

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Friday Morning, June 13.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier 30 cents per week; By Mail $1.00 per year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's spring goods. The city council is expected to meet to-morrow night. E. W. Ticknor has been putting water into his residence and making other improvements.

The German school children will have a picnic on June 19th, at Lohahn's grove near Park mill. A new Methodist church is to be dedicated at Pacific Junction next Sunday by Rev. Dr. Webb, of Red Oak.

Mr. Regan is now laying about 600 yards of paving on Main street every day and all seem satisfied with the work. The Council Bluffs district conference of the Methodist churches is to be held in Missouri Valley some time next month.

William Gates was complained of by his wife yesterday, for threatening her life, and was arrested and locked up for a hearing.

Permits to wed were yesterday granted E. B. Surber, of Dakota City, and Nancy P. C. Phillips, of Oakland, Iowa; also to John Lane and Annie Featherman, of Council Bluffs.

Detective Pates has a job of his own to work on now. While his light wagon was standing at police headquarters somebody who had not the fear or law before his eyes sneaked off a spring seat and a summer cushion.

The news that a protest was entered against the W. R. Vaughan hose team at Des Moines did not create much surprise here, it being expected. The ground of the protest was that the team was made up of professional runners.

The suspicious prowling about of a strange man led to the belief that an attempt might be on foot to burglarize Mayor Vaughan's house. Thursday night Officer Dunn served as a special detail to watch the premises, but no burglar appeared.

In the district court yesterday, the case of Wells Cooks vs. the Equitable Insurance company, was on trial. The company claims that Cook's policy had lapsed, while Cook denies this and wants an order of court compelling the company to re-instate it.

A banjo player who has been strolling about the streets for some days, was yesterday run in for being too drunk. It is a query whether the fellow is more of a nuisance when sober enough to play or when so drunk that he lays himself down to sleep on the sidewalk.

The addition to Max Mohn's hotel is nearly completed. This gives the Creston house 75 rooms in all for guests, besides the offices, parlors, dining room, etc., on the first floor. He has provided the hotel with bath rooms, electric call bells, and all other modern improvements.

Jack Perego felt hardly disappointed when he read Tilden's letter of declination in the Bee yesterday. He is so enthusiastic a Tilden man that in returning from a late trip he took a vote of all in the sleeper, as the train rolled into Council Bluffs, and found it to be unanimous for Tilden. It appears that it was a lone Jack, he chancing to be the only one in that car, and of course it was unanimous.

Six riders were arrested Wednesday night as vagrants. Two of them were only sixteen years of age, one eighteen and three older. All but one had a little money, a few cents, and as they said they had only been in the city for a few hours, and had not had time to secure work, they were released, after having had their lodging and breakfast at the city's expense. Yesterday afternoon three of them were given work by one of the contractors.

Papers were served yesterday on Sidney W. Hopkins, president of the Council Bluffs City Water Works company, in a suit brought by Kimball & Champ to recover $2,500 money advanced the laborers who worked for said company, by the above firm. Othersuits will most likely follow, unless the claims of other parties for labor and material are paid soon. It is to be hoped that the finances of the company may at an early date get to running as smoothly as the works are doing.

Cassius Watson, who is a natural dog trainer, as well as a good railway man, yesterday presented John N. Baldwin and Tom Baldwin with as fine a pair of young spaniels as were ever shown up in Council Bluffs. Although mere pups, only three months old, they are already in fine training, and can retrieve like veterans, besides indulging in numerous tricks which display remarkable canine intelligence. If these dogs keep on as they have begun, a hundred dollars will not buy either of them.

A horse attached to a laundry wagon came rushing down Glen avenue yesterday, a little girl being the only one in the wagon. As the horse turned into Broadway, and the wheels struck the railway track, the sudden jolt threw the wagon body off, girl and all, the whole landing in the street, and the little girl sliding out, jumped to her feet and ran like a scared deer, to the surprise of the lookers-on who expected to see her badly hurt, if not killed. The horse soon after was brought to standstill, and proved to be somewhat injured by the run.

MATRIMONIAL MUSS.

A Wife and Mother Gets the Police to Help her Get Possession of Her Children.

The Officer Paid for His Trouble by Being Found Fault With.

Charles Leonard, who keeps a barber shop on Broadway, has had of late some trouble with his wife, and has taken steps toward securing a divorce. The uncongenial couple have two little children, and Leonard getting possession of them placed them in the custody of his sister, living in Streetville. Mrs. Leonard appeared at police headquarters and poured her tale of woes into the ear of the little chief. She claimed that the children had been taken away from her, and she wanted some officer to go with her. While she got the hack, she fearing that she might be assaulted or hurt in some way, Chief Skinner accordingly detailed officer Metcalfe to go with the woman and see that no one molested her. The officer and Mrs. Leonard went to the house where the children were, and after rapping at the front door and getting no reply, went around to the side door. The woman, who was up stairs, put her head out of the window, and on hearing what was wanted, came down stairs and opened the door. The woman claimed that the officer rather pushed his way in, and seeing him in uniform supposed that as an officer he was bound to take the children by force, if needed. She therefore made no resistance and while the officer was talking to her, Mrs. Leonard took the children and away she went.

There were all sorts of rumors afloat yesterday as to what was to be done in the matter, about charges being preferred against the officer and of making Mrs. Leonard's taking of the children a case of kidnapping. Officer Metcalfe justifies himself by the statement that he went with Mrs. Leonard as directed by his superior officer, simply to protect her, and that he entered the house on invitation of the woman, and that the children on seeing their mother ran to her, and she walked off with them.

Col. Scott, who is attorney for Mr. Leonard, was quite wrathful yesterday about what he deemed an interference on the part of the police in a matter which did not concern them, and it remains to be seen who will finally succeed in retaining possession of the little ones.

ENTHUSIASTIC YOUNG MEN. The Blaine and Logan Club Already Preparing for the Inauguration. The Young Men's Blaine and Logan club is starting in with a good deal of enthusiasm, and is planning for great things in the future, the plan already being talked over of going to Washington in a body to attend Blaine's inaugural when the time comes, the enthusiasm being too great to allow the least doubt about Blaine's election.

It is expected that the club will soon be provided with a uniform, consisting of pearl white high hats, linen dusters, regulation length, and cane, together, of course, with pantaloons and other necessaries. Arrangements are being made for a hall in which to hold its meetings, and it is expected that by next Tuesday evening there will be fully 100 names enrolled, and the members will soon increase to 200 or 250. It is estimated that the expense for uniforms, trip to Washington and all will not exceed $20 or $25 a member.
