The Selection of Clayton for Tem. porary Chairman Repudiated.

National Committee's Choice.

Choosing Hon. J. R. Lynch, of Mississippi, for the Position.

The Vote Standing 431 for Lynch and 387 for Clayton.

Great Excitement and Feeling.

The Irish On Hand With a Club for British Land Grabbers.

Important Action of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

Henderson, of Missouri, Defeats

In the Contest for the Permanent and Hart of Ohio; Calkins, Brown, Pelle and Steele of Indiana; Thomas, Da. Chairmansnip.

Grow, the Blaine Candidate

A Prospect that Balloting for Presdent May Be Had To-Day,

THE CONVENTION.

CHICAGO, June 3.-The republican national convention, the eighth in the history of the party, convened at noon today. The spectacle presented at the opening was a notable one in many ways, and its description would be worthy of a high flight of the imagination. The working body of the convention, the greatest in point of numbers of any national political assemblage, occupied but a small portion of the vast auditorium. The remaining body of the hall was filled by an audience which occupied every point of vantage, and made up a picture as viewed from the press stand of an al-

UNENDING SEA OF FACES, relieved by the rich colors, and flattering toilets of ladies, who were present in porary, having been constructed within the walls of the exposition building ty will be conserved." situated on the east line of the city on the shores of Lake Michigan. Its seating capacity approximates 13,000.

Springing from the east and west sides of the hall are vast arches which rise two hundred feet in the air and relieve the view through the vast expanse of the auditorium. On the speaker's are 1,000 seats, occupied by a great many persons of national repute, whose presence is by the grace of the national committeemen. Swinging over the

A WIDE SHBEADING SOUNDING BOARD, and embracing the wide extremes of the building. The delegates and alternates occupy a level space bounded by square lines. They are hemmed in on two sides by tiers of boxes, occupied mainly by the guests of the delegates. The section of the hall occupied by the working body of the convention is broken by four wide aisles, from the edges of which rise ROMAN STANDARDS pendant with blue silk banners imprinted on gold with the names of the states and territories. Beginning on the left, facing the stage is the state of Alabama and back through the first tiers of seats follow Arkansas, California. Conneticut and down through the line of states in alphabetical turn to Maine. Beginning again on the right and rear is Maryland with Massachusetts immediately in her front and ending with the District of Columbia in the front row of the second tier. New York occupies the front rank in the third and Ohio holds the ranking position in the point 100 feet in the rear of the alternates is another dividing wall, and from that point rises tier upon tier of seats to a point almost midway between the level f the hall and the apex of the doors-

TO COMPLETE THE PICTURE, narrow gallery runs along the

The first to arrive on the scene were the staff correspondents and assistants representing the great journals of the entire country. Their accommodations The Convention Sets Aside the proved to be ample, and the precautions by Col. J. A Martin, secretary of the taken against any possibility of confusion national committee, and Chairman Sabin, were enabled to find their workings withand when the band located in the souththe scene was that of an

UNBROKEN, UNDULATING SEA OF PACES The first of the delegates began to ar-The Unusual Incident Creates rive at 11:30 and the full delegations were in their places before the noon hour, and Donnan, of Iowa. Introduces a delegates, and on the main stage: Aldielegates, and on Jones, (Nev.)

Among the representatives in congress forming part of the state delegations, and smong the members of the scene were Boutelle of Michigan, Dingley of Maine, Stewart, of Vermont. Rice, of Massachu-setts, Skinner, Burleigh and Wordsworth. of New York, Wm. Walter Phelps, of New Jersey, Bayne and Bingham, of Pennsylvania, Hatton, of Indiana, Libby, of Virginia, O'Hara, of North Carolina, Small, of South Carolina, Jefferson, of Missisaippi, Kellogg, of Louisiana, Hauk and Pettibone, of Tennessee, Ochiltree, of Texas, McKinley, Robinson vis and Adams, of Illinois; Washburne, of Minnesota; Horr, of Michigan; Ander sen and Morrell, of Kansas, and Valen tine, of Nebraska.

