Thursday was to have been the big lay of the state tournament at Plattsmouth, and a large number of spectators early hour. The interest of the day was centered in contest No. 6, which was for the silver cup presented in May, 1877, by the Plattamouth Sportsmen's Club, for club teams; four members of a club to compose a team. Ten single birds, 21 yards.

White-Bonewitz. Thursday evening a large number of friends and relatives assembled at the residence of J. E. Bonewitz, on Georgia Ave., in order to be present at the marriage of his oldest daughter, Miss Carrie M., to Mr. Charles P. White, a young and prosperous merchant of Tobias, Nebraska. At $2 00 eight o'clock the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Chas. Savidge, of the First M. E. church, after which the happy young couple were tendered the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends, who in return were treated to an excellent supper. Mr. White was a resident of Omaha for five years, being employed during that time by S. H. Buffett. But a short time aho he went to Saline county, and engaged in business. The bride has been a resident of Omaha for about four years, and has many friends among the young folks, who will regret to have her leave the city, but will wish her bon voyage through life. The presents were numerous and costly. At 7:50 yesterday morning the newly made husband and wife were speeding westward over the B. & M. for their home in Tobias "as happy as happy could be."

A Case Without Hope.

A Case Without Hope.

Jno. R. Booker, of Macos, Ga., writes: "In 1878 I was attacked by the most ravenous sort of cancerous sores, that ate great holes into my flesh and spread rapidly over my body. I received the very best medical attention; was dosed with mercury and potashuntil I was so crippled with mercurial rheumatism that I could scarcely hobble about; my throat and mouth were badly ulcerated; my hair began to fall out. So wrecked was my genera health, that I became a physical ruin and my life was a burden. For a long time I was bedridden, and my suffering was so intense that I prayed for death as a relief. I exhausted the whole catalogue of patent medicines, in each case following the directions religiously. Each in turn seemed to aggravate the malady, and none of them benefitted me in any way. When life was apparently hopeless I commenced taking S. S. S. To this specific I owe my lite. In ten days I commenced improving, and in a short time was perfectly well. My hair has grown out thick; my health and strength have returned; the ulcers in my throat and mouth are entirely cured; my appetite has returned, and for the first time in years I enjoy my food returned; the ulcers in my throat and mouth are entirely cured; my appetite has returned, and for the first time in years I enjoy my food. Every sore has disappeared from my body. I weigh as much as I ever did in my life and am perfectly healthy in every way. The very germs of the cancer affliction are destroyed. Not only is the terrible malady that was preying on my life, and which every one pronounced incurable, entirely cured, but I am also re-lieved of the had effects of the mercury and potash mixtures that I was fed on tor years." Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed

IOWA ITEMS.

The Atlantic National bank has in creased its stock to $100,000. The Marshalltown high school gradu ated nine young ladies this year. Davenport teamsters have formed a mutual protective association against the loss of horses, either by disease, brutal treatment or other means. The Sioux City police rounded up the social evil-doers of both sexes the other night, and the mayor branded them with fines ranging from $5 to $100.

One passenger and nine freight conductors on the K. C. Branch of the Burlington, were let out at Creston the other day, for fooling with the duplex. They didn't know it was loaded.

The crop prospects are said to be very promising in the southeastern and southern sections of Iows, where there has been a series of failures on account of wet weather. This year seeding has progressed favorably on the flat lands as well as on the rolling lands, and with propi-tious weather henceforth those sections ngineers, held here the last few days, closed to session to night. A banquet was tendered he visiting engineers. Butchered by a Buzz Saw, CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, June 13.—Wm. Tilden Puts the Democrats at Sen-A Whole Fleet Stands Out Waiting for a Wind-Bayard and Car lisle Weigh Anchor-Voornees Sees Land Sigvals of Distress,

The declination of Mr. Tilden has spurred up the friends of Senator Bayard, and for the one day his name has been more prominently discussed than any other. The senator has received communications in favor of his nomination from every section of the north and west. At a private conference of his friends recently he said to them that he would not engage in any personal struggle for the nomination, but if it came to him un-sought he would make a fight for it. Republican senators profess to have no fear of Bayard's candidacy. They appreciate the esteem and confidence in which he is held by the great financial interests in New York, but claim that he could be beaten on his 1861 peace speech. Mr. Bayard has often said that he stood by the sentiments of this speech, but there was not one line in it which could be properly construed as disloyal to the Inion, and that such construction could only be justified from purposely garbled reports. A correct copy of the speech will, it is understood, be given to the

The name of Speaker Carlisle has also received some complimentary allusions for second place. Senator Lamar said that Bayard and Carlisle would be a strong ticket, but he did not think the southern Democrats expected or desired to be represented on the ticket. Senator Lamar does not think the Blaine and Logan ticket so weak as do some other democrats. He does not think the democrats have an easy victory before them, but that the struggle will be long and fierce, and to secure democratic suc ceas every inch of ground will have to be stubbornly contested.

A prominent New York democrat here to-day says Cleveland will not receive the nomination, for the reason that he is not satisfactory to an influential faction of his for sale by party, and no matter how popular he is with the massess he is almost certain of defeat in the convention. The same gentleman is equally as positive that the mantle of Tilden, so far as New York is concerned, at least, must fall upon the shoulders of ex-Congressman Flower.

There are now in the city quite a number of prominent New York democrats, and of these, among them Tilden's nephew, McLain, and ex-Mayor Cooper had a conference in the committee room to-day. Randall was also present with the Ohio Voorhees men. It was the sense of the conference that Voorhess was the best man to put forward, as he would harmonize the split on the tariff matter and was all right as to wool. An Indiana democrat, speaking of this movement, said that it had been discussed for the last two days, and he thought Voorhees the strongest man in Indiana, and even if his loose financial views did hurt him in New York it could be equalized by the nomination of a strong New Yorker. With regard to Indiana's having three candidates at Chicago, he said: "Well, we are going to have a cat fight anyhow, and I don't see that we lose anything by it. Tilden won't run, and that leaves out Hendricks, and if McDonald finds Voorhees stronger than hlmself he will be very ungrateful to Voorhees if he don't throw his (McDonald's) strength to the Tall Sycamore."

The only man who has said anything cruel about Mr. Tilden is, Abe Hewitt. His liver has been out of order for some time, and this affliction has kept some of his party from jumping on him, metaphorically. Asked what he thought of Mr. Tilden's letter Mr. Hewitt answered: "The reason Tilden refuses to define his position as to the democratic nomination s the best evidence in the world of his embecility."
