs. Wallace, who were both armed with revolvers. Wallace shot twice, the first ball striking Clingersmith on the right side of the nose, and the second hitting him just below the left eyebrow, penetrating the brain. Clingersmith fell to the floor, while Wallace rushed out for a doctor. He was very much excited, and merely told the doctor to come over and see his wife, who was badly frightened about a shooting affray at his house. The doctor, with other citizens, went to the house, and found Clingersmith lying on the floor in an insensible and dying condition. He died at 3 o'clock.

Wallace was placed under arrest and says the Presbyterians are sure to build, an inquest was begun. It was not contoo. He is also preparing plans for a cluded last evening. A representative of new bank building in Neola. The contract for a new brick store in Walnut, to in which the latter said he did care ts be built by J. B Johansen & Co., has talk very much about the case. He was than have the company inconvenienced by the expenditure of a few dollars.

The gang of thieves who have been laid for the new opera house at Walnut, and the carpenters began work yesterday. The warehouse of the Union performs the company inconvenienced by 80 feet. The foundations have been laid for the new opera house at Walnut, and the carpenters began work yesterday. The warehouse of the Union little or no property of his own.

The feeling in the town seems to be on and the work of ironing the sides rather favorable to Wallace, on account commenced. The building is 40 by 60 of Clingersmith's previous abuse and quarrels. There is a strong feeling against the person who prepared the ped- 401 Broadway igree of the stallion, not only on account of its obscenity, but also on account o the fatal effect to which it has led.
