What would, if carried out as planned, made a big item for the night reporters of this city, ended in a grand fisseo last vening. When the roll was called at poice headquarters last evening the mempers of the night force were ordered to eport at the city jail at 10 o'clock. "To make assurence doubly sure" Tom Rawne the captain, went around to the various beats and ordered the patrolmen under no circumstances to fail to appear at the appointed time.

At the time agreed upon the force were all present and the men were divided up into squads of three and four for whom a leader was appointed by the Marshal, a proposition will be submitted to Sarpy For each division a gambling house was named which the squad was to enter and arrest all parties found in it and also to take into the custody of the law all property therein, used for gambling or sporting purposes. But one squad was successful. When the others arrived at the houses appointed for them to enter, the doors were found locked, the window curtains down and the rooms in total -Yesterday afternoon a house between darkness. ture at the present writing than ever before. Wednesday Mr. Shaw engaged a jubilant over the prospects that he went down stairs into the wagon and blacksmith shops and informed the workmen employed there that they would have to hurry up with their work, that he had a new man and that he was a rattler.

That Mr. Shaw was correct in his opinion of his new man will be shown. At night the new man went to Mr. Shaw and told him that he had no place to sleep. Mr. Shaw told him not to worry but to go up and sleep with him. The employer and the employed went to bed together, the one to sleep the sleep of the just, the other to plan some way to rob the man who had befriended him.

The Conclusion of the Committee, The committee on sewerage held a meeting last evening, at which Chairman Furay and member Woodworth were present- The object of this session was to examine into the complaint of Mcof public works for dividing up their bid plainants and the piling to be furnished for this workwas given to a third party. The complainants for themselves and James Creighton for the board, made their separate statements to the committee. The question to be determined by the committee was whether or not the bid on piling was a separate one, and being considered such by the committee, the action of the board was ratified and the board exonerated of being arbitrary oung Barrett Beats His Mother and Turns Her Family out of Doors,

Officer Douglas was summoned by tele phone last night about 11 o'clock, to go to the house of Mrs. Barrett who lives jus north of Clark and Twenty-eighth streets. He found the house, upon his arrival there, not sheltering its accustomed occupants who had been driven from their home by the unnaturally brutal and fiendish oldest son of Mrs. Barrett. If the mother's story of her son's deeds is true, the extreme penalty of the law for such offenses is grossly insufficient for

The mother stated to the officer that on last Monday night he became en-raged at her, and in the presence of an ld gentleman and a lady who were passing the night under her roof, seized her by the hair, beat her and dragged her round the room. Not content with this unnatural and brutal treatment of his mother, he divested her of every shred of her clothing and left her lying nearly senseless upon the floor. He then subjected his mother's friends to similar reatment and completed his inhuman purpose by driving everybody from the

The officer was called last night to probrutish cur who had driven them from home by threats that he would shoot them. The children and mother were found scattered about the neighborhood n such places as they thought would provide them with safety. The unnatural cur could not be found. The mother's story is verified by her neighbors who are very indignant at the treatment she has received.
