COUNCIL BLUFFS. ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS. POLITICAL PRATTLE.

Some of the Candidates Looming Up for Honors.

Chat On the Corners.

There is more or less political talk, rather on the quiet, though, as to the local candidates, who are being named as among the probable reachers-out for the plums which are to fall in this vicinity next fall.

A judge for the district court and one for the circuit court are to be chosen. It is generally conceded that the present occupants of the bench will be re-nominated and will be elected--Judge Looftbour-

The democrats do not seem to have planned very much yet on the judicial honors, and there seems to be a concession that it is almost useless to make nominations for those positions. Still they will do so as a party compliment to those whom they may nominate, and for the purpose of maintaining the form of organization.

The democrats do not seem to have planned very much yet on the judicial honors, and there seems to be a concession that it is almost useless to make nominations for those positions.

For district attorney, the present incumbent, Mr. J. P. Conner, of Denison, is looked upon as a candidate for re-nomination, and his chances of success seem good so far as to make his re-nomination seem quite certain.

Outside of the city, A. L. Young, of Malvern, has been talked of, but it is understood that he has now withdrawn his name. Mr. Beard, of Shelby, is also talked of, but it is said that there is doubt about his being able to hold his own delegation, while outside he has little strength.

The only name heard on the democratic side of the house is that of I. Shawan, of Denison, a young man who has gained some prominence in his party, and to whom honors will be given doubtless so soon as there are any honors to give.

The congressional race is not filled, though there are many talking of entering. It is generally conceded that George T. Wright, of this city, is an active candidate. Lieut. Gov. Manning is looked upon favorably as a quiet, dark candidate and one who will gather much strength, if he was an active one. Col. Sapp's name is also mentioned, he always having a strong hold on the district. B. F. Clayton and George Carson are among the possible candidates. The name of J. W. Chapman seems to have been wiped off the slates entirely, but may be re-written for a complimentary vote, or something of that sort.

It seems that the next convention will be made up of unpledged delegations, and that nearly every county will have one or more favorites in Cass county. Lafe Young and A. B. Churchill, both of Atlantic, are named. J. Y. Stone, of Glenwood, will probably be the candidate from Mills county. H. N. Moore, of Red Oak, is said to be expecting to enter the convention with the support of Montgomery and Mills county, and possibly Fremont county, but he is not looked on as having gained even that much of a start. From Harrison county, Hon. T. M. C. Logan, of Logan, will probably boom up strong. J. Fred Myers is talked of as the one whom Crawford county will seek to push to the front.

Major Anderson, who was so fearfully beaten by the disaffected republicans in the last campaign, is said to be preparing to enter the convention with as strong a following as possible, not to urge any interest of his own, but rather to punish, if possible, some of those who opposed him before, and stand there with a stuffed club to knock the life out of any and all schemes of his enemies, ambition seeming to have given away to revenge.

It is commonly talked that Congressman Pusey will be re-nominated by the democrats, and that he will accept unless the republicans agree on some strong candidate, who will be likely to defeat him. It seems conceded that Mr. Pusey will run again if as before he can be certain of winning. If not so sure he may decline.

PASTOR AND PEOPLE.

Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, of the Congregational Church, Offers His Resignation.

At the close of the regular services in the Congregational church yesterday morning the members of the church and congregation were called upon to remain for a few moments. The object proved to be to listen to the resignation of the pastor, Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, who for seven years has in his own modest spirit been a servant and in the feeling of the people a grand leader and teacher.

The resignation stated the reason as being his own feeling that the good of the church and the future success of the work demanded some other man, and those who know Mr. Hamlin cannot have a doubt but that in this he is actuated by a conscientious, unselfish nature, with manliness strong and frank enough to lead him to act upon his conviction of duty, however painful personally.

As Mr. Hamlin desired the resignation to go into effect August 1st, it was decided to call a meeting one week from this evening to consider the request.

Even the suggestion of a severance of the pastoral ties, by which Rev. Mr. Hamlin is kept a resident of this city, will cause much regret in the community at large.

No pastor was ever held in higher respect in the business and social circles of this city, and his removal would be a loss to Council Bluffs as well as to the church for which and with which he has labored so faithfully.

HOME AGAIN.

The Vaughn Hose Team Bring Back Brooms and Stuff and Prepared to Run With the Omaha Boys To-day.

Council Bluffs delegation to the tournament at Des Moines returned Saturday, including the Vaughn hose team which won so far a prize and so high an honor.

There has been so much talk about the Thurstons, of Omaha, as compared with the Council Bluffs hose team, that in order to test their relative merit and speed, a race has been arranged to take place at the driving park in this matter.

Changes in temperature are apt to occasion dangerous affections; in the full-blooded, apoplexy is to be feared. All both young and aged, should have Beardsley's Pills ready; they are never failing. When you have pain in the head, or dizziness, feverish, rheumatic, or otherwise affected, take from three to ten, according to bulk of individual.

LABOR AND LABORERS.

Woodbury county warrants are below par.

The corner stone of the new Methodist church at Emmetsburg was laid on Sunday.

The Oskaloosa Herald says that since May 1, 690 saloons in Iowa have voluntarily closed their doors.

The latest circus to advertise in north-western Iowa is called "Priest's Paris Pavilion and Majestic Consolidated Aggregation."

A bet of $500 has been made in Sioux City on the result of the presidential election, the parties being, on the democratic side a retired business man, and on the republican side two business men, who put up $250 each against the former's $500.

Living York, a twelve year old boy will receive a board moving freight train last Wednesday, missed his footing and fell under the wheels. His right arm was cut off at the shoulder. He died in a few hours.

Normal Hamilton, secretary of the Clayton county agricultural society, and a well-to-do farmer, suffering from mental depression, hung himself in his barn, nine miles from McGregor on the 10th. He was about 60 years of age, and leaves a large family of grown children.

The conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church in Iowa have just been announced, and are as follows: Upper Iowa will convene at Mason City, September 30, Bishop Bowman presiding; the Iowa conference at Ottumwa, September 17, Bishop Foster presiding; the Des Moines conference at Red Oak, September 17, and Northwestern Iowa at Spirit Lake, September 17, Bishop Andrews presiding. The Independent American, of Oreston, says: "If the democracy should have the wisdom to nominate Butler he would sweep the country like a cyclone."

Geo. E. Purrington, postmaster at Follert's station, fifteen miles west of Clinton, on the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern route, and proprietor of the only store there, suicided in Clinton on the 11th, while standing at the counter of Kindall & Co.'s store, by shooting himself through the heart.

The Crawford county bank again resumed business on the 10th. The bank has now an actual capital of $50,000 with a responsible capital of $100,000, thus making it one of the strongest banks in western Iowa.

The final dividend for the creditors of the Allen estate at Des Moines was made last week. It was the last remnant of the wreck and amounted to two and a half cents.

The Sioux City Journal, speaking of the crop prospect, says: "While the general opinion of reports from the corn shows that crop to be in excellent condition, with a more forward growth than last year by at least ten days, there are some complaints. The cut worms are working in some fields, and should the present dry weather last this post is likely to do considerable injury."

The ironworkers are confident there will be as much iron made this year as last; that the threats of closing down will never be repeated; that business will improve, and that the lowest prices have been reached.

Steel and iron manufacturers will be interested in the progress of the invention by which vapor fuel can be used at a great reduction on present methods.

Scrofula diseases manifest themselves in the warm weather. Hood's Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood, and removes every taint of scrofula.
