MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's Spring Goods. The cigar auction store now quits and moves out of town.

A team went into the mud clear up to their bodies yesterday by De Vol & Wright's store.

The C. B. & Q. track on Main street is being raised and stoned placed under the ties preparatory to paving.

Harry Thompson was before Justice Abbott yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace of Mrs. Billings' boarding house.

Mr. Dave Friedman has renewed his business relations with his brother, and now looks after the office, vice Mr. F. C. Breneman, who has accepted a position on the Herald.

There were seventy-four persons noticed taking life easy at one time Sunday afternoon in Baylis' park.

The seven plead--es, Wm. Bolin, Dave McCoy, H. W. Ison, John Hays, Jim Sheridan, Mollie Murray and Cramer, all pleaded guilty yesterday to being drunk, and were assessed the usual $7.00 each.

Several small boys were yesterday arrested for stealing cherries from George R. Beard's orchard.

Complaint is heard of the unfinished way in which some of the streets are left, they being partly filled on one side, and in spots and other portions left at the old grade.

John Sharp had some sort of a horse trade with James Olson. Sharp claims that Olson was to give him a watch and $5.

The war of the races opened up Sunday among some children returning from Sunday school.

William Powers, who is in the baggage-room at the transfer, has again been called to mourn.

There has been much anxiety felt by owners of brick houses as to how they could have them raised to grade.

FLYING FERGUSON.

The Mayor's Private Secretary Arrested at Lincoln.

He Now Regrets His Action.

As stated in yesterday morning's Bee, Alfred Ferguson, the young man who has been in Mayor Vaughan's office, skipped out on Saturday for parts unknown.

Mayor Vaughan returning Saturday night was informed of the action of his "faithful secretary," and began telegraphing to Denver and other places to head the young man off.

Young Ferguson is about twenty-two years of age. He is an orphan boy, who was sent out here from New York with a number of other boys for whom homes in the west had been found by the charitable institution having them in charge.

Yesterday Mr. Vaughan received a letter from young Ferguson dated at Omaha. In this letter the private secretary expresses great repentance and says that he got to gambling, and in this way lost $55 which he took from the safe in the office, it being the amount of money collected for old fees, etc., during his employer's absence.

What is to become of the girl does not seem so apparent. No one seems to know whether Ferguson has married her or not.

Ferguson is said to have numerous creditors here, and it will take him some time to work himself out at $1.50 a day, in accordance with Vaughan's plan.