HARRISON IN THE RING.

At the meeting of the Indiana delegation this morning 29 voted to present the name of Harrison as a candidate, and it is understood that 25 of these will surely vote for him. This action has created intense excitement and promises to upset all calculations.

THE GAVEL. The gavel used by the chairman is a beautiful piece of workmanship, of num-erous pieces of hrrdwood, closely joined, and highly polished and surrounded by bands of gold, bearing the inscription, Presented to the Chairman of Republi-H. Andrews & Co."

no less than the honor of presenting to campaign of 1884. It had been unquesof it is from the old charter oak tree at Hartford, Conn. This gavel is a solid great force. The hall is the largest and unit and through the states speak with has been termed the most complete ever one voice. If the delegates from all the thrown open for t e work of a vast de- states and territories from which this man of its own choosing. liberative body. It is in one sense tem- gavel comes will act in a manner equally united the business interests of the coun-

CALLED TO ORDER. The convention was called to order at 12:34 by Senator Fabin, chairman of the national committee. He nominated national Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, for temporary chairman. Mr. Lodge, of Massa-chusetts, nominated John R. Lyncn, of Mississippi. Debate followed which lasted an hour, when the previous question was ordered and a vote by states taken. The roll call will occupy two hours. Intense excitement prevails, as the vote is regarded in some respects as a test.

> PREFACED BY PRAYER. DR. BRISTOL'S IMPLORATION.

CHICAGO, June 3 .- At 12:24 the chair announced that the hour having arrived for the meeting of the eighth republican national convention, the convention

"God of our fathers, we adore, and worship Thee, and to Thee, by whose grace and providence we are what we are as a nation, we would lift our hearts in devout thanksgiving and everlasting praise. We thank Thee for our glorious national heritage, for this magnificent land of wealthy hills and fortile plains, and for the laws and natitutions which made it along the reasonal of these weathers. it a land of progress and of liberty. We thank Thee for Christian sires, lovers of freedom, and of godly men of conscience and the whose name have jewelled history, and the memory of whose deeds is an inspiration to memory of whose deeds is an inspiration to memory of whose deeds is an inspiration to heron-m and patriotic pride. We thank Thee for Plymouth rock, for Yorktown, for Appoand Ohio holds the ranking position in the fourth and remaining tier.

Back of the delegates is occupied by the alternates and separated from the main body by a hardly perceptible partition. In the rear of the alternates is a commodious seating space, the chairs resting on an easy incline, and cut off from the space occupied by the alternates by a line of pickets. Beginning at a space occupied by the alternates of the alternates of precious interest of 50,000,000 people and (in precious interest of state-manship, and the righleoceness of christian conscientionsness possess every heart and control every action and may the result of this convention be in harmony with the will [Applause.] A delegate from South Car-

THE CALL TO ORDER,

CHAIRMAN SABIN'S REMARKS.

The call for the convention was read were due mainly to the efforts of the Hon. John C New, of Indiana. They called the convention to order in its out any consequent vexation of spirit. name. He said Chicago was known as immortal patriot, Abraham Lincoln, was with a martial strain, the stream of arri- chieftain, General Grant; here it nominavals became steady and unceasing, till ted that honored soldier-that great statesman-that representative citizen-James A. Gartield (cheers); every action of the party on this historic ground had been followed by victory. Having succeeded against its opponents on all formconsequence of the vote adopted by the ell, Be ver, Mahone, Dolph, Palmer and hoped that the voice of the people would be largely pu sant in its deliberations. [Applause] He closed with an expression of hope for victory and proposed for temporary chairman Hon. Powell Clayton, of Arkansas.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

POWELL REPUDIATED. When the chairman had concluded and nentioned the name of Clayton, Mr. H. C. Lodge, of Massachusetts, proposed the name of John R. Lynch, of Missouri. He said they recognized the claim of the south, and therefore he had proposed the second name as one acceptable to the republican conven-

Silas B. Dutcher, of New York, seconded the nomination of Lynch. MORROW RISES.

