

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Monday Morning, June 16.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier 25 cents per week; By Mail $10.00 per year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's Spring Goods. Dancing school at the rink to-morrow evening, 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock. John Evers has been acquitted of the charge of selling a glandered horse. Col. Keating has been secured as the Fourth of July orator for Henderson. Major McCauley, of Des Moines, who has the sewer contract, expects to begin on the work this week. The city council failed to get a quorum Saturday night--at least there was no quorum at the council chamber. J. H. Smith has been complained of for not having onboards in his dirt wagon as required by the new ordinance. Dr. Cary's well-known mare Larene has been sold to Mr. Hill, of Willoughby, Hill & Co., Chicago, for $6,000. The graduating exercises of the High school will take place Tuesday evening June 24th, at the new opera house. Charles Gardner appeared as "Karl" at the opera house Saturday afternoon and evening and made much mirth. The prisoners kept here and belonging to outside counties have been removed by order of the county board of supervisors. A photograph of the new government building as it will appear when completed is now displayed at the board of trade rooms. The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Bryant, mother of R. T. Bryant, took place Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. Abe Lincoln post, G. A. R. expect to send a delegation of 100 with their families to Glenwood to take part in the celebration there. The skating party at the roller rink last Wednesday evening proved such a success another will be held this coming Wednesday evening. Jailor Motiaz had a rare streak of luck yesterday. Eleven crows came right up to within half a block of the pound, and were easily captured. The Chicago & Northwestern railroad company is threatening to sue those who have been removing sod from the company's lots in Streetville. A dog belonging to Joseph Reiter, the merchant tailor, went mad yesterday and was shot. The dog seemed to be mad about an aching tooth, instead of having regular hydrophobia. B. F. Clayton is showing rye raised on his place, measuring eight feet. He says he has some even larger than that, which he is keeping in store for the fellow who can beat his first sample. The body of the old man Wagner, who died in the emigrant house Friday morning, was on Saturday shipped by Coroner Connell, to Tiffin, Ohio, where relatives of the deceased are living. Mrs. D. E. Baldwin of Macedonia had a narrow escape from death by a stray bullet from a revolver with which some Sunday breaking boys were shooting at a target. The ball entered the house passing within a foot of where he was standing. Deputy Sheriff Braum of Lincoln was here yesterday looking after the man Churchill who broke jail there last Friday. Churchill was one of the guards of the penitentiary, and stood charged with having accepted a $300 bribe to let one of the prisoners escape. The Women's Christian association is to hold a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The first half hour is to be given to devotional exercises, and the remaining time to transaction of important business. All Christian women are urged to be present. H. R. Stewart, who was formerly salesman for McClug & Co., has recently completed a crayon portrait, which is to be seen in one of W. W. Chapman's show windows where it attracts much attention and call forth much praise. Mr. Stewart proposes devoting his time exclusively to this sort of work. David Jerman, in attempting to collect a poll-tax of Theodore Hessel, the editor of the Danish paper, got into some altercation, which resulted in Hessel putting him out. Hessel was arrested Saturday afternoon on a charge of assault and battery, and also for resisting an officer. He is to have a hearing before Justice Abbott to-day. Ernest Smith has captured a red mother bat and three little ones--not of the John Tompston 'brick bats'--but genuine red ones, alive and healthy. He proposes exhibiting them at the social in the parlors of the Presbyterian church next Friday evening. In the meantime he will pay five cents each for them. Now, boys is your chance. Constable Fox and John J. Frainey created a disturbance on Broadway Saturday afternoon. It appears that Frainey took the colonel's horse and pheton for a short drive, without the colonel's permission, and the latter catching hold of the horse's bridle stopped the excursion, and made Frainey get out. Fox in the meantime shook his cane, threatened Frainey, gave him the full benefit of a varied vocabulary of curse-words, and was only checked off by the caution of a policeman. The old gentleman should not have been so loud or indecent in his talk, but he was doubtless greatly aggravated, and as for Frainey, the lesson ought not to be lost on him, and he will probably have a fresh idea now about the property rights of others. Two young fellows in a buggy were thrown out at the corner of Broadway and Main street Saturday afternoon. The fellow who was driving had hired the horse and buggy of George Wisner, and was so drunk that in turning the corner he struck the lamp post and the buggy was tipped over and the horse went down. The buggy top was badly smashed, the drunken driver stood and looked at others clear up the wreck, and although Officer Dunn stood on the corner no arrest was made, and the fellow staggered off. Soon after Officer Brooks appeared and arrested the other fellow who was in the buggy at the time of the accident. Mike Kildare, who was wanted for an assault upon some girl. He will have a hearing to-day. The Hamburg Times announces that A. B. Edwards and L. O. Robinson have become the landlords of the Commercial House and are renovating and rejuvenating it completely. Both of these gentlemen have been for years engaged in the hotel business at Jonesville, Wisconsin, and the Council Bluffs Bee man will be backed up by many others from the Badger state in saying that they are among the few men who know how to run a hotel. Hamburg is to be congratulated on securing them. Yesterday, while Dan Lloyd was examining the wall of Mr. Harlan's well, the dirt commenced closing in on him and before he could get to the top, six feet of the curbing fell, covering him completely. Messrs. Johnston and Maynes were lowered into the well, and by hard and rapid work succeeded in removing the stones from off Dan in time to save him from suffocation. It was a close call, and Dan has to feel thankful that he escaped with only a few bruises.--Macedonian.

A SKIPPING SECRETARY.

The Mayor's Young Man Wants to Go to Denver. An Officer Sent After Him. Mayor Vaughan on returning from his trip to Ottumwa found the office locked, and his young man Ferguson, who delighted in being known as the mayor's private secretary, was nowhere visible. It has leaked out that the young man had tired of Council Bluffs and the burdensome duties of his office and had concluded to take a trip westward. It is said that he had become desperately maddened on a Bryant street girl and had taken her as his companion. On reaching Ottumwa it appears that the mayor's secretary thought a trip to Denver was a desirable one, and applied for pass at headquarters, presenting a request purporting to be signed by Mayor Vaughan. The railroaders were suspicious and telegraphed here to Mr. Vaughan, learning that the signature was not his and not authorized by him. Yesterday afternoon Officer Brooks went across the river to see if he could find the young man, and bring him to account for his actions.