Atthis point great sensation was created by a speech from W. W. Morrow, of California. He said that harmony was essential, and it could best be secured by not raising factional issues. It had been the practice for forty years for the national committee to select the temporary chairman of the convention, and a departure could not now be made from the custom without creating bitterness of feeling.

GEO WM. CURTIS TALKS. There were several delegates on their feet to reply but the chairman recognized George William Curtis of New York. can National Convention of 1884, by A. The announcement was greeted with the wildest applause. Mr. Curtis said this A letter of presentation accompanying it read as follows: "We have the pleasure repsesentatives who met to open the you a gavel which is made of woods tionably customary for the national comfrom every state and territory in the mittee to name the temporary chairman if the party as here represented desired it, it also unquestionably had the right to revise the action of the national committee in this matter, and make a chair-

HOW THE VOTE SHOULD BE TAKEN. Drummond of Maine, moved that when vote was taken, it be by calling the roll of states. of Pennsylvania, sustained Stewart. the motion.

Mr. Harvey, of Michigan, argued that the question should be settled not by a call of the roll but by a call of states. Thus the convention could do in half an hour what it could not do in the other way in an hour and a half.

Mr. Prentiss, of Missouri, could not understand the object of the proposition to ignore the action of the national committee. A refusal to endorse that nominanation would go forward as a stigma on a man who was to be honored, as a citizen and a soldier and statesman. Powell Clayton bore the mark of his love for the national fl g.

A REFORMER ON THE RIGHT SIDE. Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, of N. Y., favored the motion of Mr. Lodge. It was would now be opened by prayer, by the Rev. Dr. Frank Bristol, of Chicago action of a committee. There were but two delegates to the convention who held seats in the national committee, and the convention should not be governed in such an important matter by the action because the great heart of the American people Prayer was then offered by Mr. Bristol two delegates to the convention who held of a body of outsiders. He hoped that the vote would be taken by a call of delegates. It was a fitting thing for the convention to select a man of its own choice, and he hoped that Mr. Lynch, would be elected temporary chairman of the convention.

Carr, of Illinois, argued that the question to be considered was whether or not under the national flag, but there were 100,000 colored men in the country who deserved recognition at the hands of the COPIAH AND DANVILLE, he said, appealed to the nation on their behalf, and would not appeal in vain.

[Applause ] Reed, of Maryland, favored a full and ree discussion of the question. He carpublican party, and he believed it to be ern portion of the building burst forth chosen; here the party chose that great the best interests of that party to elect with a martial strain, the stream of arri-chieftain, General Grant; here it nomina. Mr. Lynch as its temporary chairman.

in their places before the noon hour, and the following members of the United States senate were present among the States senate were present among the consequence of the vote adopted by the colored man to sit on the floor of the drink, and the house in order for another conflict. As a clement which made it possible for a grainst the traffic in alcoholic liquers as a delegates and on the main stage. convention. [Applause]
Benjamin, of Arkanfas, sustained the nomination of Powell Clayton as a man who had done more than any other southern republican to elevate the repub lican cause in the south.

. THE CHAIRMAN

quoted approvingly the decision of Sena-tor Hoar in the last convention, to the effect that in the absence of any rule the method of taking the question must rest n the sound discretion of the chair, subject, of course, to the action of the convention. This was emphatically, he said, a convention of the people, and every delegate had an undoubted right to a free expression of his opinion, and to have his vote recorded. [Applause.] The roll call was then proceeded with; when it was announced that Lynch had 431 votes, and was elected temporary chair-A SCENE OF THE WILDEST CONFUSION ensued. Delegates rose in their seats and cheered, swung hats and shouted.

The spectators joined in the demonstra On motion, the vote was made unan-Massachusetts; and W. H. Taft, of South Carolina, as a committee to escort Lynch to the chair. As the committee appeared the applause was hearty, and the feeling of disappointment seemed to

Mr. Lynch made a good impression by his quiet and modest demeanor. The chairman said that he had honor and great pleasure of presenting to the convention as its temporary chairman the Hon. John R. Lynch, of Mississippi.

CHAIRMAN LYNCH.

HIS REMARKS ON TAKING THE GAVEL. Mr. Lynch, in taking the chair, said: ought not to say that I thank you for the distinguished honor that you have conferred upon me; for I do not. Nevertheless, from the standpoint that Lo patriot should fail to the standpoint that to patriot should fail to respond to his country's call, and that no loyal member of his party should fail to comply with the demand of his party, I yield with reluctance to your decision, and assume the duties of the position to which you have assigned me. Every member of this convention who approached me on this subject within the last few hours know that this routing. in the last few hours know that this position therefore, there is any such thing as a man having honors thrust upon him, you have an exemplification of it in this instance.

an exemplification of it in this includes an exemplification of it in this convention not for the purpose of securing the defeat of any man or the success of any man, but for the purpose of contributing, to the extent of my vote and my influence, to make the republican success in Newscoher next an assured fact. [Cheers] November next an assured fact, [Cheers] I hope and believe that the assembled wisdom of the republican party of this nation, through its chosen representatives in this hall, will so shape its platform and will present such can b fore the American people as will make that victory beyond a shadow of a doubt. So far as the candidates for the presidential nomination are concerned, I do not wish any gentleman to feel that my election, by your vote, is incicative of anything relative to the preference of one candilate over another. I am prepared, and I hope that every memthis conventien is prepared, to return to his home with an unmistakable determina-tion to give to the candidates of this convenwill never consent to have a political party gain the ascendancy in this government whose chief reliance is on a fraudulent ballot, and on violence at the polls. [Applause] I am satisfied that the people of this country are too loyal ever to allow a man to be inaugurated prosident of the United States whose title to the position is brought forth in fraud. I am satisfied that the American people will ratify our action, because they will never consent to have a revenue system for the government other than one that will not only raise the necessary revenue for its support, but will also be sufficient to protect every American citizen in his business. [Cheers] Gentlemen, not for myself, but perhaps in obedience to custom. thank you for the honor you have conferred OTHER TEMPORARY OFFICERS

SECRETABLES AND SUCH.

At the suggestion of Hon. John A. Martin, secretary of national committee, Hon. Titus Sheard, of New York and J. W. Lee, of Pennsylvania, were here chosen assistant secretaries, to serve during the pending of the temporary orga-

DES BURDINGS ... TITLE . 4000

TEMPERANCE TOMFOOLERY. THE IOWA IDEA INTRODUCED.

It bears the signatures of the officers of the Woman's Christian Temperance unions of forty-eight states and territotories, and reads as follows: Before 10 o'clock the main auditorium the convention city. It was the field of ried himself an empty sleeve, but he tories, and reads as follows:

began to be sprinkled with early comers. republican victory; here it was that the carried besides, a heart true to the recan Party: We, the members of the Woman's Christian Temp rance union of the states herein represented by the signatures of our officers, believe Mr. Lynch as its temporary chairman.

Thurston, of Nebraska, expressed the idea that if it was the intention of the convention to overturn the action of the national committee, it should not be done under a pretext which marked the real design; while recognizing the colored the citadels of patriotism, purity and happiness, have no enemy so relentless as the Amer-> Therefore, as citizens of the United States irrespective of sect or section, but having deeply at heart the protection of our homes, we do hereby respectfully and earnestly petition you to advecate and to adopt such measures as are requisite to the end that the prohibition of the importation, exportation, manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages may become an integral part of the national constitution: and that your party candidate shall be by character and public pledge com-mitted to a national prohibitory constitu-tional amendment. Signed Frances E. Willard, CABOLINE B BURLL, MARY A. WOODSHIDGE, Rec. Secretary. L. M. N. STEVENS, Asso lati m Secretary. Esther Pugh, The petition was read and referred to

he committee on rules. PROHIBITION PRATTLE

The following is the discussion on the W. C. T. U., memorial: Mr. Donnan, of lowa-I have in hand a memorial, by the women of the United States-the Christian Temperimous. The chairman appointed Powell ance Union—a memorial representing the work on hand. ing for a prohibitary amendment to the national constitution. The memorial is brief, and I ask that it be read at the secretary's desk. It will occupy but three minutes, and then it can stand re ferred to the committee on resolutions. The chair-The gentleman from Iowa asks that the memorial be read from the clerk's desk and referred to the committee on resolutions. The gentleman will send

Mr. McClure, of California-1 move Mr. McClure, of California—1 move that the memorial be referred to the Fiorida..... committee on resolutions without being read. The motion was seconded.

The chair-The gentleman from California moves that the memorial be referred to the committee on resolutions without being read. Mr. Donnan-That is very small cour tesy which it seems to me is due to the noble women of America who are engaged in this cause. I ask of this convention to delay three minutes to hear the memorial [Applause and cries of "Read it."] Mr. Horr of Michigan .- If we comnence reading every resolution that is offered [Cries of "Order! order!" "Read

Mr. McClure.-I withdraw my resolu-We have no time to debate such tion.

Mr. Horr of Michigan.-I make notion that all resolutions be referred without reading to the committee on resolutions, and I will suggest to the chair that the rules which we adopted at my instance provide it. We adepted the rules of the last convention, and under those rules all resolutions were referred without reading and without debate 'o the committee on resolutions, and until you change that order and ruling, no ther order is in order here.

The Chair-The chair is of opinion that the point taken by the gentleman from Michigan is well taken, and that it would require a suspension of the rule and unani nous consent to have the resolution read. Mr. Donnan-I ask that it be read; ask for no debate. This is a memorial, not a resolution. I ask unanimous consent simply that it be read. Mr. M Lean-I object.

The Chair-Objection being made, annot entertain the subject. Mr. Gilbert, of New York:-I understand that the rule reads as follows: "All resolutions relating to the platform shall be referred to the committee on resolutions without debate." It does not touch the point of reading. The rule does not that three minutes will be accorded to the reading of the memorial. The Chair:- Does the gentleman read from the printed report?

exclude the reading, and I certainly hope

Mr Gilbert-I read from the printed eport of 1880, on page 152, the last rule. The Chair - The Chair is of the opinon that under the language of the rule, the reading is not excluded. [Cries of 'Read!" "Read!"

The secretary then read the memorial is given elsewhere. 1 The Chair—It is referred to nittee on rules.

ENGLISH LAND-GRABBERS. THE IRISH WANT A WORD. Mr. W. Russell of New York, presented

Hon. W. G. Donnau, of Iowa, presented a memorial petition from the National Woman's Christian Temperance union. It is simply a reference to the committee on resolutions, and I therefore ask that that It bears the signatures of the officers of resolutions with instructions—
The Chair - All these resolutions go to the committee on resolutions.

> THE ADJOURNMENT. CONCLUDING PROCEEDINGS.

one of my colleagues, was absent, and an of a man that proved his loyalty to the party by carrying a musket and following a flag, we say we are for General Clayton, the choice of the national committee [Applause.]

Cook is now present. If he had been in NEBRASKA, IOWA AND ILLINOIS. his seat he would have voted for the gentleman from Arkansas instead of the present chairman of the convention. Mr. Bain-I renew my motion. Mr. Chairman-The gentleman from from Pennsylvania moves that the convention adjourn until to-morrow at 11 o'clock. The question is upon that motion. Those infavor of the motion for recess will may aye.

The chairman declared the motion car-

After adjournment the chair stated that the committee on rules and committee on credentials would meet in the hall, and the committees proceeded to

THE VOTE ON CHAIRMAN.

BY DISTRICTS. CHICAGO, June 3.—An analysis by states of the vote for temporary chairman is as follows:

STATES.

Montana ...

Caufornia ..... Colorado Connecticut Indiana..... Jersey ..... Wisconsin...... Dakots .....

Was ington Territory GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS. HIS REMARKS ON THE CHAIRMANSHIP. The following are the remarks of Mr. Curtis on the question of temporary chair-

matship:

Mr. Chairman: This is the supreme council of the republican party. Here at this moment, sir, American citizens professing republican faith have met to open the great campaign of 1884, that, sir, by the grace of God, and by the true heart of the republican party, shall be like those other campaigns to which you have so well and fully attended. Now, sir, this convention is to first act and then the people of the country will judge the purposes people of the country will judge the purposes of the republicae party. [Applause.] Unques-tionably it has been the usual practice, as the gentleman from California has said, that the nomination of the temporary chairman made by the national committee should be ratified by the convention is self; that the spirit of the nomination made to the convention is the nomination made to the convention is the spirit of recognition of southern republicanism, [Loud applause] And sir, when this convention, without the slightest degree of impugning the purpose of the authority of that committee within its bunds proceeds to exercise its own unquestionable right to be judge in the first act of the control the campaign, I suppose unquestionably tha this convention might rightfully and with this convention might rightfully and with perfect liberty appoint its own head [Cheers]. We ought to have a representative of the perpls who in great part constituted the republican party of the south [Load applause]. And Mr. Lyuch is himself a man who justifies the friendship and devotion of the republican party, and of the citizens whom he represents.

THE TEMPORARY TUG

The Eighth National Republican Construction of Clayton for Tem

The Selection of Clayton the following, which was referred to the committee on resolutions:

**Resolved**, That the committee on resolutions be and they are hereby directed to live a hearing to a committee appointed by the Irish League of America, to tree into memory of the the convenion on the subject of the ownership of radity in the United States by their regions.

**Before presenting the resolution, Mr. Russell said:

I am requested, on behalf of the Irish National League, to ask of this convention to the demand and the hope of the great republican masses of the country, whose eyes are at this moment fixed upon the hall, and who are waiting to hear that the first act of the republican convention of 1884 shall be an act which every one of us will glory to defend upon the stump, and to which the republican heart of the country will respond with the should victory.

**THURSTON'S TALKS**.

THURSTON'S TALKS. IN FAVOR OF CLAYTON.

Mr. Thurston, of Nebraska, in speakng on the chairmanship, said:

Mr. Chairman: I appreciate the fact that this discussion has already wearied the patience of this convention, and yet I believe that we can better afford to stay here for a day or a year rather than that an injustice should be done to any man of the convention. If the At the conclusion of the reading of the W. C. T. U. memorial, Mr. Bain, of Ponusylvania, at the suggestion of different gentlemen, said: I renew my motion that we take a recess until tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

The Chair—The resolution offered by the gentlemen from New York has not yet been read.

Mr. Bain—I withdraw my motion.

done to ally man of the convention. If the convention, sir, is to overturn the action of its national committee, let it not be done under a present which massks the real design. [Applause ] lift be true, sir, that the spontaneous expression of this convention is in favor of recognizing the colored element of the South—if that be the honest purpose of these gentlemen as they have honestly said to us, then let the committee appointed by the convention upon permanent organization voice it in the election of Mr. Lynch, of Mis assipt. [Applause.] But. sir, in recognizing the colored element of the convention is in ational committee, let it not be done under a preserve which massks the real design. [Applause of the convention is in ational committee, let it not be done under a preserve which massks the real design. [Applause of the convention, sir, is to overturn the action of its on ational committee, let it not be done under a preserve which massks the real design. [Applause of the convention of the convention, sir, is to overturn the action of its national committee, let it not be done under a preserve which massks the real design. [Applause of the convention is in ational committee, let it not be done under a preserve which massks the real design. [Applause of the convention is in ational committee, let it not be done under a protect which massks the real design. [Applause of the convention is national committee, let it not be done under a preserve which massks the real design. [Applause of the convention is national committee, let it not be done under a preserve which massks the real design. [Applause of the convention is national committee, let it not be done under a preserve which massks yet been read.

Mr. Bain—I withdraw my motion.

The secretary then read the resolution offered by Mr. Russell, relating to the ownership of real estate in the United States by foreigners.

Senator Cullom, of Ills—I desire before the motion to adjourn is put to make a statement to the convention. In the call of the states for the vote of the different states on the question of the election of temporary chairman, Mr. Cook one of my colleagues, was absent, and an

NEBRASKA, IOWA AND ILLINOIS. THEIR VOTE ON CHAIRMAN.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The following is the vote of Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska in detail on the ballot for temporary chairman:

At large—Shelby McCullom, Lynch; Jno. W. Hamilton, Lynch; Burton C. Cook, Lynch; Clarke Carr, Lynch.
First district—J. L. Woodard, Lynch; Ab-First district—J. L. Woodard, Lynch; Abner Taylor, Lynch.
Second district—W. H. Ruger, Clayton; C.
E. Piper, Clayton.
Third district—Geo. R. Davis, Clayton; J.
R. Wheeler, Clayton.
Fourth district Samuel P. Raymond,
Lynch; L. C. Collins, jr., Clayton.
Fifth district—L. Nelley, Clayton; C. E.
Fuller, Clayton.
Sixth district.—N. Lewis, Clayton; O. C.
Town, Clayton: [appliance]

Town, Clayton; [applaise]
Seventh district.—S. G. Baldwin, Clayton;
H. T. Nobles, Clayton.
Eighth district.—R. W. Willett, Clayton;

A. Bell, Clayton. Ninth district.—S. T. Rogers, Lynch; Thos, Ninth district.—S. T. Rogers, Lynch; Thos, Vernum, Clayton.
Tenth district.—W. W. Wright, Clayton; R. H. Whiting, Clayton.
Eleventh district.—C. N. Chandler, Lynch; C. A. Billard, Clayton.
Twelfth district.—A. C. Matthews, Lynch; W. W. Berry, Lynch.
Thirteenth district.—Dr. William Jayne, Clayton; Dietrich C. Smith, Lynch.
Fourteenth district,—J. W. Fifer, Clayton; Geo. Kugham, Clayton.

Geo. Kugham, Clay on, Fifteenth district,—Charles G. Eckhart, Lynch; J. S. Wilcox, Clayton. ton: Harrison Black, Clayton, Sevent-enth district, John I. Rinaker,
Clayton; J. M. Trutt, Clayton.
Eighteenth district,—R. A. Halbert, Lynch; H. F. Renter; Lynch. Nineteenth district, -T. S. Ridgway,

Lynch; C. F. Stratton, Clayton. Twentieth district,—M. M. Simpson, Clayton; Wm. McAdams, Clayton. IOWA AND NEBRASKA. Iowa and Nebraska voted unanimously

for Clayton. AT WASHINGTON

RUMORS AND ARRANGEMENTS. WASHINGTON, June 3.-No credence given at the White House to the rumors of the breaking of Arthur's ranks. Arrangements have been made to furnish bulletins of the associated press dispatches from Chicago to the White House, the different departments, both houses of congress and to the president's cabinets at their homes, arrangements having been made with the wires of the Western Union company direct from the conven-

[Cantinued on fifth page.]

Seal of Morth Garolina Smoking Tobacco.

Seen Everywhere

where recognized

as indispensible

to Dealer and Gonsumer. lina, and stare it sev.